

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1898.

VOL. 62. NO. 40.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

The Quincy Patriot.
Established in 1837.
PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,
[FORMERLY GREEN & PRESCOTT]
Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.
[A reduction of fifty cents will be made when paid in advance.]
Quincy Daily Ledger.
The Only Daily in the City in Norfolk County. Established in 1889.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.
[A reduction of $1 will be made when paid in advance.]

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF THE Brain Observer.
A Weekly Established in 1878.
OFFICE, No. 115 HANCOCK STREET.

JENNIE HOCKING HUNT,
TEACHER OF
Organ, Piano and Harmony,
13 Bigelow Street, Quincy.
Quincy, Sept. 24. 2m

HERBERT A. HAYDEN,
PIANO TUNER.
Pettengill's Jewelry Store,
126 Hancock Street,
Quincy, Mass.
April 23. 6m

DR. C. T. SHERMAN
DENTIST.
Rooms 5 and 6, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours, 8 to 12, 1 to 5.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
SPECIALIST, ORTHODONTIA,
REMOVED TO
No. 7 Temple Place,
New Bedford Building, Boston.
Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 1 P. M.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL PELHAM—Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain with
the "BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR." DEBILITATING, NO PAIN.
At Quincy office, Franklin's Building,
WEDNESDAYS.
At Lowell Mondays and Tuesdays.
At New Bedford Fridays and Saturdays.
July 28. 1f

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST.
Corner Newport and Grand View Avenues,
Wollaston.
Office hours—8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.
May 29. 1f

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D., Physician and Surgeon.
Eye and Ear.
203 Boston Avenue, Boston.
Quincy—Monday and Tuesday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock St., Quincy.
May 21. 1f

MANICURE PARLORS.
MISS MARTHA J. FROGS,
Pupil of Miss May.
Has opened a Manicure Parlor for Ladies and Gentlemen at Room 3, Savings Bank Building, Maine, 50c; and 20c. Mole and Wart removed safely and permanently, $1.00 each.
Superior hair removed by Electrolysis. Facial massage, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50.
Will give residence by appointment. Agent for Miss May's Toilet Articles.
Hours—8 A. M. to 6 P. M.
Aug. 13. 1f

MRS. H. H. HILL,
Chiropodist and Manicurist,
Bates Block, Saville St.,
Quincy, Mass.
Hours, 2 to 5, Afternoons, Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays.
Treatment at residence if desired.
Aug. 13. 3m

J. J. KENILEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.
NO. 9 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.
In office formerly occupied by the Citizen's
Gas Light Company.
P. O. Box 808. 1f

D. C. NELSON,
House, Sign and Carriage
PAINTING.
Estimates furnished.
32 Atlantic Street, - Atlantic.
June 12. 1f

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.
Office and residence, corner of Canal and Mechanic Streets.
Quincy, Feb. 6. 1f

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 Hancock Street.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
ROBES AND HABITS.
Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes to attract attention to the wants of all callers to merit a share of patronage.

JOHN HALL,
Quincy, Mass. 10. 1f

Ideal for Summer Coal.
RED ASH
NUT COAL.
PRICES REDUCED.
It is a very deep Red Ash, and free burning, which together with the fact that it is freshly mined, makes it the ideal coal for summer use.
Yours for Trial,
C. PATCH & SON.

H. T. WHITMAN,
Civil Engineer
—AND—
SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING - QUINCY
Boston Office, 12 to 2 P. M.
Hours, 12 to 2 P. M.
N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate in the City of Quincy can be found at my office, May 28. 1f

PERRY LAWTON,
CIVIL ENGINEER
—AND—
SURVEYOR.
Savings Bank Building, Quincy.
May 7. 1f

W. W. JENNESS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
87 Milk St., Boston, Mass.
Office Hours, 10 to 12 P. M., Boston 39.
Quincy Office, Adams Building.
Office Hours: 10 to 12 A. M.; 6 to 9 P. M.
Quincy, May 26. 1f

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW,
HURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
2 1/2 Saturdays, at the office of COTTER &
KENNY, 200 Washington Street,
August 11. 1f

JULIUS JOHNSON,
Carpenter, & Contractor
—AND—
BUILDER.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
NO. 64 CENTRE ST., QUINCY, MASS.
June 19. 1y

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
PEARL STREET,
SOUTH QUINCY.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
HANCOCK COURT, - QUINCY, MASS.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S
QUINCY AND BOSTON EXPRESS.
BOSTON OFFICE: 129 Kingston Street, 96 Arch
Street, Order Box 10, Faneuil Hall square.
Quincy Office: Chestnut Street, Order
Boxes, Quincy depot, Q. & B. St. R. R. Building, C. E. Miller's, Post Office Store.
South Quincy—Quincy Adams depot, 66
Quincy street, and Burns store.
West Quincy—Kimball's store and depot.
Leave Quincy 9 and 10 A. M. Leave Boston
1:30 and 3 P. M.
6. M. MILLER, General Manager.
Furniture and Pianos moved and stored.
Light and heavy teaming.
P. O. address, Lock Box 3, Quincy. Telephone, 238-4, Quincy.

Granite Firms.
CAREY BROTHERS.
Dealers and Manufacturers of Polished and Monumental Granite, Marble, and Sassaparilla, Willard St., West Quincy.

LEWIS DELL & CO.,
Medium dark blue Quincy Granite for Monumental and Cemetery Work. Quarry off Quarry Street, Quincy, Mass.

LONG & SAUNDERS.
Fine Monumental Work from American and Foreign Granite and Marble. Latest design.
Superior workmanship. Works, South Quincy.
Branch, Stoughton, Mass.

MILNE & CHAMBERS.
Monumental and Cemetery Work of every description. Works near Quincy Adams Depot.
P. O. address, Quincy, Mass. Branch Office, 21 West Main St., North Adams.

JOSS BROTHERS.
Monumental Granite Works; Garland Street, Quincy. Best of stock and workmanship guaranteed. All orders promptly filled.

SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Building and Bridge work. Quarry on Quarry Road. Post-office address, West Quincy, Mass.

O. T. ROGERS GRANITE CO.,
Successors to O. T. Rogers & Co. M. P.
Wright, Gen'l Manager: W. T. Babcock, Treas.
Building and Monumental Granite Cemetery work a specialty. P. O. W. Quincy.

EADGER BROTHERS.
Granite, Marble and Medals.
Monumental Work of all Descriptions; elegant Ashland Quarry for sale. West Quincy.

THOMAS F. BURKE & BROS., Manufacturers of Monuments and every description of Cemetery Work. Office and Works, Willard St., West Quincy.

THOMAS & MILLER.
Manufacturers of Monumental and Cemetery
Work and Statuary. P. O. address, Quincy Branch Office, 18 Lake Ave., Saratoga, N. Y.

MERRY MOUNT GRANITE CO.
Incorporated 1881. Manufacturers and Dealers in Monumental and Cemetery Work. Works near Quincy Adams station, Quincy.

MCGRAW BROS.,
Large stock of Finished Monuments and Tablets constantly on hand. Works at Quincy Adams Station, Quincy.

FULLER, FOLEY & CO., Granite Monuments and Dealers. Works opposite West Quincy Depot.

Furniture
Reupholstered.
The increase of business in our upholstery department necessitates the adding of additional skilled upholsters.
We are now well prepared to attend to your work and give it prompt attention.
Furniture reupholstered. Carpets taken up, cleaned and re-laid. Window Shades to order. Mattresses made over.
Men of experience only.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

Shawmut Spring Water
IS THE WATER OF LIFE.
SOFT, PURE, SPARKLING, HEALTHFUL AND INVIGORATING.
Highly recommended by the Medical Profession for Medicinal and Drinking Purposes.

Thousands of people testify to the purity and curative properties of this water.
It is clear, sparkling,
and of uniform temperature at all seasons of the year.
It is the safest and best source of supply for all domestic and drinking purposes.

Nothing is of more importance than that the water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic matter, impurities, lime and chlorine gases.
As a regulator and curative agent, it restores the digestive organs to healthy action.

Hundreds of unsolicited testimonials are evidence of its medicinal value and agreeable drinking quality.
Delivered in any quantity, either in 5 gallon carboys at 5 cents per gallon, or closed cases containing 12 two-quart bottles at 60 cents per case.
Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

FRANK A. LOCKE,
PIANO TUNER.

JOHN F. KEMP,
MACHINIST.
Lawn Mowers Sharpened.
82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.
Sept 19. 1f

DAVID BROWN,
HORSE SHOEING,
Carriage Work and General Jobbing.
ARLINGTON STREET - WOLLASTON
Sav. 9. 1f

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting and
all branches will receive prompt attention.
RESIDENCE, QUINCY AVENUE.
All work executed in a workmanlike
manner.
March 12. 1f

1898.
BRADLEY'S
Unexcelled Fertilizer
For Lawn and Garden.
A. J. Richards & Son,
QUINCY GRAIN STORE.

WALL PAPER.
The largest stock of Papers and Mouldings outside of Boston.
GOOD PAPER, 5c. A ROLL.
Window Shades made to order. Good Paper Hanger furnished at short notice.
F. T. APPLETON,
8 Faxon's Block, Quincy, Mass.
Connected by Telephone,
Feb 1 only. Aug 16-pif

THOMAS O'BRIEN & SONS,
West St., West Quincy.

S. SCAMMELL,
WHEELWRIGHT,
Carriage Builder
—AND—PAINTER.
ALSO HORSE SHOEING AND JOBBING
BY FIRST-CLASS WORKMEN.
All orders promptly attended to and faithfully
executed.
Thankful for past favors, a liberal share of
patronage is solicited.

Shop Quincy Ave.

Poetry.

Autumn Days—Folded Away.

The year is always busy at tidying up the world,
And laying by the seasons so thick with memories piled;
And now his time's devoted to folding up the days and
And shutting out the summer scenes forever from our gaze.
And then they'll be packed away in Time's
most solemn trust,
To lie until the mists of years shall smother them to dust.

You know we cannot of the woods save every tree that grows,
But we can press some crimson leaves to lock at through the snows;
So we may have some memories and loving thoughts enshrined,
Of moments gathered from the days of our life-
march left behind;
And when the colds of winter o'er our weary thoughts descend,
The angel of our thoughts will bring such memories bright again.

The curtain of the summer is falling o'er the scene
Of lake-side walks, or arbor talks, of picnics on the green,
The yachting tows, the forest strolls, the drives through rain and mire,
The songs and stories of the camp around the blazing fire.
The saddest version of Love's Dream, with many a whispered vow, Like grasses crystallized, are worth a double value now.

So while the autumn's magic touch is changing green to gold,
An old year gently wrapping up the blossoms
from the cold,
We're bidding from the fading days some memories to hold,
And coming years shall find your dream still fresh in every fold.

Miscellaneous.

AT THE END OF THE ROAD.

"They ain't to know a thing about it unless they mistrust. It's to be a real surprise," said Lou Harlow, poising herself, like one about to take flight, in the doorway of Mrs. Green's kitchen. "You must come, Miss Green."
"I will do you good to get out. You're too late. I've just been told that you if you don't come. She'll want to see her near neighbors, if nobody else is there. Get 'Rastus' to bring you down."

Mrs. Green set the teapot further back on the stove and murmured an indefinite "H'm." The milk-houses door opened with a rattle of pails.
Lou's eyes turned slightly in that direction as she talked on persistently.
"Brother Ed was going to stop yesterday and invite you, but he had to go another way. I stopped in now.
I'm rather late to be giving invitations. I know; but it's all been planned in such a hurry that we are out and out flustered. I thought, too, that I might stir you up to coming better than Ed could. It does seem too bad not to have all of folks at a wedding surprise party."

Everybody to be something else side refreshments, you know. I've the cutest little oatmeal cooker that I got at the five-cent store in the city, and I shall take that. Well, I won't hinder you any longer about your supper.
Goodbye. Now do come if you can.
Goodbye."

The kitchen door timed its closing with mathematical accuracy to the issuing of a young man from the milk-house. Through the window Mrs.
Green saw Lou's innocent surprise start and could not help but the bit of talk that followed was inadvisable to her. She felt certain, however, that it was about the surprise party.

"If those Harlows ain't managin' it was her mental comment. "But I'll take 'em in a pretty puttin' on to make 'em one mile engagin' to 'Rastus, I guess."

"Lou Harlow is presently, and after washing at the sink, sat down to write. He was thin and not over tall, with a vivid boyish complexion and a chin like his mother's, marked by a decision that almost severe coldness of grey blue eyes accentuated. It was only when 'Rastus' smiled that one knew how winning his face could be.

"Lou Harlow stopped in to ask me to a tin wedding surprise at her brother Will's. Probably she mentioned it to you," said Mrs. Green, as she poured the tea. "I shall have to carry something in the shape of tin.
I wonder if the dipper I got of that peddler last week won't do. I took it for rags. They do pay so little for rags
now. I declare it's hardly worth savin' 'em. If it hadn't been for them old ornaments of yours I shouldn't have ought enough to get this dipper."

"The quick bright smile flashed over
'Rastus' face.
"Better carry a pan or something of that kind."
His mother took the suggestion as profoundly serious.

"I haven't one I could spare. Can't we stop for the Blake girls, 'Rastus'?"
They like to get out, and it's rather far for 'em to walk now they're fallin'."
I declare it goes to my heart to see poor Miss Betsy so meechin' lately.
She doesn't seem to know what her things is to make her comfortable, when last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when
last Sunday 'twas all I could do to keep
my mind on the sermon for wantin'
to straighten her false front. 'Twas
twisted so the parin' was over one
eye. And it's real pathetic to see Miss Harriet, bavin' about her sister and
huskin' to make her comfortable, when last Sunday 'twas all I could

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1898.

Meade-Nightingale.

The marriage of Mr. George Palmer Meade and Miss Nellie Florence Nightingale was solemnized Wednesday evening at quarter past seven at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Elmer Channing Butler, pastor of the First Unitarian church, in the presence of only the immediate families.

Miss Ada M. Nightingale, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Katharine Stearns, the little six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Stearns of Ashmont, was the flower girl. She was dressed all in pink and looked like a little fairy. Mr. Peter H. Mead, brother of the groom was best man.

At eight o'clock a large reception was given, which was attended by several hundred, there being a steady stream of guests from eight until ten. Mr. and Mrs. Meade were assisted in receiving by the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Nightingale, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Freeman Hall of North Adams. Mr. and Mrs. Hall formerly lived at the Point and are well known to many. Mrs. Hall is a sister of the groom and daughter of the late Peter H. Mead.

Mr. J. Warren Nightingale, Mr. Charles W. Nightingale, Mr. George W. Nightingale, brothers of the bride, and Mr. Harry M. Spring of Boston introduced the guests.

The wedding march and music for the reception was furnished by an orchestra. A sumptuous wedding supper was served. The bride was very well possessed and never looked prettier, her white bridal robe and veil being most becoming. She carried a large bouquet of white roses.

If the old sign is true that the bride shall be happy that the sun shines on, what a bright future is foretold for this bride pair, for Wednesday was an ideal day and the evening so glorious as to be almost bewitching.

The Nightingale household seems especially adapted for weddings and large parties, the house is so large and roomy, one room leading from another in such a way as to never seem overcrowded, even when the house is full.

In an upper room was a large and valuable display of gifts of cut glass, silver, china, pictures and bric-a-brac, besides several chests and pieces of furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Mead left after the reception for a wedding trip, and on their return will reside at 251 Washington street, Quincy Point, where they will receive their friends after November first.

Adams Chapter Entertained.

Although very stormy and windy on Saturday afternoon several members of Adams Chapter, D. R. E. Club, of the Revolution, braved the elements and responded to their recent invitation to an outing at Squantum Inn. A hospitable welcome awaited them. Mr. Lee received the guests at the door and ushered them into the presence of Mrs. Nelson V. Titus, who received all in her usual cordial, hearty manner.

A bright fire in the big fireplace added its warmth and cheerfulness to the hostess' greeting, and soon chairs were drawn up in a big circle around the fire and all were chatting and feeling very much at home.

The fireplace in the large hall at Squantum Inn is one of its prettiest features. The chimney is of large cobble stones, cemented symmetrically and above the head mantle in the centre is an arch in which is a large bronze head of Squanto, the Indian from whom Squantum is named.

A dainty lunch such as Lee always serves, and for which he has become so well known to Bostonians, was served in the large dining hall, consisting of hot escalloped oysters, dainty sandwiches, ices, cake, coffee and chocolate. After an inspection of the Inn by the ladies, as it was new to most of them, a return was made to the fire, all being full of praise for the Inn, its view, its fine rooms and conveniences.

In the glow of the fireplace, chapter work for the coming season was vigorously discussed and many plans made for future meetings, furnishing the John Adams birthplace, and entertainments. So enjoyable was the occasion that all were loath to leave, but electricity are like time and tide so at five o'clock all departed for their homes.

Hospital Aid Association.

At the meeting of the Hospital Aid Association, Thursday afternoon, it was voted to make a house to house canvass for the benefit of the association. We have all been besieged by the endless chain letters, but in this case we are simply asking fourteen cents from each house without any further trouble.

The association has had no entertainment for three cars and takes this means of replenishing its treasury. If each household should give ten cents it will amount to several hundred dollars and surely every one could give so small a sum.

Holden-Rowell.

At the residence of Rev. L. B. Hatch, at Whitman, Tuesday, Mr. Arthur F. Holden of Greenfield, Mass., and Miss Mabel Rowell of Greenfield formerly of Braintree were married. They then journeyed to Quincy where a pleasant evening was spent at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. D. A. Newcomb after which the happy couple departed on their wedding tour with Washington, D. C., as their main point of destination. On their return they will reside at 115 Hayward street, Greenfield, where they will be at home to receive their friends after Oct. 15, in their beautiful new residence which has just been completed.

For the Dandy Fifth.

There was a box of dainties and canned goods, contributed by the friends of Co. K, Fifth Massachusetts Infantry, U. S. V., now stationed at Camp Meade, Pennsylvania, sent by express, by the Volunteer Aid Association Wednesday, valued at $25.00. A barrel filled with canned goods valued at $10.00, was also sent Wednesday, Sept. 21, to the boys at Camp Meade by the local branch of the Massachusetts Volunteer Aid Association.

High School Notes.

One hundred and six pupils are preparing at the Quincy High school for higher institutions including Harvard, Radcliffe, Boston University, Wellesley, Smith, Lawrence Scientific school, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Bridgewater Normal, Boston Normal, and Tufts, Oberlin, etc.

Miss Miriam B. Lane of the Quincy High school, will read a paper on "The Value of Local History in Training for Citizenship," at the annual convention of the teachers of Norfolk County, October 21.

CITY BRIEFS.

"Was the little fly that died. Undoubtedly the fly. With his little proboscis He poked that and this And made the soldier die. That wicked little fly."

Brooklyn fair next week. Most time to hear from the People's cause.

John W. Walsh and John Ross are in New York on a vacation trip. William Dittson who has been on the Prairie is home on a furlough.

The summer residents of Germantown are returning to the city. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Tisdale have returned from their farm in Maine.

Rev. W. W. Dornan will soon give an illustrated lecture on Burns, the poet.

The new house of Dr. Hunting is being connected with the sewerage system.

John W. Walsh and John Ross have gone on a ramble through upper New York state.

Joseph W. Johnson, Dr. Doble and A. H. Doble have gone for a gunning trip in Maine.

William Barkley, Jr., of Barkley Bros., of Barry, Vt., has returned from a visit to friends in Quincy.

The City Council did not meet this week, the next regular meeting being the first Monday in October.

The Democratic City Committee have secured headquarters for the present at the Hancock house.

The illumination caused by the fire at Bradley's superphosphate works on Wednesday night was seen for miles.

A large gang of men are at work tunnelling under Hancock street, just north of Carritt street, for a section of the Wollaston pipe sewer.

Rev. Elmer Channing Butler will preach on Sunday, at the First church. It will be his first sermon since his return from Europe.

Hughes Neck has commenced to put on its winter appearance, and what few summer residents remain will take their departure very soon.

Miss Agnes Hayward of Braintree, well known as a successful teacher of dancing, will open a class for children, at Colonial hall, early in October.

John W. Higgins attended on Tuesday the funeral of Corp. Henry Higgins, of Amesbury, who was a member of Co. B, Eighth regiment.

Hon. William A. Hodges left this week for a visit at Camp Meade, Pennsylvania; his son Frank being a member of Co. K, Fifth Massachusetts.

It was not an accident, but it might be interesting to note, that the first to enter the new sewer was the well known plumbing concern of G. B. Bates.

Miss May Gould of Newcomb street has returned from her trip to Maine. Miss Gould is an expert rider on the wheel and took it with her on her vacation.

Sunday was even colder than Saturday, and the coldest day since May. Mr. Lee received the guests at the door and ushered them into the presence of Mrs. Nelson V. Titus, who received all in her usual cordial, hearty manner.

A bright fire in the big fireplace added its warmth and cheerfulness to the hostess' greeting, and soon chairs were drawn up in a big circle around the fire and all were chatting and feeling very much at home.

The fireplace in the large hall at Squantum Inn is one of its prettiest features. The chimney is of large cobble stones, cemented symmetrically and above the head mantle in the centre is an arch in which is a large bronze head of Squanto, the Indian from whom Squantum is named.

A dainty lunch such as Lee always serves, and for which he has become so well known to Bostonians, was served in the large dining hall, consisting of hot escalloped oysters, dainty sandwiches, ices, cake, coffee and chocolate. After an inspection of the Inn by the ladies, as it was new to most of them, a return was made to the fire, all being full of praise for the Inn, its view, its fine rooms and conveniences.

In the glow of the fireplace, chapter work for the coming season was vigorously discussed and many plans made for future meetings, furnishing the John Adams birthplace, and entertainments. So enjoyable was the occasion that all were loath to leave, but electricity are like time and tide so at five o'clock all departed for their homes.

At the meeting of the Hospital Aid Association, Thursday afternoon, it was voted to make a house to house canvass for the benefit of the association. We have all been besieged by the endless chain letters, but in this case we are simply asking fourteen cents from each house without any further trouble.

The association has had no entertainment for three cars and takes this means of replenishing its treasury. If each household should give ten cents it will amount to several hundred dollars and surely every one could give so small a sum.

At the residence of Rev. L. B. Hatch, at Whitman, Tuesday, Mr. Arthur F. Holden of Greenfield, Mass., and Miss Mabel Rowell of Greenfield formerly of Braintree were married. They then journeyed to Quincy where a pleasant evening was spent at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. D. A. Newcomb after which the happy couple departed on their wedding tour with Washington, D. C., as their main point of destination. On their return they will reside at 115 Hayward street, Greenfield, where they will be at home to receive their friends after Oct. 15, in their beautiful new residence which has just been completed.

For the Dandy Fifth. There was a box of dainties and canned goods, contributed by the friends of Co. K, Fifth Massachusetts Infantry, U. S. V., now stationed at Camp Meade, Pennsylvania, sent by express, by the Volunteer Aid Association Wednesday, valued at $25.00. A barrel filled with canned goods valued at $10.00, was also sent Wednesday, Sept. 21, to the boys at Camp Meade by the local branch of the Massachusetts Volunteer Aid Association.

High School Notes. One hundred and six pupils are preparing at the Quincy High school for higher institutions including Harvard, Radcliffe, Boston University, Wellesley, Smith, Lawrence Scientific school, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Bridgewater Normal, Boston Normal, and Tufts, Oberlin, etc.

Miss Miriam B. Lane of the Quincy High school, will read a paper on "The Value of Local History in Training for Citizenship," at the annual convention of the teachers of Norfolk County, October 21.

At the residence of Rev. L. B. Hatch, at Whitman, Tuesday, Mr. Arthur F. Holden of Greenfield, Mass., and Miss Mabel Rowell of Greenfield formerly of Braintree were married. They then journeyed to Quincy where a pleasant evening was spent at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. D. A. Newcomb after which the happy couple departed on their wedding tour with Washington, D. C., as their main point of destination. On their return they will reside at 115 Hayward street, Greenfield, where they will be at home to receive their friends after Oct. 15, in their beautiful new residence which has just been completed.

For the Dandy Fifth. There was a box of dainties and canned goods, contributed by the friends of Co. K, Fifth Massachusetts Infantry, U. S. V., now stationed at Camp Meade, Pennsylvania, sent by express, by the Volunteer Aid Association Wednesday, valued at $25.00. A barrel filled with canned goods valued at $10.00, was also sent Wednesday, Sept. 21, to the boys at Camp Meade by the local branch of the Massachusetts Volunteer Aid Association.

High School Notes. One hundred and six pupils are preparing at the Quincy High school for higher institutions including Harvard, Radcliffe, Boston University, Wellesley, Smith, Lawrence Scientific school, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Bridgewater Normal, Boston Normal, and Tufts, Oberlin, etc.

Yesterday was the hottest day since Monday, Sept. 10.

John W. Harkins has returned to Harvard Medical school, Boston.

Eight ballot counters for use at the State election have arrived at City Hall.

The roads are again dry and Thursday was an ideal day out doors for the bicyclists.

The firemen's muster at Weymouth on Thursday attracted a large number from Quincy.

Jennie Hocking Hunt has accepted the position as organist and chorister of Bethany church.

The curbing on the west side of Hancock street, between Dinwiddie and Saville streets is being reset.

The High school boys were practicing foot ball Monday on the park. Head Master Tupper was an eye witness.

The engagement is announced of Mr. Walter H. Hersey of Coddington street to Miss Grace D. Inman of Dennistown.

Chas. H. Howland was elected on the executive committee of the Massachusetts Mutual Fire Insurance Union in Boston on Wednesday.

The clerks at City Hall have had their last Saturday half holiday for this year. The banks have also ceased to close at noon Saturdays.

Thursday night seems to be a theatre night in Quincy. At least sixteen young people went to different theatres in Boston that night this week.

The Tenth signal corps mustered in Boston, of which Henry W. Sprague, of Quincy is lieutenant, will be mustered out after 60 days' furlough.

Henry P. Fernald has resigned as secretary of the Ward One Republican Committee and John McKnight has been elected to fill the vacancy.

Mr. F. P. Baker and wife of Webster returned from the Universalist convention at Salem, Mass., and Mrs. K. W. Preble, making them a visit.

At Faxon hall Sunday the Jewish day of Atonement was observed and all day Monday with brief intermission the services of Sunday were continued.

Lieut. Sprague of the 10th U. S. Signal Corps is much improved in health. His company is in Huntsville, Ala., and his furlough has nearly expired.

The annual meeting of the Fragment society will be held in the Unitarian chapel, Wednesday, Oct. 5th, at three o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Ex-Mayor Charles Francis Adams, 2d, treasurer of Harvard college, has been elected Director of the Old Boston National Bank, vice H. W. Pickering, deceased.

The Quincy Yacht club's large float was hauled out last week, and Friday morning the small float and wharf were taken up. The club house goes out of commission today.

Edward B. Marsh rode from Stoughton this week on his wheel in just 50 minutes. As the road is none too good out from Stoughton, this is considered good time.

Last week, Wednesday, parties unknown, entered the hall at the Green leaf and stole a lady's bicycle. The theft was not reported to the police, how ever, until this week.

William Pray, who has been in town three years and who was in Iowa, at Santiago, is visiting at Isaac M. Holt's. The aged publisher, from Mr. Pray, who is a nephew of Mr. Holt.

The express rates between Quincy and Camp Meade are much higher than usual, for the charges on two small kegs sent recently to camp from Quincy were over $5 although a reduction of one dollar was made later.

The new carrier allowed Quincy by the postoffice department will go on duty today, and will be James H. Copland, who receives the appointment by virtue of his being the senior sub-carrier.

Temple street headquarters for the loading and unloading of mail bags to and from Weymouth via electric cars. They are carried through the arch in Adams building to the post office.

A horse driven by Mrs. John T. Cavanaugh left in City Square, Tuesday, and in doing so threw Mrs. Cavanaugh's little daughter out of the carriage. The little one received a cut over the left eye.

A four foot annunciator has been placed in the police station which has been connected electrically with the four banks of the city, so that aid may be summoned at any time. The work was done by Electrician Beckford.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Packard entertained a party of about twenty on Wednesday evening, during which Mr. Edward Hardwick gave several selections with his phonograph, which was much enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Merrill issued this week a notice to the marriage of their daughter, May, and Mr. Arthur Williams Hall, son of City Auditor and Mrs. John O. Hall, the ceremony to be performed on Tuesday evening, October the eleventh, at eight o'clock, at Bethany Congregational church, followed by a reception at their home, 5 Washington street.

The weather has been fine this week, and the attendance at the Universalist convention at Salem has been very large; and the meetings were interesting and profitable. Mrs. Hattie A. Lombard and Mrs. Joseph T. French were delegates from Quincy to the convention. Mrs. Arthur Merritt and Miss Addie G. Holton were delegates to the Young People's Christian Union on Friday, at the same place.

A civil service examination of applicants for the position of water inspector will be held in Quincy at an early date. Citizens of the United States who have been residents of Massachusetts for the past year, and of Quincy for the six months last past, have a right to apply. Blank applications may be obtained of Christopher A. Spear, Secretary of the Board of Examiners.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Perry of 4 Johnson avenue have sent out invitations to the wedding reception of their daughter, Addie Florence, and Mr. Edward Warren Hayden for Tuesday evening, October eleventh, from eight until ten. Mr. Hayden is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Hayden of Howard avenue, Quincy Neck. He is a civil engineer and surveyor and has a good business in Worcester, where the young people are to reside.

Miss Corlew's classes in dancing and deportment will open next week in Quincy. Those for beginners at a 10 o'clock session, for advanced pupils at 4 P. M. Wednesday, and an advance class for young people at 7 P. M. on Wednesday. The indications are that this popular teacher will have larger classes than ever, and this is not surprising after the proficiency at the recent reception given at Music hall last spring.

ATLANTIC.

The Bally day at the Atlantic Methodist church promises to be of special interest this year, as a speaker of very marked ability has been secured, Dr. A. A. Wright of Auburn, Maine. Dr. Wright is dean of the Boston Correspondence school, but is much more than a scholar. His pulpit ability is quite as marked as his scholarly attainments. None of the Atlantic people can afford to miss hearing this man. The service begins at 10.35. Special music has been prepared and a good time generally is expected.

George Briggs is in New York for a few days.

Edward Newcomb of Olive street, who has been ill some time, passed away at one of the Boston hospitals Sunday, at noon.

The bakery near the Atlantic station has closed.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosedale and daughter, Majorie, are at the Wilson farm.

Quartermaster Sergeant Bowlen of Co. E, Ninth Regiment, has been at his home in Atlantic, this week.

Frank Allen of the naval reserves, who has been serving on the Prairie, is at his home in Atlantic, on a furlough.

The Buckley family, who have had the large fruit house on the hill at Squantum all summer, returned to their home in Dorchester, on Tuesday.

Sunsets are being booked in large numbers off Atlantic.

L. D. Gurney is in Maine on a brief vacation trip.

William Sullivan is the new clerk at T. Gurney's store.

A party of young ladies from Atlantic went to see Chauncey Olcott Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Livingston returned Thursday, from a brief visit in Weymouth.

Atlantic people appreciate the through cars to Neponset bridge.

Most all the summer residents of Squantum have returned to their city homes.

Mr. Colby of Montclair has moved to Dorchester.

Mr. John Woods has returned from Portland, Oregon.

Rev. J. H. Whitaker will preach Sunday on "The Morality of Plun Sunday."

There was a large sale of house lots at Squantum on Thursday, by L. L. P. Atwood of Boston. The day was charming and finer lots have seldom been offered. There was a good sized gathering yet the lots went quite reasonably. The boulevard is built to Squantum next summer, the lots were offered for double what was paid for them—six to twelve cents per foot. An excellent collection was served between 12 and 1 o'clock.

MILTON.

That portion of Milton in the vicinity of Mattapan will have postal delivery by two mounted carriers after Nov. 1. East Milton should have it from Quincy via Adams street.

The corner stone of the new church edifice of St. Michael's church at Milton was laid Thursday afternoon by Rt. Rev. Bishop Lawrence in the presence of a large gathering of the church people. There was music by the choir and address by Bishop Lawrence and others. The corner stone is of Quincy granite and was furnished by John Heuss of West Quincy.

The new edifice is located at the corner of North Russell street and Randolph street, and it is to be built of sap faced granite. In the rear of the church there is to be a rectory. The church is to cost $17,000 and the rectory $7,000 and when completed it will make an imposing appearance. Church services are now held in Associates' hall.

Boys are wanted to sing in the choir of the Mission of Our Saviour church. This is an excellent opportunity to obtain a musical education free of expense. Applicants should apply at Ellsworth hall, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Bally day was observed last Sunday at the Congregational and Baptist churches.

Miss Mabel Buck has returned from a five weeks' visit to Bangor, Me.

Beginning on Sunday, Oct. 2, the services at the Mission of Our Saviour, Ellsworth hall, will be as follows: Morning prayer 10.30, followed by Sunday School. Evening prayer and sermon 7.00.

Co. K. Benefit.

There was a large attendance Monday night at Hancock hall at the grand benefit concert and dance for Company K, 5th Massachusetts Regiment, which was given under the management of Gabriel A. Pelos. The concert which was held at 8 o'clock, was by the three Ross' sisters, who played the guitar and mandolin; Smith Bros. slack wire performers, Bergeron & Russia, club juggling, lantern twirling and lofty ground acrobatic feats; Robertson and Butler in an up-to-date amusing sketch introducing burlesque, in boxing and double bag punching; Mr. Sugro, black face comedian and Gabriel A. Pelos as a laughable clown. There was also a cake walk in which John Troop and John Flynn carried off the prize. At 10 o'clock, Oct. 2, the services at the Mission of Our Saviour, Ellsworth hall, will be as follows: Morning prayer 10.30, followed by Sunday School. Evening prayer and sermon 7.00.

From 10.30 to 2 o'clock there was general dancing, music being furnished by Mr. C. C. Bradford. The benefit will net something like $50.

Milton Delegates.

The only contest at the Milton Republican caucus Wednesday night was won out by Barrows, who had 90 votes. The delegates elected were: State—H. Clifford, Gallagher, William H. Weston, George B. Pierce, Albert A. Brackett, Edwin D. Wadsworth.

Councilor—C. Russell Hill, Jesse B. Baxter, George B. Pierce, William H. Weston, Edwin D. Wadsworth.

County and district officers—J. Walter Bradley, Arthur A. Hibbard, Fredrick D. Leslie, Alfred H. Crockett, Theodore T. Whitney, Senatorial—Horace E. Ward, Peter McIntyre, John Graham, Leonard E. Littlefield, Jesse B. Baxter.

Town committee—J. Walter Bradley, Arthur A. Hibbard, George B. Pierce, Jesse B. Baxter, John Swift, John Graham, George Y. Badger, C. Russell Hill, W. Newton Harlow.

Tennis Notes.

The Hittormest club will give a reception to C. W. Bates of Wollaston, this year's cup winner at the residence of Mr. Paul Nixon, Middle street, Braintree, this evening, from 8 to 10.30. A limited number of invitation have been extended to friends of the club.

WOLLASTON.

The Ladies' Aid Alliance of the Wollaston Unitarian church will meet in the vestry Wednesday, at 2 P. M.

Miss Anne Bent Chamberlin has returned to Wollaston from Washington where she has been spending the summer. Miss Chamberlin will live on St. James avenue, Boston, this winter.

L. W. Nash, real estate agent of Wollaston, has sold the Whittemore estate on Grand View avenue, consisting of 37,000 square feet of land and stable to Elizabeth C. Dow of Chicago, who buys for a residence and will build in the near future. This is one of the best sales of Wollaston land that has been recorded for a long time.

Mr. Frank P. Waterhouse's slightly residence on Lincoln avenue, Wollaston, is rapidly nearing completion.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Imogene Perry to Mr. Edwin Gannett, at the Wollaston Baptist church, Wednesday evening, Oct. 5th.

Rev. Preston Gurney preached at the Wollaston Baptist church Sunday morning. Mr. Gurney's text was taken from Psalm 135. The hymns were accepted opening anthem by the church quartette were written by Rudyard Kipling for the Queen's Jubilee.

The latest intelligence received from Harry R. Osgood of Wollaston, who is in the 17th U. S. Infantry at Manila, is that he is in excellent health and having a good time.

The Wollaston Golf club house was broken into on Monday night and golf balls and sticks to the amount of $40 were stolen. The break was effected by smashing a light of glass in a window and shoving back the catch. The burglar was one who was evidently familiar with the premises, as he devoted his entire attention to the professional player's locker, where a large quantity of balls were stored.

The locker door was forced by first breaking the padlock.

An endless chain has been started by one of the leading members of the Wollaston Unitarian society to liquidate the church debt of $4,200. It is figured that the chain extended in good order the sum of $55,000, would be a possibility.

Miss Grace Lord has resumed her teaching in the Bedford schools. Miss Lord is making a great success in her specialty, cooking.

The October number of Harper's Magazine contains a half page illustration of the destruction of the Japanese man of war "Lancefield" in the straits of Shimonomaki, Japan. She was commanded for some time by the late Captain Comfort Whiting, a faculty of the present secretary of the Quincy Yacht club. A short time ago the Quincy Magazine contained a lengthy illustrated article on this same engagement.

Miss Eva A. Dickey's sixth year of the Wollaston Kindergarten school, will begin October 5.

The Carrie E. Ruggles lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, of Wollaston, will give a supper on Monday evening at Odd Fellows' Hall.

Mr. Charles H. Hall of the Quincy Yacht club has sold the well known cat boat, "Ida J." to Messrs. Randolph and John Blairbridge of Wollaston.

A load of cartoon boxes was overturned at the corner of Hancock and Squantum streets Tuesday afternoon by the breaking of a axle.

It is reported that Mr. Sanborn, chief engineer at Moon Island, who resides on Faxon road, is to move to Boston.

An exceptionally pleasant party was given at the residence of Mr. Charles A. B. B. on Tuesday evening, the occasion being in honor of his son, Frank E. Bugbee, who returned to New York Wednesday, after a pleasant vacation of two weeks which was spent with his folks.

His many friends gathered early in the evening to enjoy the pleasure of his pleasing company for the last time for a year, as Mr. Bugbee's duties detain him in New York throughout the rest of the time.

The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner. Refreshments were served during the evening, and games, dancing, etc., were also indulged in. A jolly good time was had. Frank rendered many pleasing selections on the piano and a few vocal selections of his folks.

His many friends were very glad to see him depart so soon, as his vacation passed much too quickly for them all, but his duties called him.

The Wollaston Railroad Company has been improving its train service between Boston and the West, so that it now compares favorably with any. The new train The Continental Limited has no superior either in time or equipment. It takes only 22 hours 22 minutes between Boston and St. Louis, and 29 hours and 10 minutes between Boston and Chicago.

Send to the Wollaston Office, No. 5 State street, Boston, for map, or to engage berth.

It is now reported that the loss at the Bradley Fertilizer works will aggregate half a million dollars. The insurance was $245,000.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Want Always Bought.

Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson.

QUINCY POINT AND NECK.

A mail bag blew off one of the noon electric cars on Saturday in coming from Weymouth.

The cool weather has commenced to drive the smells up the river and some good catches are reported.

Commissioner Knowlton will soon commence work for the State Highway Commission building that part of Washington street between Chubbuck street and the Quincy Point bridge.

Mr. George Jackson of Howard street Quincy Neck, who has resided here a long time, will remove to Hingham to start a bakery.

A letter received Tuesday from W. W. Dunn of Quincy Point, who is attached to the Cincinnati, says that he is at the Marine hospital in Brooklyn, N.Y., suffering from muscular rheumatism but that he is improving.

A new granite wall is being laid between Pond and Mill streets.

Mr. A. L. Baldwin, who has a yacht at Weymouth, was out from Roxbury this week trying the smelts.

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Carpets and Upholstery

Our stock is by far the largest in Boston, and includes many private patterns obtainable nowhere else.

Our prices are always at the bottom of the market.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
658 Washington St., Boston.
(Opposite Bay State St.)

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

THE GLORIOUS AUTUMN

Has come and Nature will soon put on her most charming costume.

FALL MILLINERY

Has also a rival—an immense stock direct from New York. The latest styles, and the ladies can find all their hearts could wish for at the parlors of

E. B. COLLINS,
FAXON BLOCK, QUINCY.

Special Opening!

Flannelette Undergarments.

New Goods and Very Low Prices When the Quality is Considered.

These Goods are made for Men, Women and Children.

Call and Examine the Goods. You will Buy Them.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

FIELD & WILD, Dark Blue Quincy Granite

MONUMENTAL AND CEMETERY WORK OF ALL KINDS.

The superior qualities of our granites have long been recognized by the trade.

Quincy, Mass.

NATIONAL MT. WOLLASTON BANK.

REPORT of the condition of the NATIONAL MT. WOLLASTON BANK, at Quincy, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business, Sept. 20, 1898.

ASSETS.	LIABILITIES.
Loans and discounts, $312,051.67	Capital stock paid in, $150,000.00
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured, 2,300.00	Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid, 21,978.50
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation, 117,000.00	Notes of other National Banks, 115,250.00
Premiums on U. S. Bonds, 1,200.00	Notes of other National Banks, 3,000.00
Real estate and mortgages, 28,902.72	Individual deposits subject to check, 274,800.00
Due from approved reserve agents, 50,432.29	Legal tender notes, 7,600.00
Checks and other cash, 290.00	Certified checks, 500.00
Unpaid certificates of deposit, 2,900.00
Lawful money reserve in bank, 17,862.50
Reserve fund (5 p. c. of circulation), 6,187.50
Total, $609,280.50

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in, $150,000.00
Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid, 21,978.50
Notes of other National Banks, 115,250.00
Notes of other National Banks, 3,000.00
Individual deposits subject to check, 274,800.00
Legal tender notes, 7,600.00
Certified checks, 500.00
Total, $609,280.50

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss.
I, HORACE F. SPEAR, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

HORACE F. SPEAR, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 27th day of September, 1898.

GEORGE H. BROWN, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
HENRY M. FANON,
JOHN V. R. SPEAR,
GEORGE H. FIELD, Directors.
Oct. 1, 1w

NATIONAL GRANITE BANK.

REPORT of the condition of the NATIONAL GRANITE BANK, at Quincy, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business, September 20, 1898.

ASSETS.	LIABILITIES.
Loans and discounts, $452,280.33	Capital stock paid in, $150,000.00
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured, 7,334.81	Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid, 76,824.62
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation, 125,000.00	Notes of other National Banks, 110,700.00
Premiums on U. S. Bonds, 41,200.00	Notes of other National Banks, 3,213.00
Real estate and mortgages, 18,300.00	Individual deposits subject to check, 373,250.00
Due from approved reserve agents, 57,620.00	Legal tender notes, 11,541.41
Checks and other cash, 1,441.41	Certified checks, 281.00
Unpaid certificates of deposit, 11,541.41
Lawful money reserve in bank, 17,862.50
Reserve fund (5 p. c. of circulation), 21,978.50
Total, $772,686.52

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in, $150,000.00
Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid, 76,824.62
Notes of other National Banks, 110,700.00
Notes of other National Banks, 3,213.00
Individual deposits subject to check, 373,250.00
Legal tender notes, 11,541.41
Certified checks, 281.00
Total, $772,686.52

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss.
I, R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of September, 1898.

H. L. KINCAID, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
THEOPHILUS KING,
EDWIN W. MARSH,
CHAS. F. ADAMS, 2nd, Directors.
Oct. 1, 1w

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss.

I, R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of September, 1898.

H. L. KINCAID, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
THEOPHILUS KING,
EDWIN W. MARSH,
CHAS. F. ADAMS, 2nd, Directors.
Oct. 1, 1w

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss.

I, R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of September, 1898.

H. L. KINCAID, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
THEOPHILUS KING,
EDWIN W. MARSH,
CHAS. F. ADAMS, 2nd, Directors.
Oct. 1, 1w

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss.

I, R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of September, 1898.

H. L. KINCAID, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
THEOPHILUS KING,
EDWIN W. MARSH,
CHAS. F. ADAMS, 2nd, Directors.
Oct. 1, 1w

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss.

I, R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of September, 1898.

H. L. KINCAID, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
THEOPHILUS KING,
EDWIN W. MARSH,
CHAS. F. ADAMS, 2nd, Directors.
Oct. 1, 1w

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss.

I, R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of September, 1898.

H. L. KINCAID, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
THEOPHILUS KING,
EDWIN W. MARSH,
CHAS. F. ADAMS, 2nd, Directors.
Oct. 1, 1w

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss.

I, R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of September, 1898.

H. L. KINCAID, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:
THEOPHILUS KING,
EDWIN W. MARSH,
CHAS. F. ADAMS, 2nd, Directors.
Oct. 1, 1w

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1898.

WEEKLY RISES, SETS, MORN. RISES, MOON.

ALMANAC.	Rises.	Sets.	Morn. Rise.	Moon.
SATURDAY, Oct. 1.	5:41	5:20	12:00	5:50 P. M.
SUNDAY, Oct. 2.	5:42	5:21	12:01	6:29 P. M.
MONDAY, Oct. 3.	5:43	5:22	12:02	7:07 P. M.
TUESDAY, Oct. 4.	5:45	5:24	12:03	7:52 P. M.
WEDNESDAY, Oct. 5.	5:46	5:25	12:04	8:42 P. M.
THURSDAY, Oct. 6.	5:47	5:27	12:05	9:37 P. M.
FRIDAY, Oct. 7.	5:48	5:28	12:06	10:36 P. M.

[Last quarter Oct. 7, 1:05 P. M.]

Two Weeks' Temperature.

The mean temperature of the week taken at Pettengill's jewelry store, is compared below with that of last week and a year ago:

This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	1896.
Sunday	52	81	70
Monday	71	80	78
Tuesday	67	70	67
Wednesday	68	62	64
Thursday	70	71	65
Friday	75	72	68
Saturday	—	54	79

County Commissioner.

The suggestion of Representative James Thompson for County Commissioner, even at this late date, meets with favor. Mr. Thompson's three years in the Legislature have been upon prominent committees, two upon the Committee of Ways and Means, and he has been called upon to pass upon Norfolk County appropriations. As these have been under fire for five years they have been very carefully scrutinized and some reductions made. Mr. Thompson has served the city of Quincy several years in its City Council, for two or three years as president. He also stands high among the business men of Quincy, and while president of the Granite Manufacturers' Association was largely instrumental in averting an impending labor trouble.

He is a conservative yet progressive official, and would be the right man in the right place should he be elected on the board of Norfolk County Commissioners. The towns of Quincy, Weymouth, Braintree, Cohasset, Hingham and Randolph should have one of the members of the board, as they are on a different division of the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R., and include at least one-third of the population, valuation and voters of Norfolk County.

School Committee.

The regular meeting of the School Committee was held Tuesday evening with Messrs. Field, Pierce and Ash absent. The committee on adjusting the bounds at Whitwell and Adams street asked for further time, which was granted.

The Committee on Finance recommended that the teacher in the over-flow room at the Coddingham be paid a substitute's salary, instead of an assistant's salary, as long as she had charge of the room. The report was adopted.

The Superintendent was instructed to expend the interest of the Rock Island fund in purchasing reference books for the High School.

The matter of James Morrison attending the Coddingham school was referred to the chairman of that school and the Superintendent with full powers.

Nathaniel Churchill was elected of the over-flow room of the Quincy school in Music Hall.

An application was received from two young men from Weymouth and one from Braintree to attend the evening school. It was voted that they be allowed to attend and that their tuition be at the rate of $5 for fifty lessons.

Voted that the evening schools be opened on Monday, Oct. 24.

The Committee on Text Books recommended that Williams & Rogers' text books be adopted for the High School, and it was so voted.

The financial report was presented as follows:

Appropriation.	Expended.	Balance.
Salaries, $73,640.14	$119,338.28	$25,698.02
Fuel, 5,400.00	800.80	4,599.20
Janitors, 6,154.41	4,123.24	2,031.17
Entertainment, 1,000.00	500.10	499.90
Books, S. & S., 7,550.00	3,305.34	4,244.66
Evening schools, 1,250.00	491.03	758.97
Total, $95,000.00	$125,362.89	$39,637.11

Nason-Beaulieu.

At the home of her parents, Miss Exelis Beaulieu of West Quincy, was united in marriage to Leonard H. Nason of Worcester by Rev. Mr. England on Saturday Sept. 24. The parlor was handsomely decorated with evergreen and flowers.

The bride came in resting on the arm of her father he giving her away. She was dressed in a pretty white muslin. Her sister Grace acted as bridesmaid, and the best man was her brother Wesley, and the flower girl was her sister Rita. Grace and Rita were dressed in white muslin.

After the ceremony refreshments were served. The amusement of the evening concluded with vocal and instrumental music. Many presents were sent to the happy pair. Mr. and Mrs. Nason will reside in Worcester, where they will be at home after Oct. 1.

Manslaughter Charged.

The case of Daniel Fitzgerald and Frederick L. Haydon who were charged with the murder of Michael Saville, came up Wednesday in the District Court, when they were discharged for want of probable cause.

They were however immediately arraigned upon a warrant charging them with manslaughter.

Those are the two men who it is alleged, while intoxicated attempted to cross the railroad track at West Quincy in front of an approaching train on the evening of Sunday, Sept. 11, and in doing so caused Michael Saville the crossing tender, in front of the train, while he was trying to prevent their crossing, causing injuries from which he died Monday morning.

Some seven witnesses were called upon by the State. The case was continued until next Wednesday, the two men being held in $1,500 each.

Deaths.

ARNOLD—In Quincy, Sept. 29, Mr. John Arnold, aged 76 years. Funeral at the Quincy Baptist Church, Sept. 30, at 10 o'clock. CRANE—In Hingham, Sept. 24, Mrs. Mary Crane, aged 82 years. Funeral at the Hingham Baptist Church, Sept. 25, at 10 o'clock. LITTLE—In Quincy, Sept. 24, a daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Russell A. Sears of Elm street, aged 91 years and 8 months. SAFFORD—In Milton, Sept. 23, Mrs. John Safford, aged 78 years. Funeral at the Milton Baptist Church, Sept. 24, at 10 o'clock. SYLVESTER—In Scituate, Sept. 24, Mrs. Sylvia Sylvester, aged 81 years. Funeral at the Scituate Baptist Church, Sept. 25, at 10 o'clock. BRADY—In Quincy, Sept. 23, Mrs. Sarah E. Brady, aged 81 years and 8 months. Funeral at the Quincy Baptist Church, Sept. 24, at 10 o'clock. LARSEN—In Quincy, Sept. 23, Mrs. Lavinia A. Larsen, aged 69 years, 5 months and 3 days.

Republican Delegates.

After all the aspirations of other candidates it is very probable that Congressman Barrows will receive a majority of the Republican Congressional delegates from Quincy. Some favor him as a first choice, while others will vote for him if they see no show for their candidate. However, Paige, Bradley and Atwood secured some delegates and it is difficult to predict just how the Quincy delegates stand or will stick. Republican caucuses were held throughout the city and all roads used the Australian ballot. The result was as follows:

WARD ONE ANTI.

The Quincy ward elected Congressional delegates who are against both Barrows and Atwood. They are not enthusiastic over Paige but will vote for him if they find no chance of electing J. Payson Barry or some dark horse. The vote for Congressional delegates was: Macleod 85, Goodridge 87, Jenness 85, and Brown 80. The delegation elected, received: Faxon 100, Burcin 103, King 102 and Merrill 100.

The caucus was called to order at 4 P. M. by A. G. Dooliver, chairman of the Ward One Republican Committee. Charles H. Johnson was elected chairman and Frank F. Prescott secretary.

The following assisted as tellers: Warren W. Adams, Edward L. Goodridge, John H. Bent and Albert G. Dooliver.

Counting began about 8 o'clock. The polls closed at 9, and the result was promptly announced at 9:40. These delegates were elected: State—Russell A. Sears, Eben W. Sheppard, Devereux King, William P. Barker. Congressional—John F. Merrill, Charles R. Porter, George N. Nash, Charles F. Pettengill. Congressional—Charles Burcin, Henry H. Faxon, James F. Merrill, Theophilus King. Senatorial—Charles H. Johnson, Frank F. Prescott, Henry P. Kittredge, Eliza Packard. District Attorney—George H. Johnson, Elias A. Perkins, William T. Isaac. District Attorney—Thomas M. Butler, Arthur W. Weston, Henry M. Faxon, Edward R. Southard. Representative—John F. Merrill, Edward B. Brown, Charles M. Jenness, Andrew Olsen, Archibald F. McLeod, Frank F. Prescott, J. Prescott.

WARD TWO FOR ATWOOD.

The Ward Two Republicans turned out well and a good vote for a State caucus was polled. The caucus was called to order at 6 o'clock by Sec. Taylor John S. Gay, who read the call.

Representative T. H. Newcomb was elected chairman and John S. Gay secretary.

Messrs. Edgar F. Hayden, Eugene C. Hultman, E. W. Newcomb and Maurice L. Gatecomb were appointed tellers.

Polls were kept open until 9 o'clock and the result of the ballot was announced soon after 10 o'clock.

The only contest in this ward was over the delegates to the Congressional convention. For this there were two lists, one of which was favorable to Paige and the other list was unpledged, and the result was as follows:

Unpledged List:

Edgar F. Hayden,	90
Rollin H. Newcomb,	87
Benjamin Johnson, Jr.,	86

Favorable to Paige:

Hiram Phillips,	39
Henry C. Rodgers,	35
George Crane,	28

The following delegates were elected: State—Thaddeus H. Newcomb, Arthur W. Newcomb, George A. Sidelinger. Senatorial—Rollin H. Newcomb, Benjamin Johnson, Jr., Henry Glenn. County and District Attorney—Edwin W. Newcomb, Samuel Crane, Harry L. Whitman. Councilor—Thaddeus H. Newcomb, Eugene N. Hultman, George A. Sidelinger. Congressional—Benjamin Johnson, Jr., Edgar F. Hayden, Rollin H. Newcomb. Representative—George Weston, Peter B. Mealy, Maurice L. Gatecomb, Frank E. Barrell, John S. Gay.

WARD THREE.

As usual there was a large attendance at the Ward Three caucus the interest being centered in the delegates for the Congressional, County and Representative caucuses. The result of which had two lists. Ex-Congressman P. J. Bigelow called the caucuses to order and read the call, after which the caucus organized with Philip J. Halverson as chairman, John W. Faircloth, secretary, and John W. Faircloth, assistant secretary.

Tellers were appointed from the list as follows: Alexander McCabe, John C. Scott, Alexander March, Norman Savage, William Skinner and John Ross.

The caucus officers considered the advisability of commencing to count the ballots before the polls closed, but according to their interpretation of the caucus law counting could not be begun until the polls had closed.

As the polls did not close until 9 o'clock, it was a few minutes past that hour before the counting commenced.

One hundred and thirty-eight ballots were cast, and as the counters were all new at the business, the counting was necessarily slow and proceeded at the rate of ten every twelve minutes which made it late before the result was known.

It was midnight before the result was announced and at that hour there were but a few waiting to hear it. There was of course some surprise.

The Congressional delegates are thought to be Atwood sympathizers but that they will vote for Barrows on the first ballots.

Of the two lists for the County convention the list headed by John Q. A. Field was defeated by the anti-Fields by about twenty votes.

There were also two lists of delegates for the Representative convention, one of which was pledged to Eugene H. Sprague. This list was defeated by over forty votes. Just who the Representative delegates elected favor is not known, although some claim that they favor Representative James Thompson.

The following delegates were elected: State—James W. Pierce, Peter W. Dakers, James Richards, James M. Cutting. Congressional—John Kennedy, John C. McEwen, Thomas Johnston, David McCann. District Attorney—Joseph P. Frost, John C. Murray, Harry S. Nicoll, William T. Spargo. Senatorial—Alexander Marnock, John Coyle, Andrew McIntosh, Michael T. Phillips. Councilor—William W. Perry, Rodrick McLennan, Frank C. Field, Walter H. Dunbar. County—Andrew McIntosh, Ross, William Michael, David T. Drummond, William F. McEwen. Representative—John P. Bigelow, Angus McIntosh, Alexander Kean, Henry J. Rendle, John Johnson, John Kennedy, Peter W. Dakers.

The vote for Congressional delegates was: First list—Kennedy 81, McDowen 78, Johnston 75, McLennan 84; Second list—Bigelow 57, Marnock 51, Thompson 51, and Spargo 48.

County vote: First list—Mitchell 90, Field 57, Frost 51, Mine 45. Second list—McGidder 79, McIntosh 70, Drummond 70, Michael 68.

Representative vote—Unknown list—Bigelow 95, McIntosh 86, Dakers 84, Kean 82, Kennedy 81, Johnson 80.

Rendle 76. Sprague list—Murray 48, Roberts 46, Falconer 46, Pratt 45, Young 40, Campbell 37, Goodwin 37.

WARD FOUR FOR BARROWS.

Although there was no contest on any of the delegations in Ward Four, nearly forty votes were cast. The Congressional delegates elected from this ward are unpledged although they are believed to favor Barrows to the end.

Tobias H. Burke was chairman of the caucus and Albert J. Shackley secretary. The tellers were Hiram W. Campbell and Alexander Shirley.

The delegates elected were: State—W. E. Balger, Walter H. Ripley, P. A. England. Councilor—Oscar A. Barron, Joseph W. Shackley, W. H. Teasdale. Congressional—Thomas F. Burke, H. W. Campbell, William J. Hanson. County—Tobias H. Burke, Joseph Walker, John Williams.

Senatorial—Arthur W. Woodward, John Anderson, William B. Donald. Representative—Henry F. Geer, Alexander Shirley, John J. Nichols, Albert T. Rodman, Albert J. Shackley.

WOLLASTON FOR SPRAGUE.

The Ward Five Republican caucus was called to order promptly at 7:30 o'clock by Chairman Freeman of the Ward Committee. He opened the proceedings by reading the State Committee call and also the Ward and City Committee's call for the holding of the caucus.

"We will now proceed to elect a chairman of the caucus," he said as he finished reading. The words were hardly out of his mouth when Mr. Bryant exclaimed, "Mr. Chairman, I nominate Mr. E. E. Jameson for chairman of this caucus."

And before the nomination could be seconded Mr. Whiting had the floor with, "Mr. Chairman, I nominate Mr. R. R. Freeman to be chairman!"

"Then there was a buzz as the audience trembled to the fact that there was to be a fight from the start.

The motion to vote for chairman by vote of hands was put and carried. Before the vote could be taken Mr. Bryant again had the floor saying, "Mr. Chairman, do you understand that we vote for secretary first?"

"No," replied the chairman, "we first proceed to vote for a chairman of this caucus."

"I understood," replied Mr. Bryant, "that we were to first vote for a secretary. As I misunderstood the question I withdraw Mr. Jameson's name."

The caucus then unanimously elected R. R. Freeman for chairman and E. E. Jameson for secretary.

Upon a vote the chairman was authorized to appoint a second list of one name, that of George H. Holbart. Mr. Holbart received but few votes, however, only 8 for the State and 6 for the Congressional. The delegates elected were:

State—Peter J. Williams, Edward J. Parker. Congressional—Darius J. Ford, William A. Kelley. Senatorial—Timothy F. Ford, Thomas Higgins. Councilor—George D. Cahill, Frank Morrison.

County—Edward J. Parker, James H. Sullivan. District Attorney—William A. Kelley, Timothy F. Ford.

Representative—James Brogan, Thomas M. Murphy.

WARD FOUR.

There was no contest over the election of delegates at West Quincy and the attendance was not large. Matthew Lyons, chairman of the Ward Committee, called the caucus to order and read the call. Mr. Lyons was elected chairman and John Dugan, secretary.

Messrs. John Burke, J. W. White, Cornelius Crowley, James F. Burke, and James Lyons were appointed tellers.

The polls were kept open until 8:45 and a few minutes later the result was announced as follows:

State—William N. Eaton, William T. Shea, James F. Burke. Congressional—Matthew Lyons, John Burke, Thomas H. Lyons. Senatorial—John Burke, John Burke, John Burke. Councilor—John Burke, John Burke, John Burke. County and Councilor—James A. White, F. Markham, Patrick A. Lane. Representative—Michael B. Geary, Thomas F. Cain, Stephen B. Little.

WARD FIVE.

The usual number were in attendance at the caucus held in this ward. William B. O'Connell called the meeting to order at 8 o'clock and elected, secretary. There was no contest and the nominations on the official ballot were:

State—William G. Eason, Frank E. Badger. Congressional—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde.

County—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. District Attorney—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. County and Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Representative—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde.

State—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Congressional—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Senatorial—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. County and Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Representative—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde.

State—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Congressional—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Senatorial—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. County and Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Representative—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde.

State—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Congressional—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Senatorial—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. County and Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Representative—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde.

State—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Congressional—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Senatorial—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. County and Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Representative—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde.

State—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Congressional—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Senatorial—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. County and Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Representative—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde.

State—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Congressional—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Senatorial—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. County and Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Representative—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde.

State—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Congressional—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Senatorial—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. County and Councilor—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde. Representative—Isaac Stoker, Roger H. Wilde.</

Quincy Patriot

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1898.

VOL. 62. NO. 41.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

The Quincy Patriot,
Established in 1837.
PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,
(FORMERLY GREEN & PRESCOTT)
Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.
A reduction of fifty cents will be made when paid one year in advance.

Quincy Daily Ledger,
The ONLY DAILY in the ONLY CITY in Norfolk
County. Established in 1889.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.
A reduction of $1 will be made when paid
one year in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF THE
Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.

OFFICE, NO. 115 HANCOCK STREET

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
SPECIALIST, ORTHODONTIA,
RESIDED TO

No. 7 Temple Place,
New Bedford Building, Boston.

Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.
RESIDENCE, LINDEN PLACE, QUINCY.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.

At Quincy, No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday.

At Boston, HOTEL PELHAM, Monday, Wednesday, Friday.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
SURGEON DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain with
the "BOSTON VIBRATOR."

DEHLM, QUINCY, NEW BEDFORD.

At Quincy office, French's Building,
WEDNESDAYS.

At Dedham, Mondays and Tuesdays.
At New Bedford, Fridays and Saturdays.

July 28, 1898. if

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST.

Corner Newport and Grand View Avenues,
Wollaston.

Office hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.
May 29, 1898. if

DR. C. T. SHERMAN
DENTIST.

Rooms 5 and 6—Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office Hours: 8 to 12, 1 to 5.
Residence, Greenfield street.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D., Physician Limited to the Eye and Ear.

252 Bay Street, Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 155 Hancock Street,
May 21, 1898. if

HERBERT A. HAYDEN,
PIANO TUNER.

Office,
Pettengill's Jewelry Store,
126 Hancock Street,
QUINCY, MASS.

April 23, 1898. if

JENNIE HOCKING HUNT,
TEACHER OF

Organ, Piano and Harmony,
10 Bigelow Street, Quincy.

Quincy, Sept. 21, 1898. 3m

JOHN W. McANARNEY,
COTTELLOR-AT-LAW.

ROOM 1, DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office Hours: at the office of COTTELL &
JENNEY, 200 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11, 1898. if

W. W. JENNINGS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW.

Office Hours, 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. Rooms 28 and 29.
Quincy Office, Adams Building.

Office Hours: 8 to 10 A. M.; 6 to 9 P. M.
Quincy, May 26, 1898. if

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER.

PEARL STREET,
SOUTH QUINCY.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.

Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOINING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

HANCOCK COURT, QUINCY, MASS.

JULIUS JOHNSON,
Carpenter, & Contractor

—AND—
BUILDER.

Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOINING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

NO. 64 CENTRE ST., QUINCY, MASS.

June 19, 1898. if

BOOTS AND SHOES

MADE AND REPAIRED.

Nathaniel Nightingale,
GRANITE STREET, QUINCY.

DAVID BROWN,
HORSE SHOEING.

Carriage Work and General Jobbing.
ARLINGTON STREET, WOLLASTON.

Nov. 9, 1898. if

D. C. NELSON,
House, Sign and Carriage

PAINTING.

Estimates Furnished.

32 Atlantic Street, - Atlantic.

Ideal for Summer Coal.

RED ASH
NUT COAL.
PRICES REDUCED.

It is a very deep Red Ash, and free burning, which together with the fact that it is freshly mined, makes it the ideal coal for summer use.

Yours for Trial,

C. PATCH & SON.

H. T. WHITMAN,
Civil Engineer

SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.

Office, 80 Devonshire Street,
Boston, Mass.

Hours, 12 to 2 P. M.

N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate in the City of Quincy can be found at my office.

May 28, 1898. if

PERRY LAWTON,
CIVIL ENGINEER

SURVEYOR.
Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

May 7, 1898. if

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,

Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,

ROBES AND HABITS.

Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes to undertake the wants of all callers to meet a share of patronage.

JOHN HALL,
Quincy, March 10, 1898. if

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.

Office and residence, corner of Canal and Mechanic streets,
Quincy, Feb. 6, 1898. if

ETNA INSURANCE CO.,
HARTFORD, CONN.

Incorporated 1819. Charter Perpetual.

Losses Paid in 79 Years, $1,125,621.50

JANUARY 1, 1898.

Cash Capital, $1,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance (Fire), $117,107.34
Reserve for Unpaid Losses (Fire), $69,000.17
Reserve for Other Claims, $6,613.11
Net Surplus, $1,192,720.62

Total Assets, $12,089,089.98

John Hardwick & Co.,
45 Granite Street,
Agents for Quincy.

QUINCY

Mutual Fire Insurance Co.,

INCORPORATED IN 1851.

COMMENCED BUSINESS IN 1851

CHAS. A. HOWLAND, President.

WILLIAM H. FAY, Secretary.

CASH FUND Jan. 1, 1898, $613,375.72

SURPLUS over Re-insurance, $361,439.35

LOSSES PAID the past year, $143,125.46

DIVIDENDS PAID the past year, $70,897.29

GAIN IN SURPLUS the past year, $24,268.84

AND EVERY LOSS PAID FULL

AMOUNT AT RISK, $1,070,366.00

TOTAL LIABILITIES, $251,936.36

Dividends Paid on Every Expiring Policy,
10 per cent. on 5 years, 10 per cent. on 10 years,
and 20 per cent. on all others.

Quincy, Mass., 1898.

Incorporated 1825.

Norfolk Mutual Fire Ins. Co.,

DEHLM, MASS.

STATEMENT, JANUARY 1, 1898.

Amount at Risk, $2,263,170.28

Scout Assets, $12,215.42

Total Liabilities, including
re-insurance, 172,482.84

Amount of Cash Surplus,
Contingent Assets, $238,728.58

Total Available Assets, $866,638.30

This Company insures Buildings and Home-hold Furniture only, and the total paid has never paid less than 50 per cent. dividend on every five year policy that has expired
since its incorporation.

On five-year Policies - 50 per cent.
On three-year Policies - 40 per cent.
On one-year Policies - 25 per cent.

All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

THOS. F. TEMPLE,
President and Treasurer.

W. D. C. CURTIS, Secretary.

Home Office, Newport, Boston, Mass.

INSURANCE AGENCY.

ESTABLISHED in Quincy in the year 1849 by

Are You

Satisfied

with the way your house is heated?

Are you not burning more coal than your neighbor and still having a cold house?

If you have not seen the

KELSEY

GENERATORS

you have not yet seen perfection.

SANBORN

& DAMON

have the agency for Quincy, and they also carry a stock of

Walker & Magee

Stoves, Furnaces & Ranges.

Hancock Street,

Quincy.

J. J. KENILEY,

PLUMBER.

All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.

NO. 9 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.

In office formerly occupied by the Citizen's
Gas Light Company.

Jan. 6, 1898. P. O. Box 808. if

S. SCAMMELL,

WHEELWRIGHT,

Carriage Builder

AND PAINTER.

ALSO HORSE SHOEING AND JOBBING

BY FIRST-CLASS WORKMEN.

All orders promptly attended to and faithfully
executed.

Thankful for past favors, a liberal share of
patronage is solicited.

Shop Quincy Ave.

1867--1898.

THE OLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE BOOT AND SHOE STORE IN THE CITY

There is nothing new to say, and so will simply say that I have all kinds of

Boots and Oxford Ties

In the LATEST STYLES,

For Summer and Fall Wear.

Russet and Black Dressings of all kinds.

Repairing Done at Short Notice. 3m

ELLA L. STETSON.

51 Washington Street, Quincy

Watches,

$2.50 and Upward.

SOLID GOLD RINGS, $1 AND UP.

Shirt Waist Sets, Jeweled Buckles, Belts,

Pins, Chains, Charms, Pocket Books, etc.

Special Attention Paid to Repairing.

A. A. LINSOTT, - JEWELER,

154 Hancock St., opp. Postoffice, Quincy.

Spectacles and Eye Glasses.

FRANK A. LOCKE,

PIANO TUNER.

24 YEARS

EXPERIENCE

PRICES

REPAIRING

GUARANTEED

MRS. H. H. HILL,

Chiropodist and Manicurist,

Bates' Block, Saville St.,

QUINCY, MASS.

Hours, 2 to 4 P. M. Afternoons, Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

Treatment at residence if desired.

Aug. 13, 1898. 3m

MANICURE PARLORS.

MISS MARTHA J. BROOKS,

Proprietress of Manicure Parlor for Ladies and Gentlemen at Room 5, Savings Bank Building,
Maine, 50c; Shampooing, 50c and 75c;
Polishing, 50c; Manicure, 50c; Pedicure, 50c;
Corns, 50c; Bathing, 50c; Grooming, 50c.

Shampooing, 50c and 75c; Singing, 50c;
Baths Cut and Curled, 50c; Washing and Curling Hair, 25c and 50c. Males and Wares removed safely and permanently, $1.00 each.
Superior hair removed by Depilatory Facial
Massage, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50.

Will go to residence by appointment. Agent
for Miss May's Toilet Articles.

Hours—8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

Aug. 13, 1898. if

Quincy Savings Bank,

New Savings Bank Building.

President, RUPERT F. CLAPIN
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MAIRIS
Treasurer and Secretary, CLARENCE BURGIN

Board of Investment—RUPERT F. CLAPIN,
EDWIN W. MAIRIS, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.

BANK HOURS—From 9:30 to 12 A. M.,

and 2 to 4 P. M. During the months of June, July, August and September the Bank will close on Saturdays at 12 M.

Deposits placed on interest on the first Tuesday of January, April, July and October.

CONNECTED BY TELEPHONE.

Quincy, Jan. 11, 1898. if

E. M. LITCHFIELD,

HOUSE AND SIGN

PAINTING.

All orders in House and Sign Painting and
all branches will receive prompt attention.

RESIDENCE, QUINCY AVENUE.

All work executed in a workmanlike
manner.

March 12, 1898. if

JOHN F. KEMP,

MACHINIST.

82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.

Sept. 19, 1898. if

Poetry.

For the Patriot.

Sometime.

RUTH BASSETT.

Sometime! tell me, when is Sometime?

It seems so long—so long to wait

'Till Youth's bright garlands drop, and banish
Loving smiles—each old-time trait.

Jays shall round our pathway cluster
Sometime—when the heart is dead!

Sometime! Faint shall bow before us
Bow when life's bright dreams have fled.

Not today the heartless sayings
Of fickle lips shall cause us tears.

But sometime, when our eyes are closed
And thought has fled from our brain.

'Tis not now we feel the coldness
'Neath a trusted, loving hand!

Sometime! when the heart is dead
Sometime! when the heart is dead.

Sometime! Is it but a vision
Of some port on dreamland's sea?

Or some land of airy labor,
Where from rest we never free?

When we are sleeping over
Bringing near the future dim?

Only God knows when is Sometime—
Sometime we shall know 'Tis Him.

Aug. 13, 1898. 3m

MANICURE PARLORS.

MISS MARTHA J. BROOKS,

Proprietress of Manicure Parlor for Ladies and Gentlemen at Room 5, Savings Bank Building,
Maine, 50c; Shampooing, 50c and 75c;
Polishing, 50c; Manicure, 50c; Pedicure, 50c;
Corns, 50c; Bathing, 50c; Grooming, 50c.

Shampooing, 50c and 75c; Singing, 50c;
Baths Cut and Curled, 50c; Washing and Curling Hair, 25c and 50c. Males and Wares removed safely and permanently, $1.00 each.
Superior hair removed by Depilatory Facial
Massage, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50.

Will go to residence by appointment. Agent
for Miss May's Toilet Articles.

Hours—8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

Aug. 13, 1898. if

Quincy Savings Bank,

New Savings Bank Building.

President, RUPERT F. CLAPIN
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MAIRIS
Treasurer and Secretary, CLARENCE BURGIN

Board of Investment—RUPERT F. CLAPIN,
EDWIN W. MAIRIS, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.

BANK HOURS—From 9:30 to 12 A. M.,

and 2 to 4 P. M. During the months of June, July, August and September the Bank will close on Saturdays at 12 M.

Deposits placed on interest on the first Tuesday of January, April, July and October.

CONNECTED BY TELEPHONE.

Who for Representative.

One of the hottest political fights in this city for many a day is the contest which is now being waged for the Republican representative nomination. There is but little doubt but what Mr. Eben W. Shepard will get one of the plums, but who will get the other will depend upon the result of the election. At first, that was the case, but as the time draws near for the convention it becomes more and more self-evident that about every ward, with the exception of Ward Six, proposes to look out for itself and incidentally its favorite sons. That is natural and not wholly unexpected.

A week ago it looked as though Wollaston's candidate, whether Mr. Sprague or Mr. Nickerson, would walk into the convention with the nomination in his pocket. Within a few days all of this has been changed. Ward Three suddenly appears upon the scene with a strong labor candidate, Mr. Philip J. Halverson, who it is understood carries the delegation with him, although Mr. John P. Bigelow's friends claim that the delegation is solid for their candidate. Then Ward Four comes in with another candidate, Mr. James Shackley, who is putting up a fight. The convention is entitled to 34 delegates and 18 will be necessary for a choice.

There seems good reason why Wards One, Five and Six should be the candidates this year. For the past three years James Thompson of Ward Three and T. H. Newcomb of Ward Two have been our Representatives, and the previous year Charles L. Hammond of Ward Four served. With Eben W. Shepard from Ward One it would seem equitable and just that Ward Five or Six should be the home of the other candidate.

Ward One is entitled to 7 delegates, Ward Two to 5, Ward Three to 7, Ward Four to 5, Ward Five to 7, and Ward Six to 3.

Y. M. C. A. Sunday.

On Sunday, October 10th, the Young Men's Christian Association of this city will observe the month of September by the holding of special services in the various churches of the city. Addresses will be made upon the work of the Association by and for young men. The following services are arranged for Sunday morning:

Bethany Congregational church—Speaker, Rev. Edwin H. Hughes of Malden; report read by Mr. Delevare King.

Atlantic Congregational church—Speaker, Mr. G. L. Richards of Malden; report read by Mr. W. F. Cummings.

Atlantic Methodist church—Speaker, Mr. W. D. Fellows, Fall River; report read by W. T. Isaac.

Wollaston Congregational church—Speaker, Rev. Edward Norton; report read by Dr. E. R. Johnson.

Services will also be held Sunday evening as follows:

West Quincy Methodist church—Speaker, Mr. W. W. Bredt, Boston; report read by Mr. W. H. McNeil.

United Presbyterian church—Speaker, Mr. W. D. Fellows, Fall River; report read by Mr. William F. Hoehn.

Christ Episcopal church—Speaker, Rev. W. R. Brodie, report read by Mr. George H. Brown.

Wollaston Methodist church—Speaker, Mr. S. B. Carter of Chelsea; report read by Dr. E. R. Johnson.

Wollaston Baptist church—Speaker, Mr. S. B. Carter of Chelsea; report read by Dr. E. R. Johnson.

Quincy Point Congregational church—Speaker, Rev. Edward Anderson; report read by Mr. T. B. Pollard.

The pastors of the various churches will also take part in these services. On the same day two men's meetings have also been arranged in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. At the Wollaston Congregational church, speaker, Mr. W. H. Bredt of Boston; and at the Presbyterian church, speaker, Mr. W. D. Fellows, of Fall River.

The Y. M. C. A. rooms at the same hour and will be addressed by Mr. E. W. Robinson of Nova Scotia.

Gannett-Perry.

Miss Ingegnie Mabel Perry, daughter of Mr. James P. Perry of Wollaston and Mr. Edwin L. Gannett son of Mr. Howard Gannett were married at the First Baptist church, Wollaston, on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

The ceremony, which was very simple, was performed by the Rev. Preston Gurney, the pastor of the society. The church was beautifully trimmed with autumn flowers and foliage.

The bride was attired in a gown of white Swiss organdy with a train of satin ribbon, with a white tulle veil fastened with a fleur-de-lis of diamonds and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The ushers were Mr. Howard Gannett, Jr., of Chelsea, Mr. George W. Walker of Boston, Mr. Walter E. Simmons, Jr., of Wollaston.

Many costly and beautiful gifts were received.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held in the church vestry. Mr. and Mrs. Gannett will reside in Whitman.

Memorial Church.

"By their fruits ye shall know them," was the text from which Rev. Mr. Whitaker in his sermon last Sunday morning drew lessons of value in life's progress and dwell on the responsibilities attending the proper use of the means at hand to raise one to a more nearly perfect following of the Master.

The floral decorations were exquisite, the fall aster in graceful garlands forming a canopy with branches of dogwood and the oranges, reds, browns and pink tints tastefully arranged in bouquets and in masses.

The evening service at seven o'clock enhanced the Christian Endeavor theme.

Electrocuted.

A valuable horse owned by Frank E. Kennard, a Wollaston millman, was instantly killed at the corner of Brook street and Highland avenue Wednesday by a live electric light wire. The team was driven by Harold Kennard and the wire fell as he was passing, striking the horse upon the legs causing him to fall on to the wire and before he could be removed the animal was dead. Later the dangerous wire was removed.

CITY BRIEFS.

Quincy's additional letter carrier went on duty this week.

The District Court has begun to naturalize foreign born residents.

Rev. W. W. Dorman preached at Central Falls, R. I., Friday evening.

The sewer is being extended on Washington street from Canal toward Elm.

Twenty-five boats were off the Quincy yacht club house Sunday, fishing for smelts.

There is talk of a candle pin league to include Quincy, Brockton and Boston clubs.

The new house of Dr. Hunting on Hancock street is well along toward completion.

Over three tons of ice were used for the Quincy Yacht club this summer for cooling water.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Beattie returned to Quincy, Monday, after a pleasant trip to New York.

The National Mt. Wollaston bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent. payable Oct. 1.

The Adams Academy eleven lost at foot ball Saturday at Milton to the Milton High school 10 to 10.

A beautiful large fern graced the platform of the Bethany church on Sunday, the gift of Mrs. Wales.

Next Sunday will be rally day at Bethany church, especially in the Bible school, with a special service.

The trustees of the United Presbyterian church will give a reception Saturday evening to the congregation.

The hearing next Monday night on the petition of the Bicycle railroad will probably develop considerable opposition.

Sunday was exceptionally fine for this time of the year and thousands took advantage of the day for one more outing.

Commissioner Knowlton continues to receive applications for house connections to the sewer and now has something like forty.

It was not surprising after the hot day of Tuesday that we should get a little thunder shower that night. One bolt was "a pealer."

The receipts of the City Clerk's office for the month of September were $55, making the total receipts of the office since Feb. 7, $307.

The 50-cent assessment levied upon the members of the A. O. U. W., which was declared illegal, has been returned in full to all members.

With the laying of underground conduits, building brick sidewalks and laying the sewer pipe, Hancock street will be a busy place for the next few weeks.

Saturday night was a busy one with the police, and the restoration of night's work was for drunk, three for disturbing the peace, and two for assault.

The sewer department is leaving the streets in much better condition than was expected. This is due in a great measure, to the trenches being rolled by the steam roller.

On account of the stormy weather the opening reception at the Y. M. C. A. has been postponed one week.

Cards are out for another church wedding. Miss Minnie F. Eaton, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. William N. Eaton, and Mr. Henry R. Holden will be married at the Unitarian church, Wednesday evening, October 19.

Chief of Police Litchfield of Quincy and chief of Police Pierce of Milton, left Thursday for a trip down the Hudson. During the absence of Chief Litchfield, Officer Ferguson will act as chief of police.

A grass fire on Goffe street, in the rear of Hon. E. C. Bumpus residence, Monday night, was thought to be getting dangerously near some new houses and the fire department was summoned upon a still alarm at 8:30.

A wagon with hand chemicals was sent and extinguished the fire.

Paul Revore Post 88, G. A. R., is arranging for a grand fair to be held at Music Hall, Nov. 14 to 19. The Women's Relief Corps, the Sons of Veterans and the Daughters of Veterans, are all taking hold of it, and a grand and successful fair is assured.

The illustrated lecture on Robert Burns given by the Rev. W. W. Dorman Tuesday evening, in Orange hall, was largely attended. Thirty-six views were used in the lecture. Mr. Dorman spoke for one hour and fifty minutes. The lecture was a very interesting one from beginning to the end.

Miss Ellen Thompson begins her autumn course of talks, Tuesday, October 11th, at the home of Mrs. George G. Saville, Greenleaf street. The subject for the first hour is The Connection of Queen Wilhelmina and a resume of the illustrious House of Orange-Nassau of which the young queen is the last scion.

The temperature at noon Tuesday was 55 degrees, which makes it the warmest October day for three years. The highest point reached in 1897 was 83 degrees, which was Oct. 16, and the highest point reached in 1896 was 72 degrees which was Oct. 1. Thus far this year the temperature for October has been higher than in 1897 or 1896.

George H. Brown & Co. report the following recent real estate sales: House on Rock View road for Alfred F. Powers to M. A. Galvin. Lot of land at the lot of land at the corner of Independence avenue and Bennington street, for estate of S. Henry Barnard to Margaret A. McDonald, who will build for her own occupancy. Cottage at Bay Side, North Weymouth, for Alfred Shales to M. A. Parker.

The lecture at the High school building Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Quincy Teachers' Association was largely attended and very interesting. Mr. Louis C. Elson was the lecturer, and his subject was "Seven Centuries of English Song." Mr. Elson is a polished speaker and he possessed the power to illustrate the songs, he made it not only entertaining but instructive and of value to our teachers and the audience generally.

Charles H. Winslow met with quite a serious accident in Boston on Tuesday. He was riding on his large express team with the driver. When near the United States hotel one of the forward wheels came off, caused by losing a nut. Mr. Winslow and his driver were both thrown out. The driver escaped unharmed but Mr. Winslow received a bad cut on the head. He was taken to the Emergency hospital where the injury was dressed and he was able to return to Quincy.

WOLLASTON.

Miss Grace Lathrop Durgin, Beale street, salutatorian of Class '98, Quincy High school, has entered the College of Liberal Arts, Boston University.

Miss Bertha Frances Nichols, 35 Newport avenue, is enjoying a trip to New York and up the Hudson with her aunt, Mrs. E. S. Boland, the wife of a prominent Boston physician.

It is hoped at Wollaston that condign punishment will be meted out to those boys who so maliciously defaced Mr. E. W. Arnold's house a few evenings ago. Officer Davoren's opportune appearance put a stop to their vandalism and at the same time led to the arrest of the whole gang, among whom was one of the leaders of last winter's robberies. He was let off at that time with the simple admonition "not to do it again."

Mr. Henry W. Marsden and Mr. George H. Brainard of Wollaston, are at Nottingham, N. H., after exams, etc.

Mr. Q. A. F. Wallace of Wollaston returned last week from a gunning trip to Concord, Mass. He brought home a fox.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ireland of Wollaston are stopping in Randolph this week; the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Young.

The bi-annual meeting of the East Norfolk Y. P. S. C. E. Union was held at the Wollaston Congregational church on Monday evening. There was a large attendance of members from Quincy, Wollaston, Randolph, Holbrook, Braintree and South Braintree.

The address of Randolph presided. The address of the evening was made by the Rev. Edward Anderson, pastor of the Washington Street Congregational society. After the meeting a social time was enjoyed in the vestry.

The first foot ball game in the dual league was played at Merrymount Park, Friday afternoon between Adams and Thayer academics.

The first Edwards windmill was destroyed by fire twenty years ago; the same year as the Central House fire on the site of the Greenleaf.

Mrs. Frederica C. Babcock had a two-column letter of interest in the Tuesday evening Transcript. It was "A leaf from the summer that is gone."

The Ancient and Honorable Artillery company returned Thursday night, and those from Quincy report a delightful trip and open hearted hospitality.

Miss Lillian Litchfield and Mrs. Borden of New York, are the guests of Mrs. C. A. Winslow this week. They will return to New York next week.

Miss Corlew has twenty-five pupils in her advanced class in dancing which meets on Wednesday afternoons, and several more will join at the second lesson.

The politicians of Quincy, are holding quiet smoke talks these days about the corners, and in divers places. We wonder what the harvest will be.

City Clerk Cheaves has received the printed instructions for using the new vote counting machines, and the method of using it is very simple after you know how.

Lieut. Sprague, being a commissioned officer, does not expect to leave the service if the Tenth Signal Corps is mustered out, but expects to see more service in Cuba.

The trial of Daniel Fitzgerald and Frederick E. Hayden, of Quincy, who are charged with manslaughter, which was to have been heard Wednesday, has been postponed until today.

A bicycle rider in returning from Brockton Thursday night was held up in South Braintree and relieved of $1. He had other money in another pocket which the highwaymen overlooked.

The engagement is announced of Miss Emma Louise Pratt of Adams, daughter of Editor Pratt of the Newton Journal, of Mr. Alexander W. Ferguson, a former resident of Quincy.

Arthur Caddy, a 13-year-old school boy, was arrested in City Square Wednesday by Officer Newcomb for larceny of $8 from some party unknown. The money was recovered and the boy locked up.

Mr. A. W. Stetson has gone to Pittsburg, Pa., to take part in the Knight Templars Conclave, going by the way of Philadelphia, Gettysburg, and Lattin, returning by the way of Hagerstown, Washington and Old Point Comfort.

The palace on wheels started for Brockton, Monday. After the children's faces were washed and the dog had his breakfast, the horses were hitched up and they departed with good wishes from the crowd who saw them off.

It will be a brilliant opening for Quincy ball, season of 1898-99, with Brockton, Chelsea, and Wollaston. Miss Sibyl Sammis, Monday afternoon, Oct. 17th, when doubtless the hall will be filled with "the 400" of Quincy and vicinity.

The New England Telephone Co. has commenced work in earnest, the building of its underground conduits on Hancock street. They will be laid on the east side of the street and there will be a man hole about every hundred feet.

There are three cases against the City of Quincy, three against the Quincy & Boston Street Railway Co., and seven against the Braintree Street Railway Co. at the Superior Civil court which opened at Dedham, on Monday before Judge Fessenden.

A stranger in Quincy, visiting here from Seattle, Washington, was hunting around this week for a bath tub, and was greatly surprised that a city like Quincy could not afford a place where a man could have a good wash, coming from Washington, too.

Another bicycle was stolen at the Thomas Crane Public Library Thursday afternoon, the third within a week. The lad who lost it was in the library but a few minutes, as his list for books was prepared before he entered.

Some idea of the crowd at Brockton, Thursday evening, was gained from the fact that 7,300 excursion tickets were sold from the Boston station, and 120 from Quincy. One of the special trains that was sent out in the morning had thirteen cars.

Mr. H. S. Everett, formerly Secretary to the American Legion in Berlin, died on Tuesday at Brighton, Eng. He was a son of Edward Everett and was born in 1825 in Charlestown. He graduated at Harvard in the class of 1855. He was a brother of Dr. William Everett of this city.

WHAT DO THE CHLOREN DRINK? Don't give them ice or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more GRAIN-O you give the children the more health they distribute through their systems. GRAIN-O is made of pure grains and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1-4 as much. All grocers will sell it. See and Buy.

CASPERIA. The Kidney and Bladder Brought to Health by Dr. H. H. Hatcher.

ATLANTIC.

Rev. J. H. Yeoman and wife are the guests of the Misses Clean for a few days.

A musical and literary entertainment will be held under the auspices of Faxon lodge, I. O. G. T., in the vestry of the Atlantic M. E. church on Monday evening.

G. T. Burkhardt and family of Squantum have returned to their winter home in Jamaica Plain.

A party of Neponset young men returning from a fishing expedition to Moon Island, Sunday afternoon, when near Neponset bridge and attempting to leave the boat, it capsized and all received a good ducking.

Miss Annie Ago of Madison street, is quite ill with malaria.

Miss Nina Reid of Nova Scotia, is visiting W. L. Thompson of Squantum street.

The Webster family of Squantum have returned to their home in Dorchester.

John McCarthy of Atlantic street, has gone to Saratoga, N. Y., on a visit.

The Society of Colonial Wars of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts held its fall outing at the Squantum Inn, Squantum Park, Saturday, Oct. 1st.

The occasion was one of great enjoyment, and all those who attended were deeply interested in the historic ground upon which they held their outing.

The party, which numbered about 65 members left Boston in a special car attached to the 1:30 P. M. train; reaching Atlantic at 4:40 where they were taken direct to the Squantum Inn.

An important sale of real estate is advertised today by Auctioneer Crane, on one of the best streets at Atlantic. This is the growing section of the city and in a very short time will be a new town room house will first be offered and then a seven room cottage.

Persons in search of a home in a pretty suburb may make no mistake in looking up this property.

A large number of Atlantic people went to the Brockton fair Thursday.

Timothy Golden, clerk at Dr. Garney's, is enjoying his vacation.

The Hibernians of Atlantic will hold a dance in Music hall, the middle of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Barland have returned to their winter home in Brookline.

The many who enjoyed the popular series of dances in Music hall, Atlantic, last winter, will be pleased to learn that they are to be continued the coming winter.

Sagamore street was in a very bad condition Wednesday, during the rain. On account of the new concrete sidewalk the water could not run off and consequently settled in the street.

The evening service at the Atlantic Methodist church on Sunday will be made attractive and instructive by a stereoscopic exhibition of Law Wallace's great book, Bon Hur.

The pictures as nearly as possible represent the interesting and critical events in the short career of the hero. A brief recitation of the story will follow the pictures.

Rev. H. C. Wright of the Methodist church at Atlantic was present at the meeting of the trustees of the Thomas Crane public library, Wednesday evening, and presented the desire of a few Atlantic people that a branch reading room be opened there. He thought the people would provide room and care if the library would supply books.

The reverend gentleman said he had consulted but few other people of the kind. The local residents of Atlantic were more encouraging than at the close of the last administration. That is reason enough for continuing in power the party that has brought about this change.

It is very evident that the present tariff law is working to the advantage of our people. This is shown in many ways, even though there is more or less dullness in certain quarters. While it is not all that could be desired, yet the conditions of business is vastly more encouraging than at the close of the last administration.

Quincy Point and Neck.

Mr. John Moynihan, an old and respected resident of Quincy Neck died Thursday. He was a shoe maker by trade, and lived in many years with Edward Newcomb. He leaves three sons and four daughters.

Ex-Chief Hayden and wife and Mr. Allen Hayden went to Albany and down the Hudson river for a pleasure trip this week.

The pine pasture and grove on the Braintree side of Quincy Neck is quite a shady retreat. Children of the Atlantic school visited there Saturday to study nature.

Mrs. William Woodbury of Quincy Neck has a small family of Atlantic young Guinea chickens, and they are a curiosity among Quincy, as very few are to be seen in these parts.

Mr. W. S. Bodwell of Howard street, Neck, while at Nantasket beach a short time ago, had his yacht stolen. He went to the beach in a launch and went down in search of the boat.

Mr. Alpheus Hayward at Newcomb square, and the owner of Hayward's grove, has a large family of gray squirrels who make it their home in the handsomely wooded area. They are large and fat. They are not to be shot at, but allowed to increase in numbers.

Every Sunday the residents of Quincy Neck near Howard avenue are treated to a fine display of six o'clock to the loud reports from guns and rifles. All kinds of birds are shot in the vicinity of Bent's creek and the shots fly around in every direction.

Mrs. A. J. Higgins of Edison street has returned from New York.

An advertisement is being here to the cottage of Mr. George Sprague, Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Graham are at Lexington, Ky., for two or three weeks, and will probably attend the races.

The use of the watering carts at this season of the year leaves the streets in some places somewhat muddy, and several bicyclists have been thrown.

Mr. Fred H. Smith of Quincy Point has purchased a new Whitehall row boat for his son.

Miss Anna McGowan of New York is visiting relatives and friends in Quincy. She is stopping at Mr. Crowley's, North street.

Mr. George Clapp of Canal street has leased the Murdoch estate on Howard avenue, Quincy Neck, and will locate there right away.

Representative T. H. Newcomb was one of the Norfolk county committee on ballots at the Republican State convention, and the only Quincy man to serve in any capacity.

Miss Alice S. Hatch, one of the teachers at the Washington school, has been sick this week, but was able Friday to return to her home in Marshfield.

SOUTH QUINCY.

The funeral of the late Albert Thayer was held Tuesday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick A. Marsh on Payne street, and were attended by many of his relatives and friends.

The city was represented by Councilmen McGrath and Owens. Rev. Edgar W. Preble officiated and the burial was at Mt. Wollaston cemetery.

Mrs. Norman McLeod, Clyde Station, P. E. I., who has been in the city for the last four weeks visiting her children, left for home Monday evening.

On Friday, Sept. 30, about fifty of her friends waited upon her at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. W. J. McLeod, 24 Rodman street, to bid her farewell.

Mr. A. M. I. McLeod on behalf of those assembled presented her with a handsome gift, as a token of love and good will. Refreshments were served, and the evening was very pleasantly spent with singing and games.

Burto, the clown juggler, of Quincy, has just closed his third summer of fifteen weeks at the leading summer resorts in New England and New York State. Next week at Baltimore, Utica, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, and the Seattle, Washington, circuit of fourteen weeks, to follow.

Mr. Dorman delivered an address at Chelsea, Monday evening on "The teaching of the Early Christian church."

West Quincy has fared well this year in the way of having its streets put in good condition.

E. H. Doble & Co. are grading and making other improvements about their store.

The Lyons Granite Company and the Blue Hill Granite Company have reduced its board of officers.

How was called on a still alarm Thursday afternoon at 3:30 to extinguish a chimney fire in the house of Louis Walters on Bates avenue.

The Quincy Quarry Co. held its annual meeting Wednesday evening and re-elected its old board of officers. An annual dividend of 4 per cent. was declared.

WEST QUINCY.

West Quincy has fared well this year in the way of having its streets put in good condition.

E. H. Doble & Co. are grading and making other improvements about their store.

The Lyons Granite Company and the Blue Hill Granite Company have reduced its board of officers.

How was called on a still alarm Thursday afternoon at 3:30 to extinguish a chimney fire in the house of Louis Walters on Bates avenue.

The Quincy Quarry Co. held its annual meeting Wednesday evening and re-elected its old board of officers. An annual dividend of 4 per cent. was declared.

CLOTHING FOR MEN AND BOYS

MACULLAR PARKER COMPANY, 400 Washington St. - BOSTON - 400 Washington St.

By FRANK F. CRANE, Auctioneer, Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Auction Sale

OF TWO DESIRABLE HOUSES

Billings Street, ATLANTIC, MASS., Saturday, Oct. 15th

At 3:30 and 4:30, respectively.

At 2:30 P. M. we shall offer a modern house of 10 rooms and bath and 4,500 feet of land, the second house on the right from Prospect street. This is a new house never before occupied, has oak floor in front hall, oak staircase, all the finish, a large front porch, concrete ceiling, newly papered, open planing, frescoed ceilings, and is fitted for a furnace. Has open fireplaces, good closet room and city water. The location is high and dry, the neighborhood is quiet and the house is within minutes of rail, electric cars, postoffice, churches, schools and stores. The house can be seen at any time before the sale by applying to Mr. Geo. V. Bryant at the adjoining house, now building at the corner of Prospect and Billings streets. Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

At 4:30 P. M

All goods delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Carpets and Upholstery

Our stock is by far the largest in Boston, and includes many private patterns obtainable nowhere else.

Our prices are always at the bottom of the market.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
658 Washington St., Boston.
(Opposite Bay State St.)

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

Shawmut Spring Water

IS THE WATER OF LIFE.

SOFT, PURE, SPARKLING, HEALTHFUL AND INVIGORATING.

Highly recommended by the Medical Profession for medicinal and drinking purposes.

Thousands of people testify to the purity and medicinal properties of this water.

It is clear, sparkling, and of uniform temperature all seasons of the year.

It is the safest and best source of supply for all domestic and drinking purposes.

Nothing is of more importance than that the water we drink be soft and pure. Shawmut Spring Water is free from all living organisms, mineral impurities and obnoxious gases.

As a regulator and purgative agent, it restores the digestive organs to healthy action.

Hundreds of an editorial testimonials are evidence of its medicinal value and agreeable drinking quality.

Delivered in any quantity, either in 5-gallon casks at 6 cents per gallon, or closed cases containing 12 two-gallon bottles at 60 cents per case.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to

F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1898.

WEEKLY	THIS WEEK	LAST WEEK	IN
ALMANAC	1898	1897	1896
Monday	18	11	10
Tuesday	19	12	11
Wednesday	20	13	12
Thursday	21	14	13
Friday	22	15	14
Saturday	23	16	15

Two Weeks' Temperature.

The noon temperature of the week taken at Pettengill's jewelry store, is compared below with that of last week and a year ago:

Week.	Last Week.	In
Sunday	64	52
Monday	70	61
Tuesday	85	67
Wednesday	63	68
Thursday	64	70
Friday	61	75
Saturday	—	74

County Commissioner.

The convention of the County Commissioners of this city will hold next week after the interest of the eastern part of the county. A large proportion of the population live in Quincy, Weymouth, Braintree and other towns in this vicinity, and it is only right and proper that one of the County Commissioners should be from this part of the County. We have able men who are well qualified to fill that position, and we hope that Mr. J. Q. A. Field, or some other gentleman from this vicinity, will receive the nomination.

Political Potpourri.

The Republican State Convention will convene Thursday at ten o'clock at Music Hall, Boston, was harmonious and enthusiastic.

The old ticket was renominated and received with cheers as follows:

For Governor—Roger Wolcott of Boston.

For Lieutenant Governor—W. Murray Crane of Dalton.

For Secretary of State—William M. Olin of Boston.

For Treasurer—Edward P. Shaw of New Bedford.

For Auditor—John W. Kimball of Fitchburg.

For Attorney General—Hosah M. Knowlton of New Bedford.

For the nomination of the old state ticket, the Republicans have done the best possible thing for the state. Not one of these officials has deserved the "Well done, good and faithful servant."

The Democratic state ticket is:

For Governor—Alexander B. Bruce of Lawrence.

For Lieutenant Governor—Edward J. Staley of South Framingham.

For Secretary of State—Henry Lloyd of Boston.

For Attorney General—Patrick F. Kilroy of Springfield.

For State Treasurer—Pierre Bonvouloir of Hallowell.

For Auditor—Charles F. Parker of Boston.

The Democratic ticket district Congressional convention will be held at Cushman's corner, Dorchester, Tuesday, Oct. 11, and the Democratic representative convention for this district will be held in Quincy on Monday evening, Oct. 12.

The Republican City Committee met Thursday evening and fixed upon Thursday evening, Oct. 15, as the date for the Representative convention.

This is the earliest possible date that Representative convention of 1898 can be held under the new law.

The Republican convention for the Second Norfolk Senatorial district will be held in Boston Saturday morning.

The Middlesex club will have a grand banquet at Young's, Saturday afternoon.

The Boston Post thinks the Atwood and Paige delegates to the Congressional convention have an understanding, and that they control the convention.

Engineers of the city cannot have any night on a dark horse.

City Clerk Cleaves gives notice of the polling places for the State election.

Ex-Congressman Harrison H. Atwood represented this district at the Republican State Convention on Monday.

Paige served in like capacity on the Committee on Resolutions.

The Registrars of Voters held another busy session Saturday night.

As a result of the evening's work, twenty-three males and one female voters were added and fifteen were restored.

It is reported upon good authority that Mr. William Everett of this city will run in this Congressional district as an independent candidate.

This will form a most complicated affair, as the already mixed-up Tenth district.

W. W. Davis was nominated for Congressman on Monday by the Republicans of the second district receiving 120 votes to 104 for Cushing.

It took 24 ballots to nominate the new Republican candidate in the Seventh Congressional district. It may take twice that number in the Tenth district this evening.

The twenty-fifth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the State of Massachusetts will be held in Tremont Temple, Boston, beginning Wednesday morning, Oct. 12, and closing Friday evening, Oct. 14.

A. G. Olney, real estate, Wollaston, has leased a suite in the Greene house on Safford street to Mr. Edgar Turrell, another suite on Safford street to Mr. Charles Jones, and a store in the postoffice building to J. F. Truss of Malden.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

Agents to sell Farm, Stock, Nursery, etc., etc. See ad.

I No Choice.

The folly of calling the Tenth Congressional convention at 8 o'clock in the evening, especially when there is a contest, was again forcibly illustrated Wednesday night.

The result of the informal ballot was 115 votes, the chairman not voting, of which, Samuel J. Barrows had 54, Harrison A. Atwood 24, Milton C. Paige 22, W. W. Towle 10, J. Payson Bradley 4 and Bliss 1.

After midnight several attempts were made to adjourn, but did not go and the balloting went merrily on. It was about 3:30 when the 35th ballot was announced with no choice, and at this time a motion to adjourn until next Wednesday was carried.

Fifty-nine votes were necessary for a choice and Congressman Barrows often had over 50 and once 55.

An adjournment was made until next Wednesday.

The paper will be read by a well known historian, and tea will be served.

Chapter members are privileged to bring a guest for the afternoon.

The chapter has also several entertainments planned for the treasury needs replenishing for future patriotic work.

This month a whist party is to be given, and next month a sale is to be held at the John Adams birthplace, when home-made candy, home-made cake, aprons and useful articles will be on sale. There will also be a loan collection of ancient and historical articles.

Adams Chapter is certainly lively and doing a great deal of work. They have had many visitors at the old house this summer, interest being centered in the room in which John Adams was born. Contributions have been received this summer in the way of antique furniture and is much appreciated. Any further given or received for the chapter will be taken good care of, and the house is in the care of Mrs. Wildes, a granddaughter of a Revolutionary soldier, daughter of a soldier in the Mexican war, and widow of a veteran in the Civil war, and full of patriotic feeling.

Full delegation from all the towns of the First Norfolk Senatorial district were in attendance at the Republican convention held Wednesday at the American House, Boston.

Powers of Hyde Park was chairman and F. E. Prescott of Quincy, secretary.

Upon the first ballot one more vote was cast than there were delegates to the convention and it was declared illegal. The first legal ballot, Woodman had 19, Grover 16, Newcomb 10.

On the second ballot Woodman had 21, Grover 18 and Newcomb 16.

On the third ballot Woodman had 21, Grover 17, Newcomb 16.

On the fourth ballot Woodman had 20, Grover 18, Newcomb 15.

Another illegal ballot was then cast.

The next and decisive ballot gave Woodman 35, Grover 18, Newcomb 1.

And Mr. Woodman was declared the nominee for senator.

Upon the motion of Hon. H. O. Fairbanks of Quincy selected as a fair delegate the nomination was made unanimous.

T. H. Newcomb was elected a member of the Republican State convention.

It was voted that the chairman of the several town committees, and the chairman of the ward committees of Quincy should constitute the district committee.

The chairman and secretary of the convention were authorized to fill any vacancies.

Adjourned at 1:40.

Ex-Selectman Dead.

Mr. Albert Thayer one of Quincy's oldest citizens and residents died Saturday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

Mr. Thayer was born in Quincy and saved several States to the Union; his slaughter later by the Hudson Bay trappers whose plans were upset by the founding of Whitman college in Walla Walla, Washington; and finally by the use of dynamite. No collection was taken, but Miss Dow hopes to receive generous subscriptions while in Quincy.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

His funeral will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

Quincy Patriot

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1898.

VOL. 62. NO. 42.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

The Quincy Patriot,
Established in 1837.
PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,
[FORMERLY GREEN & PRESCOTT]
Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.
A reduction of fifty cents will be made when paid one year in advance.

Quincy Daily Ledger,
The Only Daily in the Only City in Norfolk County. Established in 1889.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.
A reduction of $1 will be made when paid one year in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF THE Brantree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.

OFFICE, No. 115 HANCOCK STREET.

W. W. JENNESS
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW.
87 Milk St., Boston, Mass.
Office Hours, 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. 10 to 12 P.M. 5 to 9 P.M.
Quincy Office, Adams Bldg., Quincy, May 26.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW.
ROOM 1, DUNN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Saturdays, at the office of COTTER & JENNEY, 299 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy, No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston, HOTEL PELHAM, Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain with the "BEST VIBRATING VAPOR."
DEHLMAN, QUINCY, NORWOOD.
At Quincy office, French's Building, WEINERSTADT.
At Dehlmans Mondays and Tuesdays.
At Norwood Fridays and Saturdays.
July 28.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST.
Corner Newport and Grand View Avenues,
Wollaston.
Office hours—8 until 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.
May 29.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST.
Rooms 5 and 6—Dunne & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours, 8 to 12, 1 to 5.
Residence, Greenleaf street.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
SPECIALIST, ORTHODONTIA.
REMOVED TO
No. 7 Temple Place,
New Brattle Building, Boston.
Office Hours—9 A.M. to 4 P.M.
RESIDENCE, LINDEN PLACE, QUINCY.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.,
Practice Limited to the Eye and Ear.
553 Boylston Street, Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street.
May 21.

JENNIE HOCKING HUNT,
TEACHER OF
Organ, Piano and Harmony,
13 Bigelow Street, Quincy.
Quincy, Sept. 21.

HERBERT A. HAYDEN,
PIANO TUNER.
Office,
Pettengill's Jewelry Store,
126 Hancock Street,
QUINCY, MASS.
April 23.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOBBERY PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
HANCOCK COURT, QUINCY, MASS.

JULIUS JOHNSON,
Carpenter, Contractor
AND—
BUILDER.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOBBERY PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
NO. 64 CENTRE ST., QUINCY, MASS.
June 19.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER.
PEARL STREET,
SOUTH QUINCY.

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.
Office and residence, corner of Canal and Mechanic streets.
Quincy, Feb. 6.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 Hancock Street.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
BODIES AND HABITS.
Having had several years' experience in the undertaking business, the subscriber hopes by strict attention to the wants of all callers to merit a share of patronage.

JOHN HALL,
Quincy, March 10.

Ideal for Summer Coal.
RED ASH
NUT COAL.
PRICES REDUCED.
It is a very deep Red Ash, and free burning, which together with the fact that it is freshly mined, makes it the ideal coal for summer use.
Yours for Trial,
C. PATCH & SON.

H. T. WHITMAN,
Civil Engineer
AND—
SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.
Boston Office, 85 Devonshire Street.
Hours, 10 to 12 A.M., 2 to 4 P.M.
N. B. Plans of every kind for Real Estate in the City of Quincy can be found at my office.
May 28.

PERRY LAWTON,
CIVIL ENGINEER
AND—
SURVEYOR.
Savings Bank Building, Quincy.
May 7.

MANICURE PARLORS.
MISS MARTHA J. FROOKS,
Pupil of Miss May.
Has opened a Manicure Parlor for Ladies and Gentlemen at Room 5, Savings Bank Building.
Manicure, 50c; Shampooing, 50c; and 75c;
Polishing, 50c; and 75c; Curling, $1.00;
Corns, 25c; Blisters, 50c; Ingrowing Nails, 50c.
Shampooing, 50c; and 75c; Singeing, 50c;
Baths and Cures, 25c; Waving and Curling, 50c; and 75c; and 1.00; and 1.50; and 2.00;
and 2.50; and 3.00; and 3.50; and 4.00;
and 4.50; and 5.00; and 5.50; and 6.00;
and 6.50; and 7.00; and 7.50; and 8.00;
and 8.50; and 9.00; and 9.50; and 10.00;
and 10.50; and 11.00; and 11.50; and 12.00;
and 12.50; and 13.00; and 13.50; and 14.00;
and 14.50; and 15.00; and 15.50; and 16.00;
and 16.50; and 17.00; and 17.50; and 18.00;
and 18.50; and 19.00; and 19.50; and 20.00;
and 20.50; and 21.00; and 21.50; and 22.00;
and 22.50; and 23.00; and 23.50; and 24.00;
and 24.50; and 25.00; and 25.50; and 26.00;
and 26.50; and 27.00; and 27.50; and 28.00;
and 28.50; and 29.00; and 29.50; and 30.00;
and 30.50; and 31.00; and 31.50; and 32.00;
and 32.50; and 33.00; and 33.50; and 34.00;
and 34.50; and 35.00; and 35.50; and 36.00;
and 36.50; and 37.00; and 37.50; and 38.00;
and 38.50; and 39.00; and 39.50; and 40.00;
and 40.50; and 41.00; and 41.50; and 42.00;
and 42.50; and 43.00; and 43.50; and 44.00;
and 44.50; and 45.00; and 45.50; and 46.00;
and 46.50; and 47.00; and 47.50; and 48.00;
and 48.50; and 49.00; and 49.50; and 50.00;
and 50.50; and 51.00; and 51.50; and 52.00;
and 52.50; and 53.00; and 53.50; and 54.00;
and 54.50; and 55.00; and 55.50; and 56.00;
and 56.50; and 57.00; and 57.50; and 58.00;
and 58.50; and 59.00; and 59.50; and 60.00;
and 60.50; and 61.00; and 61.50; and 62.00;
and 62.50; and 63.00; and 63.50; and 64.00;
and 64.50; and 65.00; and 65.50; and 66.00;
and 66.50; and 67.00; and 67.50; and 68.00;
and 68.50; and 69.00; and 69.50; and 70.00;
and 70.50; and 71.00; and 71.50; and 72.00;
and 72.50; and 73.00; and 73.50; and 74.00;
and 74.50; and 75.00; and 75.50; and 76.00;
and 76.50; and 77.00; and 77.50; and 78.00;
and 78.50; and 79.00; and 79.50; and 80.00;
and 80.50; and 81.00; and 81.50; and 82.00;
and 82.50; and 83.00; and 83.50; and 84.00;
and 84.50; and 85.00; and 85.50; and 86.00;
and 86.50; and 87.00; and 87.50; and 88.00;
and 88.50; and 89.00; and 89.50; and 90.00;
and 90.50; and 91.00; and 91.50; and 92.00;
and 92.50; and 93.00; and 93.50; and 94.00;
and 94.50; and 95.00; and 95.50; and 96.00;
and 96.50; and 97.00; and 97.50; and 98.00;
and 98.50; and 99.00; and 99.50; and 100.00;
and 100.50; and 101.00; and 101.50; and 102.00;
and 102.50; and 103.00; and 103.50; and 104.00;
and 104.50; and 105.00; and 105.50; and 106.00;
and 106.50; and 107.00; and 107.50; and 108.00;
and 108.50; and 109.00; and 109.50; and 110.00;
and 110.50; and 111.00; and 111.50; and 112.00;
and 112.50; and 113.00; and 113.50; and 114.00;
and 114.50; and 115.00; and 115.50; and 116.00;
and 116.50; and 117.00; and 117.50; and 118.00;
and 118.50; and 119.00; and 119.50; and 120.00;
and 120.50; and 121.00; and 121.50; and 122.00;
and 122.50; and 123.00; and 123.50; and 124.00;
and 124.50; and 125.00; and 125.50; and 126.00;
and 126.50; and 127.00; and 127.50; and 128.00;
and 128.50; and 129.00; and 129.50; and 130.00;
and 130.50; and 131.00; and 131.50; and 132.00;
and 132.50; and 133.00; and 133.50; and 134.00;
and 134.50; and 135.00; and 135.50; and 136.00;
and 136.50; and 137.00; and 137.50; and 138.00;
and 138.50; and 139.00; and 139.50; and 140.00;
and 140.50; and 141.00; and 141.50; and 142.00;
and 142.50; and 143.00; and 143.50; and 144.00;
and 144.50; and 145.00; and 145.50; and 146.00;
and 146.50; and 147.00; and 147.50; and 148.00;
and 148.50; and 149.00; and 149.50; and 150.00;
and 150.50; and 151.00; and 151.50; and 152.00;
and 152.50; and 153.00; and 153.50; and 154.00;
and 154.50; and 155.00; and 155.50; and 156.00;
and 156.50; and 157.00; and 157.50; and 158.00;
and 158.50; and 159.00; and 159.50; and 160.00;
and 160.50; and 161.00; and 161.50; and 162.00;
and 162.50; and 163.00; and 163.50; and 164.00;
and 164.50; and 165.00; and 165.50; and 166.00;
and 166.50; and 167.00; and 167.50; and 168.00;
and 168.50; and 169.00; and 169.50; and 170.00;
and 170.50; and 171.00; and 171.50; and 172.00;
and 172.50; and 173.00; and 173.50; and 174.00;
and 174.50; and 175.00; and 175.50; and 176.00;
and 176.50; and 177.00; and 177.50; and 178.00;
and 178.50; and 179.00; and 179.50; and 180.00;
and 180.50; and 181.00; and 181.50; and 182.00;
and 182.50; and 183.00; and 183.50; and 184.00;
and 184.50; and 185.00; and 185.50; and 186.00;
and 186.50; and 187.00; and 187.50; and 188.00;
and 188.50; and 189.00; and 189.50; and 190.00;
and 190.50; and 191.00; and 191.50; and 192.00;
and 192.50; and 193.00; and 193.50; and 194.00;
and 194.50; and 195.00; and 195.50; and 196.00;
and 196.50; and 197.00; and 197.50; and 198.00;
and 198.50; and 199.00; and 199.50; and 200.00;
and 200.50; and 201.00; and 201.50; and 202.00;
and 202.50; and 203.00; and 203.50; and 204.00;
and 204.50; and 205.00; and 205.50; and 206.00;
and 206.50; and 207.00; and 207.50; and 208.00;
and 208.50; and 209.00; and 209.50; and 210.00;
and 210.50; and 211.00; and 211.50; and 212.00;
and 212.50; and 213.00; and 213.50; and 214.00;
and 214.50; and 215.00; and 215.50; and 216.00;
and 216.50; and 217.00; and 217.50; and 218.00;
and 218.50; and 219.00; and 219.50; and 220.00;
and 220.50; and 221.00; and 221.50; and 222.00;
and 222.50; and 223.00; and 223.50; and 224.00;
and 224.50; and 225.00; and 225.50; and 226.00;
and 226.50; and 227.00; and 227.50; and 228.00;
and 228.50; and 229.00; and 229.50; and 230.00;
and 230.50; and 231.00; and 231.50; and 232.00;
and 232.50; and 233.00; and 233.50; and 234.00;
and 234.50; and 235.00; and 235.50; and 236.00;
and 236.50; and 237.00; and 237.50; and 238.00;
and 238.50; and 239.00; and 239.50; and 240.00;
and 240.50; and 241.00; and 241.50; and 242.00;
and 242.50; and 243.00; and 243.50; and 244.00;
and 244.50; and 245.00; and 245.50; and 246.00;
and 246.50; and 247.00; and 247.50; and 248.00;
and 248.50; and 249.00; and 249.50; and 250.00;
and 250.50; and 251.00; and 251.50; and 252.00;
and 252.50; and 253.00; and 253.50; and 254.00;
and 254.50; and 255.00; and 255.50; and 256.00;
and 256.50; and 257.00; and 257.50; and 258.00;
and 258.50; and 259.00; and 259.50; and 260.00;
and 260.50; and 261.00; and 261.50; and 262.00;
and 262.50; and 263.00; and 263.50; and 264.00;
and 264.50; and 265.00; and 265.50; and 266.00;
and 266.50; and 267.00; and 267.50; and 268.00;
and 268.50; and 269.00; and 269.50; and 270.00;
and 270.50; and 271.00; and 271.50; and 272.00;
and 272.50; and 273.00; and 273.50; and 274.00;
and 274.50; and 275.00; and 275.50; and 276.00;
and 276.50; and 277.00; and 277.50; and 278.00;
and 278.50; and 279.00; and 279.50; and 280.00;
and 280.50; and 281.00; and 281.50; and 282.00;
and 282.50; and 283.00; and 283.50; and 284.00;
and 284.50; and 285.00; and 285.50; and 286.00;
and 286.50; and 287.00; and 287.50; and 288.00;
and 288.50; and 289.00; and 289.50; and 290.00;
and 290.50; and 291.00; and 291.50; and 292.00;
and 292.50; and 293.00; and 293.50; and 294.00;
and 294.50; and 295.00; and 295.50; and 296.00;
and 296.50; and 297.00; and 297.50; and 298.00;
and 298.50; and 299.00; and 299.50; and 300.00;
and 300.50; and 301.00; and 301.50; and 302.00;
and 302.50; and 303.00; and 303.50; and 304.00;
and 304.50; and 305.00; and 305.50; and 306.00;
and 306.50; and 307.00; and 307.50; and 308.00;
and 308.50; and 309.00; and 309.50; and 310.00;
and 310.50; and 311.00; and 311.50; and 312.00;
and 312.50; and 313.00; and 313.50; and 314.00;
and 314.50; and 315.00; and 315.50; and 316.00;
and 316.50; and 317.00; and 317.50; and 318.00;
and 318.50; and 319.00; and 319.50; and 320.00;
and 320.50; and 321.00; and 321.50; and 322.00;
and 322.50; and 323.00; and 323.50; and 324.00;
and 324.50; and 325.00; and 325.50; and 326.00;
and 326.50; and 327.00; and 327.50; and 328.00;
and 328.50; and 329.00; and 329.50; and 330.00;
and 330.50; and 331.00; and 331.50; and 332.00;
and 332.50; and 333.00; and 333.50; and 334.00;
and 334.50; and 335.00; and 335.50; and 336.00;
and 336.50; and 337.00; and 337.50; and 338.00;
and 338.50; and 339.00; and 339.50; and 340.00;
and 340.50; and 341.00; and 341.50; and 342.00;
and 342.50; and 343.00; and 343.50; and 344.00;
and 344.50; and 345.00; and 345.50; and 346.00;
and 346.50; and 347.00; and 347.50; and 348.00;
and 348.50; and 349.00; and 349.50; and 350.00;
and 350.50; and 351.00; and 351.50; and 352.00;
and 352.50; and 353.00; and 353.50; and 354.00;
and 354.50; and 355.00; and 355.50; and 356.00;
and 356.50; and 357.00; and 357.50; and 358.00;
and 358.50; and 359.00; and 359.50; and 360.00;
and 360.50; and 361.00; and 361.50; and 362.00;
and 362.50; and 363.00; and 363.50; and 364.00;
and 364.50; and 365.00; and 365.50; and 366.00;
and 366.50; and 367.00; and 367.50; and 368.00;
and 368.50; and 369.00; and 369.50; and 370.00;
and 370.50; and 371.00; and 371.50; and 372.00;
and 372.50; and 373.00; and 373.50; and 374.00;
and 374.50; and 375.00; and 375.50; and 376.00;
and 376.50; and 377.00; and 377.50; and 378.00;
and 378.50; and 379.00; and 379.50; and 380.00;
and 380.50; and 381.00; and 381.50; and 382.00;
and 382.50; and 383.00; and 383.50; and 384.00;
and 384.50; and 385.00; and 385.50; and 386.00;
and 386.50; and 387.00; and 387.50; and 388.00;
and 388.50; and 389.00; and 389.50; and 390.00;
and 390.50; and 391.00; and 391.50; and 392.00;
and 392.50; and 393.00; and 393.50; and 394.00;
and 394.50; and 395.00; and 395.50; and 396.00;
and 396.50; and 397.00; and 397.50; and 398.00;
and 398.50; and 399.00; and 399.50; and 400.00;
and 400.50; and 401.00; and 401.50; and 402.00;
and 402.50; and 403.00; and 403.50; and 404.00;
and 404.50; and 405.00; and 405.50; and 406.00;
and 406.50; and 407.00; and 407.50; and 408.00;
and 408.50; and 409.00; and 409.50; and 410.00;
and 410.50; and 411.00; and 411.50; and 412.00;
and 412.50; and 413.00; and 413.50; and 414.00;
and 414.50; and 415.00; and 415.50; and 416.00;
and 416.50; and 417.00; and 417.50; and 418.00;
and 418.50; and 419.00; and 419.50; and 420.00;
and 420.50; and 421.00; and 421.50; and 422.00;
and 422.50; and 423.00; and 423.50; and 424.00;
and 424.50; and 425.00; and 425.50; and 426.00;
and 426.50; and 427.00; and 427.50; and 428.00;
and 428.50; and 429.00; and 429.50; and 430.00;
and 430.50; and 431.00; and 431.50; and 432.00;
and 432.50; and 433.00; and 433.50; and 434.00;
and 434.50; and 435.00; and 435.50; and 436.00;
and 436.50; and 437.00; and 437.50; and 438.00;
and 438.50; and 439.00; and 439.50; and 440.00;
and 440.50; and 441.00; and 441.50; and 442.00;
and 442.50; and 443.00; and 443.50; and 444.00;
and 444.50; and 445.00; and 445.50; and 446.00;
and 446.50; and 447.00; and 447.50; and 448.00;
and 448.50; and 449.00; and 449.50; and 450.00;
and 450.50; and 451.00; and 451.50; and 452.00;
and 452.50; and 453.00; and 453.50; and 454.00;
and 454.50; and 455.00; and 455.50; and 456.00;
and 456.50; and 457.00; and 457.50; and 458.00;
and 458.50; and 459.00; and 459.50; and 460.00;
and 460.50; and 461.00; and 461.50; and 462.00;
and 462.50; and 463.00; and 463.50; and 464.00;
and 464.50; and 465.00; and 465.50; and 466.00;
and 466.50; and 467.00; and 467.50; and 468.00;
and 468.50; and 469.00; and 469.50; and 470.00;
and 470.50; and 471.00; and 471.50; and 472.00;
and 472.50; and 473.00; and 473.50; and 474.00;
and 474.50; and 475.00; and 475.50; and 476.00;
and 476.50; and 477.00; and 477.50; and 478.00;
and 478.50; and 479.00; and 479.50; and 480.00;
and 480.50; and 481.00; and 481.50; and 482.00;
and 482.50; and 483.00; and 483.50; and 484.00;
and 484.50; and 485.00; and 485.50; and 486.00;
and 486.50; and 487.00; and 487.50; and 488.00;
and 488.50; and 489.00; and 489.50; and 490.00;
and 490.50; and 491.00; and 491.50; and 492.00;
and 492.50; and 493.00; and 493.50; and 494.00;
and 494.50; and 495.00; and 495.50; and 496.00;
and 496.50; and 497.00; and 497.50; and 498.00;
and 498.50; and 499.00; and 499.50; and 500.00;
and 500.50; and 501.00; and 501.50; and 502.00;
and 502.50; and 503.00; and 503.50; and 504.00;
and 504.50; and 505.00; and 505.50; and 506.00;
and 506.50; and 507.00; and 507.50; and 508.00;
and 508.50; and 509.00; and 509.50; and 510.00;
and 510.50; and 511.00; and 511.50; and 512.00;
and 512.50; and 513.00; and 513.50; and 514.00;
and 514.50; and 515.00; and 515.50; and 516.00;
and 516.50; and 517.00; and 517.50; and 518.00;
and 518.50; and 519.00; and 519.50; and 520.00;
and 520.50; and 521.00; and 521.50; and 522.00;
and 522.50; and 523.00; and 523.50; and 524.00;
and 524.50; and 5

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1898.

Sheppard and Sprague.

The Republican Representative convention held on Thursday evening was a most harmonious affair and resulted in the nomination upon the first ballot of Eben W. Sheppard of Ward One and Eugene H. Sprague of Ward Five. The convention was called to order at 8 o'clock by President R. R. Freeman of the City Committee, who read the call. Upon motion of Charles M. Bryant, Harry W. Read of Ward Six was elected chairman, and upon motion of Charles M. Jenness, Frank F. Prescott of Ward One was elected secretary.

Upon motion of John S. Gay a committee of three on credentials was appointed by the chair consisting of John S. Gay of Ward Two, John E. Poland of Ward Six and Peter W. Dakers of Ward Three. This committee reported that Ward One was entitled to seven votes; Ward Two four; Ward Three seven; Ward Four five; Ward Five seven; and Ward Six to three, and that all were present.

Upon motion of Hon. Henry O. Fairbanks the temporary organization was made permanent. Upon motion of Walter Hatch, a committee of three to receive ballots was appointed by the chair, as follows: Walter Hatch of Ward One, John E. Poland of Ward Six, and Peter W. Dakers of Ward Three. Ex-Mayor Henry O. Fairbanks then presented the name of Eugene H. Sprague; Hon. John F. Merrill the name of Eben W. Sheppard; Tobias H. Burke, the name of Jonas Shackley; and Peter W. Dakers, the name of Philip Halvosa.

Upon motion of Charles M. Bryant the convention proceeded to ballot by wards for two candidates. The ballot resulted as follows: Whole number of votes, 24; Necessary for choice, 12; Eben W. Sheppard had 19; Eugene H. Sprague had 15; Philip Halvosa had 12; and Jonas Shackley had 12.

Messrs. Sheppard and Sprague were declared the nominees.

Upon motion of Mr. Dakers of Ward Three the nomination was made unanimous.

Upon motion of Mr. Bryant, a committee of two, consisting of Hon. John F. Merrill and Hon. Henry O. Fairbanks were appointed by the chair to retire and introduce the candidates. It was then voted that in case of a vacancy by death or other causes the Ward and City Committee be empowered to fill the vacancy.

A recess was then taken, at the close of which the committee entered with the two candidates who were introduced to the convention. Mr. Sheppard thanked the convention for the nomination and assured them that if elected he would do his best to do his duty to the city and to act of his would cause the voters to feel ashamed.

Mr. Sprague deeply appreciated the honor of being nominated to represent 25,000 people in the Legislature. If elected, he would help the growth and do nothing to taint its history. He would always be ready to look after the interests of Quincy and at all times ready to heed any petitions. If when my term is ended you can only say, I did what I thought to be right, I shall be satisfied.

The remarks of both gentlemen were greeted with approval and applause, and at 8:40 the convention adjourned.

A Bold Robber.

The family of Simon Scamwell received quite a scare Tuesday night. It was about 9:30 o'clock, just as Mr. Scamwell was retiring. His son was down stairs reading when suddenly the stillness was disturbed by a knock at the door. This was followed by a second knock, at which the son started for the door. As he opened the door he was confronted by a man who shouted "I want your money or your life." Without waiting to reply, the young man shut the door with a bang and ran up stairs. The family had been aroused by the demand which had been uttered in a loud voice, and Mr. Scamwell opened the window, but could not see anyone. He however thought he saw an object in the bushes opposite, and he fired two shots from a revolver in that direction. Shortly after the report died away when he saw a man leave the bushes and run toward South street. It was a peculiar method for a man bent upon robbery and the affair is rather mysterious.

Wires Underground.

Work laying the underground conduits of the New England Telephone Co. on Hancock street has been delayed somewhat by the non-arrival of the pipes which should have arrived last week, but for some reason have been side-tracked somewhere. The laying of these under-ground conduits is an interesting one. The trench dug is not over three feet, and in this trench is first laid a square box, the wood of which has been soaked in creosote. This gives them the appearance of having been scorched by fire. The bath of creosote preserves the wood, and it is said that many years will elapse before the wood rots. The bottom and sides of the boxes are first placed in position. Then two pipes or ducts made of cucumber wood are placed in the boxes and the whole covered up and the trench filled in. Manholes are placed every two hundred feet, and from these the cables of fifty pairs of wires each are fed into the cucumber ducts.

Y. M. C. A. Reception.

The postponed annual opening reception of the Y. M. C. A., was held Wednesday evening at the Association rooms and was largely attended. The affair was entirely informal but none the less enjoyable. During the evening there was piano and flute duets and recitations by the grammophones. A lunch was also served by the ladies auxiliary and Rev. Edward Anderson gave an address on association work. Secretary Hoehn spoke of the coming winter's work of the Association. An opportunity was afforded during the evening to inspect the rooms.

Secretary Hoehn in his remarks announced that the classes in educational work for free hand drawing and clay modelling would be commenced Oct. 24, under the direction of Herbert W. Seattie. Classes in Swedish, English, bookkeeping and penmanship would be commenced the same week. In the religious work, men's meetings will be held every Sunday and a Bible class during the week. The physical department and gymnasium classes will be held Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening.

CASORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer

CITY BRIEFS.

The evening schools will open Oct. 24.

A new concrete sidewalk for Temple street.

Only $19,121.00 of the taxes of 1898 had been paid up to Oct. 1.

The temporary loans of 1898 thus far amount to $178,000.

The funeral services of John M. Forbes on Thursday were strictly private.

Miss Katherine Roche is the new bookkeeper at Henry L. Kincaide & Co.'s.

City Treasurer Gray is having a new combination lock placed on one of the vaults in his office.

It is the intention of the Grand Army this year to have their fair eclipse all previous efforts.

Will the party who found a fountain pen in City Square this week kindly return it to the Ledger office.

A large black snake about 2 1/2 feet long was killed on Temple street near First church on Saturday by boys.

The curbing for the gravel sidewalk between Butler and Merryman park on the east side is being placed in position.

A fine deer is on exhibition at John Bros. store. It was shot by Joseph Johnson on his recent gunning trip.

The disbursements of the city to Oct. 1, amounted to over $550,000. The expenditures for September were $62,125.20.

Spike Sullivan, the pugilist, who has been stopping at the Brown cottage at Houghs Neck, returned to Boston Tuesday.

Judge White was on the bench at the session of the Probate Court in Quincy Wednesday for the first time since last January.

Walter W. Gardner, private secretary to the mayor, is on the staff of the Quincy & Boston street railway is in Niagara Falls on his vacation.

The current number of "The Rubber" the yachting magazine, devotes five pages and the frontispiece to the Quincy Yacht club's cup races.

The ice men, who have been having the cream of business for the past few months, have now taken a back seat and the coal men have come to the front.

The steamer Lewiston has been purchased by Mr. Butler who has burned several boats at Nt island, and it may be brought here and destroyed for its old metal.

The fakers will have to find a new place to sell their goods, as a fence is to be erected on Temple street. The public has encroached considerably on the sluttish.

The Young Men's Christian Association is again made the recipient of a thoughtful action in the presentation to it of a carpet sweeper by Mrs. Guy and Mrs. Shaw of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

The first large card party of the season is to be given next week Tuesday, at Colonial hall under the auspices of Mrs. E. G. Pratt and Mrs. A. H. Gilson. Already a large attendance is promised.

Mrs. William F. Hoehn has gone to attend the State Conference of Women's Auxiliaries of the Y. M. C. A. at Fitchburg. Mrs. T. B. Pollard and Mrs. A. B. Hatch are also delegates and left on Wednesday.

The Bethany Ladies' circle was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Theophilus King of Adams street. It is the custom to hold the first fall meeting with Mrs. King and large numbers annually enjoy her hospitality.

Mr. William Lunt of Waltham, son of P. P. Lunt of this city, after eighteen years of labor with the Waltham Watch factory, has resigned his position and accepted one with Bigelow, Kennard & Co. of Washington street, Boston.

Many Quincy people will be interested in the announcement of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. Dodge of Beverly, Tuesday. Mrs. Dodge was formerly well known here as Miss Maude Cummings. She is a sister of Mrs. A. E. Sprout of Hancock street.

Invitations are out for the church holding of Miss Emma Caldwell and Mr. Pearl Johnson for Saturday evening, Oct. 22, at the Swedish Methodist church on Fort street. They will make their future home on Cranich street, Cranich hill.

Councilman and Mrs. Eugene N. Hullman observed their twenty-fourth marriage anniversary Friday, Oct. 7, by entertaining a few friends who dropped in upon them. Caris, music and refreshments served to make the evening pass pleasantly.

Vespers were resumed Sunday at First church. The attendance was not as large as expected, being less than 175, but those present listened to a fine sermon by Rev. E. C. Butler. The music was also particularly good, especially a solo by Miss Florence Emery.

It was an eventful day Sunday for the Bible school of Bethany church. It was really day and the attendance greatly surpassed the record. The session was held in the church and was addressed by Mr. N. S. Groot of Somerville, who entertained young and old with a chalk talk.

Mr. Edwin B. Pratt returned on Wednesday from Europe and is stopping at Wellesley Hills with his sister, Mrs. Robert M. Baker. He was in Quincy Sunday to see old friends. Mr. Pratt never looked in better health. His stay of over a year in Europe evidently agreed with him.

Mrs. Charles F. Spear, the wife of 2d Lieut. Spear of Co. K, 5th Mass. regiment, U. S. V., left Thursday for Camp Meade to join her husband. She will also accompany the regiment if it goes South. Mrs. Spear has made her home with Mrs. George Bean, her sister, at Atlantic.

Members of Adams Chapter are to give two winter parties at Colonial hall on Tuesday, October 18. In the afternoon it will be a picnic whist; each lady will bring an inexpensive gift and at the end of the play each lady will receive a gift grabbing fashion. The evening whist will be for ladies and men when prizes will be given for the highest scores.

The Y. P. C. U. meetings at the University church Sunday evenings, are steadily growing in interest and in attendance. Friday evening, Mrs. Lincoln of Hingham, District Superintendent, was the leader, and helpful remarks were made by her and also by Mrs. Ward of the same place. The exercises were very enjoyable throughout, and everybody lingered to talk them over for some time afterwards, as they always do whenever they have been pleased and profited.

MANY PEOPLE CANNOT DRINK
coffee at night. It spoils their sleep. You can drink Grain-O when you please and sleep like a top. For Grain-O does not stimulate the nervous system and excite the brain. It is the best coffee. For nervous people, young people, and children Grain-O is the perfect drink. Made from pure grains. Get a trial package free. Write to us. Try it in place of coffee. 15 and 25c.

Brother Faxon of Quincy is still the stormy petrel of Republican conventions.—Globe.

Frank A. Locke, piano tuner, new ad page 1.

WOLLASTON.

L. W. Nash has sold for Lalan Pratt of Neponset, a dwelling-house and 10,000 feet of land on Safford street to W. D. Munroe of Boston.

On Sunday evening the Vesper services at the Wollaston Baptist church will be resumed. The service is at 7:30.

Sunday was observed as Rally day at the Wollaston Baptist church. At the morning service the pastor, the Rev. Preston Gurney, preached on the "Bible" with special reference to the advantages derived from its study. The Bible school which met immediately after, held an open service. To the primary class were given the place of honor, and the children certainly did their part well, showing very careful work by the teachers. Mr. Haynes of Boston sang, and Mr. H. B. Bailey spoke of his trip through Egypt and Palestine.

Miss Helen Foster of Wollaston, who has been quite ill, is slowly convalescing.

The tunneling of Hancock street north of Caruth street for the sewer is an interesting piece of work as the bottom of the tunnel is over twenty feet below the street level. There is also another tunnel being dug at Wollaston under the railroad tracks just north of the depot.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown of Wollaston have issued cards for the wedding reception of their daughter, Miss Laura F. Brown, and Mr. George S. Wadsworth, to be held at their residence on Beale street, Wednesday evening, Oct. 19.

Mr. Leon H. Vincent of Philadelphia lectured before a large audience on Monday evening at the Wollaston Congregational church under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent society on "William Dean Howells."

The regular Sabbath evening song and preaching service of the Wollaston Methodist church will begin hereafter at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30.

A series of socials are to be held in the ladies' hall throughout the winter. Saturday's Ledger will contain a full account of the Unity club's reception.

Mr. James C. Porter of Wollaston, has leased the lot of land between his place and the Cranville place.

Mrs. Ellen G. Everett has moved to her new home on Cottage street, on Brook street, Wollaston. Mr. A. E. Brown and family have moved to Needham.

The opening sociable of the season given under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent society of the Wollaston Congregational church was a very successful affair and attracted a large crowd of people to the supper as well as to the entertainment which followed.

There is a good deal of kicking at Wollaston by the shutters to line to be assessed for the new concrete sidewalk. A large part of the sidewalks have been torn up to be replaced by concrete and new binding gravel walks with rounded soil borders. These walks were laid on regularly prepared foundations and will last for many years. The new sidewalk and sewer assessments and regular tax bill made it hard sledding for many people.

John Adams Council, No. 1210 Royal Arcanum, Wollaston, at its regular meeting Monday evening, initiated as a new member Hon. Russell Adams Sars, Mayor of Quincy. The degree staff of the Council and the Elwood quartette made the ceremony of special interest. District Deputy Grand Regent, W. M. Howard, accompanied by Past D. G. B. Walter H. Lyons was also present on an official visit. There was a good attendance of members, and after the business work of the Council had been concluded refreshments were served and remarks were made by Hon. the Mayor, and the District Deputy Grand Regents.

A concert by the Boston Cadet band should be a big drawing card for the land auction at Squantum park this afternoon. There will also be hot coffee and refreshments. Don't miss this sale.

QUINCY POINT AND NECK.

Down the bay Sunday and around Rock Island the wind was not strong enough to keep the lovers of sport housed up, and a number of handsome boats could be seen gliding to and fro under close reef. Fifty 25 boats of all description were trying to catch the shiny smelt. A large amount of perch and pollock was pulled in with the aid of shrimps, but smelts were found wanting.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Point church will give a reception to the new pastor, Rev. Edward Anderson, Tuesday evening the 18th, from 7:30 to 9:30. All persons in the community over fourteen years of age are cordially invited to attend.

Joseph Hayden removed from Howard avenue to Roxbury.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Graham arrived home from Lexington, Ky., Monday night. Mr. Graham delivered the published report that he has purchased a three-year old filly, and says that he simply did it in for a New York party.

Newcomb Square at the Neck is being overhauled this week, large stones are being used for paving a new sidewalk and there is a large drain pipe to carry off water. The street is being widened at the foot of the hill.

House was sold at auction in Quincy, Wednesday, Oct. 14, for $1,000.

Driver Meade of Hose 4 is having his vacation, and is the last member there in the vacation list.

There are other parts of Washington street, that that proposed, to be taken by the Highways Commission, that were rebuilding, but the work is extended year by year to the Boston line.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Washington Street Congregational church will tender a reception to their pastor, Rev. Edward Anderson, Tuesday evening, Oct. 18, from 7:30 to 9:30.

The gold watch and chain lost at the foot ball game on Saturday was found by Wesley Sargent of Quincy Neck who returned it to its owner and would accept no reward.

Y. M. C. A. Officers.

The Quincy Young Men's Christian Association held its annual meeting Tuesday evening and elected these officers:

President.—Deleware King of Quincy.

Vice President.—H. B. Bailey of Wollaston.

Recording Secretary.—E. D. Gourd of Quincy.

Treasurer.—W. F. Cummings of Atlantic.

The following additional directors were elected: W. T. Isaac, F. H. Crane, Rev. Edward Norton, Alexander Clark, George E. Thomas.

Those with A. D. Abbe, W. F. Cummings, H. T. Whitman, E. D. Gourd, H. B. Bailey, A. N. Weeden, W. E. Burke, T. H. Watson, Dr. J. A. Gordon, W. H. Mitchell and N. G. Nickerson constitute the present board of directors.

The meeting adopted new constitution and changed the association year from October to June.

Frank A. Locke, piano tuner, new ad page 1.

ATLANTIC.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Mr. Joseph Slavin at his home on Charles street, Atlantic, Saturday evening, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Joseph was presented with a handsome umbrella by his friends.

Mrs. Anne Seaman and son Arthur returned Saturday after an extended visit with relatives in Nova Scotia.

A new street sign at the corner of Billings street and Newbury avenue is appreciated in Atlantic.

Mr. Ernest G. Bacon of Atlantic has accepted a business position in Albany and will remove his family to that city.

Mr. Ralph W. Hobbs has bought the house on Clark street, Atlantic, occupied by Mr. Bacon, and will remove to the same in November.

Mr. Frank Titton of Billings street, Atlantic, will soon move his family to Norfolk Downs where he will have a more convenient place for his farming operations.

The Quincy & Boston Street railway company is to build a car house near Neponset bridge on what is known as Robinson's wharf. The dimensions of the building will be 96x23x14 and will cost $15,000.

The Atlantic foot ball eleven think they can put up a pretty stiff game, and will soon tackle some of the amateur clubs in this vicinity. This afternoon we are informed, they will play the Quincy High practice game.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent society connected with the Atlantic Memorial church the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. Theo. Parker; Vice President, Mrs. William F. Cummings; Secretary, Miss Susan H. Hall; Treasurer, Mrs. Alonzo Priest.

The people of Ward Six are very much exercised over the condition of Sagamore street. Every time a rain storm prevails the water is from four to six inches deep, and runs over the sidewalks, making the street impassable. This has been the case for months, and last spring the City Council voted to build a catch basin for the purpose of draining this water off. If it is not attended to before the ground freezes a serious time will result. Present attention should be given this matter.

Miss Anna Granahan of Atlantic, entertained her little friends at her home on Old Colony street, Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her seventh birthday. A pleasant time was had, and greatly enjoyed by the little ones.

The annual 100 mile run of the Boston Bicycle club was held on Saturday in conjunction with the Boston Athletic Association both events being under the direction of Dr. W. G. Kendall. The bicycle race ending twenty for the 100 miles was exactly eight hours.

Miss Mina Reid, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. L. Thompson of Squantum street, has returned to her home in Frio, N. S.

The Atlantic foot ball team will attempt to defeat the Dorchester High school eleven at Townsend, Dorchester, this afternoon. The game will be called at 3:30 and promises to be a very interesting one.

Mr. G. Nickerson, real estate, has sold a house on Lexington street, to Mrs. Mary F. Dexter, of Cross street, West Quincy, he will be sorry to learn that next week she leaves Quincy, to make her home with friends at Saxton River, Vt.

Brooks Adams, in his address at Cambridge, Tuesday evening, favored taking the Philippines. He said in part: "I think we need the Philippines to fight our commercial enemies with and push forward our commercial interests. It is a question of destroying our commercial enemies or having them destroyed ourselves. Terrible chances will ensue unless we are successful."

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Proprietors, Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known P. J. Cheney for many years, and he is a perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligation made by him.

West & Thrax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

WALDON KINAX & MARTIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price, 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

THE FALL SEASON

IS HERE

For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental trees, Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Climatic, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,

Fenno St., Wollaston.

MADE IN MASSACHUSETTS.

P. O. Box 14, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St. Tel. 14-11.

GILDEMEESTER & KROEGER PIANOS.

These renowned instruments are unequalled in all those qualities sought for in a piano by the musician and artist.

MEHLIN PIANOS

Took one of the highest awards at the World's Fair. One of the most artistic instruments in case design, tone, quality and action produced in the world.

KROEGER PIANOS.

Established 35 years. The best pianos for the price in the United States. Thoroughly reliable and satisfactory. Fully warranted.

Illustrated catalogues mailed on application. All pianos sold on easy terms, and old instruments taken in exchange.

Second-hand Square and Upright Pianos of all makes taken in exchange, and sold at the lowest prices for cash or instalments.

A. F. PELTON, sole representative, 144 Mount St., Bet. Temple Pl. and West St., Boston. Tel. 15-30.

Training of Attendants for the Sick.

The Mass. Emergency and Hygiene Association begins courses in training attendants for convalescent and chronic cases, etc., Oct. 12, Nov. 14, Feb. 27, and Mar. 27. Fee $15 for five weeks' course. Particulars of DR. ANSA G. RICHARDSON, Instructor, 92 Charles street, Boston, 3 to 5 P. M. Oct. 1-30.

RD-CHASE QUINCY

"MASS. MONEY MORTGAGE"

TO LOAN ON REAL ESTATE

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

SOUTH QUINCY.

The First Presbyterian church, of Water street, was dedicated Sunday, Oct. 10, 1887, and the eleventh anniversary of its dedication will be commemorated by Sunday evening which is also the 10th.

There will be a church wedding at the First Presbyterian church, Water street, next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, the first for two or three years.

The Rev. Robert Westly Peach spent last week in Vermont, where he was elected moderator of the Presbytery of Boston. South Ryegate, where the Presbytery met, is only an hour's drive from the farm in Newbury where Mr. Peach's grandfather was born.

A social meeting of the First United Presbyterian congregation was held on Saturday evening in Orangemen's hall. The meeting was called to order at eight, by Mr. McKenzie, chairman of the board of trustees. Prayer was offered by the Rev. W. W. Donnan, singing by the choir following, and then remarks by the chairman, R. A. McQueen and Elder James McDonald, singing by the choir and an address by the pastor. Some liberal pledges were made towards the building fund of the new church. Refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid society and a pleasant evening was spent.

The section of the sewer on Franklin street is being connected with the section on School street at the junction of the two streets.

If the fellow who called at Simeon Scamwell's house the other night and demanded the young man's money or his life, did it for a joke, as reported, it came near proving a serious one for him. It was too much of a joke.

WEST QUINCY.

The Methodist Episcopal church at West Quincy will observe its 25th anniversary on Sunday and Monday, Oct. 23 and 24.

A ballot showed of two pastors will assist, Rev. F. N. Upham of Dorchester will preach the anniversary sermon, and Rev. E. W. Virgin of Dedham, a former pastor, will make an address.

A concert to Miss Tala Rice is to be given at St. Mary's hall next week.

Charles S. Joss returns this week from a three weeks' visit to Saco, Maine.

Frank Ginn has completed his labors at E. H. Doble & Co.'s store and has been succeeded by Mr. Cole.

Dr. Clarence C. Byard, formerly of West Quincy, is in town on a brief visit. Dr. Byard is now located in Bangor, Me.

Miss Cassie McDowell fell Wednesday, while coming down the steps at E. H. Doble & Co.'s store and bruised herself somewhat.

Mr. Thomas O'Brien, a well known citizen of West Quincy, died at his residence on Willard street, Wednesday afternoon, of appendicitis, after an illness of but a few days' duration. He had been having an operation performed but passed away before this could be done. He was a stone cutter by trade and had been employed by J. N. White for a number of years. He leaves a widow and three children.

The rebuilding of Crescent street will be completed this week.

The boys' friends of Mrs. Mary F. Dexter, of Cross street, West Quincy, will be sorry to learn that next week she leaves Quincy, to make her home with friends at Saxton River, Vt.

Brooks Adams, in his address at Cambridge, Tuesday evening, favored taking the Philippines. He said in part: "I think we need the Philippines to fight our commercial enemies with and push forward our commercial interests. It is a question of destroying our commercial enemies or having them destroyed ourselves. Terrible chances will ensue unless we are successful."

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Proprietors, Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known P. J. Cheney for many years, and he is a perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligation made by him.

West & Thrax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

WALDON KINAX & MARTIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price, 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

THE FALL SEASON

IS HERE

For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental trees, Shrubs and Vines.

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Carpets and Upholstery

Our stock is by far the largest in Boston, and includes many of the latest patterns obtainable nowhere else.

Our prices are always at the bottom of the market.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
658 Washington St., Boston.

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

1867--1898.

THE OLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE BOOT AND SHOE STORE IN THE CITY

There is nothing new to say, and so will simply say that I have all kinds of

Boots and Oxford Ties

In the LATEST STYLES.

For Summer and Fall Wear.

Russet and Black Dressings of all kinds.

Repairing Done at Short Notice.

ELLA L. STETSON.
51 Washington Street, Quincy.

SEE ME

BEFORE YOU BUY YOUR

COAL!

CEO. E. FROST.

Wagon's Mail-Box 488 Neponset Ave., Tel. phone

Brick and Lime NEPONSET 233 Dorchester

WANTED.

WANTED—30 Experienced Sliters on new machines. Apply, CONGRESS BLDG., 101 1/2 Washington street, Quincy, Oct. 12-14.

WANTED—Capable Girl for general housework in a family of three. Call or address Mrs. E. E. Johnson, cor. Brook and Franklin streets, Wollaston, Oct. 11-14.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

House of nine finished rooms, including bath, and all modern improvements. Also large lot for street, shade trees, etc. Call on realtor, public, or apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

WOLLASTON HEIGHTS.

Fine Tenement to let, 5 or 6 rooms, low rent; very improved. Also, separate entrance. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

Single House of 10 rooms, 4 1/2 bath, near corner of Elm and Washington streets, in good repair at low rent. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

PLEASANT TENEMENT of six rooms, with large lot, at the corner of Washington and Walnut streets. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

Tenement of three rooms, $5.00 a month. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location. Apply to FRANK E. CURTIS, 111 Franklin St., Quincy, Oct. 15.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1898.

WEEKLY	Star	Full Sea.	Mon.
ALMANAC	Rises, Sets, Moon, Evs. sets.
Sunday, Oct. 15	5:57 5:00 11:30 11:15
Monday, " 16	5:56 5:00 11:30 11:14	5:18 5:18
Tuesday, " 17	6:00 5:00 12:00 12:15	6:00 " "
Wednesday, " 18	6:01 5:00 12:00 12:15	6:50 " "
Thursday, " 19	6:02 5:00 12:00 12:15	7:32 " "
Friday, " 20	6:03 5:00 12:00 12:15	8:00 " "
Saturday, " 21	6:04 5:00 12:00 12:15	8:30 " "
First Quarter, Oct. 22	4:40 4:30 " "

Two Weeks' Temperature.

This Week.	Last Week.	1897.	1896.
Sunday	65	64	68
Monday	62	61	65
Tuesday	75	85	60
Wednesday	71	63	78
Thursday	55	64	50
Friday	61	61	54
Saturday	—	61	75

Home Science Association.

The Quincy Home Science Association held an interesting meeting last week Friday at the Unitarian chapel. Reports of the summer work were read. Two very successful kindergartens had been supported and mothers as well as children had been benefited. At the close of these reports a gift from the Association was presented to the mothers who had given personal testimony to the results of the kindergarten work in the home. Miss Mary Dawson had during the year addressed the Association, and given interesting facts in connection with the work she is engaged in as secretary. This society has its headquarters on St. Botolph street in Boston, and aims to put domestic science on a different basis, making it more desirable as a vocation and more satisfactory to the employed. She begged housekeepers to give their cooperation and sympathy.

Mrs. Warren Adams, the Home Science treasurer, read the financial report, making the details of receipts of expenses very clear and satisfactory. The Association numbers about three hundred members, but there is room for more and a welcome awaiting them.

After the reports, Miss Johnson, the president, in her usual pleasant and graceful way introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Kate Gannett Wells. Nearly a hundred of Quincy's representative women made up the audience and listened with delighted interest to what was said.

Mrs. Wells advised the Association to begin its most active work in the home itself and with the homemaker. Let each member search her own methods and motives and after that do what lay near the hand outside.

She advised laying down no rigid cut and dried rules for housekeepers, but let each housekeeper be a law unto herself. As long as husband and children were satisfied, or whoever the home was made for, let the housekeeper remain undisturbed. She gave an excellent rule for any walk in life. "Keep your temper and use your common sense," Mrs. Wells begged those present to avoid the "official face" if called to office, and especially to keep it away from the home-circle. She gave an amusing account of her own experience in this matter and of the results of her "repentance and a better mind."

Mrs. Wells called to the responsibility of important outside work, but keep work and its details away from the home. If a woman can not do this, pass the work over to someone who can. Mrs. Wells talked for nearly an hour, giving good advice in an exceedingly entertaining manner. Her remarks were all taken to heart and appreciated as testified to by the frequent applause.

After the lecture a short business meeting was held and then the officers adjourned with Mrs. Wells, to the home of Mrs. E. C. Bannum where tea was served. The Home Science Association is evidently an established fact in Quincy and has plans for an excellent work in the future.

F. C. B.

The People Want It.

That explains the rapid growth of THE NEW ENGLAND JOURNAL.

The local newspapers report a large increase in the sales of the Quincy Journal, with its new form and new features, and anticipate a further increase next Sunday. They explain the growing popularity of the Quincy Journal by calling attention to the attractive and exclusive features of its convenient form with small-sized pages, easy to handle and satisfactory to read its use of the half-toned process in illustrating giving direct reproductions of the photographs and the 48-page bound, New England Home Magazine, the most expensive feature ever offered by any newspaper.

This New England Home Magazine was designed for the pleasure and interest of New England people, and the success of its mission is made evident by the remarkable growth in its circulation with that of the Boston Sunday Journal. It is beautifully and profusely illustrated, and its photographs of children, which form a regular feature, are known all over the New England States. The continuous story, "Chasing a Spanish Spy," has met hearty favor. Next Sunday's number has, too, an illustrated article on the beautiful women of Havana.

Included in next Sunday's photographic section are portraits of the Chaplains of New England regiments, pictures of the soldier's cemetery at Ponce, showing the gross neglect and indifference of American officials, against which Frederick Roy Martin, the Boston Journal's correspondent in Porto Rico, has written a most powerful and timely article. The best field of this band has been mostly New England and Canada and the west, but two hours have been made through the South. In Chicago nothing has ever equalled the continued success of the Quincy Journal. The program here will be very patriotic and Brooke's reputation for originality will insure many surprises during his stay. He will give the national air with the greatest inspiration and many thrilling accessories.

Miss Sibyl Samuels, the beautiful young Chicago girl, who is said to have the voice of a Gershwitz will sing, and as she is young and beautiful and thoroughly American, she will very appropriately sing some national airs of the country.

Brooke Band Coming.

It will be a brilliant opening for the musical season at Quincy Music hall when Brooke and his famous Marine Band will appear for the first time before a Quincy audience. Manager Dargis has secured the band, and on occasions to secure this attraction, as it is regarded as the foremost band in America for playing the light popular and inspiring music which really constitutes the field of the military band. The band was organized by some wealthy Chicago member of the Naval Militia after the World's Fair and in the three years of its active concert giving, the Quincy Music hall has brought it to the foremost rank in public esteem, and aside from the one famous band of New York, the Chicago Marine Band has done more playing and had more of continued success than any other of the present or past fame, and the present year it has done twice as much playing as any other. The best field of this band has been mostly New England and Canada and the west, but two hours have been made through the South. In Chicago nothing has ever equalled the continued success of the Quincy Journal. The program here will be very patriotic and Brooke's reputation for originality will insure many surprises during his stay. He will give the national air with the greatest inspiration and many thrilling accessories.

Miss Sibyl Samuels, the beautiful young Chicago girl, who is said to have the voice of a Gershwitz will sing, and as she is young and beautiful and thoroughly American, she will very appropriately sing some national airs of the country.

Hall-Merrill Wedding.

An exceedingly pretty wedding was solemnized at Bethany Congregational church Tuesday evening when Miss Mary Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Merrill, was married to Mr. Arthur Williams Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Hall. The many friends of the bride and groom were shown to their seats by the following ushers: Mr. Harry E. Russell, Mr. Walter E. Barker, Mr. E. Eaton Pierce, Mr. Frank Merrill, Mr. Herbert W. Barker, and Mr. J. O. Hall, Jr. The church was decorated in a very effective manner with green and hydrangea blossoms. Graceful palms and ferns were massed in front of the organ and around the pulpit platform, while festoons of green brier gave a very artistic effect above the heavier decorations.

Before the wedding ceremony while the guests were being seated, an excellent organ concert was given by Mrs. Jennie Hookins Hunt, the newly appointed organist at the church. Much favorable comment was heard of the selections played and of the skill of the player.

At eight o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride's attendant, Miss Bessie Merrill, entered at the front of the church and came down the aisle to meet the wedding procession. She was dressed in a dainty gown of pink silk covered with Swiss muslin, and wore a handsome brooch, a gift from the bride's mother. After removing the ribbon barrier which crossed the aisle, she met the ushers and preceded them to the altar. After the ushers came the bridesmaid, Miss Clara Merrill, another sister of the bride. She was gowned in white satin covered with Swiss muslin, with trimmings of ribbon and lace. She also wore a brooch, a gift from the groom, and carried a bunch of pinks.

The bride entered with her father, Her gown was of white satin, with very plain, and was most effective on that account. Her veil was caught up with orange blossoms and maiden hair fern. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Arthur R. Wendall, who is a cousin of the bride, and came on from New York for the wedding. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. N. Hardy, who read the Episcopal service from the prayer book carried by the bride. The bride was given away by her father.

A reception at the bride's home, 37 Washington street, followed the services at the church. The parents of the bride and groom assisted in receiving. Congratulations were showered upon the newly made husband and wife. Refreshments were served by Catherine Bess, of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall were the recipients of many handsome gifts, which were all well chosen that to mention any one would be to slight the rest. The groom's gift to the bride was a ring, set with a handsome diamond and pearl.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Hall left on a short wedding trip. On their return they will come to their new home, 203 Hancock street, where they will be at home to friends on the evenings of December sixth and eighth.

Hayden-Perry Reception.

There was a quiet family wedding Tuesday evening at residence of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Perry, No. 4 Johnson avenue, when their daughter, Miss Addie Florence, and Mr. Edward W. Hayden were united in marriage by Rev. Edwin Noah Hardy of Bethany Congregational church.

The reception, however, which followed, was very largely attended by the friends of the young people, including guests from New York, Worcester, Hingham and elsewhere, as well as Quincy.

The bride was charmingly attired in an ivory bordered satin, cut en train, with chiffon trimmings; a white tulle veil was fastened with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Addie S. Perry, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was gowned in a white organdie over pink silk. The groom was attended by Mr. George D. Langley.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden were assisted in receiving by their parents—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Hayden.

The ushers were: Mr. Arthur T. Perry, Mr. George W. Taylor, Mr. Ernest D. Gould of Quincy and Mr. John H. Burroughs of Dorchester.

Mr. Clifford C. Bradford was organist during the evening, and for the wedding ceremony played Lohengrin's march.

The house was prettily decorated with smilax, evergreen and cut flowers, palms and ferns. Delicious ices were served by Cook. The wedding gifts were displayed in one of the rooms on the first floor, and included silver cut glass, dainty dishes and many useful articles.

Many lingered until after ten o'clock to give the bridal couple a "send off," and assisted in showering rice upon them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden will be missed, as they are to reside in Worcester. They will be at home at No. 6 1/2 Westfield street, after Jan. 1.

Brooke Band Coming.

It will be a brilliant opening for the musical season at Quincy Music hall when Brooke and his famous Marine Band will appear for the first time before a Quincy audience. Manager Dargis has secured the band, and on occasions to secure this attraction, as it is regarded as the foremost band in America for playing the light popular and inspiring music which really constitutes the field of the military band. The band was organized by some wealthy Chicago member of the Naval Militia after the World's Fair and in the three years of its active concert giving, the Quincy Music hall has brought it to the foremost rank in public esteem, and aside from the one famous band of New York, the Chicago Marine Band has done more playing and had more of continued success than any other of the present or past fame, and the present year it has done twice as much playing as any other. The best field of this band has been mostly New England and Canada and the west, but two hours have been made through the South. In Chicago nothing has ever equalled the continued success of the Quincy Journal. The program here will be very patriotic and Brooke's reputation for originality will insure many surprises during his stay. He will give the national air with the greatest inspiration and many thrilling accessories.

Barrows Renominated.

The Tenth District Republican Congressional Convention was successful in selecting a candidate sooner than some anticipated, for many feared a deadlock until the time limit for nominations expired. At the adjourned convention Wednesday evening the first ballot (really the 37th) gave Barrows 53, Atwood 25, Paige 22, Towle 12, Bradley 4; a total of 116.

Mr. Barrows dropped to 50, while Atwood increased to 30, and Paige to 25 between 21 and 31.

At the request of Mr. Paige, the renomination of Congressman Barrows was made unanimous, although there were some nays.

Candidate Barrows was sought out and introduced to the convention. In his acceptance he spoke facetiously, and paid a warm tribute to Mr. Paige, and then in a more serious vein.

Each ward of Boston in the district and Milton have a representative on the district committee while Quincy has two, Thomas F. Burke and Charles M. Bryant.

Sold for Betterments.

Among the estates advertised for sale last month by Tax Collector Baker were seven lots on Walker street, upon which the betterment assessment for the extension of that street remained unpaid. There was some opposition from the abutters said they never would pay the assessment. The sale was advertised for Sept. 14, but was postponed until Sept. 27. Both the latter date Sept. 27 of the advertised sale was cancelled. The betterment assessments were sold and decreed to the city. The amount of the assessments was as follows: Lucy B. Larkin, $582.50; Edward R. Nightingale, $74.10; H. H. Robson, $42; Charles H. Allen, $42.

Memorial Church.

The pulpit at the Memorial church was occupied last Sunday by Rev. Mr. Bacon of Boston. The subject of his sermon was the incident of the woman with the alabaster box, the sacred service she rendered Christ, and His appreciation. The lesson was from the Gospel of Luke, chapter 10, verse 1. The effort, however humble the act, if it represents all one can do it meets the requirement of the Master.

The effective stalks of the stately, rich dark canna as a background was a prominent feature in the floral decorations, lighted up by the bright red and white, dahlias, and salvias.

"Patriotism" was the evening subject and the need of patriotic instruction in connection with church life as an essential part of the world's work was dwelt upon, attention being called to the fact that in the highest social circles while men of Christian character may be at the head they may sometimes show weakness from the lack of special patriotic training and thought which the church itself should be able to give.

On Wednesday evening the Ladies' Benevolent society gave a supper and entertainment, both of which were successes. The clam chowder was pronounced delicious and the music by Mrs. Sanford Small, Miss Millie Gassett and Miss Susie Hall, the shadow pantomime, and the performance of "Miss Mite" were thoroughly enjoyed by the audience.

Mrs. Sanford Small with Miss Emma Martin composed the figure of "Miss Mite" and the gesticulations of Mrs. Sanford and her whole get-up were extremely comical and kept the audience in a roar of laughter. Mrs. Coe was chairman of the entertainment committee.

Houghs Neck Fire.

The house of Joseph Hill situated at the corner of Sea street and Manet avenue, Houghs Neck, was entirely destroyed by fire at 10:15 P. M. Tuesday. It was about that time when Mr. Hill, who was in his house reading, detected a strong smell of smoke, and upon investigating found the room to be on fire. The Houghs Neck department responded, and the building was beyond saving, and an alarm on the fire alarm circuit was not sounded.

The building is a small beach affair, built more than a shell but not a beach house. It was built by Mr. Hill, who was a resident of Quincy, and was a very much enjoyed by all, both old and young.

"PUBLIC RELATIONS" THAT ARE MAKING HISTORY

An important department in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, a weekly magazine founded by Benjamin Franklin in 1728.

It will give the story of important current events the world over in a condensed form. It will explain and interpret; it will throw light on many puzzling questions, on the meaning and relations of events that to the general reader, the newspapers do not usually tell the beginnings of national and international troubles—there are usually "missing links" in their story. These lapses the Post will fill out.

IT WILL BE MAILED TO ANY ADDRESS ON TRIAL, FROM NOW TO JANUARY 1, 1899, ON RECEIPT OF ONLY TEN CENTS (THE REGULAR SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS $2.50 PER YEAR)

THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY, PHILADELPHIA

SUNDAY SERVICES.

19th SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

Church services are inserted in this paper without charge, but none will be accepted to run until further notice. A notice should be sent each week even though it is but a notice. Give subject, and our services will be possible. Let all churches be represented—Eds.]

UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. E. N. Hardy, pastor. Morning service at 10:30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Junction Hancock and Chestnut streets—Rev. E. N. Hardy, pastor. Morning service at 10:30. Preaching by the Rev. E. N. Hardy, D. D., of Malden. Subject: "Work for men." Bible School at 12 M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:15 P. M. Evening church service at 7:30 o'clock. Subject: "Evidences written in blood."

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Washington street—Rev. Edgar Watson Peck, pastor. Morning service at 10:30. Sermon by the pastor. Subject: "The Bible of Faith and the Bible of Fact, or the Old Testament under a new light." Sunday school at 12 M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:15 P. M. Extra musical service. All welcome.

WASHINGTON STREET CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Rev. Edgar Watson Peck, pastor. Morning service at 10:30 o'clock. Subject: "The Y. M. C. A. and our responsibility to it." Sunday school at 12 M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:20 P. M. Evening service at 7:15. Subject: "The Young Man."

CALISTO BAPTIST CHURCH, Franklin street—Rev. David K. Kory, pastor. Morning service at 10:30. Subject: "Our true position in Christ." Bible school at 12 M. Young people's meeting at 6 P. M. Preaching service at 7 o'clock. Subject: "Christ's first interjectory public utterance." Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All welcome.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Water street—Rev. Robert Wesley Peck, pastor. Morning service at 10:30. Sunday school at 11:45 A. M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7. The eleventh anniversary of the dedication of the church will be commemorated. Prayer meeting Thursday at 7:30 P. M. Subject: "Our church-home."

ST. JOHN'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH—Rev. F. A. Fingelstetter, pastor. Assistants, Rev. J. P. Coffey, Rev. F. A. Cunningham, Rev. J. E. Johnstone, Rev. J. F. Purcell. First Mass, 8 A. M., second Mass, 10:30 A. M., Vespers at 4 o'clock. Baptisms at 5 P. M.

WOLLASTON UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. E. N. Hardy, pastor. Service at 10:45 A. M. The pastor will preach. Subject: "Standing up for one's duty as well as for one's rights." Professor Marcell, soloist, Sunday school at 12 M.

WOLLASTON U. M. CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Waterhouse, pastor. Morning service at 10:45. Sermon by pastor. Sunday school and Bible class at 12 M. Evening service at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7 o'clock. The service of song will be followed by the Y. M. C. A. annual assembly, with Mr. Carter of Chelsea as speaker. Strangers welcome. Notice change of time of evening service.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, WOLLASTON—Morning service, 10:45. Rev. Edward Norton will preach. Subject: "The glory of young men." For our Y. M. C. A. Sunday school at 12:15 P. M. Meeting of Y. M. C. A. for men at 3:30 P. M. Mr. W. H. Reed of Boston will speak. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:45 P. M. Vespers at 7:30. Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7:30.

PARK AND DOWNS UNITARIAN CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Rensselaer road—Rev. F. T. Knight, pastor. Morning service at 10:45. Subject: "The true vision." Sunday school at 12 M. Evening service at 7:30. The pastor will give the service of the talks upon the war between Spain and the United States.

MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Atlantic road—Rev. J. H. Whitaker, pastor. Residence, 21 Billings street. Morning service at 10:45. Anniversary service—Quincy

Quincy Patriot

QUINCY PATRIOT ESTABLISHED 1837.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1898.

VOL. 62. NO. 43.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

The Quincy Patriot,

Established 1837.

PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,
[FORMERLY GREEN & PRESCOTT.]

Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.
A reduction of fifty cents will be made when paid one year in advance.

Quincy Daily Ledger,

The ONLY DAILY in the ONLY CITY in Norfolk County. Established in 1889.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.

A reduction of $1 will be made when paid one year in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF THE

Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.

OFFICE, No. 115 HANCOCK STREET

JENNIE HOCKING HUNT,

TEACHER OF
Organ, Piano and Harmony,

13 Bigelow Street, Quincy.

Quincy, Sept. 21.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.,

Practice Limited to the Eye and Ear.

553 Boylston Street, Boston.
Quincy—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11, 135 Hancock Street,
May 21.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

SURGEON DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain, with the "BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

DEBHAM, QUINCY, NORWOOD.
At Quincy office, French's Building,
WEDNESDAYS.

At Dedham Mondays and Tuesdays.
At Norwood Fridays and Saturdays.
July 28.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,

DENTIST.
Corner Newport and Grand View Avenues,
Wollaston.

Office hours—8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.
May 29.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN

DENTIST.
Rooms 5 and 6, Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office Hours, 8 to 12, 1 to 5.
Residence, Greenleaf Street.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,

SPECIALIST, ORTHODONTIA, HUNTERY TO

No. 7 Temple Place,
See Reader Building, Boston.

Office Hours—9 A. M. to 4 P. M.
Residence, Linden Place, Quincy.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,

DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.

At Boston—HOTEL PELHAM—Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,

COUNCILLOR-AT-LAW,
ROOM 1, DUGGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours, at the office of CUTLER &
JENNEY, 209 Washington Street, Boston.

Quincy office, Adams Bldg.,
Office Hours: 8 to 10 A. M.; 2 to 4 P. M.
Quincy, May 26.

D. C. NELSON,

House, Sign and Carriage

PAINTING.
Estimates Furnished.

32 Atlantic Street, Atlantic

JULIUS JOHNSON,

Carpenter, & Contractor

Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

NO. 64 CENTRE ST., QUINCY, MASS.

IRA LITCHFIELD,

CARPENTER and BUILDER,

PEARL STREET,
SOUTH QUINCY.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,

Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.

JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
HANCOCK COURT, QUINCY, MASS.

DAVID BROWN,

HORSE SHOEING,

Carriage Work and General Jobbing.

ABINGTON STREET, WOLLASTON
Nov. 9.

Quincy Savings Bank,

New Savings Bank Building.

President, RUPERT F. CLAPLIN
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH
Treasurer and Secretary, CLARENCE BURGIN
Board of Directors—RUPERT F. CLAPLIN, EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.
BANK HOURS—From 8.30 to 12 A. M., and 2 to 4 P. M. During the month of June, July, August, and September the Bank will
close on Saturdays at 12 M.
Deposits placed on interest on the first Tuesday of January, April, July and October.
CONNECTED BY TELEPHONE.
Quincy, Jan. 11, 1896.

Ideal for Summer Coal.

RED ASH NUT COAL.

PRICES REDUCED.

I is a very deep Red Ash, and free burning, which together with the fact that it is freshly mined, makes it the ideal coal for summer use.

Yours for Trial,

C. PATCH & SON.

A. T. WHITMAN,

Civil Engineer

SURVEYOR,

ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.
Boston Office, 85 Devonshire Street,
Hours, 10 to 2 P. M.

PERRY LAWTON,

CIVIL ENGINEER

SURVEYOR.
Savings Bank Building, Quincy.
May 7.

HERBERT A. HAYDEN,

PIANO TUNER.

Office,
Pettengill's Jewelry Store,
126 Hancock Street,
Quincy, Mass.

MRS. H. H. HILL,

Chiroprapist and Manicurist,
Bates' Block, Saville St.,
Quincy, Mass.

Hours, 2 to 5, Afternoons, Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays.
Treatment at residence if desired.
Aug. 12.

MANICURE PARLORS.

MISS MARTHA J. FROOKS,

Pupil of Miss May, May,
Has opened a Manicure Parlor for Ladies and Gentlemen at Room 3, Savings Bank Building,
Main Street, Quincy.
Manicure, 50c; Shampooing, 50c; and 75c.
Pedicure, Ladies, 50c; Gentlemen, $1.00.
Corns, 25c; Blisters, 50c; Improving Nails, 25c.

Shampooing, 50c and 75c; Singeing, 50c;
Bangs Cut and Curled, 25c; Waving and Curling Hair, 25c and 50c. Males and Wards receive safety and permanently, $1.00 each.
Superficial hair removal, Depilatory Facial
Massage, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50.

Will go to residence by appointment. Agent
for Miss May's Toilet Articles.
Hours—8 A. M. to 6 P. M.
Aug. 12.

J. J. KENILEY,

PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.

NO. 9 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.
(In office formerly occupied by the Citizen's Gas Light Company.)

P. O. Box 808.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,

HOUSE AND SIGN

PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting and
all branches will receive prompt attention.

Residence, QUINCY AVENUE.
All work executed in a workmanlike manner. 10 A. M. to 5 P. M.
March 12.

BOOTS AND SHOES

MADE AND REPAIRED.

Nathaniel Nightingale,

GRANITE STREET, QUINCY.

JOHN F. KEMP,

MACHINIST.

82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.

Funeral and Furnishing

UNDERTAKER,

No. 51 Hancock Street.

Constantly on hand a full assortment of

CASKETS, COFFINS,

ROBES and HABITS.

Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes by strict attention to the wants of all callers to merit a share of patronage.

JOHN HALL,

Quincy, March 10.

W. E. BROWN,

UNDERTAKER.

Office and residence, corner of Canal and Mechanic Streets.

Rats Cleared

From Hotels, Dwellings, Stores, etc.

By the use of Trained Ferrets.
Place Examined free. Satisfaction guaranteed.

JOSEPH A. JONES & CO.,
51 Lowell Place, SOMERVILLE, MASS.
Mail orders will receive prompt attention.
April 20.

S. SCAMMELL,

WHEELWRIGHT,

Carriage Builder

AND PAINTER.
BY FIRST-CLASS WORKMEN.
All orders promptly attended to and faithfully
executed.
Thankful for past favors, a liberal share of
patronage is solicited.

Shop Quincy Ave.

CLOTHING FOR MEN AND BOYS

Highest Possible Quality. Made in CLEAN workrooms in this building.

MACULLAR PARKER COMPANY,

400 Washington St.—BOSTON.—400 Washington St.

Shawmut Spring Water

IS THE WATER OF LIFE.

SOFT, PURE, SPARKLING, HEALTHFUL AND INVIGORATING.

Highly recommended by the Medical Profession for Medicinal and Drinking Purposes.

Thousands of people testify to the purity and curative properties of this water.

It is clear, sparkling,
and of uniform temperature, and of uniform purity and all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Nothing is of more
importance than that the
water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic
matter, and is of
uniform purity and
all domestic and drinking
purposes.

As a regulator and
cathartic agent, it restores the
stomach to its normal condition,
and induces healthy action.

Poetry.

A Backlog Fanc.

The room is dim, the logs burn low,
But in the firelight I see
Upon the wall the sunbeams glow,
Through the green branches of the tree.

The backlog splutters, and I hear
The forest's leafy summer song,
And in the waves of smoke appear
The blue pool of the wood remote.

Then like a spirit, wailing gay,
Ascends a throbbing golden spark—
A firefly drifting on its way Across the lonely midnight dark.

—Hager's Weekly.

Miscellaneous.

A STUPID MAN.

It was on the 31st day of May last,
Near a little hamlet in New Jersey,
That a tall man skurried across a field
Toward a hedge on the opposite side.

When he got to the hedge he peeped
Over it with a broad smile on his face
And exclaimed—
"How d'ye do, Mrs. Owens?"

The lady tipped up on the other side
And he reached over and shook her by the hand. Then they moved along the hedge a little way to a gate.

"I'm mighty glad to see you back," said he.

"Thank you," she returned smiling.
"I've missed you dreadfully," he went on.

"It's been as long as time as it feels," she said. "I've been so busy with the children and the house."

"That's quite a compliment," she replied.

"What! about missing you," he said. "Heavens! you'd miss anybody down here?"

"Oh!" she exclaimed in a disappointed tone.

"Well not exactly that," he said reddening. "Of course you'd miss anybody down here, there are so few people to go away; but when you went, why then you know—well, it seemed as if the whole country had left."

"You got out of that pretty well," she replied, "and I forgive you. But really, I have been longing to get back."

"I'm glad that," he said; "but why didn't you come? I don't see how you could stay up there for a year, anyway."

"A year! Why, how do you count time? I went back to the city the first of November, and this is the third day of May. That's hardly a year."

"Well, it seems like it," he said; "and I was afraid something would happen to the place while you were gone. That old fellow down in the village didn't half look after it."

I found the gates open lots of times, and often I have climbed up and gone up and looked the house over and laid out some of the bluffs that were loose, and sunny days I sat down in the porch and smoked and wondered when you would come back."

"That was very kind and neighborly of you," said Mrs. Owens, a little touched by his frankness and evident sincerity. "I hope I may be able to reciprocate sometime. Not that I want you to go away while I am here."

"Oh, it's all right, now you're back," said he. "I'm paid by seeing the lights in the windows again. But really now I would just send the winters as well as the summers here."

"I am afraid it would be pretty lonesome and dreary with the winds howling and the snow flying," she said. "What in the world could a lady do all by herself in winter?"

"You wouldn't be exactly by yourself, you know," he returned. "There I am just across the field and in stormy days we could signal each other, and in bright days—well, we could take sleigh rides and—"

"That would be good so far as it went," said he, breaking in upon his hesitating speech, "but it might grow a little monotonous. What do you do now to amuse yourself all winter?"

"Nothing," said he, "absolutely nothing. I've got to go to the city and look after my cows and my horse, and ride a little and read a little, and then as I said, I am tramp round up here to see how desolate the old house and the trees and the shrubs look without you."

"And don't you go anywhere for recreation?" she inquired sympathiz-ingly. "Why don't you run up to New York for a week or two?"

"Well," he said with a little sigh,
"I got through with New York several years ago and I have never been back since. I did go into the gayeties of the world for a week in December after you left. What do you think? I went down to Hackensack?"

"To Hackensack?" she laughed.
"That must have been a week of disappointment indeed! What did you do down there?"

"I went to two lectures, one church fair, a minstrel show, and to see Camille by Solomon's Dramatic Aggregation, a very thrilling performance, I tell you. Then I had a real desire to see the new mentioned in farrington's song, and all the time I was there I kept repeating to myself
the lines:

"Rube went back to the town of Hackensack,
With a little bunch of whiskers on his chin."

"I don't know who Rube was, but I couldn't get the words out of my head, and every fellow I met who had a little bunch of whiskers on his chin,
I looked carefully over thinking it

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1908.

A Big Change.

Work was commenced this week widening Hancock street, on the west side, at its junction with Granite street, carrying out the order recently passed by the City Council. The cut starts at point at the corner of the building occupied by John W. Nash and makes a graceful curve to the front of the store of E. B. South where the cut is three feet back of the present line of the sidewalk. The widest cut at any point is fifteen feet. A large part of the present sidewalk, and at some points all of it will be thrown into the street and this purpose the old elm trees in the corner, which have except one all outlived their usefulness, have been removed.

There were seven trees along the present sidewalk six of which were removed. When the improvements are completed there will be a brick sidewalk around the corner ten feet wide which will make a continuous brick walk from City Hall to Granite street.

The Late Prof. Bush.

The funeral of Prof. George G. Bush, who died in Malden on Saturday, was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of his wife, Mrs. Bush, at 121 Washington street, and was largely attended by relatives and many of the friends of the deceased. Rev. Edwin N. Hardy, pastor of the church read the scriptures, and short addresses on the life and character of Prof. Bush were made by Rev. Mr. Davis of Lynn, a pupil at the Seminary at Montpelier under Prof. Bush; Rev. C. W. Wilder of the West Quincy Methodist church; Rev. Edward Norton pastor emeritus of the Bethany church, and by Rev. Mr. Cushing, pastor of the Methodist church at Malden, which Prof. Bush attended, who offered the closing prayer. The remains were taken to Mt. Wollaston cemetery where the funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Cushing.

Church Anniversary.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the West Quincy Methodist Episcopal church will be celebrated on Sunday and Monday.

Sunday morning at 10:30 Rev. F. N. Upham of Dorchester, whose father preached the sermon at the dedication of the church, will preach the anniversary sermon.

Sunday evening at 7 o'clock there will be addresses by Rev. E. W. Virgin a former pastor and by Rev. C. W. Wilder. The church will be decorated in honor of the occasion.

On Monday evening there will be a reunion of past and present members and attendants at an anniversary banquet. From 7 to 8 o'clock there will be an informal reception in the audience room to former pastors and presiding elders and at 8 o'clock the anniversary banquet will be served in the vestry at which speeches are expected from former pastors and others.

Birthdays of Nonagenarians.

Mrs. Caroline W. Merritt, a sister of Mrs. Ann M. Emerson and Mrs. Napoleon B. Farnall, one of the smartest old ladies in Quincy celebrated her ninetieth birthday Tuesday by receiving her neighbors, relatives and friends at her home on School street.

It was an informal reception and she wore an apron made from her wedding dress in 1826 which at that time cost $20 per yard. She also presented her friends with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

Nearly all of those who called brought remembrances. The oldest caller was seventy years and the youngest was the four-year-old daughter of Mr. Henry P. Farnall.

Worth Attending.

The annual dinner of the Republican club of Massachusetts, which is to take place at the Hotel Hamilton, Boston, on Wednesday evening next, will be an event well worth attending.

The speakers will include Governor Wolcott, Hon. John D. Long, Secretary of the Navy; Senator Lodge and other distinguished Republicans. The meeting will be especially notable on account of the presence of Secretary Long, and he will be accorded a rousing reception by the Republicans of Massachusetts, in appreciation of the magnificent work done by the navy during the recent war under his direction.

Tickets may be obtained by applying to Henry E. Turner, Chairman of the Dinner Committee, 19 Milk street, Boston. The price of dinner tickets is two dollars, and with each ticket sold the club gives two tickets for the balance, for the use of the friends of those who participate in the dinner.

No Republican can afford to miss this dinner, which will be the greatest meeting of the campaign in Massachusetts, and early application for tickets should be made. The hall is large and comfortable, and the service is of the highest quality.

Home Labor.

It is perhaps not generally known that the putting in of underground conduits by the New England Telephone Co. is a great benefit to Quincy. First, because it will remove many of the wires from the street and, second, and most important, because it is giving employment to a large number of citizens who are in need of work.

The amount to be expended in Quincy at present is over $20,000, of which amount over three-fourths is to be expended in labor. Aside from the two or three men from Boston who supervised the work, all the labor is being done by citizens of Quincy. In many cities and towns where this work is being done, the labor is by non-residents, but when the Telephone Co. signified its intention to commence work in Quincy the management was waited upon by Mayor Sears, who requested them to have the work in Quincy performed by citizens of Quincy. The request was readily granted with the result that the crowd that have followed the company from place to place doing this work were unable to obtain a job in Quincy.

This means much to our laboring people for the men are paid the same as city laborers and the money goes into the pockets of our own citizens. The only regret is that the company could not have commenced work earlier in the season, which however, was impossible. They report that it is their intention to keep the men at work just as long as possible, which means until snow flies or ground is frozen too hard to dig.

CITY BRIEFS.

Honore F. Spear is at Barnstable on a summer vacation. He will be in Quincy in the next season.

Furnace fires were not out of place since Sunday with the cool winds. Save interest and costs by paying your taxes before the first of November.

Officer James W. Murray left Saturday for a two weeks' vacation trip to the Provences.

Mr. Warren Higgins has completed his term on jury and has gone to Dublin, N. H., again.

The engagement is announced of ex-Mayor Charles F. Adams, 24, of Quincy and Miss Lovering of Taunton.

The H. T. Owen estate on Granite street was sold by Auctioneer Crane on Saturday to Charlotte M. Johnson for $2,225.

Miss Audrey Rhines, a pupil of Thayer academy, had the misfortune to sprain her ankle in the gymnasium on Monday.

Another effort is being made to organize a colony of Pilgrim Fathers in this city and this time it promises to be a success.

George L. Gill Rehbeek lodge sent a large flat bouquet of beautiful chrysanthemums for the funeral of Grand Instructor York.

Miss Emma D. Conklin, of New York, who has been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. William M. Marden, returned to her home Tuesday.

Mrs. Perkins and Miss Mary Perkins, who have lived for several years in the Foster house, on Chestnut street, are to move to Washington street, opposite Foster street.

There is one thing that can be said about the Telephone company, and that is, it is leaving the streets in good condition after laying the underground conduits.

Capt. Kincaide, company K, 5th regiment, having resigned from the volunteer force and been discharged, has reported for duty with the 5th infantry, M. V. M.

The board of registers were in session from 12 o'clock noon on Wednesday until 10 o'clock at night, during which time 14 were restored and 77 new names added.

Mr. Walter H. Cobb, who has resided at the corner of Elm and Baxter street for fourteen years, has moved to the H. E. Hardwick house, corner of Edward and Washington street.

The old mile stone in the wall of the Brackett estate on Hancock street is being raised from the bottom to the top of the wall so that it will not be covered by the new concrete sidewalk.

The ladies are admiring the very pretty embroidery work shown at H. E. Wadsworth & Co.'s, and are pleased to learn that classes are to be reopened by the same teacher who was here last year.

Now is the time to set out young trees and plants, that they may get a good start in the spring. Reliable goods and desirable varieties may be secured at the Wollaston Park nursery on Fennel street.

Sullivan B. Pratt, formerly of Marlboro and Weymouth, who has established no less than forty weekly newspapers in Massachusetts, died Monday at Attleboro. One of his sons, Herbert E. Pratt, resides in Quincy.

The engagement was announced last week of Miss Grace Carolyn North of West Medford and Mr. Edmund Foster Clark of Boston, Harvard '97. Miss North is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. North, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Noyes of this city.

Goss & Gould's delivery team ran away Tuesday noon on Cranich hill and William Littlewood was thrown out at the corner of Whitwell and Granite street and severely injured. Dr. Hayward dressed the wounds and found it necessary to take several stitches on the head.

There is rejoicing in Braintree and Quincy over the arrival of Tuesday day of a girl baby at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Prescott of Middle street, Braintree. The little daughter is the first granddaughter on "both sides of the house," which have already been blessed with several grandsons.

The season of 1898-99 at Music hall was opened Monday afternoon with Brooks's Chicago marine band, assisted by Miss Sibyl Sammis. The band was not as large as a one as should have greeted this famous band, those that did attend speak in the highest terms of the concert which was very enjoyable.

Two young men left Black Creek on Saturday night in a small flat-bottom boat, to go fishing in the bay, but have not been seen or heard from since. A boat similar was used on Hull, Sunday, and it is supposed that they were upset and drowned. Their names were Lewis Larson and Ernest Hellett, aged 22 and 19; and they worked in the granite quarries.

The executive committee of the Y. R. A. of M. has voted in regard to the Recruit's record for the season, that the Winthrop race should not count for a start, but the Wollaston, Quincy and Hull were to be counted as starts. The ladies' protest was laid on the table which leaves undecided the championship of the class. Medals and pennants were awarded to the Meemer, Hermes, Bud, Duchess, Vitesse and Jilt.

The whist season has hardly opened, so that the attendance was not as large as anticipated on Tuesday at the parties of the Daughters of the Revolution, yet over fifty enjoyed the playing afternoon and evening at Colonial hall. It was a picnic which in the afternoon and every lady was given a prize. The best scores were made by Mrs. French of Braintree, and Mrs. P. P. Conroy of Worcester, a guest of Mrs. A. B. Gillson. In the evening the gentlemen's prizes were awarded to Miss Pay and Mr. George W. Prescott, and the ladies' prizes to Miss Thompson and Mrs. Thomas.

An article from Hon. William B. Rice is always read with interest, and many who read his communications in Monday's Ledger relative to boulevard believe that he has about the right ideas. When such progressive men as Mr. Rice interest themselves in a movement of this kind others are sure to take it up. It is hoped they will, and that there will be a large and representative gathering of Quincy people at the hearing to be given by the Metropolitan Park Commissioners at their rooms in the Congressional Building, Boston, at 2:30 P. M. on Monday next. It should be brought out by questions just what has prevented the consummation of their plans for which the money is still in the State treasury.

CASORIA.
The kind you have always bought Signature of Charles H. Little

The Street Railway building is being connected with the sewer system.

Miss Estelle Chamberlin of New York is the guest of Mrs. Frank Walters of Hancock street.

The pumps at the sewer pumping station are under steam and running to get the bearings down.

We would call the attention of those desirous instruction in dramatics to an advertisement in today's issue.

The sewer department is taking out for the sewer on Hancock street upon which work will be commenced next week.

At the Granite City club on Wednesday evening the whist prizes were given by Messrs. R. D. Gordon and W. H. Rideout.

Mr. J. Harvey Smith has removed from North street to 42 Chestnut street, where he will be pleased to have his friends call.

A lecture will be delivered by Rev. W. W. Dornan on Saturday, 7:45 P. M., in Wilson's hall. Subject: "A trip through Ireland."

The sewer department is coming to have many underground blind drains that were used years ago. Our streets would be better if we had more drains today.

Ralph J. Merrill has severed his connections at the Boston Branch grocery and has accepted a position with the Bay State Automobile Co., to represent them on the road.

Town river near Johnson's lumber yard has been a lucky spot for the fishermen to pull out a few smelts. A number of small boats are anchored there almost every day.

The change in the postoffice law now permits money orders payable at the office of issue. The old rule prevented a money order issued by the Quincy office from being paid at that office.

The regular meeting of the Hospital Aid Association will be held Thursday, October 22nd, at 3 P. M., in the room of the Granite Manufacturers' Association in Darguin and Merrill's block.

Here is a good problem for the school children of the grammar grades: Six men are to play a checker tournament, each man to play five games with each of the other contestants; how many games will be played?

Adams Academy was unable to score in its game at Weymouth played on Tuesday, with the Weymouth High school team. Lynch of the local team made two touchdowns in the first half while Drown kicked one goal, and their total score was 11.

The strong winds the past few days have made the tides very high, overflowing the marshes and running in some places to a great distance. At some of the boat houses and summer cottages the water extended several inches above the foundations and reached the floors.

The two pair of rubber boots reported as missing from the Water department shops have been recovered by police. One pair was found in a laundry where they had evidently been left by the boys who broke into the laundry last Sunday.

The fair of the Swedish Lutheran church opened at Faxon hall, Thursday evening, with a large attendance. Numerous tables for the sale of useful goods were placed by the following gentlemen, each contestant to play one another five games: Mr. H. O. Fickney of South Braintree, Mr. Frank W. Benson, secretary; Henry P. Farnall, William J. Williams, E. Frank Mitchell, Frank Flowers, Walter H. Ripley, Charles L. Hammond.

The Quincy & Boston street railway held its annual meeting Wednesday and elected these officers: Clerk and Treasurer, Frederick H. Smith; Directors, John R. Graham, Winthrop Collins, Arthur Barnham, John F. Merrill, Thomas H. McDermott, John A. Duggan, Josiah Quincy Roger H. Wilde and Dr. W. A. Drake.

The eighth anniversary of the Quincy Young Men's Christian Association was observed Sunday by a series of services in many of the churches, the aim being to place before the people the work and object of the Association, and as such it was successful, for the several services were largely attended.

The frosts have not been very severe in Quincy so far and a great many plants are still in full bloom. Mrs. Ann M. Emerson of Cottage street has always been noted for her plants and has even now a fine display out of doors. Her marigolds are particularly showy there being large yellow and orange ones besides quantities of beautiful little velvet ones shading from yellow down to the deepest blue.

Arthur Caddy, the 14 year old boy who was before the court last week for the larceny of $8 from some party unknown, was again in court this morning. When the case against him was heard last week he was placed on probation until Oct. 27, to which he would behave himself. Instead of doing so, it is alleged that he helped himself to a peek of William J. Williams papers without first asking permission. It is probable when the case is called next week he will be sent to the Lyman school for boys.

The steam roller continues its work of destruction, and has rooted up four large elm trees on the Chestnut street sidewalk in front of the residences of W. V. Hayward, H. G. O. Newcomb and Edgar G. Cleaves. The removal of these trees leaves considerable more sunlight into the neighborhood and pedestrians and snow ploughs will have to dodge any more. To make a complete job the sidewalk from Mr. Hayward's estate to Canal street should be lowered considerably. It has long been dangerous in front of Cleaves, being at some points about two feet above the street. The city has run great risk from a suit for damages, as the sidewalk suits a public hall. There is need also at this point of a stone crossing.

WOLLASTON.

The regular meeting of Wollaston W. M. U. will be held Friday, Oct. 23, at three, in the Congregational church.

The sewer is being run under the New Haven's tracks at Wollaston, from Woodbine to Brook street.

A handicap match for members is scheduled by the Wollaston golf club for Friday and Saturday.

The Wollaston Unitarian Sunday School will give a harvest concert on Sunday evening, Oct. 23, at 6 o'clock.

Mr. John B. Osborne of Wollaston is the guest of Mr. Charles M. Bryant at his shooting box at Whitman's pond, Weymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fenton, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ball have taken apartments on Blackwood street, Boston, for the winter.

Allie and Sam are now on the U. S. S. "Sterling." He is acting assistant paymaster. When last reported he was at Bolivia, Brazil.

The Cooperative bank of Wollaston paid a dividend of 6 1/4 per cent, the past year. Shares of the first series are now worth $150.50.

Joseph N. Smith of Wollaston, inspector of bridges, testified at the inquest held at Stoughton Saturday on the accident at Sharon Aug. 21.

Rev. Mr. Rogers of East Milton preached at the Wollaston Baptist church on Sunday. His text was taken from Rev. 1:15. In the evening a vesper service was held and instead of the usual sermonette by the pastor, speakers were provided by the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buckham have returned to their home in Atlantic after being away on an extended visit.

The following musical programme will be given at the Atlantic Memorial church, Sunday morning, with the assistance of Miss Catherine Miliken of Boston: Solo, "The Lord is my Shepherd," Bohm. Response, "Hear, O Father, Hear us," Quartette. "Thou Great Divine," Carl Pfeiffer. Solo, "A Dream of Paradise" Hamilton Gray.

Unity Club reception at the Wollaston Unitarian church on Oct. 14 was a most successful affair. The vestry was tastefully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers.

Checker Tournament.

It has developed that there are a few strong checker players among the employees at the W. & S. Co.'s works, Wollaston, and not the least among them is Mr. William H. Bennett, of Goddard street, South Quincy, who is regarded as the champion checker player in this section. Mr. Bennett loves the game and can be depended upon to defend his title when asked to do so.

To show his interest in the game he has offered a substantial prize to be contested for by the players in the shop. Mr. Bennett has drawn up articles of agreement and made out a schedule of games to be played by the following gentlemen, each contestant to play one another five games: Mr. H. O. Fickney of South Braintree, Mr. Frank W. Benson, secretary; Henry P. Farnall, William J. Williams, E. Frank Mitchell, Frank Flowers, Walter H. Ripley, Charles L. Hammond.

Mr. Bennett will play the winner for a suitable prize to be decided upon later. There is much interest manifested and good sharp games are promised. The score will appear in the Ledger as the tournament progresses.

Among the Missing.

G. A. Pelos, who runs the barber shop in the basement of the Y. M. C. A. building is reported as among the missing. The shop was closed. It is said that he packed up his razors last week and shaking the dust of Quincy from his feet left for parts unknown. Pelos was the prime mover in the recent fit recently given for the members of Co. K. Pelos announced at the time that Mr. Burgh of the Quincy Savings Bank was to be his treasurer and he was to hold the office in title only, for the funds have not reached him as yet. The Patriot learned that the Pelos family are in the hands of the police, and stated at the time that it thought no Quincy family of a Co. K. member desired a benefit. When it does the support of responsible gentlemen can easily be enlisted.

Henry Chubbuck informs the Patriot that he accepted the position of treasurer of the fund for the benefit of the families of Co. K. That Mr. Pelos handed him but $10.50 as the net receipts, stating that the remainder had gone to pay for hall and talent. He also paid about $5 for tax on the fund, and nothing for benefit, for which he claimed the need was so urgent. The impression is that the talent, such as it was, was very expensive. Pelos is still among the missing.

Ladies' Auxiliary Election.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. held their annual meeting and election of officers Monday afternoon. Quite a large number were present and listened to the encouraging reports which were offered. Mrs. H. P. Fitts was elected president for the coming year. Mrs. F. L. Pollard, vice president and Mrs. A. L. Hayden secretary. The treasurer of the auxiliary was reported as 76. Rev. Edward Anderson, the new pastor of the Point church, addressed them on "Woman's Work."

A large number of the Point people were present also Rev. Edward Norton, Rev. Edwin Nash Hardy and Rev. W. W. Dornan of Quincy and Rev. T. H. Vincent of North Weymouth.

It was the desire of the ladies that the occasion should be one of free social intercourse, thoroughly enjoyable to all. This it proved to be. The very general response to the invitation of the Ladies' Aid showed in what high esteem the new pastor is already held.

After an evening of real social enjoyment and a few remarks from the pastor, the people dispersed to their homes, feeling that in his hands the Point church has a bright future before it.

Mr. B. F. Nay has closed his summer house on Howard avenue and returned to Roxbury.

The three masted schooner S. V. Ballard sailed Sunday for Gardner, Maine, to load with ice for Washington, D. C.

Henry D. Fetherlin has purchased through the office of Charles H. Johnson, real estate, the lot of land corner of Washington street and Baxter avenue, being a portion of the Baxter land, containing 38,940 square feet. Mr. Fetherlin will erect a fine residence on the same on October.

Concert at Wollaston.

A large audience gathered at the Wollaston Unitarian church on Monday to hear Mr. E. E. Bullock of that place and his associates of the Temple quartette, — Messrs. Robert Bruce, baritone; E. E. Webster, 2d tenor; Robert Bruce, baritone; and B. G. Willard, bass, and also the assisting tenor, — Mrs. F. A. Page, soprano; Wolf Fries, cellist; Mrs. I. P. Moorehouse, accompanist; and J. E. Nickerson, organist.

The harmonies of the quartette were perfect and their blend of voices of expression and perfection of phrasing beyond criticism.

Wolf Fries, with his cello gave the audience a rare musical treat as did Mr. Nickerson on the organ.

Swedish Mission Meetings.

Rev. C. A. Bjornholm, pastor of the Swedish Congregational church on Garfield street announces mission meetings to continue three days, — this evening and Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and Sunday at 10 A. M., 3 and 7 P. M.

Several ministers from the Swedish street announces mission meetings to continue three days, — this evening and Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and Sunday at 10 A. M., 3 and 7 P. M.

A. Anderson of Worcester, Rev. J. A. Johnson of Lynn, Rev. William Liljenberg of Boston, Rev. Nelson of Manchester, N. H., and Rev. Mr. Joseph of Portland, Conn. All Scandinavian are welcome.

ATLANTIC.

Next Sunday evening in the Methodist church, Wollaston, the stock option talk on Ben Hur will be given. It begins with the "chariot race" which will be read by H. Torres Dagliastanlian of Boston. The real lesson and motive of the book is in this last half. The service is at 7 o'clock.

All young people of Atlantic who are interested in physical culture, and would care to take lessons will please meet in the vestry of the Methodist church on Tuesday evening. Miss Estelle Barnes of Boston will be there and outline a course which would be given providing sufficient number desire to take.

Atlantic people have been losing their egg layers of late and there are few eggs that have not suffered. The hen stealing has stopped now, however.

Alfred Williams says he will keep up the same record for the balance of the month.

Mr. Herbert F. Doble has been at Somersworth, N. H., on a brief business trip this week.

WEST QUINCY.

Officer David J. Barry was taken with cholera Wednesday evening and was obliged to go home.

Late Sunday night Officer Barry found a young girl wandering about West Quincy, and after some questioning he took her to his own home for the night. Monday morning he sent her to her home in Wollaston.

Miss Tula Rice, the well known concert woman of Boston, gave an excellent concert Monday evening at St. Mary's hall. Miss Rice was assisted by Miss White and other well known local and out-of-town talent. The programme consisted of vocal selections, readings and mandolin and piano solos.

The Quincy Quarry railroad shipped 242 car loads of granite the first half of this month which is an average of over eighteen for each working day. Sup't. Allen Williams says the mill will keep up the same record for the balance of the month.

Mr. Herbert F. Doble has been at Somersworth, N. H., on a brief business trip this week.

SOUTH QUINCY.

The Quincy branch of the Salvation Army held a coffee feast at their headquarters, corner of Franklin and School streets, Oct. 27. Charles Weston leader of the Army in America will be present.

The estate of Mrs. Annie Keating, consisting of a cottage house of seven rooms and 8,040 square feet of land, situated on Water street has been sold to James Manning by C. H. Johnson.

Mr. Manning will occupy the same.

Rev. C. A. Parker, who was the pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, has moved with his family to Colorado.

Pasquale Scalamiero, of 6 Arthur street, took the 5:30 train from Boston Sunday night for South Quincy. When the train arrived he jumped off before the train had stopped. The result was that he landed on his head and received a severe shaking up as well as some bruises. He was taken to his home in one of his son's carriages and a physician summoned.

Miss Hannah Littlefield passed her eleventh birthday Oct. 14 and celebrated the event in the evening by her friends at the residence of her parents at 10 Quincy street. The evening was passed in a pleasant manner with games, music and refreshments. Miss Hannah received a number of birthday gifts.

Mrs. Luke Rideout, mother of Mrs. Henry E. Hardwick, celebrated her eightieth birthday Tuesday, at the residence of her daughter.

By FRANK F. CRANE, Auctioneer, Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

AUCTION SALE
OF TWO-STORY BUILDING AND HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE of the estate of Edward H. Adams, Adams street, opposite the R. R. Station, East Milton, MONDAY, Oct. 21, 1908, at 12:00 P. M.

The building is two-story and contains four rooms and is sold with the understanding that it will be moved within thirty days from the date of this sale.

The Household Furniture consists of large mahogany bedstead, Oak Table, Oak Bedstead, Stewart Stove, Marble Top Table, Brass Carpet, Black Walnut Dining Table, set of Oak Dining Chairs, Black Walnut Bedstead, Oak Bureau and Chest, 2 old Bureaus, lot Mattresses and Bedding, Wilson Carpet, Axol Carpet, Decorated China, Solid Set, Rogers Group, large Hanging Lamp, Gas, Winthrop Range, No. 8, Kitchen Table, large set of Crochets and Glass Ware, Oil Cloth, Carpet, and many other objects too numerous to list.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash. Oct. 20, 10 to 12 22 29 11/16

By FRANK F. CRANE, Auctioneer, Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

MISS B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE Boston Bargain Store, FOR TOUR

FALL MILLINERY.
A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Orich goods.
Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

MUSIC HALL BUILDING, QUINCY.
Oct. 1.

FOR SALE.
HOUSE of nine rooms on Eaton street, East of Milton, modern improvements and 10,000 sq. ft. of land. Will sell at a bargain. Enquire of C. G. WHITTEMORE, on the premises.

LOST.
ONE—A Gold Watch Pin on Water street, East of Milton, and one on Water street, East of Milton. The finder please bring the same to Ledger office and receive reward.

TO LET.
PLEASANT TENEMENT of six rooms on Washington and Willard streets, Quincy, opposite residence of Mr. Henry E. Hardwick. Recently renovated and newly painted and papered throughout. Apply only to FRANK F. CRANE at the Parlor office. ps ft

TO LET.
House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

TO LET.
SINGLE House of 10 rooms, 41 Elm street, near corner of Elm and Washington streets, in good repair at low rent.

TO LET.
Tenement of three rooms, $8.00 a month. Enquire of C. H. FIELD, 7 Pleasant street, Quincy, Oct. 15.

TO LET.
HALF House, corner of Washington and Canal streets, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

TO LET.
PARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent reasonable. Apply to ALTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAY, DEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts. Quincy, July 15. pl ft

FOR SALE OR TO LET.
House of nine finished rooms, including bath, large amount of land, 100 ft. front street, shade trees, or use for station, public park, beaches, or line of electric.

Apply at 318 Hancock St., Wollaston, Mass. Oct. 15.

L. W. NASH, WOLLASTON.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Office in New Store under Wollaston Hotel.

WANTED.
AGENTS
Stock, etc. 700 acres under cultivation. Largest assortment in this country. Stock guaranteed. Most liberal terms. Superb outfit for sale. Gen'l Agents who give security and sell on easy cash plan position with us. Lady canvassers are very successful in our line. Apply to L. W. NASH, 318 Hancock St., Wollaston, N. Y. Mention this paper. ps ft

MILTON.

There was a very enjoyable gathering last week on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. Q. Baxter. It was also somewhat of a remarkable gathering as the average age of the eleven ladies present was seventy-eight years. The oldest of the party was Mrs. Josiah Babcock who is in her ninetieth year. These ladies are all very active and entered into the pleasures of the afternoon with much life and animation. It was a day long to be remembered by all present.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1898.

VOL. 62. NO. 44.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

The Quincy Patriot,
Established in 1837.

PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,
[FORMERLY GREEN & PRESCOTT.]

Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.
[A reduction of fifty cents will be made when paid one year in advance.]

Quincy Daily Ledger,
The ONLY DAILY in the ONLY CITY in Norfolk
County. Established in 1889.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.
[A reduction of $1 will be made when paid
one year in advance.]

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF THE
Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.

OFFICE, No. 115 HANCOCK STREET.

W. W. JENNESS
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
87 Milk St., Boston, Mass.

Quincy Office, Adams Bldg.,
Room 2.
Office Hours: 9 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW,
ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Corner Newport and Grand View Avenues,
Wollaston.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST,
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
Quincy, Mass.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST,
Room 6 and 6 1/2, Dugan & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Lehigh Coal.

When we sell you Lehigh, we deliver what we sell.

C. PATCH & SON.

H. T. WHITMAN,
Civil Engineer

SURVEYOR.
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.

PERRY LAWTON,
CIVIL ENGINEER

SURVEYOR.
Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

JENNIE HOCKING HUNT,
TEACHER OF
Organ, Piano and Harmony,
13 Bigelow Street, Quincy.

HERBERT A. HAYDEN,
PIANO TUNER.

Pettengill's Jewelry Store,
126 Hancock Street,
Quincy, Mass.

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 Hancock Street.

JOHN HALL,
BOOTS AND SHOES

DAVID BROWN,
HORSE SHOEING,
Carriage Work and General Jobbing,
ARLINGTON STREET, WOLLASTON.

JOHN F. KEMP,
MACHINIST.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

JOSS BROTHERS,
SCANDIA GRANITE CO.,
Monuments and all kinds of Cemetery work,
Quincy, Mass.

CLOTHING FOR MEN AND BOYS

Highest Possible Quality. Made in CLEAN workrooms in this building.
MACULAR PARKER COMPANY,
400 Washington St., BOSTON, - 400 Washington St.

WE CAN SUPPLY YOUR NEEDS AT ROCK BOTTOM PRICES.

SILVERWARE.

HAWKES' CUT GLASS.

IMPORTED WARE.

WE HAVE IN STOCK THE LATEST AND PRETTIEST OF SILVERWARE, CHINA AND UNIQUE PIECES, WHICH WE ARE ALWAYS PLEASED TO SHOW THEM.

Compare Our Prices With Others.

Job Work of All Kinds Attended to Promptly.

WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY.

1867-1898.

THE OLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE BOOT AND SHOE STORE IN THE CITY.

Call and See Some of the

BARGAINS IN ALL KINDS OF

Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

To Be Found at 54 Washington Street.

RUBBER AND LEATHER CEMENT, ALSO RUBBER SOLING.

Repairing Done at Short Notice.

ELLA L. STETSON.

54 Washington Street, Quincy

Parlor Stove Talk

All homes are not yet blessed with a furnace or a steam heating plant, and if our enormous sales of Parlor Stoves is any criterion, we can with wisdom say that Parlor Stoves popularity is by no means a thing of the past.

There is a difference in Parlor Stoves just the same as in everything else—some good, some bad, some indifferent. Years of experience have taught us just which stoves give the best service, are easiest to manage and prove economical coal burners. Such stoves are these that we offer—40 patterns to choose from, $2.98 to $20.00. A stove to suit your notion, a stove to suit your purse.

Oil Room Heaters, $3.50 to $4.50.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

HANCOCK STREET, - QUINCY.

Watches,

$2.50 and Upward.

Solid Gold Rings, $1 and Up.

Shirt Waist Sets, Jeweled Buckles, Belts,

Pins, Chains, Charms, Pocket Books, etc.

Special Attention Paid to Repairing.

A. A. LINSOTT, - JEWELER,

154 Hancock St., opp. Postoffice, Quincy.

Spectacles and Eye Glasses.

Poetry.

As to Roasting.

SARA SPENCER BROWN.

He had traveled miles from the British Isles
To study our savage types,
And he heaved a sigh as he looked at his eye
At our glorious stars and stripes.
"The idea is downright low,"
At the very best your flag suggests,
Well—gritless, don't you know."
Then a Gotham maid, who was not afraid
Of his lordship, raised her head,
And her eyes gleamed bright with cutting light,
But she ever so calmly said:
"Why I forgive, that's due to your point of view,
For I judge you were thinking then
Of its old-time use, when it cooked your goose,
And roasted you Englishmen."

Miscellany.

A HALLOWEEN STORY.

Grandma Mead had been invited out to tea and to meet Miss Nancy Parkins, a friend of the dear long ago, when the days were all summer time, and the skies were always blue, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny girl neighbors—played "keep house" under the great old tree by the garden. Together, too, they went a-Maying in the woods, or hunted the gay hollyhock's nest in the garden, which was always the bluest, and the sun the very brightest, and they—two tiny

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1898.

The Boulevard.

Quincy is very well satisfied with its efforts of Monday in Boston, for the Metropolitan Park Commissioners decided to reopen the Quincy boulevard project and gave those present the assurance that it might be put through if the conditions were right.

Mayor Sears handled the hearing very skillfully and it was demonstrated what Quincy can accomplish if it will only be progressive, interested and united. Among those present were Representative Thompson, City Solicitor McAnaney, President Pinkham of the City Council, Connelley Willard, H. Parker, Owen and McGrath, Principal Assessor Perkins, ex-City Solicitor Blackman, ex-Mayor Duggan, ex-Mayor Adams, Theophilus King, ex-Councilman Field, Sprague, Glover, Graham, Read, Wilde and Lamb, Engineer Whitman, Tobias H. Burke, ex-Senator Merrill, Franklin Faxon, ex-Mayor Milne, John Vogel, H. T. Doble, Napoleon Grignon, John A. Duggan, Henry M. Faxon, F. P. Waterhouse, Edward Glennon, F. C. Pope, N. V. Titus, A. G. Durgin, H. L. Rice, T. J. Collins and Frank F. Prescott.

The commissioners who heard the matter were: William B. Do las Casca of Malden (chairman), Mr. Manchester (who sat on his left), and Edwin B. Haskell of Newton and Thomas L. Livermore of Boston (who sat on his right).

Mayor Sears opened, saying the hearing was upon a request of the City Council, which had passed resolution. The movement was not confined to the City Government, but included the people generally, all being in favor of the boulevard. There was a question but it should be built if consistent to the plans for parks and boulevards in the Metropolitan district.

He understood the money was still in the treasury, which eliminated the necessity of an appropriation. Quincy had some special claim to the boulevard, inasmuch as the commission had taken from the city 2,000 acres of taxable land worth $75,000, but had not made the reservation accessible to Quincy people. The gentleman had attended this hearing, and by inspection but from general interest in the boulevard. The coast was certainly picturesque and should always remain open.

Direct and convincing arguments were made by President Pinkham of the City Council, Hon. W. B. Dole, ex-Mayor Adams, Theophilus King, City Solicitor McAnaney, and Tobias H. Burke which were reported at length in Tuesday's Ledger. Others were invited to speak had opportunity offered.

The commissioners decided that they had abandoned the boulevard, but in the face of the interest shown and arguments made, they agreed to reopen the matter. A suggestion that a Quincy committee be appointed to see what could be done in the future on land and rights was adopted, and this committee will report to the commission later. If the land can be secured without an appeal to a court, the boulevard may be built.

New Car Barn.

The Harbor and Land Commissioners gave a hearing Thursday on the petition of the Quincy & Boston street railway to erect a building on piles near the Neponset river at Neponset. There was no opposition to the petition which will probably be granted.

It is the intention to build at once a large and modern waiting room and car barn, and plans for the same have been made and the contract has been awarded to Peter J. Williams, and calls for its completion inside of four months.

The building is to be located on the west side of Neponset avenue near the bridge. The main building will have a frontage on Neponset avenue of 110 feet and a depth of about 40 feet. Back of and joining the main building is the car barn which is about 30 feet wide and has a depth of 100 feet, making the total depth 140 feet. At the north corner of the building will be a room for a store, which is about 25 feet square. On the southerly corner the waiting room which will be fitted with every convenience for the comfort of the public. This waiting room will be about 20 by 30 feet and from it there will be a retiring room and a separate toilet room for ladies and gentlemen.

There will also be a large boiler and coal room adjoining. On the south and west sides of the waiting room will be a broad covered piazza making an exceptionally fine and comfortable waiting place in warm weather.

Between the waiting room and store there will be a large arch through which the cars enter the car barn from the street.

This will also be where passengers will be received and delivered, and at the waiting room will have an entrance to the archway passengers will be protected during stormy weather.

Over the main building there is a large unfinished hall which may be fitted for a public hall. Entrance to this hall to be from the front of the building.

It is not the intention of the road to keep many cars stored there, but to keep enough so that in case of a rush in summer an extra car can be had readily. The building will be of wood and will be a handsome structure.

Pumps Ready.

The pumping station of the Quincy sewerage system, which is practically completed, is a model plant in every way. Perhaps, everybody knows, it is situated on the north side of Merry-mount park, and is built of brick.

The building is at present divided into three rooms, the southerly end being the pump room, where are located the powerful Deane pumps, that are to draw the sewage from the well under the station and force it through a twelve inch pipe to the outlet at Sunnyside. These pumps are working order but when ready for use the exposed parts will be painted and polished so that they will present an attractive appearance.

Directly in the rear of the pump room, or the east end of the building, is the boiler room in which are two large boilers which will generate the steam for the pumps. There is also considerable additional space in this room which can be utilized as a work shop, or if in the future the needs of the plant require, additional boilers can be put in.

On the south side of the building is the coal room and entrance to the well beneath the station. This coal room is also a large room and will doubtless be used for a store room or other purposes.

Just how long it will be before the machinery gets down to actual work is a matter of doubt, the delay being at Sunnyside where the connections with the Metropolitan sewer is being made.

CITY BRIEFS.

Heavy frost yesterday morning. Election a week from next Tuesday. That parody which Co. K sings is a bit doleful.

The Hingham High walked all around the Quincy High foot ball team scoring 37 to 0.

Mrs. Walter Russell Breed and baby returned from Pennsylvania Saturday with Mr. Breed.

Several letters received their final naturalization papers at the District Court this week.

Miss Addie B. Morse of Enfield Centre, N. H., is the guest of this week of Mrs. George T. Magee.

Several fine photographs of individual friends in Quincy this week.

There will be a meeting of the Fraternity society in the Unitarian chapel, Wednesday, afternoon, Nov. 24, at two o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis N. Curtis (Miss Sophia V. Whitney) returned from their wedding trip this week and are settled in their home on Orchard place.

Tuesday night was an unusually fine night for smelting, and a large number of fishermen were seen during the early evening making their way toward the shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Holden have been passing their honeymoon among the Berkshires hills. They also visited Niagara Falls and other adjacent points of interest.

Officer McKay finished his tour of duty Tuesday night, and now Officer Davoren commences his tour of duty. Officer McKay takes the Wollaston night beat.

Dr. F. J. Bonney, formerly a dentist in this city, on Chestnut street, was in town Tuesday. He is looking well and as a subscriber of the Patriot keeps posted on Quincy affairs.

The Quincy & Boston street railway has taken hold of what is called the "old mill property" on Iron Hill, Weymouth, and will make alterations and use it for a car repair shop.

Miss Charlotte A. Kendall, the teacher of drawing in the Quincy schools, has a brother in the Sixth Massachusetts regiment, which has been in Porto Rico, and returned this week.

Tuesday the Rev. E. N. Hardy attended the ecclesiastical council called to install the Rev. George Walter Fiske, at Hingham, among the Berkshires, and gave the charge to the pastor.

The Hingham Journal says that Mrs. Ellen Keenan of Quincy, the recent purchaser of the Quincy Thaxter place, Hingham, lately the paragon of St. Paul's church, has greatly improved Paul's church, has greatly improved Paul's church, has greatly improved Paul's church.

Dr. Wm. Charles B. Lawrence, district deputy grand master of the 24th Masonic district and suite made an official visitation to Rural lodge Thursday evening and it was the occasion for the usual large attendance of the brethren and friends of the lodge.

A three-horse load of hay was passing in the rear of the First church on Wednesday when the load slipped off the back and fell into the street. The hay was reloaded and a start made, but the team had gone and was not to be seen.

The second attempt toward Boston was more successful and the load went on toward Boston.

The High school suffers a loss in the resignation of Miss Miriam Lane who has accepted a position in the Newton High school at a considerable increase in salary. She will be succeeded by Mr. Charles Slade of this city, a graduate of Adams academy and of Harvard, and a son of James H. Slade, Esq., a former member of the school committee.

Mr. Walter E. Lund, our talented violinist and composer, has just published a new piece which is sure to become a favorite. It is dedicated to Mr. F. M. Crosby, Hampden, N. H., proprietor of the Leona and is called the Leona March. There is a life and spirit about Mr. Lund's compositions like those of Sousa, that appeals to music lovers.

Today will be observed as Founder's day at the Adams academy and there will be the usual athletic sports. The list will include 75-yards dash, 100-yards dash, 220-yards dash, 440-yards dash, 880-yards dash, 1760-yards dash, 3520-yards dash, 7040-yards dash, 14080-yards dash, 28160-yards dash, 56320-yards dash, 112640-yards dash, 225280-yards dash, 450560-yards dash, 901120-yards dash, 1802240-yards dash, 3604480-yards dash, 7208960-yards dash, 14417920-yards dash, 28835840-yards dash, 57671680-yards dash, 115343360-yards dash, 230686720-yards dash, 461373440-yards dash, 922746880-yards dash, 1845493760-yards dash, 3690987520-yards dash, 7381975040-yards dash, 14763950080-yards dash, 29527900160-yards dash, 59055800320-yards dash, 118111600640-yards dash, 236223201280-yards dash, 472446402560-yards dash, 944892805120-yards dash, 1889785610240-yards dash, 3779571220480-yards dash, 7559142440960-yards dash, 15118284881920-yards dash, 30236569763840-yards dash, 60473139527680-yards dash, 120946279055360-yards dash, 241892558110720-yards dash, 483785116221440-yards dash, 967570232442880-yards dash, 1935140464885760-yards dash, 3870280929771520-yards dash, 7740561859543040-yards dash, 15481123719086080-yards dash, 30962247438172160-yards dash, 61924494876344320-yards dash, 123848989752688640-yards dash, 247697979505377280-yards dash, 495395959010754560-yards dash, 990791918021509120-yards dash, 1981583836043018240-yards dash, 3963167672086036480-yards dash, 7926335344172072960-yards dash, 15852670688344145920-yards dash, 31705341376688291840-yards dash, 63410682753376583680-yards dash, 126821365506753167360-yards dash, 253642731013506334720-yards dash, 507285462027012669440-yards dash, 1014570924054025338880-yards dash, 2029141848108050677760-yards dash, 4058283696216101355520-yards dash, 8116567392432202711040-yards dash, 16233134784864405422080-yards dash, 32466269569728810844160-yards dash, 64932539139457621688320-yards dash, 129865078278915243376640-yards dash, 259730156557830486753280-yards dash, 519460313115660973506560-yards dash, 1038920626231321947013120-yards dash, 2077841252462643894026240-yards dash, 4155682504925287788052480-yards dash, 8311365009850575576104960-yards dash, 16622730019701151152209920-yards dash, 33245460039402302304419840-yards dash, 66490920078804604608839680-yards dash, 132981840157609209217679360-yards dash, 265963680315218418435358720-yards dash, 531927360630436836870717440-yards dash, 1063854721260873673741434880-yards dash, 2127709442521747347482869760-yards dash, 4255418885043494694965739520-yards dash, 8510837770086989389931479040-yards dash, 17021675540173978779862958080-yards dash, 34043351080347957559725916160-yards dash, 68086702160695915119451832320-yards dash, 136173404321391830238903664640-yards dash, 272346808642783660477807329280-yards dash, 544693617285567320955614658560-yards dash, 1089387234571134641911229317120-yards dash, 2178774469142269283822458634240-yards dash, 4357548938284538567644917268480-yards dash, 8715097876569077135289834536960-yards dash, 17430195753138154270579669073920-yards dash, 34860391506276308541159338147840-yards dash, 69720783012552617082318676295680-yards dash, 139441566025105234164637352591360-yards dash, 278883132050210468329274705182720-yards dash, 557766264100420936658549410365440-yards dash, 1115532528200841873317098820730880-yards dash, 2231065056401683746634197641461760-yards dash, 4462130112803367493268395282923520-yards dash, 8924260225606734986536790565847040-yards dash, 17848520451213469973073581131694080-yards dash, 35697040902426939946147162263388160-yards dash, 71394081804853879892294324526776320-yards dash, 142788163609707759784588649053552640-yards dash, 285576327219415519569177298107105280-yards dash, 571152654438831039138354596214210560-yards dash, 1142305308877662078276709192428421120-yards dash, 2284610617755324156553418384856842240-yards dash, 4569221235510648313106836769713684480-yards dash, 9138442471021296626213673539427368960-yards dash, 18276884942042593252427347078854737920-yards dash, 36553769884085186504854694157709475840-yards dash, 73107539768170373009709388315418951680-yards dash, 146215079536340746019418776630837903360-yards dash, 292430159072681492038837553261675806720-yards dash, 584860318145362984077675106523351613440-yards dash, 1169720636290725968155350213046703226880-yards dash, 2339441272581451936310700426093406453760-yards dash, 4678882545162903872621400852186812907520-yards dash, 9357765090325807745242801704373625815040-yards dash, 18715530180651615490485603408747251630080-yards dash, 37431060361303230980971206817494503260160-yards dash, 74862120722606461961942413634989006520320-yards dash, 149724241445212923923884827269978013040640-yards dash, 299448482890425847847769654539956026081280-yards dash, 598896965780851695695539309079912052162560-yards dash, 1197793931561703391391078618159824104325120-yards dash, 2395587863123406782782157236319648208650240-yards dash, 4791175726246813565564314472639296417300480-yards dash, 9582351452493627131128628945278592834600960-yards dash, 19164702904987254262257257890557185669201920-yards dash, 38329405809974508524514515781114371338403840-yards dash, 76658811619949017049029031562228742676807680-yards dash, 153317623239898034098058063124457485353615360-yards dash, 306635246479796068196116126248914970707230720-yards dash, 613270492959592136392232252497829941414461440-yards dash, 122654098591918427278446450499565988282892880-yards dash, 245308197183836854556892900999131976565785760-yards dash, 490616394367673709113785801998263953131571520-yards dash, 981232788735347418227571603996527906263143040-yards dash, 1962465577470694836455143207993055812526286080-yards dash, 3924931154941389672910286415986111625052572160-yards dash, 7849862309882779345820572831972223250105144320-yards dash, 1569972461976555869164114566394444650021088640-yards dash, 3139944923953111738328229132788889300042177280-yards dash, 6279889847906223476656458265577778600084354560-yards dash, 12559779695812446953312916531155577200168709120-yards dash, 25119559391624893906625833062311154400337418240-yards dash, 50239118783249787813251666124622308800674836480-yards dash, 100478237566499575626503332249244617601349672960-yards dash, 200956475132999151253006664498489235202699349120-yards dash, 401912950265998302506013328996978470405398698240-yards dash, 80382590053199660501202665799395694081079739520-yards dash, 160765180106399321002405331598791380161559479040-yards dash, 321530360212798642004810663197582760323118958080-yards dash, 643060720425597284009621326395165520646237916160-yards dash, 1286121440851194568019242652790331041292475832320-yards dash, 2572242881702389136038485305580662082584951664640-yards dash, 5144485763404778272076970611161324165169903329280-yards dash, 10288971526809556544153941222232648330339806658560-yards dash, 20577943053619113088307882444465296660679613317120-yards dash, 41155886107238226176615764888930593321359326634240-yards dash, 82311772214476452353231529777861186427188652668480-yards dash, 16462354442895290470646305955572373324537730533760-yards dash, 32924708885790580941292611911144746649075461067520-yards dash, 65849417771581161882585223822289493298150922135040-yards dash, 131698835543162323765170447644578986596301844270080-yards dash, 263397671086324647530340895289157973192603688540160-yards dash, 526795342172649295060681790578315946385207377080320-yards dash, 1053590684345298590121363581156631892770414754160640-yards dash, 2107181368690597180242727162313263785540829508321280-yards dash, 4214362737381194360485454324626527571081659016642560-yards dash, 8428725474762388720970908649253055142163318033285120-yards dash, 16857450949524777441941817298506110283266636066570240-yards dash, 33714901899049554883883634597012220566533272133140480-yards dash, 67429803798099109767767269194024441133066544266280960-yards dash, 134859607596198219535534538388048882266133088532561920-yards dash, 269719215192396439071069076776097764532266177065123840-yards dash, 539438430384792878142138153552195529064532354130247680-yards dash, 1078876860769585756284276307104391058129064708260495360-yards dash, 2157753721539171512568552614208782116258129416530990720-yards dash, 4315507443078343025137105228417564232516258833061981440-yards dash, 8631014886156686050274210456835128465032517666123962880-yards dash, 1726202977231337210054842091367025693006503533224785760-yards dash, 3452405954462674420109684182734051386013010666449571520-yards dash, 69048119089253488402193683654681027720260213328991440-yards dash, 138096238178506976804387367309362055440520426657982880-yards dash, 276192476357013953608774734618724110881040533313965760-yards dash, 552384952714027907217549469237448221762010106667931520-yards dash, 1104769905428055814435098938474896435524020213335863040-yards dash, 2209539810856111628870197876949792871048040426671726080-yards dash, 4419079621712223257740395753899585742096080853343452160-yards dash, 8838159243424446515480791507799171484192161706686904320-yards dash, 17676318486848893030961583015598342968384323413373808640-yards dash, 35352636973697786061923166031196685936768646826747617280-yards dash, 7070527394739557212384633206239337187353729365349523520-yards dash, 14141054789479114424769266412478674374707458730699047040-yards dash, 28282109578958228849538532824957348749414917461398094080-yards dash, 5656421915791645769907706564991469749882983492279618880-yards dash, 11312843831583291539815413129982939499765966984559237760-yards dash, 22625687663166583079630826259965878999531933969118475520-yards dash, 4525137532633316615926165251993175799906386793823695040-yards dash, 9050275065266633231852330503986351599812773587647390080-yards dash, 18100550130533266467104661007972703199625547175294780160-yards dash, 36201100261066532934209322015945406399251094350598960320-yards dash, 72402200522133065868418644031890812798502188701197920640-yards dash, 144804401044266131736837288063781625590004377402395840-yards dash, 289608802088532263473674576127563251180008754804791680-yards dash, 579217604177064526947349152255126502360017509609583360-yards dash, 1158435208354129053894698304510253047200035019219166720-yards dash, 2316870416708258107789396609020506094400070038438333440-yards dash, 4633740833416516215578793218041012188800014007686666880-yards dash, 926748166683303243115758643608202437760002801533333376-yards dash, 185349633336660648623151728721640487552000560266666666-yards dash, 370699266673321297246303457443280975104001120533333333-yards dash, 74139853334664259449260691488656190208002240106666666-yards

The Quincy Patriot.

Sixty-Second Year.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1888.

SINGLE COPIES 5 CENTS.

FOR SALE AT The Patriot Office,
South of the City,
C. F. Carlson,
W. E. Freeman,
S. F. Newman,
C. F. White,
Thomas Curran,
Bransford & Martin,
Bransford & Martin,
Peter Haverly,
W. E. Freeman,
E. H. Doble & Co.,
Henry Coram,
Mrs. Lark's Store,
William Clark,
Old Colony Depot,
Boston,
L. S. Houghton,
N. B. Procter,
G. H. Hunt,
B. F. Thomas,
East Weymouth,
West Weymouth.

A World Reformer.

SAM WALTER POSE.

Said Farmer John to John Ned:
"Come put a back door in my shed."
Says John Ned to Farmer John:
"I cannot put your back door on.
The guild I'm interested in for the abolition of sin and my back door is very dry.
And so I cannot get away."

"Well, after you've abolished sin,
Come down tomorrow and begin;
I want that back door in my shed."
Said Farmer John to John Ned:
"Tomorrow, neither, can I come.
The friends of the Millennium
Meet at the house of Deacon Kent,
And I am first vice-president."

"Well, then, next Wednesday, without doubt,
When your millennium's started out,
Just let it take its course and spread,
And put that back door in my shed."

"I read an essay Wednesday, John,
Before the Culture Club upon
The easiest method to restore
Our long lost Eden here once more."
To foster peace, shed sin,
And render virtue popular."

"Well, get your Eden here all right
By sundown, prompt, next Wednesday night,
And then, next Thursday morning, Ned,
Come put that back door in my shed."

"The Anti-Hunger Club convenes Next Thursday, down to Union Green,
And I have promised to read
On how to crush and extirpate
His revolting desire to eat."

"Don't you come down by and by,
We'll say two years from next July?
For my wife says various things put through You'll have the universe new;
To foster peace, shed sin, with your tool kit, Ned,
And put that back door in my shed."

"I think," says Ned, "I'll take that chance
For my wife says we've no meat
And no flour in the house to eat, $100 comes to settle up. Vote for Republican Congressmen and keep the free silver question from disturbing business."

"The Spaniards are said to be unanimous against the McKinley administration.
Unless you want to aid and encourage the enemy, 'Support the President.'"

"The last few months have opened
the eyes of the world, yes with a big
W, to the power of the Yankee nation.
Do not weaken or destroy the effect of the victories of the war by refusing your warm support to the Administration that carried it through, even though it made errors and mistakes. Support the President. Vote for Republican Congressmen."

"The last public execution by hanging in this state took place at Salem jail a few days ago. Henceforth murders will come to their end in the electric chair, electrocution taking the place of the gallows."

"A young Porto Rican has entered
the Tuskegee Institute in Alabama.
This is undoubtedly the kind of heaven that should be set to working for the new possession."

"In 1886 the people charged Congress with restoring a protective tariff. That has been done; and for the first nine months of this year our exports exceed our imports by over $300,000.
Vote for Republican Congressmen
in November and continue this policy, for Democratic success would overthrow it."

"Would you be so kind as to help me?" said a poor beggar to a pedestrian.
"I have a wife and five children at home and an instalment to pay on my bicycle tomorrow." Wonder how many millions of dollars have been spent for bicycles; and how many have bought a wheel who were not able to pay for it.

"Marcus Morton was once elected Governor of Massachusetts by a majority of one vote. He believed the Governor of New York was once elected by the same vote. The man who cast the one majority was some pumpkin, then, although unknown to pumpkin. As state officers are now generally elected by pluralities, majorities
are not needed."

"Parties interested in the Panama Canal scheme, along with the specialists interested in transcontinental railroads are opposed to any canal across the isthmus and are ever active in opposing the Nicaragua project, but it is plain to the most ordinary understanding that a canal is needed, and it must be at Nicaragua, if at all. The best expert decides that the Nicaragua route is to be practicable, while the Panama route is not; besides the former is nearer to the United States."

"It is becoming more and more apparent, to business men everywhere,
that an advertisement in the local weekly paper brings better returns than any other form of advertising."

"The Cuban debt, about which we are hearing so much just now, is a mere bagatelle of $400,000,000 or so, or three dollars of which may have been spent by Spain for the benefit of Cuba.
—Boston Globe."

"The Walrus Railroad Company has been improving its train service between Boston and the West, so that it now compares favorably with any.
The new train 'The Continental Limited' has no superior either in time or equipment. It takes only 35 hours 22 minutes between Boston and St. Louis, and 29 hours and 10 minutes between Boston and Chicago.
Send to the Walrus Office, No. 5
State street, Boston, for map, or to engage berth. If

"Nine skeletons have been unearthed at Houghs Neck by employees of the Quincy water department. It is believed that there is good basis for the claim that not more than half of them are the remains of summer boarders who were starved to death on a diet of fresh salt air and a good view.
—Charlestown Enterprise."

Why Brother, what's the matter.
You must have been drinking.
One over-keen at Houghs Neck. On the pure air and fat clams the people live forever. They have never staked out a cemetery there."

"Telephone service was established last week between Kansas City and Boston, a distance of 1,600 miles, which is the longest service of the kind on record. As the charge for five minutes' conversation between the two cities is $10 during the day, and $5 at night, the service is not likely to be largely employed for purely social
purposes."

"In 1896, the people, by both party platforms, said the United States must assist Cuba in driving out the Spanish.
President McKinley has, supported by Republicans and Democrats alike, the East and West in loyal support of such action, driving the Spaniards from Cuba and Porto Rico. To preserve the fruits of these victories, vote for Republican Congressmen and sus-tain the President."

"The Ploughman says, much depends upon the man who has charge of the retail milk route, that is, the man who meets the consumer. He should be neat, business like and gentlemanly,
and wear decent clothes."

"The coming state of William Ellery Channing will add to the best specimens of Boston statuary, and will be a monument of which Boston and
New England will be proud."

"Cases of highway robbery are becoming more frequent than ever, in the vicinity of Boston. Drunkenness is the cause of a good deal of such crime, says the Boston Courier. Quincy
no more shops, and she has not been troubled by highway robbers."

"Philip D. Armour of Chicago, whose business last year amounted to $107,000,000, gives some good advice
to young men in regard to the essential thing for success. He says:
'Young men talk about getting capital to work with. Let them get truth on board and capital follows.'"

"The work of the Fruit and Flower Mission is commendable. Forty-three thousand bouquets in Boston this season have made many hearts happy, says the Courier."

"In Springfield, people are advocating that the city take upon itself the work of removing ashes from the cellars. Even now it goes one step further than Somerville, as it takes the barrels from the back yards instead of emptying and only 20 cents next week.
Well, it is just so with the gold standard. We all know 'where we are at' with it. Let's not vote for any free silver standard, when the dollar may be worth one sum today and another tomorrow; when the man who owes you $100 comes to settle up. Vote for Republican Congressmen and keep the free
silver question from disturbing business."

"The Spaniards are said to be unanimous against the McKinley administration.
Unless you want to aid and encourage the enemy, 'Support the President.'"

"The last few months have opened
the eyes of the world, yes with a big
W, to the power of the Yankee nation.
Do not weaken or destroy the effect
of the victories of the war by refusing your warm support to the Administration
that carried it through, even though it made errors and mistakes. Support the President. Vote for Republican Congressmen."

"The last public execution by hanging
in this state took place at Salem
jail a few days ago. Henceforth murders will come to their end in the electric chair, electrocution taking the place of the gallows."

"A young Porto Rican has entered
the Tuskegee Institute in Alabama.
This is undoubtedly the kind of heaven
that should be set to working for the new possession."

"In 1886 the people charged Congress
with restoring a protective tariff. That has been done; and for the first nine months of this year our exports exceed our imports by over $300,000.
Vote for Republican Congressmen
in November and continue this policy,
for Democratic success would over-
throw it."

"Would you be so kind as to help me?" said a poor beggar to a pedestrian.
"I have a wife and five children at home and an instalment to pay on my bicycle tomorrow." Wonder how many millions of dollars have been spent for bicycles; and how many have bought a wheel who were not able to pay for it.

"Marcus Morton was once elected Governor of Massachusetts by a majority of one vote. He believed the Governor of New York was once
elected by the same vote. The man who cast the one majority was some pumpkin, then, although unknown to pumpkin. As state officers are now generally elected by pluralities, majorities
are not needed."

"Parties interested in the Panama Canal scheme, along with the specialists interested in transcontinental
railroads are opposed to any canal
across the isthmus and are ever active
in opposing the Nicaragua project, but it is plain to the most ordinary understanding that a canal is needed, and it must be at Nicaragua, if at all. The best expert decides that the Nicaragua
route is to be practicable, while the Panama route is not; besides the former is nearer to the United States."

"It is becoming more and more apparent, to business men everywhere,
that an advertisement in the local weekly paper brings better returns than any other form of advertising."

"The Cuban debt, about which we are hearing so much just now, is a mere bagatelle of $400,000,000 or so, or three dollars of which may have been spent by Spain for the benefit of Cuba.
—Boston Globe."

"The Walrus Railroad Company
has been improving its train service
between Boston and the West, so that it now compares favorably with any.
The new train 'The Continental Limited' has no superior either in time or equipment. It takes only 35
hours 22 minutes between Boston and
St. Louis, and 29 hours and 10 minutes
between Boston and Chicago.
Send to the Walrus Office, No. 5
State street, Boston, for map, or to engage berth. If

"We have had many delightful days this month. Still the short days, cold nights and frosty mornings remind us that winter is at hand. They are getting it quite severe in the west. Snow storms nearly every week."

"Connecticut numbers among her sons three of the great financiers of the time P. D. Armour, the Chicago cattle and beef king, who is said to be worth from $30,000,000 to $40,000,000, was born in the town of Union—a place which has the distinction of being the smallest town in the State. C. P.
Huntington, the railway king is a native of Hartford; and the Litchfield Hills, and 'Old Hatched,' the Chicago operator, was born in Coventry."

"Porto Rico, this beautiful isle of the sea, has become the property of the United States, and our Spanish waves over the public buildings of her capital and through her domains. It means a delightful change to this population. Our schools and broad religion will be introduced to their localities, and our people will be free to choose their system of faith. The transposition from oppression to sweet freedom, from ignorance to the opportunities of intelligence, must be a heavenly wakening and cause joy to many hearts."

"If you want a business panic, vote to elect a free silver House of Representatives, and you have it before you.
Wires stopped lighting the return. You know it perfectly well. Therefore, save yourself that panic by preventing the election of such members of Congress.
The Republican nominees are all sound money men."

"The Ploughman says, much depends upon the man who has charge of the retail milk route, that is, the man who meets the consumer. He should be neat, business like and gentlemanly,
and wear decent clothes."

"The coming state of William Ellery Channing will add to the best specimens of Boston statuary, and will be a monument of which Boston and
New England will be proud."

"Cases of highway robbery are becoming more frequent than ever, in the vicinity of Boston. Drunkenness
is the cause of a good deal of such crime,
says the Boston Courier. Quincy
no more shops, and she has not been troubled by highway robbers."

"Philip D. Armour of Chicago,
whose business last year amounted to $107,000,000, gives some good advice
to young men in regard to the essential thing for success. He says:
'Young men talk about getting capital
to work with. Let them get truth on board and capital follows.'"

"The work of the Fruit and Flower Mission is commendable. Forty-three thousand bouquets in Boston this season
have made many hearts happy, says the Courier."

"In Springfield, people are advocating that the city take upon itself the work of removing ashes from the cellars. Even now it goes one step further than Somerville, as it takes the barrels from the back yards instead of emptying and only 20 cents next week.
Well, it is just so with the gold standard. We all know 'where we are at' with it. Let's not vote for any free silver standard, when the dollar may be worth one sum today and another
tomorrow; when the man who owes you $100 comes to settle up. Vote for Republican Congressmen and keep the free
silver question from disturbing business."

"The Spaniards are said to be unanimous against the McKinley administration.
Unless you want to aid and encourage the enemy, 'Support the President.'"

"The last few months have opened
the eyes of the world, yes with a big
W, to the power of the Yankee nation.
Do not weaken or destroy the effect
of the victories of the war by refusing your warm support to the Administration
that carried it through, even though it made errors and mistakes. Support the President. Vote for Republican Congressmen."

"The last public execution by hanging
in this state took place at Salem
jail a few days ago. Henceforth murders will come to their end in the electric chair, electrocution taking the place of the gallows."

"A young Porto Rican has entered
the Tuskegee Institute in Alabama.
This is undoubtedly the kind of heaven
that should be set to working for the new possession."

"In 1886 the people charged Congress
with restoring a protective tariff. That has been done; and for the first nine months of this year our exports exceed our imports by over $300,000.
Vote for Republican Congressmen
in November and continue this policy,
for Democratic success would over-
throw it."

"Would you be so kind as to help me?" said a poor beggar to a pedestrian.
"I have a wife and five children at home and an instalment to pay on my bicycle tomorrow." Wonder how many millions of dollars have been spent for bicycles; and how many have bought a wheel who were not able to pay for it.

"Marcus Morton was once elected Governor of Massachusetts by a majority of one vote. He believed the Governor of New York was once
elected by the same vote. The man who cast the one majority was some pumpkin, then, although unknown to pumpkin. As state officers are now generally elected by pluralities, majorities
are not needed."

"Parties interested in the Panama Canal scheme, along with the specialists interested in transcontinental
railroads are opposed to any canal
across the isthmus and are ever active
in opposing the Nicaragua project, but it is plain to the most ordinary understanding that a canal is needed, and it must be at Nicaragua, if at all. The best expert decides that the Nicaragua
route is to be practicable, while the Panama route is not; besides the former is nearer to the United States."

"It is becoming more and more apparent, to business men everywhere,
that an advertisement in the local weekly paper brings better returns than any other form of advertising."

"The Cuban debt, about which we are hearing so much just now, is a mere bagatelle of $400,000,000 or so, or three dollars of which may have been spent by Spain for the benefit of Cuba.
—Boston Globe."

"The Walrus Railroad Company
has been improving its train service
between Boston and the West, so that it now compares favorably with any.
The new train 'The Continental Limited' has no superior either in time or equipment. It takes only 35
hours 22 minutes between Boston and
St. Louis, and 29 hours and 10 minutes
between Boston and Chicago.
Send to the Walrus Office, No. 5
State street, Boston, for map, or to engage berth. If

"We, the undersigned, have known F. J.
Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligation made by him.
West & Trux, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
WALSH, KINNA & MARTIN, Wholesale
Druggists, Toledo, O.
The Quincy Patriot is, in its entirety, accordingly upon the blood and mucous surface of the Walrus Office, No. 5 State street, Boston, for map, or to engage berth. If

Household Receipts.

French Toast. Beat two eggs very light; add to them one pint of milk.
Slice baker's bread or nice light homemade bread and dip the pieces into the milk and eggs, letting them lie long enough to be thoroughly moistened and yet not fall to pieces. Fry to a delicate brown in hot, fresh butter. Serve with sugar.

Delham Cream Pie. Bake your paste, not too rich, in a common pie plate. Boil on pint of milk and while boiling stir in one-half cup of flour, one cup of sugar, yolks of two eggs.
Beat well together and cook long enough not to have a raw taste. Add the juice and grated rind of one lemon and a little salt. Beat the whites of two eggs and one cup of sugar to a stiff foam and spread over the pie when filled, and brown it in the oven.

Chestnut Pudding. Peel, boil and skin some chestnuts; let them steep in hot water for a few minutes, and then pound them in a mortar. Melt a piece of fresh butter and stir in the pounded chestnuts, add a little good cooking pepper and salt, and cook over a fire in a double boiler, then add two tablespoons of thick, fresh cream. Serve with roast meat or poultry gravy. This makes an uncommon and delicious winter dish.

Mutton Breakfast Pudding. To one cup of cold mutton coarsely chopped, add a little piece of chopped ham or pork, one teaspoonful of chopped onion, a little sage, half a teaspoonful of kitchen bunnet, and half a cup of bread crumbs in which has been mixed two tablespoons of melted butter. Blend together as needed. Take a tablespoonful of this mixture, make it into balls, dredge them with flour and fry them quickly in hot fat.

Delicious Walnut Sandwiches. Shell half a pound of English walnuts. Put the kernels into a pint of boiling water; boil for a minute. Drain and cover with stock; add a bay leaf, a few celery tops and a slice of onion; cook until the walnuts are tender, drain and skin; chop fine; add half a tablespoonful of salt and a dash of cayenne.
Spread between thin slices of buttered bread and cut in any shape preferred.

Miss Johnson of the Home School Association was requested and was granted permission to use a room at the Grady Bryant and John Hancock buildings in November for a mothers' meeting.

The High School Alumni Association was granted the use of a small room at the High School for its annual meeting, Nov. 14.

The Superintendent reported that there had been several cases of truancy at the High School and to remedy this evil the following were recommended:
The committee on boards of the John Hancock, Willard and Coddington schools at the junction of Adams and Whitwell street reported no legislation necessary.

Mr. Daly's dramatic productions have long been noted for thoroughness of preparation, careful attention to detail and lavish expenditure, but it is said that in staging the famous play
"The Merchant of Venice," which has such a unprecedented furor in Paris and London, he has fairly outdone himself. To give credit to the pictures he has engaged a numerous body of people, in addition to the representative of the forty or more great characters, and has trained them to a surprising degree of perfection, so that their movements and actions present
a series of most striking tableaux.
Realism is still further attained by the employment of houses in miniature of the scenes. The quaint architecture of the seventeenth century is represented with wonderful accuracy, and the costumes are correct
duplications of rich and picturesque attire of the period. The principal parts are thus distributed: Roxane, Miss Adrian; Shylock, Mr. De Wolf; Portia,
Miss Lillian Lawrence; Bassanio,
Mr. Charles H. Gilbert; Antonio,
Mr. De Wolf; Hopper, Mr. De Wolf.
The new comic opera "The Charlatan."

The management of the Castle Square
theatre has at last found an opportunity to make their production of the sensational melodrama, "The Fatal Card," which created such a marked impression when it was played in the theatre last November. This is the third production "The Fatal Card," has had in from since its first New York run and it is safe to predict an other series of successful performances
at the Castle Square theatre, the coming week. Some few changes have occurred in the company at the Castle
Square theatre since the last time.
It had its production of a year ago
in the main the cast will be the same as last year, the leading characters
having been assigned as follows:
George Forester, J. H. Gilmore;
Burgess, Tom Cummings; Margaret
Marrable, Miss Lillian Lawrence;
Madeleine, Miss Lillian Lawrence;
Austen, Miss Mary Sanders. "The Fatal Card" is announced for only a single week and will be played in the Monday, Nov. 7, by the comedy "The Solitor" already a popular play with Boston audiences.

South Shore Commandery, K. T., installed the following officers at its
conclave Monday evening:
Eminent Commander, Frank H.
Mason.
Generalissimo, David J. Pierce.
Captain General, Francis A. Black-
well.
Treasurer, Edmund G. Bates.
Recorder, Charles N. Marsh.
Bereaved, David H. Jones.
Associate Preceptor, Irving M. Nor-
cross.
Senior Warden, William T. Rice.
Junior Warden, Eben H. Cain.
Standard Bearer, Arthur W.
Stevens.
Sword Bearer, Waldo Cushing.
Guard, Arthur W. Burr, W. M.
Burdell and Lewis K. Jones.
Assistant Guards, George G. Black,
Fred W. Baldwin and James H.
Packard.
Sentinel, John Nelson.
Armorer, Charles T. Humphrey.
Organist, Arthur Raymond.
A banquet followed the installation.

There are in Chicago a considerable number of men and women, mostly Italian, who take a fall living by the crackling penny rule. It is a recognized trade. They take orders regularly from fruit stands and stores and supply them with cracked nuts. So far as possible, they crack them with hammers, but they get so much disheartening result as the amateur who essays the same attempt. They have no little piece to pick up, but every kernel comes out in neat, unbroken halves. This is because they soak the nuts over night in soft water.

During the present month, for the first time defendants in criminal cases in England have been privileged to testify in their own defence. The principle has long been recognized in his country, but England has been slow in conceding it.

The Boston Journal says, Gen.
Wheeler's suggestion that the colleges of the United States each invite at least two young Cubans to take a four year's course, and that the President be adopted by Boston University.
This Boston establishes one more admirable lead in the cause of education.

Col. Roosevelt is not a millionaire.
His father left him $250,000 in 1874, but it is doubtful if he is worth that sum now.

Last Sunday's Globe will make valuable campaign literature for the votes of Massachusetts. It says there is evidently a hitch in the Paris negotiation to await the result of the next election. If forewarned we will be forearmed. The people will watch that hitch with interest and take care that the next national house will not be in league with Sagastion government.

"I don't believe he had an enemy in the world." Sinks—"I don't believe he had, either. Why, even his relatives spoke well of him."

Promising Outlook—"Did mamma tell you that Charlie Rindler proposed to marry a Dallas young lady he intended."

"Well, that is cheeky for him to propose to a young lady who is engaged to me. What did you tell him?"
"I told him I was sorry, but for the present I must decline his offer."

"So you're going to make a political speech," said the old-time politician.
"Yes," replied his son.
"Would you object to my giving you a little advice?"
"Not at all."

"If I were in your place I'd be as general in my remarks as possible.
Stick to the American eagle and your own dear native land as much as possible, and don't hear any harder on the vital subject than is absolute necessary. You may be running for office yourself some day, and you don't know what your politics may be then, you know."—Washington Star.

Temperance.

Published for publication by the W. C. T. U.

Danger of Beer Drinking.

Those who believe that beer drinking is helpful rather than harmful ought to read what the insurance doctors are saying. At a recent convention they discussed the matter seriously and scientifically, and they held that the habit is injurious, and makes persons bad risks for insurance.

Dr. Rogers of the New York Life Insurance Company said: "Recently I had occasion to make some study of what happens among persons engaged in the manufacture of beer, defined generally as brewers. My case included not only the working-men engaged in breweries, but also the proprietors of the business. It is a curious fact that the mortality among proprietors is about as high as among the workmen, showing that they are all given to copious libations." "Another curious fact is that the data that I have been able to secure, indicate that Worrall's point, emphasized by Dr. Bernack, that mortality is very high at advanced age, is very well borne out. The mortality is strikingly low among brewers in early years. Up to forty or thereabouts brewers seem to be about as good risks as pretty much anybody else. After forty the mortality rises very high, and I should say that at fifty-five or sixty years of age about three brewers may be expected to die where one average person dies."

It is already clear that beer is not a temperance drink. Now, according to the doctors, it says the vital forces, and this is an extremely weighty indication against it. —New York Independent.

"The Preference" is the title of an amusing story by Caroline Leslie Field, which will soon be published serially in Harper's Bazar. Other features of early forthcoming numbers are: "College Days and their Sequels," a series of papers by Adriane W.
Sterling, and the resumption of the column on "Music," by Miss Purdy.

The first volume of Harpers' Round Table, in its new monthly form, which is now completed, contains an unusually excellent collection of serial and short stories, strikingly told and graphically illustrated. There are articles of travel and exploration; practical and instructive articles;
narrative and descriptive articles;
articles on hunting, fishing, and sports of every kind. The bound volume is in every way an ideal holiday gift for young people.

The November Century is to have a novelty in the way of a colored cover designed by Cassatt, the famous post-impressionist painter. He has pictured Alexander the Great on his steed
"Bucephalus," to mark the opening of Professor Benjamin Lee Wheeler's series "The Life of Alexander," which will be a feature of the magazine during the coming year. The great war-horse is represented in the immediate foreground, reined in until he has almost fallen on his haunches.
On his hind legs the determined young Alexander, in rich trappings of gold and purple. The background is a typical Macedonian scene, with stately temples and palaces showing through the foliage. In the distance are the purple Olympian mountains. The colors are quiet but rich, like old tapestries.

Mr. Daly's dramatic productions have long been noted for thoroughness
of preparation, careful attention to detail and lavish expenditure, but it is said that in staging the famous play
"The Merchant of Venice," which has such a unprecedented furor in Paris
and London, he has fairly outdone himself. To give credit to the pictures he has engaged a numerous
body of people, in addition to the representative of the forty or more great characters, and has trained them to a surprising degree of perfection, so that their movements and actions present
a series of most striking tableaux.
Realism is still further attained by
the employment of houses in miniature
of the scenes. The quaint architecture
of the seventeenth century is represented with wonderful accuracy, and
the costumes are correct
duplications of rich and picturesque attire of the period. The principal parts are thus distributed: Roxane, Miss
Adrian; Shylock, Mr. De Wolf; Portia,
Miss Lillian Lawrence; Bassanio,
Mr. Charles H. Gilbert; Antonio,
Mr. De Wolf; Hopper, Mr. De Wolf.
The new comic opera "The Charlatan."

The management of the Castle Square
theatre has at last found an opportunity to make their production of the sensational melodrama, "The Fatal Card," which created such a marked impression when it was played in the theatre last November. This is the third production "The Fatal Card,"
has had in from since its first New York run and it is safe to predict an other series of successful performances
at the Castle Square theatre, the coming week. Some few changes have occurred in the company at the Castle
Square theatre since the last time.
It had its production of a year ago
in the main the cast will be the same
as last year, the leading characters
having been assigned as follows:
George Forester, J. H. Gilmore;
Burgess, Tom Cummings; Margaret
Marrable, Miss Lillian Lawrence;
Madeleine, Miss Lillian Lawrence;
Austen, Miss Mary Sanders. "The Fatal Card" is announced for only a single week and will be played in the Monday, Nov. 7, by the comedy "The Solitor" already a popular play with Boston audiences.

South Shore Commandery, K. T., installed the following officers at its
conclave Monday evening:
Eminent Commander, Frank H.
Mason.
Generalissimo, David J. Pierce.
Captain General, Francis A. Black-
well.
Treasurer, Edmund G. Bates.
Recorder, Charles N. Marsh.
Bereaved, David H. Jones.
Associate Preceptor, Irving M. Nor-
cross.
Senior Warden, William T. Rice.
Junior Warden, Eben H. Cain.
Standard Bearer, Arthur W.
Stevens.
Sword Bearer, Waldo Cushing.
Guard, Arthur W. Burr, W. M.
Burdell and Lewis K. Jones.
Assistant Guards, George G. Black,
Fred W. Baldwin and James H.
Packard.
Sentinel, John Nelson.
Armorer, Charles T. Humph

Quincy Patriot

QUINCY PATRIOT ESTABLISHED 1837.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1898.

VOL. 62. NO. 45.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

The Quincy Patriot.

Established in 1837.
PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,
[FORMERLY GREEN & PRESCOTT].

Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.
The Quincy Patriot is published every Saturday morning, except on legal holidays, at the office of the publisher, 115 Hancock Street, Quincy, Mass.

Quincy Daily Ledger,
The Quincy Daily is published every day, except on legal holidays, at the office of the publisher, 115 Hancock Street, Quincy, Mass.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.
The Quincy Daily is published every day, except on legal holidays, at the office of the publisher, 115 Hancock Street, Quincy, Mass.

Also published by the
Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.

OFFICE, NO. 115 HANCOCK STREET.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN
DENTIST.
Rooms 5 and 6, 20 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours: 8 to 12, 1 to 5.
Residence, Greenleaf street.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
SPECIALIST, ORTHODONTIA.
REMOVED TO
No. 7 Temple Place,
New Bedford, Boston.

Office Hours: 9 to 12, 1 to 5, 7 to 9.
RESIDENCE, LINDEN PLACE, QUINCY.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy, No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston, HOTEL PELHAM, Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain with
the "Bosworth-Venous" Vacuum Suction, Bosworth, Quincy, NORWOOD.
At Quincy office, French's Building,
WEDNESDAYS.
At Dedham Mondays and Tuesdays.
At Norwood Fridays and Saturdays.
July 28.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST.
Corner Newport and Grand View Avenues,
Wollaston.
Office hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.,
May 29.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.,
Practice limited to the Eye and Ear.
553 Boylston Street, Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11, 1 to 5.
May 21.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW,
ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
"27" Saturdays, at the office of CUTLER &
JENNEY, 200 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11.

W. W. JENNESS
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
87 MILK ST., Boston, Mass.
Office Hours: 10 A. M. to 1 P. M., 2 to 5 P. M., QUINCY OFFICE, Adams Building,
Office Hours: 8 to 10 A. M., 1 to 5 P. M., Quincy, May 26.

MRS. H. H. HILL,
Chiropodist and Manicurist,
Bates Block, Saville St.,
QUINCY, MASS.
Hours, 2 to 5, Afternoons, Mondays, Tues-
days and Wednesdays.
Treatment at residence if desired.
Aug. 13.

JENNIE HOOKING HUNT,
TEACHER OF
Organ, Piano and Harmony,
13 Bigelow Street, Quincy.
Organist and Chorister Bethany Church,
Quincy, Sept. 24.

D. C. NELSON,
House, Sign and Carriage
PAINTING.
Estimates furnished.
32 Atlantic Street, - Atlantic.
June 12.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders,
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimate given.
JOBBER PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
HANCOCK COURT, - QUINCY, MASS.

JULIUS JOHNSON,
Carpenter, & Contractor
BUILDER.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimate given.
JOBBER PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
NO. 64 CENTRE ST., QUINCY, MASS.
June 19.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
PEARL STREET,
SOUTH QUINCY.

BOOTS AND SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
Nathaniel Nightingale,
GRANITE STREET, QUINCY.

DAVID BROWN,
HORSE SHOEING,
Carriage Work and General Jobbing.
ARLINGTON STREET - WOLLASTON.
Nov. 9.

Lehigh Coal.

When we sell you Lehigh, we deliver what we sell.

C. PATCH & SON.

H. T. WHITMAN,

Civil Engineer

SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.

Office Hours: 9 to 12, 1 to 5.
Residence, Greenleaf street.

PERRY LAWTON,
CIVIL ENGINEER

SURVEYOR,
Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 Hancock Street.

Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
ROBES AND HABITS.

Having had several years' experience in the undertaking business, the subscriber hopes by strict attention to the wants of all callers to merit a share of patronage.

JOHN HALL,
Quincy, March 10.

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER,
Office and residence, corner of Canal and Mechanic streets,
Quincy, Feb. 6.

QUINCY
Mutual Fire Insurance Co.
INCORPORATED IN 1851.

COMMENCED BUSINESS IN 1851.
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, President.
WILLIAM H. FAY, Secretary.

CASH FUND Jan. 1, 1898, $613,375.72
SURPLUS over Re-insurance, $361,439.36
LOSSES PAID the past year, $13,125.46
DIVIDENDS PAID the past year, $70,897.29
GAIN IN SURPLUS the past year, $24,268.84

AMOUNT AT RISK, $34,076,560.00
TOTAL LIABILITIES, $25,936.36
Dividends Paid on Every Expiring Policy:
60 per cent. on 5 years, 40 per cent. on 3 years,
and 20 per cent. on all others.
J. WHITE BELCHER, President,
Quincy, Mass., 1898.

INSURANCE AGENCY.
E. W. PORTER.
"27" Insurance effected in reliable and safe
Stock and Mutual offices.
By W. PORTER & CO., At No. 82 Water Street, Boston, Residence, Hancock Street, Quincy.

Norfolk Mutual Fire Ins. Co.,
DEDHAM, MASS.
STATEMENT, JANUARY 1, 1898.

Amount at Risk, $22,365,170.38
Cash Assets, $42,242.42
Total Liabilities, including
re-insurance, 172,482.84

Amount of Cash Surplus, $300,730.58
Confident Assets, $25,936.36
Total Available Assets, $326,666.94
This Company insures Buildings and Household Furniture only, strictly on the cash plan, and has never paid less than 50 per cent. dividend on every five-year policy that has expired
since its incorporation.

Dividends paid on three-year and two-year policies, 25 per cent. on three-year policies, and 10 per cent. on two-year policies, 20 per cent.
J. WHITE BELCHER, President,
Quincy, Mass., 1898.

ETNA Insurance Co.,
HARTFORD, CONN.
Incorporated 1819. Charter Perpetual.
Losses Paid in 79 Years, $81,125,621.50

JANUARY 1, 1898.
Cash Capital, $4,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance (Fire), $1,117,167.34
Reserve for Unpaid Losses (Fire), $369,590.17
Reserve for Other Claims, $16,613.11
Total Assets, $5,502,757.62
Total Liabilities, $12,089,088.98

John Hardwick & Co.,
45 Granite Street,
Agents for Quincy.

Mutual Fire Insurance Co.,
BOSTON, MASS.
STANDING JANUARY 1, 1897.

Assets (Bonds, Stocks and Mortgage), $301,284.74
Premium Notes, - - - - - $15,921.60
Amount available to pay losses, $317,206.34

LIABILITIES.
Re-insurance, $250,000.00
Losses, $260,400.50
Total, $510,400.50

This Company has paid for losses to date
$1,779,188.50
Dividends returned to policy holders to date, $64,837.31

This Company now pays the following dividends:
On five-year Policies - - - - - 60 per cent.
On three-year Policies - - - - - 40
On one-year Policies - - - - - 20
All losses promptly adjusted and paid.
THOS. F. TEMPLE,
President and Treasurer.

W. D. CURTIS, Secretary.
Home Office, Neponset, Boston.

CLOTHING FOR MEN AND BOYS

HIGHEST POSSIBLE QUALITY. Made in CLEAN workrooms in this building.

MACGREGOR PARKER COMPANY,
400 Washington St. - BOSTON. - 400 Washington St.

McGREGOR BLOCK,
ALLEYNE TERRACE.

TO LET to first-class parties only, as private residences, the new houses Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 McGregor Block, Alleyne Terrace; locations and conditions A No. 1; bright, sunny exposures; moderate rents to right parties. Also house No. 4.

Apply to A. C. KEITH on the premises, or to E. STODDARD, 28 Bromfield street, Boston, from 1 to 2 P. M.
Sept. 24.

Shawmut Spring Water
IS THE WATER OF LIFE.

SOFT, PURE, SPARKLING, HEALTHFUL AND INVIGORATING.
Highly recommended by the Medical Profession for Medicinal and Drinking Purposes.

Thousands of people testify to the purity and cure of the water we drink. It is soft and pure. Shawmut Spring Water is free from all living organic matter, impure drainage and obnoxious gases.

It is the safest and
best source of supply for all domestic and drinking purposes.

Nothing is of more importance than that
the water we drink be
soft and pure. Shawmut
Spring Water is free
from all living organic matter, impure drainage and obnoxious gases.

As a regular and cumulative agent, it restores the digestive organs to healthy action.

"I just tell you the truth, Mr. Winston," she burst out at last; "I don't like this thing of coming to you, and I don't like to see you, and I don't like to know I can give satisfaction in my meats and fancy breads, but I haven't brought up religious and I don't take to it. Why I ain't seen the inside of a church this year, and as for prayers, none of my families ever asked it of me before."

"But would you have us take God's good gifts like dumb brutes, Martha,"
said the new mistress, her voice trembling with the effort it cost her,
"and give Him no thanks?"

"Oh, I ain't making any objections to prayers," answered the cook, with the free and easy tone of an American born servant. "Fact is, I wouldn't think as much of you if you didn't have 'em; quality folks mostly do; but I feel queer, like a fish, out o' water, when I ain't in my kitchen."

"Very well," said the new mistress,
a little hurriedly, for she heard Frank shut the chamber door upstairs, "I only ask you to try it for a week, after that you may do as you choose."

"Good morning, Martha," said the gentleman, gaily, as he came in.
"Well, Mrs. W. is my congregation ready?"

"His tone was rather light, perhaps but the new duty embarrassed him,
and he took this altogether unexpectedly of hiding his embarrassment.
When Letty had first proposed setting up a family altar Mr. Winston had demurred, laughed at her a little, asked why their individual prayers wouldn't do, called her a superstitious child, but finally yielded to her entreaties that his new home might be placed under the shadow of the sweet sanctities belonging to both old homes. And having yielded the point, he made up his mind to be gracious about it, and do the thing in the best possible way. But the World's Fair. One of the most artistic productions in the United States. Thoroughly reliable and satisfactory. Fully warranted.
Illustrated catalogues mailed on application.
All pianos sold on easy terms, and old instruments taken in exchange.

Second-hand Square and Upright Pianos of all the leading makes constantly on hand, at the lowest prices for Cash or Installments.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S
QUINCY AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

Boston Offices—129 Kingston street, 96 Arch-
street. Order Box 10 Faneuil Hall square.
Quincy Office—Chestnut street. Order
Boxes, Quincy depot, Q. & B. St. R. R. building. C. B. Tilton's, Pastor's Drug Store.
South Quincy—Quincy Adams depot, 66
Quincy street, and Burnside store.

West Quincy—Kimball's store and depot.
Leave Quincy 9 and 10 A. M. Leave Boston
1, 3 and 4 P. M.

G. M. MILLER, General Manager.
Furniture and Pianos moved and stored.
Light and heavy teaming.
P. O. address, Lock Box 3, Quincy. Telephone, 238-4, Quincy.

Poetry.

The Grumbler.

He sat at the dinner-table
With a discontented frown—
The potatoes and steak were underdone,
And the bread was baked too brown.

The pie too soon, the pudding too sweet,
And the roast was none too fat;
The soup so greasy, too, and salt,
Sure 'twas hardly fit for the cat."

"I wish you could eat the bread and pies I've seen your mother make."
They are something like, and would do you good.
Just to look at a loaf of her cake."

And the smiling wife, "I'll improve with age,
Just now I am but a beginner,
But your mother has come to visit us
And today she cooked the dinner."

Miscellany.

A COSTLY AFFAIR.

The new mistress of that brand new house on Park avenue was tripping down the softly carpeted Queen Anne stairway, to her first breakfast in her own home. She had hurried down before her new husband to see that everything was in order; opening the door of the breakfast room, first, giving a loving, dainty touch to its shining array of bridal silver, and then hastening on to the library. This was the finest room of all. True, there was not much "library" about it yet, for all of Mr. Winston's books and all of hers could not be made to fill the shelves. But there was her pretty table, her desk, and the amazingly new dictionary on the jany side, and—oh, there was library enough, and it was a dear pretty room, with a coal fire glowing out a warm welcome. The bride looked smilingly content, and yet a trifle anxious, too; else why that pucker between the eyebrows? And what was she looking for? Ah, here it is, a little silver bell, with an image of some queer old heathen idol for a handle. She opens the door and un-tangles the bell sharply in the hall, while her color comes and goes. Almost immediately her domestic apartment, having clapped on a clean white apron.

"Sit down, Martha," says the lady, still nervously, "Frank—I mean Mr.
Winston will be down directly, and we will have prayers."

But Martha was nervous, too; she took her seat on the edge of a chair that was never meant—I think—to be sat on, and edged this chair so close to the wall as to endanger seriously the stamped leather paper. Then she pulled one finger after another until she had cracked all her joints. Still Mr.
Winston did not appear.

"I just tell you the truth, Mr. Winston," she burst out at last; "I don't like this thing of coming to you, and I don't like to see you, and I don't like to know I can give satisfaction in my meats and fancy breads, but I haven't brought up religious and I don't take to it. Why I ain't seen the inside of a church this year, and as
for prayers, none of my families ever
asked it of me before."

"But would you have us take God's good gifts like dumb brutes, Martha,"
said the new mistress, her voice
trembling with the effort it cost her,
"and give Him no thanks?"

"Oh, I ain't making any objections to prayers," answered the cook, with
the free and easy tone of an American born servant. "Fact is, I wouldn't think as much of you if you didn't have 'em; quality folks mostly do; but I feel queer, like a fish, out o' water, when I ain't in my kitchen."

"Very well," said the new mistress,
a little hurriedly, for she heard Frank
shut the chamber door upstairs, "I only ask you to try it for a week, after
that you may do as you choose."

"Good morning, Martha," said the gentleman, gaily, as he came in.
"Well, Mrs. W. is my congregation
ready?"

"His tone was rather light, perhaps
but the new duty embarrassed him,
and he took this altogether unexpectedly of hiding his embarrassment.
When Letty had first proposed setting up a family altar Mr. Winston had demurred, laughed at her a little, asked
why their individual prayers wouldn't do, called her a superstitious child, but finally yielded to her entreaties that his
new home might be placed under the shadow of the sweet sanctities belonging to both old homes. And having yielded the point, he made up his mind
to be gracious about it, and do the thing in the best possible way. But the World's Fair. One of the most artistic productions in the United States. Thoroughly reliable and satisfactory. Fully warranted.
Illustrated catalogues mailed on application.
All pianos sold on easy terms, and old instruments taken in exchange.

Second-hand Square and Upright Pianos of all the leading makes constantly on hand, at the lowest prices for Cash or Installments.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S
QUINCY AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

Boston Offices—129 Kingston street, 96 Arch-
street. Order Box 10 Faneuil Hall square.
Quincy Office—Chestnut street. Order
Boxes, Quincy depot, Q. & B. St. R. R. building. C. B. Tilton's, Pastor's Drug Store.
South Quincy—Quincy Adams depot, 66
Quincy street, and Burnside store.

West Quincy—Kimball's store and depot.
Leave Quincy 9 and 10 A. M. Leave Boston
1, 3 and 4 P. M.

G. M. MILLER, General Manager.
Furniture and Pianos moved and stored.
Light and heavy teaming.
P. O. address, Lock Box 3, Quincy. Telephone, 238-4, Quincy.

SEE ME
COAL!

GEO. E. FROST,

Masons' Materials 488 Neponset Ave., Tel. phone Briek and Lime. NEPONSET 28-3 Dorchester

MISS MARTHA J. BROOKS,
Pupil of Mrs. May,
Manicure, Chiropody, Hair Dressing

FACE TREATMENTS.
HOURS: 9 A. M. to 6 P. M., at Room 5, Savings Bank Building.
Oct. 29.

GILMESTER & KROEGER PIANOS.
These renowned instruments are unequalled in all those qualities sought for in a piano by the musician and artist. MEHLIN PIANOS took one of the highest awards at the World's Fair. One of the most artistic productions in the United States. Thoroughly reliable and satisfactory. Fully warranted.
Illustrated catalogues mailed on application.
All pianos sold on easy terms, and old instruments taken in exchange.

Second-hand Square and Upright Pianos of all the leading makes constantly on hand, at the lowest prices for Cash or Installments.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S
QUINCY AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

Boston Offices—129 Kingston street, 96 Arch-
street. Order Box 10 Faneuil Hall square.
Quincy Office—Chestnut street. Order
Boxes, Quincy depot, Q. & B. St. R. R. building. C. B. Tilton's, Pastor's Drug Store.
South Quincy—Quincy Adams depot, 66
Quincy street, and Burnside store.

West Quincy—Kimball's store and depot.
Leave Quincy 9 and 10 A. M. Leave Boston
1, 3 and 4 P. M.

G. M. MILLER, General Manager.
Furniture and Pianos moved and stored.
Light and heavy teaming.
P. O. address, Lock Box 3, Quincy. Tele-
phone, 238-4, Quincy.

HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.

All orders in House and Sign Painting and
all branches will receive prompt attention.
RESIDENCE, QUINCY AVENUE.
"27" All work executed in a workmanlike
manner.
March 12.

Keeping up Appearances.

There is a certain ethical quality in the unwritten social law which enjoins that whatever sufferings and discomforts a person may undergo in private, he is to bear himself in public as if good fortune were accompanying him everywhere, and as if all his sorrows and miseries were but a part of the infinite presence. Were it held to be a laudable thing to turn the seamy side of our circumstances outward, there would be an end to self-restraint, and the vast of individual discontent would pour forth an unending stream of misery. But we are taught from our earliest years to turn the best side out, that the world is not interested in our woes and that if we would please we must be cheerful. In this way we gain a considerable and sympathetic that we would fail to obtain by mere complains.

Every one loves an optimist and although he may have to bear to be laughed at sometimes the laughter is good-natured and encouraging; but when dignity and a certain decorum gravity are joined with optimism the individual may be sure of respect as well as of regard. But levity is as contemptible as gloom and a person is required not to be ignorant of the condition of his life, but to be able to bring good out of evil and by his own energy and courage to wrest victory from the talons of defeat.

So the keeping up a brave appearance implies that behind it is a staunch heart and enterprising spirit which will not easily yield before difficulties and whether the object be to preserve one's business credit, to maintain one's position in society or to live up to a reputation for character the worthiness of the effort is appreciated by the general public. But the love of approbation which is at the root of all these efforts, may become so overweening as to lead to positive dissimulation, and suggest secret lists of meanness in order to maintain an outward show.

Times of commercial adversity bring out the true or false ring of character.
When necessity drives the prosperous class to lessen the scale of expenditure by giving up superfluities men and women reveal the tone of their minds by what they consider superfluous.
The wealthy man who economizes in his charities confesses himself deficient in that true feeling of sympathy which realizes that the greatest need of the poor is when times are hard for the rich. The woman who prefers to dismiss her maid to the ground of her embroidered handkerchiefs and her toilet betrays her hard-hearted vanity; and all of us who cut off our intellectual enjoyments in order that the luxuries of our table shall continue undiminished cut the ground of culture and refinement from under our own feet and lower ourselves to the plane of a merely animal intelligence.

The virtue that lies in keeping up appearance depends entirely upon the sort of appearance one aims to keep up.
It is right that everything that ministers to the higher needs of our nature should be preserved; that we should cling to the social position which we have gained by honorable effort; that neither our pleasant homes nor essential comforts nor those things which involve the welfare of those persons dependent upon us should be sacrificed readily or easily. But it is not indicative of good hearts or sound judgment to substitute false outward show for real reliance, and to pretend to be able to keep hold of things which are costing us our life's blood.
If the world approves winning policies and the desire to please, it despises those who cringe. When we have set ourselves a high standard it matters very little, in the long run, whether it is the popular standard or not. If we live up to it we shall finally get the credit for right intentions, even if there be temporary disapprobation.—Harper's Bazar.

Damper on His Patriotism.

A man is, for some occult reason, liable to look a little shame-faced when he gets home after staying out all night at a political meeting. As one who had done this came up the path to the farm house his wife came to the door to meet him.

"Did ye have a party excitin' time?"
she asked.

"Tremendous," he answered.
"I s'pose ye've got everything settled."

"No. Ter tell the truth, everything's jest ez much in doubt ez ever."

"Well, I s'pose it's yer own lookout.
But I must say I kinder hate to see ye wastin' so much good energy."

"Pigs is better," he fed an' wood's got to be chopped politics or no politics. I don't want ye ter neglect yer country when they's anything that really cal fer ye. But I hope ye will bear in mind that every time ye have yer hair in the air, just cause ye git a little excited, ye're usin' up muscle that might have done good service choppin' wood, an' that every time ye ye'll 'hoary 'bout nothin' in particular, thumblin' in the direction of the river, at the same time givin' his time the kind to start, and replied:

"All the water that ye don't see there now, sir."—Tit Bits.

A Lesson in Economy.

A wealthy man once expostulated
with the sea of matrimony. The father called him to his side, and for the last time gave him a lesson in economy.

"Economy," said the father, "is the source of all wealth, an extravagance is the ruin of genius. Now, a woman can take a piece of straw, trim it, and it will be a ten-dollar hat. On the woman's part that is—"

"Genius," the son answered.

"A wealthy man once expostulated
with the sea of matrimony. The father called him to his side, and for the last time gave him a lesson in economy.

"Economy," said the father, "is the source of all wealth, an extravagance is the ruin of genius. Now, a woman can take a piece of straw, trim it, and it will be a ten-dollar hat. On the woman's part that is—"

"Genius," the son answered.

"A wealthy man once expostulated
with the sea of matrimony. The father called him to his side, and for the last time gave him a lesson in economy.

"Economy," said the father, "is the source of all wealth, an

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1898.

Doctor Jones.

With the auction of the stock and fixtures of the harness shop of George J. Jones, Tuesday, one of the oldest business houses of Quincy went out of existence. For years the harness shop of Dr. Jones, as he is familiarly called, has been known to the horse men all over the State, for during his younger years he was more active in buying and selling horse flesh than he is now.

Dr. Jones was born in Portsmouth, N. H., in February 1817 where he obtained his early education. At the age of 16 years, at the solicitation of his brother Joshua, who carried on the harness and livery business in Quincy, he came here and went to work for his brother. He worked for his brother and C. Phillips Tirrell for several years, during which time he acquired a good knowledge of the harnessmaking trade. When about 25 years of age he went to Randolph, and worked for Mr. Howard at the old Howard House. It was while here that he met the young lady who afterwards became Mrs. Jones. After remaining in Randolph two or three years, he again came to Quincy, and went to work in his brother's stable. He then bought out the old Quincy express company, and for two years he ran an express between Quincy and Boston.

It was about 1848 or 1850 years ago that he bought the property where he is now located and opened a harness shop, which he has carried on ever since. At that time there was a livery stable on the premises, which he let to John Hall, who carried it on until five years ago, when he sold it to a small stable and did quite a little business in trading horses. He also, occasionally, let teams.

All this time his business as a harness maker had not been neglected, and while trading horses and doctoring horses he had not neglected his harness making. Although well advanced in years Mr. Jones has never fully given up business, but has always done more or less in the way of building harnesses and doctoring horses.

He now, thinks however, that he has done his share, and although he is to sell out his stock he intends to keep his shop open so as to have a place where he can receive his friends and talk over old times. No more pleasant home can be passed than in Dr. Jones' shop, and hear him recount some of the many horse trades he has engineered during his eventful career. He was married something over fifty years ago and the result of that union has been seven children, of whom all but one has passed away. His son George W. Jones is prominent in Quincy, and is in City Square. Dr. Jones' health is remarkably good for one of his age. He has never troubled himself to seek public office, although he has been a life-long Democrat.

Parkway Committee.

The committee appointed by Mayor Sears to see what can be done toward securing rights and obtaining the parkway met at City Hall Saturday evening. Every member except Mr. Titus, who was ill, was present, and manifested considerable enthusiasm over the matter. What is supposed to be the route proposed for the boulevard was gone over and an estimate made of the valuation of the property to be taken. As the exact amount of the takings was not known, nothing definite could be determined. It was then decided that Mayor Sears, City Solicitor McManey and Councilman Parker should make a sub-committee to visit the Metropolitan Commission and make a copy of the takings they propose. This sub-committee has done.

Wednesday evening the committee of nine held another meeting at City Hall, and arrangements were perfected to see each individual party whose land is to be taken, and in this manner the exact amount of land damages can be ascertained. The committee of nine in no way explains the gentlemen who have been active for the parkway but supplements their work. It is in fact a working committee, and when they are ready to report, all citizens will be called together and invited to co-operate in pushing along the good work.

Runaway of a Pair.

There was a lively runaway on Adams street Saturday afternoon which resulted in smashing a buggy and killing a horse. It was about 2 o'clock when Miss Abigail Adams and a lady friend, seated in a buggy drawn by a pair of spirited horses owned by ex-Mayor Adams attempted to cross President's bridge. At that time the bridge was passing and the smoke from the locomotive coming up through the planking frightened the horses, causing them to jump and shy, which overturned the buggy. The horses then charged themselves, and ran toward Milton. When near the Milton Town house they ran into a coal team with such force as to kill one of the animals. The other was then captured. The buggy was quite badly smashed but fortunately the two ladies escaped injuriously.

Eighty-Seventh Birthday.

Mrs. William Field, one of the oldest ladies of our city, celebrated her 87th birthday on Thursday night, 27th inst. Her children, grandchildren and many other friends called upon her and left tokens of remembrance and good wishes; hoping to meet with her again on another birthday.

Mrs. Field seemed in good health, and is remarkably active and enjoyed her friends very much.

She has been a constant subscriber for the Patriot since its first issue in 1857, and enjoys its weekly visits.

$35,000 in One Day.

Tax Collector Baker and his clerks were kept busy all day Monday and Tuesday evening taking in money and receiving tax bills, and it came with a rush. By a special arrangement with the bank a deposit was made at 5 o'clock of what money had been taken in at that time. When the receipts were figured up at the close of the office Monday night, it was found that $31 tax bills had been paid, amounting to $35,000. This is the largest day on record. The receipts on Oct. 31, last year were $25,000.

Annual of Masons.

Rural Lodge of Masons held its annual meeting on Thursday evening and elected all its officers unanimously, viz: W. M.—Henry L. Kincaide, S. W.—William H. Whitney, J. W.—W. W. Brett of Braintree, Treas.—E. W. Simmons.

The date for the Republican municipal caucuses has been fixed for Nov. 17 and for the convention Nov. 23.

CITY BRIEFS.

Note the price quoted by George W. Jones today for underwear.

Mr. Ralph Merrill left Tuesday for a week's trip through Maine.

Seven were propounded for admission into Bethany church on Sunday.

Ex-Congressman Atwood was in town Wednesday calling upon friends.

State election next week Tuesday and the City election only four weeks later.

D. Vinton Pierce was in town Wednesday. He is in Cornish, Me., for six weeks on a visit.

The Atlantic A. A. will play the Thayer Academy at Merrymount Park this afternoon at 2.30.

On Hersey's field, Monday, the Coddington and Lincoln school eleven played the game of football; score 4 to 4.

Mr. Walter Lord started Wednesday to fill a five weeks' engagement as violin soloist with the Redpath lyceum bureau.

Miss Annie L. Prescott returned Thursday from Antrim, N. H., where she has been enjoying the mountain air for a week.

There will be a meeting of the Citizens' No License Committee of Quincy, on next Monday evening in Y. M. C. A. hall.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the Quincy High school will be held at the High school, Friday evening, Nov. 12.

Judge Humphrey, who has been ill for the past four weeks, has so far recovered that he was able to appear at court this week.

Work was commenced this week by the street railway laying an additional track on Hancock street between Saville and Adams streets.

Work has commenced building the concrete sidewalk on the west side of Hancock street, between Saville and Dimmock streets.

An asprey, which is of the hawk species, shot recently by James E. Maxim, is on exhibition in the show window of Pettengill's jewelry store.

During the month of October Tax Collector Baker paid to the City Treasurer $102,000 bringing the amount of 1898 taxes collected to Nov. 1, up to $122,131.90.

The Albion male quartette assisted by Miss Vora Burpee reader, gave a very enjoyable concert Wednesday evening at the Bethany church, which was largely attended.

Work has been commenced on the new culvert over Town brook at Washington street. Other improvements will be made at the southerly corner of Washington and Canal streets.

Revenue officers were in Quincy Tuesday, looking after the storekeepers who sell Alia beer, notifying them that they must take out a United States license if they continue to sell this beer.

An important sale of machinery, etc., will take place in Quincy next week Thursday, when all the articles owned and used by the Quincy Shoe Co. will be sold by Auctioneer Dinegan. A catalogue has been printed.

A ten-cent store has its attractions and surprises at what can be secured for five and ten cents. Just glance at the list in the advertisement of Henry L. Kincaide & Co. today. They have opened a new store.

Members of the School Committee will this year be elected in the Quincy district and South Quincy wards, now represented by Rev. Walter Russell Breed and Miss Mabel E. Adams. The term of Frank C. Field at large also expires.

The Dorcas society held a very enjoyable social Monday evening at the home of Mrs. George Spaulding of Canal street. Whist and other games were indulged in. Refreshments of cream and cake were served. A social good time was enjoyed by all present.

The hearing to have been given the Quincy & Boston street railway Saturday at Weymouth for an extension of their track and bridge over the bridge. The selection might decide whether the petition was illegal as claimed by counsel of the Weymouth & Braintree company.

The boarding stable of Dr. J. A. Dow near the Quincy depot is a thing of the past, for Dr. Dow and all the stock have gone to New York where Tuesday was the day of departure and that morning parties out of town, who claimed to own the horses and carriages, came out and took them away.

One of the most enjoyable parties that has been held in Quincy for some time was that given in Faxon hall, Oct. 28, by seven of the young ladies of the Episcopal church. The dancing commenced at half-past seven, the music being by Peter's orchestra, and was continued until eleven. The party was a very joyous one and a decided success.

Mr. Charles C. Bryant, instructor at the evening drawing school, is a member of the First Mass. A. A., and served during the summer in that regiment. He has been on a furlough since September, however, and was ordered to report Tuesday. He was very much missed out of service. Miss Kendall had charge of the school for two evenings.

Seven little girls, Avah R. Gilson, Irma C. Tilton, Germa Saville, Carlena Walker, Muriel A. Rogers, Grace F. Spent and Catherine Saville, held a very successful fair, in aid of the Floating hospital at the residence of Mr. George G. Saville, on Saturday afternoon. They had a fancy table, candy table and grab bag and made $25.50.

Miss Katherine Evans of Copeland street and Mr. Arthur V. Curtis of Elm street, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Curtis, were married October 28, by Rev. Edward Norton. The ceremony was solemnized very quietly, owing to the illness of the groom's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis left immediately for Washington, D. C., where Mr. Curtis is in business.

Miss L. M. Hernan, who has been nursing at Camp Wickoff, is at the Quincy City Hospital seriously ill with typhoid fever. When this camp was given up, Miss Hernan enlisted in the United States service and was to have gone South, but as she was somewhat worn out she was sent home for a rest and arrived Oct. 25. A day or two later she was taken ill and went to the Quincy City Hospital.

Mr. James W. Murray one of "Quincy's finest," returned Saturday from his two weeks' vacation trip to Nova Scotia. During his brief absence he was united in marriage to Miss Elsie M. Smiler, a well known and popular young lady of Middle La. Have, Nova Scotia. Miss Smiler formerly resided in Quincy and has a host of friends here. Officer Murray is also very popular in the city and their many friends unite in wishing them much future happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Murray will make their home at The Greenleaf this winter.

Specimen ballots for the State election have been posted.

The large elm tree at the entrance to Whitney road is being removed.

The street railway anticipates winter. Its snow plough made a trip Monday.

The T. R. & A. A. propose to give a course of grand assemblies at Quincy Music hall.

Mr. Albert Crane returned October 29 from his trip abroad much improved in health and spirit.

Mr. Wilson Tisdale intends to eat his Thanksgiving dinner in his new residence on Hancock street.

City Clerk Cleaves and his assistant are hard at work getting the paraphernalia ready for the election next Tuesday.

Mr. Robert Johnson has returned from his vacation. While away he visited Mr. Wilson Tisdale's farm in Maine.

The street railway is removing some of its feed wires on Hancock street, the storage battery at Braintree having taken their place.

Clark John P. Churchill, of the District Court at Quincy, reports 1,333 cases before the court for the year ending Oct. 1, 1898.

The polls at the state election next Tuesday open at six o'clock in the morning and remain open until four o'clock in the afternoon.

There seems to be plenty of smelt sporting under water but they are scarce. They are up in the creeks and bays and delight to swim freely.

Quincy High on Thursday played her first game in the Norfolk County Suburban league, being beaten 10 to 0 by Delham High in a fast hard game.

Inspecting Officer, Edwin Gastin of Post 87 of Braintree made his annual visit of inspection to Paul Revere Post, 88, G. A. R., Thursday evening. Hot oysters were served after the inspection.

Extensive repairs are being made to the main entrance of The Greenleaf. Fire brick are being laid between the door timbers and the tile floor will be relaid.

The Sewer department commenced yesterday to open ground on Hancock street between Granite street and the manhole near the head of Chestnut street.

Ex-Mayor Charles H. Porter read a paper on the Battle of Five Forks, at the monthly meeting of the Loyal Legion this week at the American House, Boston.

A citizen asks "Is it fair for a teacher in a public school to keep a whole class after school hours just because one or two boys are not attentive to the teacher's lecture?"

Did you ever see a large snake, one of our city markets has one and it is called the "Hay Snake" and weighs 75 pounds and measures in circumference 5 feet and 5 inches. It was raised on a farm near Lowell, Mass.

Rev. E. O. Taylor of Chicago, Ill., will deliver an address upon Civic Reform from the topic "Citizenship in the Light of Christ and Paul," at the Bethany Congregational church, Quincy, Sunday evening November 6, at 7.30 o'clock.

The Newcombs of Quincy may feel proud, as a namesake took an active part in the late war with Spain. Lieutenant Frank Newcomb resided in the town of Quincy, Mass., and was killed in the battle of Manila.

The rumor that the People's course might not be continued this year proves to be only a rumor. Arrangements will be made to give a course of eight lectures on successive Saturdays, beginning Nov. 27, and continuing only Dec. 24, Christmas eve. A repetition of last year's success may be looked for.

During the past four winters the rector of Christ church has given a series of talks on the Christian Religion in 14 Hamilton avenue, Lynn, and finished the Reformation period. This year the talks will be resumed next Sunday evening when the subject will be "The Story of the Puritans." In all, there will be five addresses. The public is cordially invited.

A strong smell of gas has been noticeable for two days in the cellar on Temple street, and yesterday while the workmen were digging at the manhole for the Telephone Company, on the corner of Washington and Temple streets, a large leak in the gas pipe was discovered by lighting a match. The man who lit the match quickly "got out."

Mr. George H. Hobbs, for many years a much respected citizen of this city, died Wednesday night at the residence of his sister, in Lynn, of cancer of the stomach. Funeral services will be held at 14 Hamilton avenue, Lynn, at 10.30 Saturday morning, and the remains will be brought to this city, and buried in the cemetery at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

At a regular meeting of George L. Hill Rebeck lodge held Thursday evening, there was a very fine entertainment given for the good of the order. The programme consisted of a contra solo by Miss Grog, accompanist Miss Trask, which was finely rendered, an exhibition by Prof. Macdonald with his graphophone, and stereopticon view by Prof. Stetson. The remainder of the evening was spent in a social way including dancing. Prof. Goodridge had charge of the entertainment.

The Quincy Republicans held their annual meeting only the night of the present campaign, Oct. 28, at Music hall, and an enthusiastic gathering it proved to be for time and again the walls rang with applause at the statements of the speakers. Although a large hall it proved none too large for the occasion for there were but a few empty seats, while the balcony held many ladies, and several stood. Fully 1,000 were present.

Bethany church on Sunday evening will open its campaign against the saloon, and for good citizenship. The Rev. E. O. Taylor of Chicago, who has been one of the leading speakers in the recent Canadian temperance plebiscite will give a temperance lecture. The speaker has earned his place as a scientific thinker on temperance problems—presents the whole subject in a new, fresh and novel way, and a large interest in his audience. Every one interested in temperance is cordially invited to this service.

Thursday was an ideal day for the annual fall games of the Adams Academy Athletic Association, and as a result there was an unusual large attendance. Although the students of the Quincy High school are as a rule younger in years than in previous times, the boys are full of grit and entered into the games with much spirit. The entries in the several events were larger than on previous years and a larger percentage of the entries than usual came to time.

WOLLASTON.

Mr. J. A. Byrne, who has the contract for the Wollaston section of the sewer, has been confined to his home on Central avenue the past week, by illness.

The tunnel beneath the railroad tracks which will connect the Wollaston and Brook street sections of the sewer, has been finished. The pipes will now be laid.

A largely attended matinee whist for the benefit of the Wollaston Unitarian Sunday School was given Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Adams, at 215 Willard street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Waterhouse of Wollaston are on their annual shooting trip to the Maine woods. They are at Patten, which is on the line of Bangor and Aroostook R. R., and about 25 miles from Mt. Katahdin.

Wollaston headlines are evidently at their old tricks again, for Tuesday night some parties unknown entered the yards of Malcolm's Wollaston granite works and tipped over monuments and headstones, breaking the dials and nothing off corners of the monuments, and about $200 damage. There is no clew to the parties who did the dastardly act.

The Wollaston Yacht club took in its Saturday night, after which a "bag" lunch with bread and coffee was furnished by the house committee.

Mr. Charleton of cruiser fame, who serves the people of Wollaston with that good and wholesome edible, while attending to a regular customer Saturday, left his horse standing next by as usual, when that animal took to him that he would go home alone and fool Mr. Charleton. The result was in his hurry to get home he "cut corners" at Mason street and Elm street, and was run over by a horse-drawn carriage.

Mr. Charleton, together with numerous congratulations and wishes for many more happy birthdays. One of the most handsome decorations on the refreshment table was an elegant birthday cake with inscription: "Alma"—"My dear Alma, with love from her father, mother and friends."

The alarm at 1.30 on Thursday was for a small barn on Dunn's hill off Quarry street, near the quarry of George H. Hitchcock & Co. It obtained a good headway before the alarm was given and was practically destroyed.

Mr. Mullen and his two sons, George and John, were in charge of Messrs. Eaton, Mullen and Smith. Musically Robinson's orchestra.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday, Nov. 11, at three, in the Baptist church.

The movement for the new lodge of Masons at Wollaston has taken a new start, as Rural lodge has waived all objection to its organization.

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

WEST QUINCY.

The alarm at box 46 yesterday was for a closet fire at the house and shoe store of Samuel Cohen at 130 Copeland street. The loss to building and contents was less than $50.

Dr. C. E. Byard, who has been visiting friends at West Quincy, has returned to Bangor, Maine.

Mr. J. Frank Merrill of Crescent street, who has been sick with scarlet fever, is reported as improving.

Two children of James H. Elock are sick with scarlet fever.

A complimentary party was given at the home of Mrs. Adams, at 215 Willard street, by the following young ladies: Misses Adams, Danian, Lauretta Shea, Margaret Farrell and George Shea—the West Quincy members of the DoWell club to their associate members and friends of Holbrook. Dancing was enjoyed by all.

A very social evening was enjoyed Saturday at Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson's home at 7 Nelson street, it being the 10th birthday of their daughter, Alma. About thirty of her intimate friends were invited. A beautiful good watch and chain were presented to Miss Carlson, together with numerous congratulations and wishes for many more happy birthdays. One of the most handsome decorations on the refreshment table was an elegant birthday cake with inscription: "Alma"—"My dear Alma, with love from her father, mother and friends."

The alarm at 1.30 on Thursday was for a small barn on Dunn's hill off Quarry street, near the quarry of George H. Hitchcock & Co. It obtained a good headway before the alarm was given and was practically destroyed.

Mr. Mullen and his two sons, George and John, were in charge of Messrs. Eaton, Mullen and Smith. Musically Robinson's orchestra.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday, Nov. 11, at three, in the Baptist church.

The movement for the new lodge of Masons at Wollaston has taken a new start, as Rural lodge has waived all objection to its organization.

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

The Y. M. C. Union rally at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was an unusually bright and attractive one. The choir furnished some inspiring music and there was a very fine sermon by Rev. Mr. Ward and Paddock spoke in a happy vein, while the good and earnest words spoken by the principal of the Woodward, Miss Small, were as "Apples of gold in pictures of silver."

On Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, a sale will be held at the Wollaston at West Quincy, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents, supper 25 cents.

ATLANTIC.

Despite the heavy rain of Saturday evening the dance at Music hall, Atlantic, was largely attended.

The house of Mrs. James Burr of Atlantic street was entered by burglars Sunday evening while the family were at church, and watches, jewelry, etc., taken.

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Carpets and Upholstery

FOR

Residences, Churches, Hotels, Steamers, etc., etc.

Our stock is by far the largest in Boston, and includes many précious patterns obtainable nowhere else.

Our prices are always at the bottom of the market.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
658 Washington St., Boston.
(Quincy Branch at 154 Hancock St.)

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward

Watches, $2.50 and Upward.

SOLID GOLD RINGS, $1 AND UP.

Shirt Waist Sets, Jeweled Buckles, Belts, Pins, Chains, Charms, Pocket Books, etc.

Special Attention Paid to Repairing.

A. A. LINSKOTT, - JEWELER,
154 Hancock St., opp. Postoffice, Quincy.

Spectacles and Eye Glasses.

100 Dozen Ladies' Fleece Lined Vests,

CHEAP AT 25c.

THIS WEEK, 2 for 25c.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

Boston, October 31, 1898.

I CERTIFY that the following is a list of all the candidates who have been nominated for the County of Norfolk, November 3, 1898.

WILLIAM M. OLIN, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Governor, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 4th District, Mark ONE.

Porter Moore of Marlborough, Dem.

Representative in Congress, 10th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 11th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 12th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 13th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 14th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 15th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 16th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 17th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 18th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 19th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 20th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 21st District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 22nd District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 23rd District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 24th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 25th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 26th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 27th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 28th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 29th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 30th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 31st District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 32nd District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 33rd District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 34th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 35th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 36th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 37th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

Representative in Congress, 38th District, Mark ONE.

Samuel H. Bradley of Haverhill, Dem. Social

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1898.

WEEKLY	Sun	Full Sea	Moon
MONDAY	Nov. 5	Nov. 5	Nov. 5
TUESDAY	Nov. 6	Nov. 6	Nov. 6
WEDNESDAY	Nov. 7	Nov. 7	Nov. 7
THURSDAY	Nov. 8	Nov. 8	Nov. 8
FRIDAY	Nov. 9	Nov. 9	Nov. 9
SATURDAY	Nov. 10	Nov. 10	Nov. 10
SUNDAY	Nov. 11	Nov. 11	Nov. 11

Two Weeks' Temperature.

This Week	Last Week	In	Out
Nov. 5	Nov. 4	48	48
Nov. 6	Nov. 5	50	50
Nov. 7	Nov. 6	52	52
Nov. 8	Nov. 7	54	54
Nov. 9	Nov. 8	56	56
Nov. 10	Nov. 9	58	58
Nov. 11	Nov. 10	60	60

Notes and Comments.

The suggestion to make Willard street from Brattleboro through Quincy and Milton to Boston a State highway should have been in shape to present at the meeting of the Massachusetts Highway Commission for Norfolk county, held at Dedham on Wednesday. This street with its outlet to the sea, will be one of the great arteries from Boston to the South Shore towns. We predict that it will be, and that within five years from this time it will be a line of electric cars from Boston via this route to East Milton, West Quincy and Brattleboro. It is a thoroughfare of the future, and the cooperation of Quincy, Milton and Brattleboro, but this is difficult to obtain, the State Highway Commission should step in.

More State Highways.

Quincy was represented at the annual public meeting of the Massachusetts Highway Commission for Norfolk county, held at Dedham on Wednesday by Commissioner Kneass, who called the attention of the Commission and spoke at length upon the acceptance of Granite avenue and Willard street, using the argument that it was important that these streets should be accepted by the State. The selection of Brattleboro was present upon the Commission to accept Quincy avenue between Quincy and Brattleboro as a State highway.

The Commission reported that 23 petitions had been received since January 1, in answer to which 21 laws had been made, including 13 of 21 miles in Norfolk county. The proportion of roads laid out since January 1, is 19 per cent. in the State and 10.62 per cent. in Norfolk county. The total number of miles petitioned for, in the State since January 1, is 11,813, coming from 20 cities and 272 towns. Of these nearly 250 miles have been laid out.

Squantom Street Fire.

The alarm from Box 63 at 1:25 Sunday morning was pulled in by Officer Holloran for a fire in a stable on Squantom street owned by Jeremiah Danavan, and formerly owned and occupied by Thos. Kennon. The stable is situated on the north side of Squantom street near Farrington street. Both are unoccupied and when discovered, the stable was filled with hay, and so much so that it could not be saved, and it was only by hard work that the department were enabled to save the house from destruction. As it was the 1st of the house where it joined the stable was badly gutted. Of the stable itself there was little left except some partly burned frame work. The loss is estimated at $1,500. The cause of the fire is a mystery, but was evidently due to an incendiary.

Churches Remembered.

Henry H. Faxon, Esq., has just contributed $2,000 to the Protestant churches of Quincy, for which the societies are deeply and gratefully indebted. The money was given to the churches of Quincy, for which the societies are deeply and gratefully indebted. The money was given to the churches of Quincy, for which the societies are deeply and gratefully indebted.

Quincy, Mass., November 2, 1898.

Treasurer of the Quincy Church, Quincy, Mass.

Dear Sir: Inclosed find check for $200 to be expended by your society, for the advancement of pure religious faith, the promotion of honest politics and the extension of social enjoyment.

Very truly yours,

Henry H. Faxon.

Alliance Sociable.

There was a large attendance at the sociable given under the auspices of the Alliance at the Wollaston Y.M.C.A. on Thursday evening. Supper was served at half past six o'clock. The entertainment was at eight o'clock. It was very interesting. Miss Emma Curtis of Atlantic, rendered a couple of piano solos with marked brilliancy of execution. Mr. Hosea B. Johnson read in his inimitable style "Margaret of Orleans," and also another selection, and an orchestra composed of Mr. F. Faxon, Mr. Weston and George B. Weston, violins, and William E. Weston, piano, played a waltz that fairly captivated the audience.

There was also a candy table in charge of Miss Marion P. Taylor.

Miss Carolyn Holmes, Mrs. Charles A. Adams and Miss Mabel F. Fairbanks. The proceeds will be devoted to the use of the flower committee of the church.

No Criticism to Offer.

Will W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

Mr. W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned last week from service in the war. He is a member of the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. He is a brave and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger.

CONGRESSIONAL VOTE.

IT WILL THIS YEAR EFFECT THE VOTER AND THE HOME.

"A Boston newspaper accuses me of condemning the investigation of the army," said Hon. Samuel J. Barrows, candidate for reelection to Congress from the Tenth District at the rally conducted in Gray's hall, Ward 14, South Boston, Thursday night. "Permit me to contradict that report. The accusation is false. I do heartily believe in the army, but my guilty lack of system, but I approve and firmly believe in giving a man a fair trial before condemning him."

"There is nothing more sublime in the action of government than when the people of a great, free country like ours go quietly to the polls to express their convictions upon public questions. It may be their opinion upon some local matter, clearing the streets, better highways, or the water supply; it may be on questions of greater importance, the administration of the affairs of the Commonwealth; it may be on the interests of the whole country in its relation to other nations."

Not since the Civil War has there been a time in the history of this country when the vote cast for the Representative in Congress meant so much as the vote which you will cast at the election next Tuesday. That vote will reach not only across the Atlantic, but across the seas. It will be felt in the machinery of the Government, and what is quite as important, it will be felt in the machinery of trade and in the markets of this country. It will be felt by the throngs of the old World and by the hosts of two continents. Spain will listen with her ear to the cable to what you are saying; Cuba will listen and the distant islands of the sea. Never was there a time when your vote would go so far or mean so much to the people of this nation and to the other nations of the world. There is a near end to your vote, that you are going to cast affects not only the welfare of this nation, but it affects your interests, your wife, your children, and all goes to make up the comfort, the prosperity of the nation. The welfare of this nation depends somewhat on you, your prosperity depends a great deal on the welfare of the nation."

Look first at the near end of your vote. Do not think that when you go to the polls next Tuesday you are simply going there to pay a compliment to a man of that community. There are some campaigns when it is a question of men rather than of principles, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is a question of principles rather than of men. I have no personal controversy with Mr. Napheon. If I criticize his standing, it is not his standing in the community, but his standing on the Chicago platform. I criticize not his character, but in this campaign it is in the Quincy Patriot—a newspaper published in Quincy, the latest publication to be one day at least before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to at least seven persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George White, Esq., Judge of said Court, this twenty-fifth day of December, the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

JONATHAN COBB, Register. 3w

Oct. 29.

gypt. It is only 6,250 miles, and may be traversed safely and comfortably by steamers, railroad and wagons in eighty-five days, following the Nile, the great lakes, and the great wagon road through Matabeleland and Mashonaland.—Boston Home Journal.

to have the railway. As for a route other locations would be as direct. He claimed no engineers been on the route and run lines. Faxon queried if there ever had been a railroad in Quincy everybody would be suited on local. D. Chase said he had enjoyed the would respectfully inform the people of Quincy that we are better prepared to supply them with all kinds of sawed or split, at short notice. Also Lumber, Gravel and Posts.

JAMES O'BRIEN & SONS,
 West St., West Quincy.

Original and Only Genuine.

DRUGGISTS everywhere. Always reliable. LADIES ask for Cheek's for a sure cure. Beware of cheap imitations. Always in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no others. Beefen dangerous imitations and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Bellef for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Same Paper.

Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, N. Y.
Chester Druggists. PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass.

The Quincy Patriot,
Established in 1837.
PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,
[FORMERLY GILES & PRESCOTT.]
Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.
The ONLY DAILY in the ONLY CITY in Norfolk
County. Established in 1839.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.
A reduction of $1 will be made when paid
one year in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF THE
Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
OFFICE, No. 115 HANCOCK STREET.

W. W. JENNESS
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
57 Milk St., Boston, Mass.
Office Hours, 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., and 7 P. M. to 9 P. M.
Quincy Office, Adams St. opp. Room 2.
Quincy, Mass., Nov. 12, 1898.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
ROOM 1, DUNN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours, at the office of COFFEE &
JENNEY, 200 W. Washington St., Boston, Mass.,
August 11, 1898.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D., Practitioner Licensed to the Eye and Ear.
Quincy—Monday and Friday,
Jan. 9 to 11, 1898.
May 21, 1898.

MISS MARTHA J. BROOKS,
Pupil of Miss May, May,
Manicure, Chiropody, Hair Dressing
—AND—
FACE TREATMENTS.
Hours: 8 A. M. to 10 P. M., at Room 5, Saving Bank Building, Quincy.
Oct. 29, 1898.

MRS. H. H. HILL,
Chiropodist and Manicurist,
Bates' Block, Gay St.,
Quincy, Mass.
Hours, 2 to 5, Afternoons, Mondays, Tues-
days and Wednesdays.
Treatment at residence if desired.
Aug. 13, 1898.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
SPECIALIST, ORTHODONTIA,
REMOVED TO
No. 7 Temple Place,
New Building, Boston.
Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 4 P. M., and 7 P. M. to 9 P. M.
Residence, Linden Place, Quincy.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST,
At Quincy, No. 20 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston, HOTEL PELHAM, Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain with
the "BOSTON VEGETABLE YAWP." DELIUM, QUINCY, NORWOOD.
At Quincy office, French's Building,
WEDNESDAYS.
At Dedham Mondays and Tuesdays.
At Norwood Fridays and Saturdays.
July 28, 1898.

DR. CHAS. E. MOYROR,
DENTIST.
Corner Newmarket and Grand View Avenues,
Wollaston.
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.
May 29, 1898.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST.
Rooms 5 and 6, Dunn & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours, 8 to 12, 1 to 5.
Residence, Greenleaf street.

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER,
Office and residence, corner of Canal and Mechanic streets,
Quincy, Feb. 6, 1898.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 Hancock Street,
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
ROBES and HABITS.
Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes to draw attention to the wants of all callers to merit a share of patronage.

JOHN HALL,
Quincy, March 10, 1898.

JULIUS JOHNSON,
Carpenter, & Contractor
—AND—
BUILDER.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
Robbing promptly attended to.
NO. 64 CENTRE ST., QUINCY, MASS.
June 19, 1898.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
PEARL STREET,
SOUTH QUINCY.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
HANCOCK COURT, QUINCY, MASS.

Lehigh Coal.

When we sell you Lehigh we deliver what we sell.

C. PATCH & SON.

A. T. WHITMAN,
Civil Engineer
—AND—
SURVEYOR.
ADAMS BUILDING, - QUINCY.
Boston Office, 85 Desandere street.
Hours, 12 to 2 P. M.

PERRY LAWTON,
CIVIL ENGINEER
—AND—
SURVEYOR.
Savings Bank Building, Quincy.
May 7, 1898.

D. C. NELSON,
House, Sign and Carriage
PAINTING.
Estimates Furnished.
42 Atlantic Street, - Atlantic
June 12, 1898.

JENNIE HOOKING HUNT,
TEACHER OF
Organ, Piano and Harmony,
13 Bigelow Street, Quincy.
Organist and Chorister Bethany Church,
Quincy, Sept. 21, 1898.

DAVID BROWN,
HORSE SHOEING,
Carriage Work and General Jobbing.
ARLINGTON STREET, - WOLLASTON
N. Y. 9.

BOOTS AND SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
Nathaniel Nightingale,
GRANITE STREET, QUINCY.

J. J. KENILEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable prices. Satisfaction guaranteed.
No. 9 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.
In office formerly occupied by the City's Gas Light Company.
P. O. Box 808.

Quincy Savings Bank,
New Savings Bank Building.
President, RUPERT F. CLAYTON
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH
Treasurer and Secretary, CLARENCE BURGIN
Board of Investment—RUPERT F. CLAYTON,
EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.
BANK HOURS—From 8.30 to 12 A. M.,
and 2 to 4 P. M. (During the months of June, July, August and September the Bank will
close on Saturdays at 12 M.)
Deposits placed on interest on the first Tuesday of January, April, July and October.
CONNECTED BY TELEPHONE.
Quincy, Jan. 11, 1898.

THOMAS O'BRIEN & SONS,
West St., West Quincy.

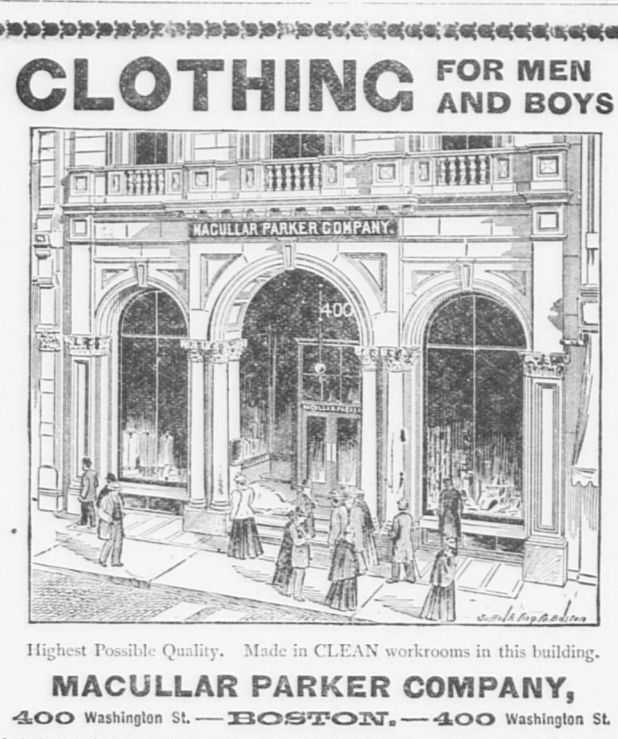

Are You
Satisfied
with the way your house is heated?
Are you not burning more coal than your neighbor and still having a cold
house?

If you have not seen the KELSEY
GENERATORS
you have not yet seen perfection.

WALKER & MAGEE
Stoves, Furnaces & Ranges.
Hancock Street,
Quincy.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting and
all branches will receive prompt attention.
RESIDENCE, QUINCY AVENUE.
All work executed in a workmanlike
manner.
March 12, 1898.

CLOTHING FOR MEN AND BOYS

Highest Possible Quality. Made in CLEAN workrooms in this building.
MACULLAR PARKER COMPANY,
400 Washington St.—BOSTON.—400 Washington St.

WE CAN SUPPLY YOUR NEEDS AT ROCK BOTTOM PRICES.

SILVERWARE.
HAWKES' CUT GLASS.
We are devoting particular attention to these popular goods. They make such pretty and useful wedding gifts.

IMPORTED WARE.
We have in stock the latest and prettiest of Savoy-er China and unique pieces. We are always pleased to show them.

C. F. PETTENGILL'S,
126 Hancock Street.
Compare Our Prices With Others.
Job Work of All Kinds Attended to Promptly.
WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY.
Quincy, Oct. 15, 1898.

1867--1898.
THE OLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE BOOT AND SHOE STORE IN THE CITY.

Call and See Some of the BARGAINS IN ALL KINDS OF
Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

To Be Found at 54 Washington Street.
RUBBER AND LEATHER CEMENT, ALSO RUBBER SOLING.
Repairing Done at Short Notice.

ELLA L. STETSON.
54 Washington Street, Quincy

Dining Room
Furniture
It is astonishing to see the wonderful values this mammoth store has created in Dining Room Furniture.

Special Thanksgiving Values.
The finest and best assortment of medium and low priced Dining Room Furniture in the world. Complete Dining Room Sets, including Oak Sideboard, Table and chairs, as low as $18.00, and for $25.00 we pride ourselves in saying we can give you a complete dining room set equal to any at $25.00 from any other store on the continent—20 patterns of dining room sets to choose from, $18.00 to $20.00.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.
Hancock Street, : : : Quincy.

McGREGOR BLOCK,
ALLEYNE TERRACE.
TO LET to first-class parties only, as private residences, the new houses Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 McGregor Block, Alleyne Terrace; locations and conditions A No. 1; bright, sunny exposures; moderate rents to right parties. Also house No. 4.

Apply to A. C. KEITH on the premises, or to E. STODDARD, 28 Bromfield street, Boston, from 1 to 2 P. M.
Sept. 24, 1898.

MANY PEOPLE CANNOT DRINK
coffee at night. It spoils their sleep. You can drink Grain-O when you please and sleep like a top. Grain-O does not stimulate; it nourishes, cheers and feeds. It is both tastes like the best coffee. For nervousness, young people and children Grain-O is the perfect drink. Made from pure grains. Get a package from your grocer today. Try it in place of coffee. 15 and 25c.

Poetry.

For the Patriot.
Sometime.
Sometime!—and when is sometime?
It seems so long, so long to wait
Till Youth's bright garlands drop and banish
Loving smiles, each old-time friend.
Sometime round us boys will cluster—
Sometime, when the heart is dead;
Sometime Fame shall bow before us—
Where from tell we are never free?

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

On the years are gliding over,
Bringing near the future dim;
Only God knows when is sometime—
Sometime we shall know that Him.
Athlete.

Not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.
Tis not now we feel the coldness
Nearth a trustful, clinging hand;
Sometime, when the idol's fallow,
We shall know and understand.

At first Marcia, being a devout woman believed she saw spiritually and that the creature would vanish
in such sort as the shades which confer with the holy among us. She was the more persuaded to this that she had late had divers signs of her spirits light being opened, since things seemed to her now and again to look in dim corners, and she often had the feeling that something will grasp her by the ankle when getting into bed of a dark night.

Elder Francis nodded over his judicially arched hand.
"And then?"
"The bird remaining, our sister, with an invocation to Ann, reached forth and took it down. She declared to me that as soon as she had laid hold of its little warm body, a tenderness sprang up to her heart, and she was prompted to shut the window that it might not go forth.

"She begged from one of the world's families, living on the cliffs, a chicken, cage, wherein it is the custom to coop
a hen with her brood, since then she feeds the bird and has brought insubordination into our midst. I have spoken with her in vain. I did not deem it wise to lay forcible hands on the bird. I have anxiously awaited your return, knowing you would deal wisely with our rebellious sister."

But somehow the Elder's countenance
did not support this childish trust.
He stayed the deacon with a lifted hand, as that dignitary was looking toward the door with an air of relief.
"Marcia must be rebuked," said the elder sternly, but with some uneasiness
in his kind face.

"No doubt of it," agreed William,
with cheerful emphasis.
"She has broken the law!"
"She has!" she said.
"And must be dealt with."

"Yes, Elder."

"But if she refuses to bow to our judgment what shall we do?"
William's face indicated a pleasant
sense of his own lack of responsibility.
"We might cast her forth of our gates," he advanced.

Elder Francis got up rather quickly.
He remembered when Sister Marcia had not been a Shakeress at all—when she did not know that the millennium
was near, when Ann Lee and the sister of love and marriage and the evil of the world were as blank letters to her,
and she had been a dark-eyed slip of girlhood with whom he had picked berries on the Kentucky hillsides.

He even remembered, as one might remember, some happening of another life, that he had held her hand once,
for a moment or two, helping her to clamber over the Pulaski County rocks
long before he had realized how desperately wicked it is to hold a soft little hand in one's own.

"I think harsh measures will be of no avail," he said, rather forcibly.
"When Marcia understands the full measure of her iniquity. Have you represented it to her?"

"Yes, brother."
"William's nose dropped a little more,
as if he were going to peck at his own breast in grief at his want of success.

"She said nothing, but she continued to support and succor the bird, he sighed.

The elder looked distressed. It was his own authority which Marcia had scorned in William's counsel. Much as it pained him to think of it, there was no course open to him save a plain course. The woman had sinned openly; she must be openly rebuked.

"Call a meeting of West family for tomorrow at sundown in the sitting room," he said. "Tell Sister Marcia
to present herself and bring with her the subject of our investigation. At sundown."

Deacon William inclined himself
with an air of importance.
"Yes, brother," he said, stepping softly across the braided mats on the painted floor.

Sister Marcia slatternly was filling empty bags with thistle down when the summons was brought her by a little shaker maid whom Deacon William had sent rather than deliver his instructions in person.

"Tell him I'll be there," said Marcia,
catching her breath a little as she pursed some white fluff into a tiny triangular bag, the color and shape of strawberry. "And I'll bring Sammy
along."

"Is his name Sammy?" said the child, in a curious whisper, peering in at the door, and fixing an awed gaze on the lumbering cage in the window embrasure.

Marcia nodded.
"After a brother of mine—that died forty years back—buried down near what Tatesville is now. He had the blackest eyes—plumb-full of mischief!
Come closer, Liddy, an' watch how Sammy jips on the perch. He sees yes! Jes watch his eyes well!"

Liddy tiptoed nearer the wedge-shaped cage, between the bars of which Marcia had twisted cord to make the spaces less.

"Kin he sing?" asked the child,
putting her face against the lattice.
"I reckon he could if he liked; but he never has," said Marcia, with the proud resignation of a mother who admits that her baby is late in teething.

"What good is it if he don't sing?"
the child debated.
"Marcia's eyes flashed. She was stricken with years, but her brown eyes still held the fire which had warmed
Elder Francis' heart to those curious, unaccountable thrills, long ago, when he and Marcia went a-berrying together.

"I don't do for things just out'n regard for what kin give back," she said, fixing a green velvet cap on a strawberry. "It's po'ful wicked of me to keep Sammy—I know that mighty well. Ain't nothing dorse the heart to earth like wrappin' around something that's helpless an' weak an' needs ye. Don't you ever go to lovin' anything, Liddy?" She gave a little gasp—a little mournful sound which was nearly a sob. "You never know how much you can suffer till you know how much you kin love!"

"For evermore?" do you love Sammy that hard?" queried Liddy, putting between the bars a pink finger, at which Sammy looked doubtfully, his head sideways. Marcia started.

"Who? Sammy? Oh, yes! I fear I let my evil mind dwell on him too much; I he wrought divers trespasses akin' him dough, an' huntin' eggs to bile hard for him, an' even—I ain't confessed it yet—I even kep' the money a woman a Harrodsburg paid me for an even-hug, to buy Sammy seed an' a scuttish air to sharp his teeth on! I got a heap to answer for, so I hev."

She fiercely dashed a tear from her flushed cheek.
"Tell Deacon I'll be that prompt."
Whatever he says, Elder Francis,
I'll do."

Perhaps she wondered a good deal as to what he would say to her, and nurtured a hope that he would temper justice with a godlike mercy.

Shadowy memories dwell with her also, timid ghosts that stole to her when she slept and wakened her with the gray curtains of a little aside, and smiled at her with faces which were strangely fair.

Far down about the stony pillars of Sister Marcia's faith, pale flowers of romance lifted their heads. Their warm bliss and faint fragrance gave the whole structure of her temple a grace it must otherwise have lacked but Marcia had so long looked on them as an outgrowth of religion itself that their faded sweetness held nothing more earthly than breathes in the white lilies which lie between the palms.

When she came into the family sitting room on the next night there was certainly nothing in her aspect to hint either of fear or rebellion.

She carried the bird cage against her breast, and as she set it down on an easel she took up a Massillon, the magazine published in the interest of Shakerism, and spread it over the cage to shield Sammy from the light of the oil lamp on the mantle. Sammy himself, unaware of the doom which threatened him, disclosed himself to the increasing eye of the silent men and women ranged about the room as a headless yellow ball fast asleep on a rubber ring on which some world's baby to be reared to higher things, had cut its teeth.

Marcia did not look at him as she came down in a listless mood, and the sister of love and marriage and the evil of the world were as blank letters to her,
and she had been a dark-eyed slip of girlhood with whom he had picked berries on the Kentucky hillsides.

He even remembered, as one might remember, some happening of another
life, that he had held her hand once,
for a moment or two, helping her to clamber over the Pulaski County rocks
long before he had realized how desperately wicked it is to hold a soft
little hand in one's own.

"I think harsh measures will be of no avail," he said, rather forcibly.
"When Marcia understands the full measure of her iniquity. Have you represented it to her?"

"Yes, brother."
"William's nose dropped a little more,
as if he were going to peck at his own
breast in grief at his want of success.

"She said nothing, but she continued
to support and succor the bird, he sighed.

The elder looked distressed. It was his own authority which Marcia had scorned in William's counsel. Much
as it pained him to think of it, there was no course open to him save a plain course. The woman had sinned
openly; she must be openly rebuked.

"Call a meeting of West family for tomorrow at sundown in the sitting room," he said. "Tell Sister Marcia
to present herself and bring with her
the subject of our investigation. At sundown."

Deacon William inclined himself
with an air of importance.
"Yes, brother," he said, stepping softly across the braided mats on the painted floor.

Sister Marcia slatternly was filling empty bags with thistle down when the summons was brought her by a little shaker maid whom Deacon William had sent rather than deliver his instructions in person.

"Tell him I'll be there," said Marcia,
catching her breath a little as she pursed some white fluff into a tiny triangular bag, the color and shape of strawberry. "And I'll bring Sammy
along."

"Is his name Sammy?" said the child, in a curious whisper, peering in
at the door, and fixing an awed gaze
on the lumbering cage in the window
embrasure.

Marcia nodded.
"After a brother of mine—that died
forty years back—buried down near what Tatesville is now. He had the blackest eyes—plumb-full of mischief!
Come closer, Liddy, an' watch how Sammy jips on the perch. He sees
yes! Jes watch his eyes well!"

Liddy tiptoed nearer the wedge-shaped cage, between the bars of which Marcia had twisted cord to make the spaces less.

"Kin he sing?" asked the child,
putting her face against the lattice.
"I reckon he could if he liked; but he never has," said Marcia, with the proud resignation of a mother who admits that her baby is late in teething.

"What good is it if he don't sing?"
the child debated.
"Marcia's eyes flashed. She was stricken with years, but her brown eyes
still held the fire which had warmed
Elder Francis' heart to those curious,
unaccountable thrills, long ago, when he and Marcia went a-berrying together.

At first Marcia, being a devout woman believed she saw spiritually and that the creature would vanish
in such sort as the shades which confer with the holy among us. She was the more persuaded to this that she had late had divers signs of her spirits light being opened, since things seemed to her now and again to look in dim corners, and she often had
the feeling that something will grasp
her by the ankle when getting into bed of a dark night.

Elder Francis nodded over his judi-
cially arched hand.
"And then?"
"The bird remaining, our sister, with an invocation to Ann, reached forth
and took it down. She declared to me that as soon as she had laid hold of
its little warm body, a tenderness
sprang up to her heart, and she was prompted to shut the window that it might not go forth.

"She begged from one of the world's families, living on the cliffs, a chicken,
cage, wherein it is the custom to coop
a hen with her brood, since then
she feeds the bird and has brought insubordination into our midst. I have spoken with her in vain. I did not deem it wise to lay forcible hands on
the bird. I have anxiously awaited
your return, knowing you would deal
wisely with our rebellious sister."

But somehow the Elder's countenance
did not support this childish trust.
He stayed the deacon with a lifted
hand, as that dignitary was looking toward the door with an air of relief.
"Marcia must be rebuked," said the elder sternly, but with some uneasiness
in his kind face.

"No doubt of it," agreed William,
with cheerful emphasis.
"She has broken the law!"
"She has!" she said.
"And must be dealt with."

"Yes, Elder."

"But if she refuses to bow to our judgment what shall we do?"
William's face indicated a pleasant
sense of his own lack of responsibility.
"We might cast her forth of our
gates," he advanced.

Elder Francis got up rather quickly.
He remembered when Sister Marcia had not been a Shakeress at all—when she did not know that the millennium
was near, when Ann Lee and the sister
of love and marriage and the evil of
the world were as blank letters to her,
and she had been a dark-eyed slip of girlhood with whom he had picked berries on the Kentucky hillsides.

He even remembered, as one might remember, some happening of another
life, that he had held her hand once,
for a moment or two, helping her to clamber over the Pulaski County rocks

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Carpets and Upholstery

FOR

Residences, Churches, Hotels, Steamers, etc., etc.

Our stock is by far the largest in Boston, and includes many private patterns obtainable nowhere else.

Our prices are always at the bottom of the market.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
658 Washington St., Boston
(Quincy Branch at 150 N. Main St.)

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otto A. Hayward

CHRYSANTHEMUMS,
Potted Plants and Out Flowers

Sword Ferns, Rubber Plants

FAIRIES.
EVERYBODY CORDIALLY INVITED
To Visit Greenhouses.

A. M. BUGBEE, FLORIST.
441 Hancock St., Norfolk Downs.
Quincy and Newport Estates pass the door.
Oct. 29. 3m

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

MISS E. M. FREEMAN'S STORE.
Corner Washington and South Streets.
QUINCY POINT.
NOW HAS
TWENTY-THREE DEPARTMENTS.

Groceries,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Confectionery,
Patent Medicines,
Hardware,
Woolen Ware,
Glass and Crockery,
Paints and Oils,
Dry Goods,
Small Wares,
Hosiery and Underwear,
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
Toilet Goods,
Boots and Shoes,
Rubber Goods,
Cigars, Tobacco and Pipes,
Cationary,
Fishing Tackle,
Toys,
Newspapers,
Stamps.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1898.

WEEKLY	Sun	Full Moon	MOON
ALMANAC.	Nov. 12, 6:22 A.M.	Nov. 12, 10:00 P.M.	15.8 A.M.
Sunday	13, 6:30 A.M.	10:10 P.M.	16.5 A.M.
Monday	14, 6:38 A.M.	10:20 P.M.	17.2 A.M.
Tuesday	15, 6:46 A.M.	10:30 P.M.	17.9 A.M.
Wednesday	16, 6:54 A.M.	10:40 P.M.	18.6 A.M.
Thursday	17, 7:02 A.M.	10:50 P.M.	19.3 A.M.
Friday	18, 7:10 A.M.	11:00 P.M.	20.0 A.M.
Saturday	19, 7:18 A.M.	11:10 P.M.	20.7 A.M.

New Moon Nov. 13, 7:20 P.M.

Two Weeks' Temperature.

The noon temperature of the week, taken at Pettengill's jewelry store, is compared below with that of last week and a year ago:

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	51	48	67	57
Monday	49	53	52	55
Tuesday	60	60	46	60
Wednesday	68	60	52	52
Thursday	46	53	54	48
Friday	51	54	45	54
Saturday	—	54	40	58

Hospital Sunday.

To every man, woman and child in the City of Quincy.

The question has often been asked of the Trustees of the City Hospital, why Hospital Sunday was omitted in the past few years? It was often said to us. It is one of the best ways to raise funds to support the Hospital, as long as it has to be assisted by the people at large.

The trustees regret that endeavors have not been sufficient to fully maintain the running expenses. They have faith, however, that the time will come, and not far in the future, when the wealth of this city, and former residents of Quincy, who have gone to other parts of the world and have become wealthy, will retain the love for their native place, so that they will in making their last bequests take the opportunity to have their names kept fresh before the people.

In no better way can they do so than to endow the City Hospital with a handsome legacy. There is many a lad or young man, who while in Quincy was not blessed with an overabundance of the world's goods, who in after years, having established himself in business in distant parts, has amassed wealth. Like Thomas Grant, the donor of our Public Library building, we hope they will remember the City Hospital with large endowments and thus have their names handed down to future generations.

But still, even as those things are realized we must have contributions from the public to meet the yearly expenses.

The trustees after numerous requests and advice from the clergy and others have concluded to resume Hospital Sunday, and have decided to observe Nov. 13, to be observed as such. We hope every individual will contribute some thing towards its support. Little as it may be it goes to swell the great result. Should you never need the benefit of it yourself, you may have a near and dear friend who will. You will have the satisfaction of knowing that your contribution has done its full amount of good.

The following report of the treasurer was read and accepted:

Nov. 1, 1897—To Balance in Bank, $890 44

Nov. 1, 1897—Cash on Hand, 14 44

Nov. 1, 1897—Interest, 10 00

Nov. 1, 1897—Sundry, 17 87

Nov. 1, 1897—Total, $922 75

Nov. 1, 1897—To Balance in Bank, $476 36

Nov. 1, 1897—Cash on Hand, 1381 75

Nov. 1, 1897—Total, $1,618 11

Nov. 1, 1897—To Balance in Bank, $1,618 11

Nov. 1, 1897—Cash on Hand, 1063 60

Nov. 1, 1897—Total, $2,681 71

Quincy Charitable Society.

The annual meeting of the members of this society was held on Monday, November 7, when the following named persons were elected officers for the ensuing year:

President—Rev. Edward Norton.
Vice President—Charles A. Butler.
Treasurer—Miss E. W. H. Bass.
Directors—Miss Anna Curtis, Mrs. Augusta B. French, Miss P. P. Emery, Mrs. H. M. Feleher, Mrs. W. E. Merrill, Mrs. Frank Brewer.

The following report of the treasurer was read and accepted:

Nov. 1, 1897—To Balance in Bank, $890 44

Nov. 1, 1897—Cash on Hand, 14 44

Nov. 1, 1897—Interest, 10 00

Nov. 1, 1897—Sundry, 17 87

Nov. 1, 1897—Total, $922 75

Nov. 1, 1897—To Balance in Bank, $476 36

Nov. 1, 1897—Cash on Hand, 1381 75

Nov. 1, 1897—Total, $1,618 11

Nov. 1, 1897—To Balance in Bank, $1,618 11

Nov. 1, 1897—Cash on Hand, 1063 60

Nov. 1, 1897—Total, $2,681 71

WORMS IN HORSES AND CATTLE.

This medicine will remove worms, dead or alive, from horses and cattle. It is the best general medicine for all directions with each box. Sold by all druggists. A price sold on easy terms, and old medicine taken in exchange. Upright Pianos of the best making constantly on hand, at the lowest prices for cash or installments.

F. A. PELTON sole representative, 144 Tremont St., Boston, and 150 N. Main St., Quincy.

Are You Going To California?

The California Limited, Santa Fe Route, gives the best and speediest service. Through dining car, and observation car with spacious parlor, especially for use of ladies and children. 234 days Chicago to Los Angeles.

S. W. MANNING, N. E. Agent,
332 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

PROTECT YOUR TREES.

Now is the Time To Begin

The use of Geo. H. Morrill & Co.'s Tree Ink if you wish to protect your trees. The canker millers will come crawling up the trunks of trees as soon as the ground commences to freeze.

For sale cheap in any quantity desired at the Patriotic Office.

Quincy, Oct. 29. 1f

Piano Recitals.

Rosenthal the famous pianist is to give two piano recitals at Music Hall, Boston, on Wednesday afternoons, Nov. 10 and 23 at half past two. A fine programme has been selected for next Wednesday consisting of selections from Beethoven, Schumann, Chopin, Schubert, Liszt, Davidoff and Rosenthal. The Pall Mall Gazette says Rosenthal's place is assured among the two or three consummate pianists now living. With his golden imagination Rosenthal played Schumann's 'Carnaval' yesterday as we have never heard it played before. It would be impossible to imagine anything more artistically fantastic than his interpretation. He made this music live from beginning to end, and only as a series of separate little compositions, but as a complete and marvelous work of dramatic imagination.

Considerable Granite Needed.

The new dry dock in Boston will be of the following dimensions: Length, 750 feet; width on the floor, 80 feet; width at top, 114 feet; width at entrance, 95 feet; depth to floor, 40 feet; draught of water on the sill, 30 feet; will be constructed of granite or concrete faced with granite. If built entirely of granite there will be used in its construction about 576,000 cubic feet of granite and about 1,390,000 cubic feet of rubble masonry. If the dock is built of concrete, faced with granite, it will require about 250,000 cubic feet of granite and about 1,710,000 cubic feet of concrete.

The State Election.

The State election on Tuesday last resulted in the election of the following gentlemen:

STATE OFFICERS.
(An Asterisk Indicates Re-election.)
Governor—Roger Wolcott, of Boston.
Lieutenant Governor—W. Murray Crane, of Dalton.
Secretary—William M. Shaw, Jr., of Boston.
Treasurer—Edward P. Olin, Jr., of Newburyport.

CONGRESSMEN.
District—
1—George P. Lawrence, R., of North Adams.
2—Frederick H. Gillett, R., of Springfield.
3—John R. Thayer, D., of Worcester.
4—George W. Weymouth, R., of Fitchburg.
5—William S. Wood, R., of Lawrence.
6—William H. Moody, R., of Haverhill.
7—Ernest W. Roberts, R., of Chelsea.
8—Samuel W. McCall, Jr., of Woburn.
9—John P. Fitzgerald, D., of Boston.
10—Henry F. Naphen, D., of Boston.
11—Charles F. Sprague, R., of Brookline.
12—William S. Green, R., of Quincy.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.
District—
1—Nathaniel F. Ryder, R., of Middleboro.
2—William W. Davis, R., of Boston.
3—George N. Swallow, R., of Boston.
4—Charles L. Quirk, D., of Boston.
5—Horace H. Johnson, R., of Saugus.
6—Samuel H. Johnson, R., of Saugus.
7—Martin V. Atterton, R., of Worcester.
8—Penley A. Russell, R., of Great Barrington.

REPRESENTATIVES—NORFOLK COUNTY.
District—
1—Herbert Woodson, R., of Braintree.
2—Frol Hornet Williams, R., of Brookline.

REPRESENTATIVES—NORFOLK COUNTY.
District—
1—David Noel, R., of Doherty.
2—James M. Collins, Jr., R., of Brookline.
3—Walter S. Weston, R., of Hyde Park.
4—Frederick P. Drake, R., of Canton.
5—Eben W. Shepard, R., of Quincy.
6—Eugene H. Sprague, R., of Quincy.
7—Martin E. Howe, R., of Weymouth.
8—John W. Whelan, D., of Weymouth.
9—Chas. F. King, D., of Hingham.
10—Silas S. Stone, R., of Dover.
11—Lester L. Burroughs, R., of Franklin.
12—George F. Williams, R., of Foxboro.

Election in Quincy.

Quincy again recorded herself as a strong Republican city at the State election on Tuesday last, giving over a majority of that party a large majority. That for Governor Wolcott was a "rouser," he lacking only 19 votes of leading Mr. Bruce a round 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

It will be Senator Woodson from this district, Braintree man receiving 1,894 votes in Quincy to 1,711 for Senator Woodson. The plurality for Governor was 1,370; Bruce 665. The Governor ran only 150 votes ahead of his ticket showing the high esteem of the people, and an endorsement of the management of State affairs. The pluralities for all the State officers who are re-elected were the largest.

The total vote of the city was 3,157. This was 343 larger than last year, but 332 less than in the Presidential election of 1896. At the same time it was 158 more than in the year 1895.

Fair at Atlantic.

The annual fair of the Ladies' Benevolent Society of Memorial church, Atlantic, opened Wednesday, under most favorable conditions. The hall filled early in the evening, and it goes without saying that the turkey supper served was equal in every way to those preceding. Every one knows that the Atlantic ladies have a reputation in that direction.

The booths were never as dainty and many novel effects greeted the eye. The stage was made a veritable out door camp presided over by Madame Blanc, who read past, present and future, to crowds eagerly awaited their turn. Through Mr. Faxon's unbounded generosity, ice cream was served throughout the evening.

Following is a list of tables and committees:

General committee—Mrs. H. W. Read, Mrs. C. L. Coe, Mrs. E. G. Hall, Mrs. S. Bennett and Mrs. C. F. Merrick.

Supper committee—Mrs. Theo. Parker, Mrs. Merrick, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Alden, Mrs. Shurt, Mrs. Crocker and Mrs. Todd.

Fancy table—Mrs. Blanchard, Mrs. Goss, Mrs. Cherrington, Mrs. Hobbs.

Apron table—Mrs. Walter Hill, Miss Sargent, Miss Gassett and Miss Wilder.

Handkerchiefs—Mrs. Safford, Miss Gray, Miss White.

Cake table—Miss Hammond, Miss Moxon, Miss Kolb.

Supper table—Miss Rice, Miss Candy, Miss Glover, Miss Williams, Miss Gertrude Hall, Miss Curtis.

Useful—Mrs. Curtin, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. Crocker, Mrs. Todd.

Children's—Mrs. E. G. Hall, with a bevy of young misses.

Popcorn—Miss Miss L. F. P. Emery with eight of "our boys."

Peanuts—Miss Miss L. F. P. Emery with eight of "our boys."

Ice cream—Mr. and Mrs. D. McGrath.

Public Installation.

Saint Stephen's Chapter of Royal Arch Masons conducted another mile stone in its history by a public installation of officers on Wednesday, D. D. G. H. Priest, John O. Hall of the 7th Capital district, assisted by Ex-celent Companion Elton F. Spear, as Grand Captain of the Host, in a very impressive and beautiful manner installed the following officers:

High Priest—Theo. C. Gram.
Ex. King—Edward E. Hoxie.
Ex. Queen—Delia Co. Miss Melard.
Treasurer—John D. Nitting.
Secretary—James H. Webb.
Chaplain—Charles E. H. M. M. M.
Captain of the Host—Albert W. Fay.

Royal Arch Captain—John F. Babert.
Master of 3d Vail—Samuel D. Delano.
Master of 2d Vail—Alexander Falconer.

Master of 1st Vail—Eugene P. DeNormandie.
S. S.—Benjamin F. Linton.
J. S.—Charles H. Hoxie.
Tyler—James W. Rideout.

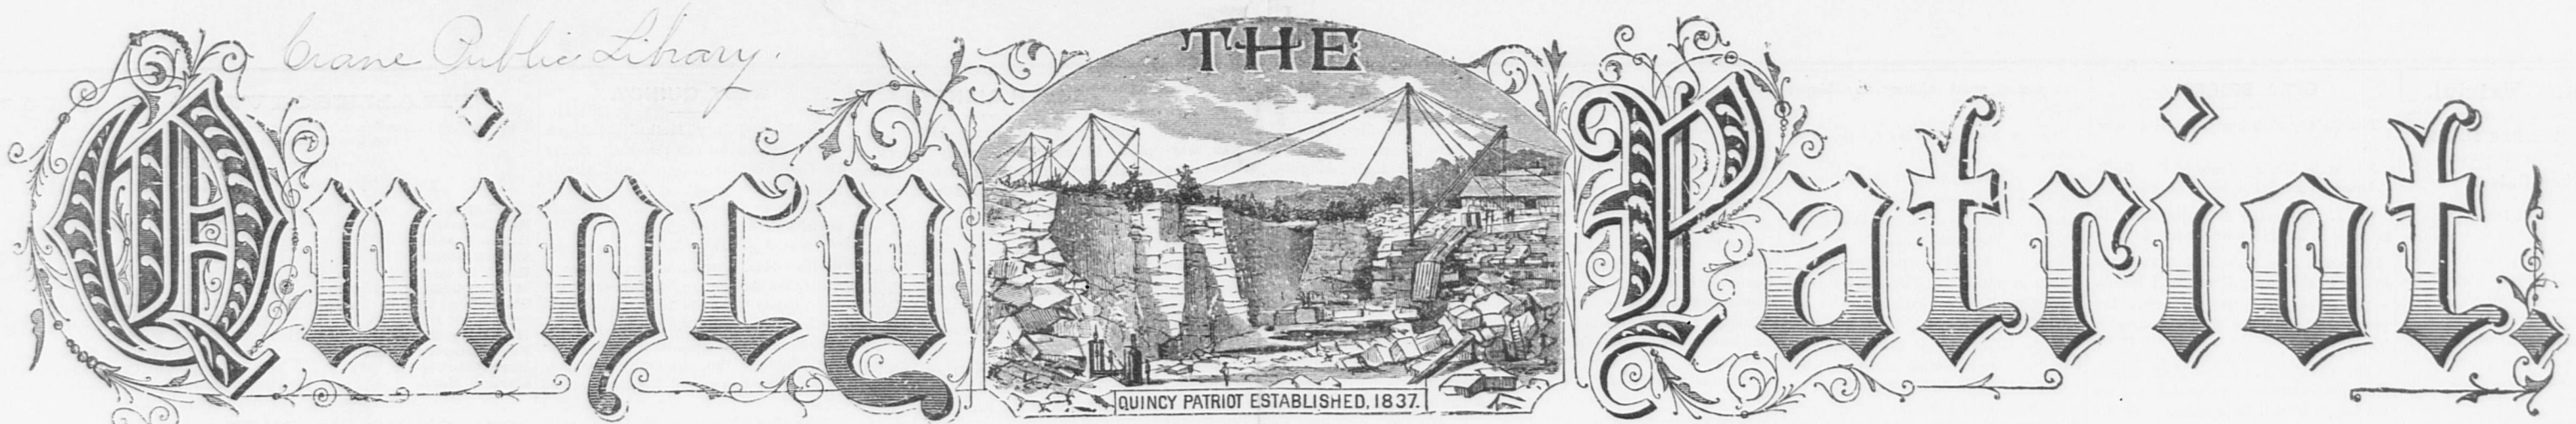

After the ceremony of installation Ex. Companion Hall, in behalf of the Chapter, presented the following High Priest, Arthur W. Stetson, with an elegant Past High Priest's jewel.

Companion Stetson replying in his usual happy manner promised to be as zealous in the work in future as in the past.

Masonic hall, was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, ferns and plants. The fine selections rendered by the Harvard quartette, and the presence of the ladies, added very much to the evening's entertainment. After enjoying the quartette, banquet provided by the host, the guests retired to the Greenleaf, good nights was exchanged thus ending the first public installation of Saint Stephen's chapter of Royal Arch Masons.

High School Debate.

At the regular monthly election of officers of the Q. H. S. Debating Society on Wednesday the following gentlemen were elected:—These with an asterisk being elected:

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1898.

VOL. 62. NO. 47.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

The Quincy Patriot,

Established in 1837.

PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,

[FORMERLY GREEN & PRESCOTT.]

Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.

A reduction of fifty cents will be made

when paid one year in advance.

Quincy Daily Ledger,

The ONLY DAILY in the ONLY CITY in Norfolk

County. Established in 1889.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.

A reduction of $1 will be made when paid

one year in advance.

Also PUBLISHERS OF THE

Brain Tree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

OFFICE, NO. 115 HANCOCK STREET.

No Pain Whatever

in having Teeth Extracted by using the new combination taken through Dr. H. H. H. H.

Extraction. I am the only Dentist using the Extraction in the city. No extra charge in calling at home of Patients.

C. B. UNDERWOOD, Dentist,

9 Spear St. Near of Public Library

Quincy, Nov. 1. 116m

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,

DENTIST.

At Quincy, No. 39 CHESTNUT STREET,

Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.

At Boston, HOTEL PELHAM, Mondays,

Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

SURGEON DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain with the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

DIDHAM, QUINCY, NORWOOD.

At Quincy office, Friend's Building,

WEDNESDAYS.

At Dedham Mondays and Tuesdays.

At Norwood Fridays and Saturdays.

July 28. 11f

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,

DENTIST.

Corner New and Grand View Avenues,

Wollaston.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

May 29. 11f

DR. C. T. SHERMAN

DENTIST.

Rooms 5 and 6, Durgin & Merrill's Block,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Residence, Linden Place, Quincy.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,

SPECIALIST, ORTHODONTIA.

REMOVED TO

No. 7 Temple Place,

New Bedford Building, Boston.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Residence, Linden Place, Quincy.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.,

Practice limited to the Eye and Ear.

333 Boylston Street, Boston.

Quincy—Monday and Friday.

Quincy—11. 116m

MISS MARTHA J. BROOKS,

Pupil of Mme. May,

Manicure, Chiropractic, Hair Dressing

AND

FACE TREATMENTS.

Hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

JENNIE HOOKING HUNT,

TEACHER OF

Organ, Piano and Harmony,

13 Bigelow Street, Quincy.

Organist and Chorister Bethany Church,

Quincy, Sept. 24. 11m

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,

COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW,

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

W. W. JENNESS

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,

87 Milk St., Boston.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Office hours: 8 to 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.,

Quincy, May 26. 11f

ROOM 1, DUGAN & MERRILL'S

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1898.

Suburban Rates.

The Railroad Commissioner gave a hearing Wednesday under the resolution of the Legislature, directing an inquiry as to suburban rates, and a report with recommendations. The railroads were represented by some of their officials and counsel, while suburban cities and towns were represented by committees and individuals interested in lower fares.

Quincy was represented at the hearing by Mayor Sears, City Solicitor McArthur, Councilman Jamieson and Hullman. Mayor Sears entered a general complaint in regard to the fares from all stations in Quincy and presented the commissioner with the diagram drawn by Councilman Parker for the Quincy Board of Trade, showing in comparison the fares charged for single and commutation tickets on the various railroads running out of Boston.

It will be remembered that the diagram showed that Quincy was paying higher fares than other cities and towns within the same distance of Boston. The railroad companies argued that they ran their suburban business at a loss. They also showed that in many instances their commutation fares were considerably lower than that charged by the electric competing lines, while the service was infinitely superior, both as to equipment, accommodations and time. The companies further filed statements of the suburban business, which will be open to the inspection of all.

Personal.

Miss Sarah Richardson Harlow, formerly of Lowell, but for the last three years a resident of Philadelphia, has lately been visiting her northern friends, and also her cousins at Wollaston. She is a lady of ability and energy, and much interested in the genealogy of the Harlow family, and is making careful records of the ancestry and of interesting incidents. She is likewise studying the pedigree of the Richardson family.

Her sister is Miss Annie Sophia Harlow, whom the Hon. John W. Faxon called to be an assistant in his famous Sunday school in Philadelphia, the largest in the world, and such was the value of her services that he appointed her associate superintendent.

Informal Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter E. Wadsworth tendered an informal reception Thursday from four to nine o'clock to their friends, which was a very enjoyable occasion. About 125 braved the inclement weather, some coming from Boston, Brookline, Dorchester, Milton and Hingham. Mrs. Walter T. Babcock assisted in receiving. In the afternoon Miss Mary Gannett and Miss Zayna Kimball, and in the evening Miss Marion Whitton and Miss Wadsworth. It was a pleasure to many to meet the father of the bride, Rev. Edward Anderson, and the parents of the groom, County Commissioner and Mrs. E. D. Wadsworth of Milton.

Atlantic Memorial Church.

Rev. J. H. Whitaker had for his text Sunday morning "Grow in grace." He said that growth in the spiritual was essentially like that of the physical. As activity in taking to itself of the elements most suitable for its development was a necessity in the organic cell of the body so in one's mental and spiritual growth there must be the same healthy and unceasing activity. The choir singing was fine at this service.

After the Christian Endeavor service in the evening the pastor gave a talk on the subject of "Recreation." Wednesday afternoon the Ladies Benevolent society held a business meeting at which Mrs. Coe, the treasurer for the first reported one hundred and seventy-five dollars, thirty cents, net proceeds of the fair held Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 9 and 10.

King's Daughters' Sale.

The Whatsoever Ten, King's Daughters, of Wollaston, held a very successful sale at the residence of Mrs. Arthur Stanley on Farrington street on Wednesday afternoon and evening. There was a large attendance of buyers. The Thanksgiving table was in charge of Mrs. Edmund Taylor, assisted by Mrs. Charles S. Adams; the apron table was in charge of Mrs. Amos T. Leavitt, assisted by Miss Robbins; Mrs. George R. Badger and Miss Noyes; the lemonade table was presided over by Miss Howard; and the candy table was in charge of Mrs. Taylor, assisted by Mrs. E. E. Jamieson and Miss Foster. The entertainment consisted of piano solos by Mr. Nay of Dorchester, vocal solos by Mrs. Charles Godfrey and music by a graphophone, which was presided over by Mr. Newcomb of Dorchester.

No-License Committees.

Another meeting of the Citizens' No-License Committee was held Monday evening at the F. M. C. A. rooms, when President Sherman announced the following committees in accordance with the votes at the first meeting: On Meetings.—Theophilus King chairman, T. B. Pollard, W. Bailey, P. W. Dackers, J. H. Beardon, E. J. Sandberg and J. B. Ramsdell. On Publicity.—W. F. Cummings chairman, Miss E. M. Brown and H. A. Rideout. On Appeal to Voters.—Rev. Robert Westly, Rev. Edward Norton and Rev. W. Dorman.

The last two committees sitting jointly voted to issue a paper in the interests of No-License. They will have printed, 4,000 copies and distribute them to each voter, and also advertise in the local newspapers.

Registration Closed.

The Board of Registrars of Voters were in session Wednesday from 9 o'clock noon until 1 o'clock in the evening. There was but little doing during the afternoon but from 7 o'clock until the closing hour the Registrars had all they could jump to. After registration closed the figures showed that 27 names had been restored to the lists at the session. The larger part of these came from Wards Five and Six, although Ward One showed up very well.

Miss M. Perkins has removed to No. 40 Washington street, opposite, Foster street, and will be pleased to see her customers as usual. In Boston Tuesday.

CITY BRIEFS.

The Quincy club has put out a new flag.

Hector Gillis, a private of Co. K, is at home on a brief leave of absence.

O. A. Hammack is quite ill with malaria at his home on Quince hill. Large new sales arrived Monday morning for C. F. Pettengill and B. Johnson. The sidewalk on Granite street between the bridge and Whitwell street is being rebuilt.

Mr. Charles A. French of Adams street, who has been quite sick, is we are happy to say, improving.

The house of F. W. Grant of Butler road, which was recently partly destroyed by fire, is being repaired.

Mr. Henry Lemon of Gardner, Montana, is visiting his sister Mrs. L. D. Goodridge, on Hancock street.

The concrete sidewalk on the east side of Hancock street, between Russell Park and Butler road, is completed.

If you did not drop your Hospital subscription into the contribution box it is not too late to forward it by mail.

The Sewer department is finding considerable water in its trench on Hancock street, near Hall's undertaking rooms.

Miss Lottie Orent is ready to do dressmaking at reasonable prices. Notice advertisement in another column.

Work was commenced this week building the sewer on Butler road from the main brick sewer toward Hancock street.

The Board of Health will hold an examination at City Hall, Dec. 1, of applicants for licenses as journeymen and master plumbers.

The steam roller is a grand good thing for leveling down the sewer trenches, as it does its work in a thorough manner.

Quincy High has won her second victory from Weymouth High Tuesday, defeating her 16 to 0 in a well-played game at Merrymount Park.

Sunday was a fine day for bicycling, and many improved the opportunity for one more spin before putting up their wheels for the winter.

The Parish Committee of the Universalist church has elected Mrs. Florence Catter of East Weymouth as organist, and Mr. Peter Gomez as chorister.

It has been an exceptionally fine fall for out-of-door work, which enables the city to keep its employees in the Street department at work longer than usual.

William C. Seelye, one of the inspectors of sewers, accidentally slipped into a trench on Hancock street Saturday and fractured three ribs and received other injuries.

Hon. William A. Hodges has exchanged his farm at Weymouth for the property at 320 Washington street, Boston. William A. Reynolds is the new owner of the farm.

Merrymount lodge, A. O. U. W., have designated every second meeting of the month as Whist night, and members will indulge in this pleasant game after the regular meeting.

The John Hancock defeated the Coddington in the foot ball game Saturday by the score of 25 to 0. The features of the game were the long runs of Gillis, Driscoll and Murphy.

Six lectures for 50 cents by such speakers as Col. Taylor, Col. Thomas, Chief of Police Edridge and others may well be styled a popular course. The Universalist church should be well filled.

The Y. M. C. A. have sent out notices to the business men that the annual business men's banquet will be held December 7, and asking that they make no other engagement for that evening.

Cars leaving Quincy for Neponset at 10 minutes past the hour will go via Hancock street, and cars leaving Neponset for Quincy at half past the hour go via Hancock street until further notice.

The advertising balloon of a Boston furniture house was sent up from Dimmock street shortly after 2 o'clock Monday. It sailed gracefully over City Square and landed safely in the field off Canal street.

Some Quincy people who sought free tickets in the Lowell course in Boston, by Roosevelt, stood in line a couple of hours on Monday only to be disappointed, as others were there all night and soon exhausted the 1,200.

James T. Moran who set fire to a building in East Weymouth, occupied by about 20 colored people, has disappeared. He was indicted by the grand jury some weeks ago and his sister saw him take an electric car for Quincy where all trace of him was lost.

The State ticket of the L. A. W. was victorious and Sterling Elliot of Watertown was elected chief counsel, Albrecht A. Bryson vice counsel, Aaron Wolcott secretary-treasurer, George W. Nash of Wollaston was elected one of the 64 representatives at large.

The committee on the parkway held another meeting for consultation at City hall Saturday night. The committee are at work and the public may expect a full and encouraging report from them at an early date. At present however, they have nothing to make public.

General orders have been issued from the State militia headquarters, relieving the Provisional Militia companies of the State from further duty and giving the returned regiments permission to occupy their old armories and to report for duty in the militia as required by law.

Mrs. Margaret Mollenhauer, who died in Boston, was brought to Quincy Sunday for burial. She was the widow of Herman Mollenhauer, one of the two gifted violinists who came to this country with Julien's orchestra more than a generation ago. She leaves three sons—Emil, Arthur and William.

The Daughters of the Covenant of Bethany Congregational church will hold a harvest concert and candy sale Tuesday evening next, at 7:20 o'clock in the chapel. The admission will be free but all who attend are requested to bring fruit or vegetables for distribution to the poor. An old-fashioned spelling match, spiced preserves, music and recitations will be given.

All are cordially invited. The fire started in the cutting room on the top floor about 3 A. M. and the heat opened the automatic sprinklers, which not only extinguished the fire but flooded the building. People living in the building, however, were not disturbed by the sprinklers but paid no attention to it, and the running water was not discovered until the engineer arrived at 5 o'clock.

There was a slight fire in the large shoe manufactory of Edwin Clapp at East Weymouth on Monday. Although the loss was but little damage by fire the loss by water will amount to several thousand dollars. The fire started in the cutting room on the top floor about 3 A. M. and the heat opened the automatic sprinklers, which not only extinguished the fire but flooded the building. People living in the building, however, were not disturbed by the sprinklers but paid no attention to it, and the running water was not discovered until the engineer arrived at 5 o'clock.

WOLLASTON.

It was a great victory for Mayor Sears.

Registration has closed for the City elections.

Both parties will hold their conventions before Thanksgiving.

Have you made your offering for the Co. K Thanksgiving dinner?

The Bay View Social club held a largely attended social dance Thursday evening at Hancock hall.

The letters from Co. K are missed but the boys are on the move and travelling from home and the ledger correspondent is undoubtedly busy.

The Atlantic A. A. will play the Powderhorn A. A. of Chelsea, this afternoon, at Merrymount park. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Councilman and Mrs. Eliza Packard missed their son so much after his departure for school at Greenwich, R. I., that Mr. Packard went for him.

The Enterprize Mandolin, Banjo and Harp club gave an excellent concert Thursday evening in Bethany chapel. Encores were demanded for each number.

The Swedish Republican club met Tuesday night in Plumer's hall and discussed local politics. The meeting was very spirited, enthusiastic and unanimous and the attendance was exceptionally large.

B. J. Weeks, Benjamin Johnson, Jr., J. P. Sears, George Richards and B. T. Dyer have just returned from a trip through New Hampshire and Maine. It is said that they brought up all the street railways.

Several of our people have ordered the new house-to-house collection boxes, samples of which are on exhibition at the Quincy Post office. These require carriers to call for mail whether they have letters to deliver or not. There are no carriers for mail under lock and key both for and from the postoffice.

Tickets for the People's Course are now on sale at A. A. Linscott's. In view of the popularity of the course last year it would be wise to select reserve seats early. With the exception of the Salem Canal land, all the entertainments will be new this year.

The union Thanksgiving service this year will be held next Thursday at 10:45 A. M. in the First Presbyterian church on Water street near the Quincy Adams station. The sermon will be given by the Rev. W. Dorman pastor of the First United Presbyterian church.

Last week one of T. D. Baker & Co.'s ponderous market wagons could be seen standing in front of Tirrell & Sons, after receiving a new coat of paint and being put in perfect repair. So much pleased were the firm with the work that they immediately placed an order for two new wagons to be built. This speaks well for the house and work they do.

This telegram has been received in Quincy by freight in reply to an inquiry into the condition of Corporal Theodore Hermann of Co. K, 5th Massachusetts Regiment, who is confined by typhoid fever in St. Joseph's Hospital at Baltimore: "Theodore Hermann is convalescing." This will be good news for all his friends in our city.

Mr. Record, who represents the Boynton Bicycle railway asks the Patriot, if the city expects his company will accept the location through West Quincy? He doesn't think they will. He says if they are crowded out of Quincy by the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. that they will go through Milton Lower Mills. Perhaps the road will go right over Milton Hill.

The Harvard seniors have elected their class officers and Quincy is honored by the selection of the secretary. The Transcript says, Arthur Adams, the secretary, has been very popular with his fellows during his college course, as indicated by his being the first man in his class to be elected to the "Dickey." He belongs to many other college societies, including Hasty Pudding and Alpha Delta Phi.

Mayor Sears when interviewed yesterday on the result of the caucuses Thursday night expressed himself as very much pleased at the result. It was also very gratifying to him to receive the endorsement from many who a year ago were his opponents. During the past few days he has received many kind letters from rich and poor alike endorsing his claims and business-like administration which he has given the city since assuming office and the result of the caucuses was the very best evidence that the citizens as a whole have endorsed his administration.

There is considerable kicking amongst the undertakers at the inconvenience they are often times put to in procuring burial permits. If City Clerk Cleaves could have the issuance of such permits made easier, as was formerly the difficulty would be obviated. At present they are issued by the Secretary of the Board of Health, and being a physician it often times takes hours to locate him and secure the document. In the meantime there is considerable delay to the annoyance of out of town undertakers who have business with the city as well as by our local firms.

Whist Party. Mr. J. Archie Verill, who has a very pleasant suite of rooms at the residence of Mr. L. H. Milberry, Wollaston Park, gave a reception to a number of friends on Tuesday evening. A pleasant evening was spent in whist and other games; also recitations by Miss Clara Jennings, Miss Rhea Douglas, Miss Gertrude Cleaves, and Mr. Thomas Mac. Ice cream, cake and cocoa were served from a table very tastefully decorated with pink and white. Pink and pale green crepe paper streamers extended from the corners of the table to the ceiling, making a very handsome effect.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cleaves, Miss Lena Cleaves, Miss Gertrude Cleaves, Mr. William Cleaves, Mr. Chester Cleaves, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Longias, Miss Ethel Douglas, Miss Omer Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Page, Miss Carrie Jennings, Mrs. Eliza Knowlton, Mrs. Frank Knowlton, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Milberry, Mrs. James McLeod of Brockton and Mr. Joseph Goodwin of Montpelier. So enjoyable was the occasion that twelve o'clock arrived all too soon.

Fire at Weymouth. There was a slight fire in the large shoe manufactory of Edwin Clapp at East Weymouth on Monday. Although the loss was but little damage by fire the loss by water will amount to several thousand dollars. The fire started in the cutting room on the top floor about 3 A. M. and the heat opened the automatic sprinklers, which not only extinguished the fire but flooded the building. People living in the building, however, were not disturbed by the sprinklers but paid no attention to it, and the running water was not discovered until the engineer arrived at 5 o'clock.

Damages Claimed. Editors of Quincy Patriot: Gentlemen, with regard to the slanderous attack on my character by G. B. Bates in the Quincy Advertiser of Nov. 15 I would state that I have already instituted proceedings against both Mr. Bates and Frederick P. Green, for the sum of five thousand dollars, in an attempt to slander my character. I have time for only one number of the entertainment, namely, a pleasing piano solo by Mr. E. W. Arnold, 1902.

Great Sale. Gentlemen, with regard to the slanderous attack on my character by G. B. Bates in the Quincy Advertiser of Nov. 15 I would state that I have already instituted proceedings against both Mr. Bates and Frederick P. Green, for the sum of five thousand dollars, in an attempt to slander my character. I have time for only one number of the entertainment, namely, a pleasing piano solo by Mr. E. W. Arnold, 1902.

Whist Party. Mr. J. Archie Verill, who has a very pleasant suite of rooms at the residence of Mr. L. H. Milberry, Wollaston Park, gave a reception to a number of friends on Tuesday evening. A pleasant evening was spent in whist and other games; also recitations by Miss Clara Jennings, Miss Rhea Douglas, Miss Gertrude Cleaves, and Mr. Thomas Mac. Ice cream, cake and cocoa were served from a table very tastefully decorated with pink and white. Pink and pale green crepe paper streamers extended from the corners of the table to the ceiling, making a very handsome effect.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cleaves, Miss Lena Cleaves, Miss Gertrude Cleaves, Mr. William Cleaves, Mr. Chester Cleaves, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Longias, Miss Ethel Douglas, Miss Omer Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Page, Miss Carrie Jennings, Mrs. Eliza Knowlton, Mrs. Frank Knowlton, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Milberry, Mrs. James McLeod of Brockton and Mr. Joseph Goodwin of Montpelier. So enjoyable was the occasion that twelve o'clock arrived all too soon.

Fire at Weymouth. There was a slight fire in the large shoe manufactory of Edwin Clapp at East Weymouth on Monday. Although the loss was but little damage by fire the loss by water will amount to several thousand dollars. The fire started in the cutting room on the top floor about 3 A. M. and the heat opened the automatic sprinklers, which not only extinguished the fire but flooded the building. People living in the building, however, were not disturbed by the sprinklers but paid no attention to it, and the running water was not discovered until the engineer arrived at 5 o'clock.

Damages Claimed. Editors of Quincy Patriot: Gentlemen, with regard to the slanderous attack on my character by G. B. Bates in the Quincy Advertiser of Nov. 15 I would state that I have already instituted proceedings against both Mr. Bates and Frederick P. Green, for the sum of five thousand dollars, in an attempt to slander my character. I have time for only one number of the entertainment, namely, a pleasing piano solo by Mr. E. W. Arnold, 1902.

Great Sale. Gentlemen, with regard to the slanderous attack on my character by G. B. Bates in the Quincy Advertiser of Nov. 15 I would state that I have already instituted proceedings against both Mr. Bates and Frederick P. Green, for the sum of five thousand dollars, in an attempt to slander my character. I have time for only one number of the entertainment, namely, a pleasing piano solo by Mr. E. W. Arnold, 1902.

Whist Party. Mr. J. Archie Verill, who has a very pleasant suite of rooms at the residence of Mr. L. H. Milberry, Wollaston Park, gave a reception to a number of friends on Tuesday evening. A pleasant evening was spent in whist and other games; also recitations by Miss Clara Jennings, Miss Rhea Douglas, Miss Gertrude Cleaves, and Mr. Thomas Mac. Ice cream, cake and cocoa were served from a table very tastefully decorated with pink and white. Pink and pale green crepe paper streamers extended from the corners of the table to the ceiling, making a very handsome effect.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cleaves, Miss Lena Cleaves, Miss Gertrude Cleaves, Mr. William Cleaves, Mr. Chester Cleaves, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Longias, Miss Ethel Douglas, Miss Omer Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Page, Miss Carrie Jennings, Mrs. Eliza Knowlton, Mrs. Frank Knowlton, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Milberry, Mrs. James McLeod of Brockton and Mr. Joseph Goodwin of Montpelier. So enjoyable was the occasion that twelve o'clock arrived all too soon.

Fire at Weymouth. There was a slight fire in the large shoe manufactory of Edwin Clapp at East Weymouth on Monday. Although the loss was but little damage by fire the loss by water will amount to several thousand dollars. The fire started in the cutting room on the top floor about 3 A. M. and the heat opened the automatic sprinklers, which not only extinguished the fire but flooded the building. People living in the building, however, were not disturbed by the sprinklers but paid no attention to it, and the running water was not discovered until the engineer arrived at 5 o'clock.

ATLANTIC.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Bradshaw have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Emma Lillian, to Mr. Harry Orrville Parker, at 11 o'clock, Atlantic, Nov. 28, at eight o'clock.

Mr. P. Jansen, baggage master at Atlantic station, has returned from spending a two weeks' visit with relations in New York state.

Mrs. Lucy Pratt and niece Miss Josephine Keeney, who have been staying at Squantum, returned to their winter home in New London, Conn., on Wednesday.

It was gentlemanly night at the Granite Club on Wednesday evening, and the whist prizes were taken by C. C. Hearn and Henry F. Tilden.

The attempt to organize a chorus class on Saturday evening was not a success. There seems to be a considerable disappointment, however, considering a matter that the attempt should be given up. It is possible that a concert in the evenings may make it more convenient to some. All those who can and would join a chorus if it were held on a Thursday evening are requested to send their names to any of the following persons: Mrs. Henry Green, Botolph street, Miss Katie Priest, Atlantic street, Mr. H. C. Wright, Atlantic street. If thirty names are received a meeting will be called for Thursday evening, Dec. 1. All names should be in within a week, so as to allow for further preparations.

T. H. Kingston has nearly finished his new house on Webster street.

John T. Ripley passed away at the residence of Mrs. Nancy Noble Saturday last evening, after a lingering illness. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon. In one of the issues of last week there was an item stating that the Methodist church at Atlantic had received $300 from the church extension fund the past year. Unfortunately it was a fact, but unfortunately the church was not thus aided from the church extension, or any other outside source, except $51 which was received as church aid. We hope the writer of the item was a clairvoyant and simply got the sense of this verb confused so they may look forward to some welcome assistance.

John McKenna and family of Atlantic were made quite sick from food from eating canned goods.

The Norfolk Downs representative on the Parkway committee is T. H. Kingston who is proving a valuable member.

T. H. Kingston has traded his house on West Elm avenue for the large lot on the corner of Squantum and Holmes street, and will build two houses.

The street railway is making extensive repairs to its tracks through Norfolk Downs, and until further notice the cars that went via Norfolk Downs will go via Hancock street.

A whist party will be held at the Wollaston Yacht club house next Tuesday evening.

The entertainment committee of the Wollaston Yacht club has under way an entertainment to be given on Tuesday evening, Nov. 29.

The last meeting of the Milton Woman's club was held at the Town hall on Saturday, November 5th, at three o'clock.

Business having been transacted, Mr. Meade, principal of the High school, addressed the members, taking for his subject "The Education of the Future." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

SOUTH QUINCY.

Little Miss Maud Clark observed her birthday anniversary Thursday.

According to her birthday card she is twenty or more of her young friends at her home on Franklin street. The evening proved a source of great enjoyment to the young people who passed the few hours in happy childhood games.

During the evening a tempting supper was served. Miss Maud was presented with a number of pleasing remembrances.

The Rev. David Kerr of Calvary Baptist church and the Rev. Robert Westly of the First Presbyterian church will exchange pulpits Sunday evening.

West Quincy is anxious that the Boynton bicycle railway be located through that village, and it is not surprising. If the railway is ever built it will undoubtedly be a success and then West Quincy will have rapid transit, while Quincy people will have to ride in the slow trains. When West Quincy becomes ten minutes nearer to Boston than Quincy there should be a demand for its vacant land, and prosperity will again return to the village which has suffered of late years.

William Smith, Adolph Perry, Thomas Fay, Edward Barry and Edgar Harlow, five South Quincy boys, were summoned into court on Thursday, for throwing stones at the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

At the First Presbyterian church on Sunday, the Hospital envelopes were given out, and will be taken up next Sunday. The congregations, both morning and evening, were the largest this fall. The Sunday School also reached its largest attendance since children's day in June.

Timothy B. Collins received a severe scalp wound on Sunday while grooming a horse at the stable of Peter J. Williams.

The South Quincy social club are to give a series of entertainments during the winter at their rooms on Liberty street, and most every night they are rehearsing with an expert pianist.

Forty Pound Turkeys. Aunt Phoebe has an interesting article in today's Ledger about Thomas Morton, Capt. Wollaston, forty pound turkeys, oysters a foot long, etc., at Merry Mount in 1825. In this connection we might say that quite an interesting account of Thomas Morton can be found in the history of Old Braintree and Quincy, written by the late Dr. Pattee and for sale at the Ledger office.

"Some people think that cough candy, to be beneficial must have some terrible taste, but Crooker's Koff-Knots are not that kind. They are made of pure herbs, honey and sugar. An old family recipe, put up in original design, a smooth, healing, delicious remedy for coughs and that roughness in your throat. Ask your druggist for Crooker's Koff-Knots."

The Hall Yacht club has voted in favor of consultation with the Mass. Yacht club, provided 100 members of the latter club join the Hall club.

The entertainment committee of the Wollaston Yacht club has under way an entertainment to be given on Tuesday evening, Nov. 29.

The last meeting of the Milton Woman's club was held at the Town hall on Saturday, November 5th, at three o'clock.

Business having been transacted, Mr. Meade, principal of the High school, addressed the members, taking for his subject "The Education of the Future." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, December 3d, at which time Mr. C. K. Holt, chief of the New Education against which we should guard." The paper was a very interesting one, and was followed by a general discussion.

Quincy Patriot

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1898.

VOL. 62, NO. 48.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

The Quincy Patriot,
Established in 1817.
PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,
[FORMERLY GREEN & PRESCOTT.]
Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.
A reduction of fifty cents will be made when paid one year in advance.
Quincy Daily Ledger,
The Only Daily in the Only City in Norfolk County. Established in 1889.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.
A reduction of $1 will be made when paid one year in advance.
Also Publishers of the
Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
OFFICE, No. 115 HANCOCK STREET.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain with the "BOSTON VIBRATOR VACUUM."
DEBHAM, QUINCY, NORWOOD.
At Quincy office, Fogg's Building, WEDNESDAYS.
At DeBham Mondays and Tuesdays. At Norwood Fridays and Saturdays.
July 28. if

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST.
Corner Newport and Grand View Avenues, Wollaston.
Office hours—8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.
May 29. if

DR. C. T. SHERMAN,
DENTIST.
Rooms 5 and 6, Douglas & Merrill's Block, HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office hours, 8 to 12, 1 to 5.
RESIDENCE, LINDEN PLACE, QUINCY.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL DELHAM, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.
WILLIAM E. BAYER, M. D.,
Practice Limited to the Eye and Ear.
533 Bay Street, Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday, 9 to 11. 110 Hancock Street, May 21. if

JENNIE HOCKING HUNT,
TEACHER OF
Organ, Piano and Harmony,
13 Bigelow Street, Quincy.
Organist and Chorist Bethany Church, Quincy, Sept. 24. Sat

MISS MARTHA J. BROOKS,
Pupil of Miss May,
Manicure, Chlorophyll, Hair Dressing
FACE TREATMENTS.
Hours—8 A. M. to 6 P. M., at Room 5, Fogg's Building, Quincy, Feb. 29. if

W. W. JENNESS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
87 Milk St., Boston, Mass.
Office hours, 10 A. M. to 5 P. M., at Room 5 and 6, Quincy office, Adams Bldg.
OFFICE HOURS: 8 to 10 A. M.; 2 to 5 P. M.
Quincy, May 20. if

DR. J. W. HARRIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL DELHAM, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. J. W. HARRIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL DELHAM, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. J. W. HARRIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL DELHAM, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. J. W. HARRIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL DELHAM, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. J. W. HARRIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL DELHAM, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. J. W. HARRIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL DELHAM, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. J. W. HARRIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL DELHAM, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. J. W. HARRIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL DELHAM, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.

Lehigh Coal.
When we sell you Lehigh, we deliver what we sell.
C. PATCH & SON.

In this Building is manufactured as high a grade of Men's and Boys' Clothing
as it is possible to put together. In quality of materials, in "style," and in excellence of fit and finish our clothing certainly is not surpassed anywhere.
Our workmen are absolutely clean and are abundantly lighted. Dangers of disease are entirely eliminated. We invite inspection, especially by women.
MACULLAR PARKER COMPANY,
400 Washington St.—BOSTON.—400 Washington St.

SEE ME
BEFORE YOU BUY YOUR COAL!
GEO. E. FROST.
488 Neponset Ave., Tel. phone 283
BOSTON
BRIK and Lime
NEPONSET

WINTER BOOTS.
With the advent of Winter the protection of the feet becomes a necessity.
Our Ladies' Box Calf Lace Boots are meeting with popular favor. They are stylish, durable and keep the feet dry and warm.
Prices, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.50.
Misses' Box Calf, Spring Heel, Button and Lace, $1.50.
Children's Box Calf, Spring Heel, Button and Lace, $1.25.
GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

To Make Room for Our CHRISTMAS STOCK OF LINENS
We Offer Our Present Stock of Bureau Scarfs, Commode Scarfs, Splashers, and Tray Cloths at HALF PRICE.
We carry a very complete line of "Near Silk," which is so popular for linings.
Our line of Kid Gloves cannot be beat and we warrant every glove we sell for $1.00 or more.
D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

FRANK A. LOCKE,
24 YEARS EXPERIENCE
PIANO TUNER
REPAIRER REGULATOR
GUARANTEED
BEST OF REFERENCES
QUINCY OFFICE:
John O. Holden's Jewelry Store, 104 HANCOCK STREET.

1867--1898.
THE OLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE BOOT AND SHOE STORE IN THE CITY.
Call and See Some of the BARCAINS IN ALL KINDS OF
Boots, Shoes and Rubbers
To Be Found at 54 Washington Street.
RUBBER AND LEATHER CEMENT, ALSO RUBBER SOLING.
Repairing Done at Short Notice.
ELLA L. STETSON,
54 Washington Street, Quincy

Poetry.
Rest.
JAMES WHITEHEAD RILEY
Let us rest ourselves a bit—
Worry—wave your hand to it—
Kiss your finger-tips and smile
It farewell a little while.
Weary of the weary way
We have come since yesterday.
Let us rest us out, in dream
Of the weary way ahead.
While we yet look down—not up—
To seek out the butterfly
And the daisy, where they wave
O'er the green home of the grave.
Let us launch us smoothly on Lushly billows of the lawn,
And drift out across the main
Of our childish dreams again.
Voyage off, beneath the trees,
O'er the field's enchanted seas,
Where the flies are our sails,
And our seagulls, nightingales.
We're no wilder storm shall beat
Than the wind that waves the wheat,
And no tempest bursts above
The old lullaby we used to love.

Miscellany.
A Model Roxane.
It seemed the most natural thing in the world that they should love each other. He had known her ever since they were children. In fact, he could not remember the time when he had not known her, yes, and loved her too. Everything he had ever done was so closely associated with her that he could not bear to think that a dreadful blank would be left if she were no longer in it. When she was a tiny girl it was always to him that she had carried her troubles. He was the only one who could heal the bruises caused by the frequent falls in those baby days. He was only a little older but, as he had taken her under his protection from the moment of their first meeting, he had always thought of her as much younger than herself. When they were old enough to go to school he had always carried her books back and forth. If older children tormented her he had valiantly come to the rescue, sometimes suffering severely for his bravery. Almost equally good students, they had grown hand in hand, as it were, until they had graduated from the high school. The night of the graduation he told her of his desire to go on the stage. He said that he had always wanted to be an actor. And did you think I could stay at home without you? I will go on the stage too, and we will always play together, Harry. Oh, you will make them let me go with you, won't you? And her big eyes filled fast with tears that went rolling slowly down her cheeks. "Dear little girl," he answered, "you shall be with me always," and then he said, "Some day I shall tell you something, but not tonight." The following autumn they went to the school. He was so passionately carried away with his work that the years spent there seemed like a dream they passed so quickly. Once more came a graduation night and this time it found them no longer children. As they stood together talking after the exercises were over, they made a charming picture. He was a handsome, dignified young fellow with light brown hair and blue eyes. He had strong, clear cut features and a firm mouth. Tall and well proportioned, he was a splendid specimen of healthy young manhood. And she, with her large brown eyes and delicate face surrounded by a halo of waving chestnut hair, and her slender figure faintly outlined by the clinging gown, was very fair to look upon. "Do you remember, Jessie," he whispered, "at our last graduation that I promised to tell you something sometime?" "Yes," she answered softly. "Yes, sweetheart, I love you." That night she promised to be his wife. Through the influence of a friend they were both engaged to play at the same theatre. At first they were given small parts but, in addition, he was understood for the leading man and she stood ready to take the leading lady's place should illness prevent her appearance. They lived at the same hotel so they were able to see each other easily. He would come to her room to study it seemed so much cozier than his, and her mother, who once always with her, would watch them lovingly as they sat with their heads bent close together over the same book. Every few weeks he would ask her, "when will you see the day, sweetheart, that will make me wholly mine?" "Oh, sometime, but I'm not ready yet, not quite ready," she would always answer. And he would promise to be more patient, but sometimes a little fear that she never would be his would creep into his mind. Each time he bravely stifled it and tried even harder than before to please her. He would tell himself that she was so young that of course she did not wish to marry yet, that of course she loved him, for had she not said so time and time again? Yes, he was sure he ought not to worry. So often she had said, "Oh, Harry, you are so handsome, I could not help loving you even if I did not want to." After they had been at the theatre for about a year and a half the management decided to produce the famous "Cyrano de Bergerac" of Rostand. He was to be the De Valvert in the cast but there was no part for her, long before being so few women in the play. They were both disappointed but he said, "Never mind, little one, it will be glorious learning the big parts even if we can not play them. And then you know, perhaps Miss—may be fill and then you, why, you could be Roxane." He was a skilful fencer and looked forward with no little pleasure to the duel-scene. In fact, so long as he could not be Cyrano, he would have chosen De Valvert anyway. Every afternoon while the play was in rehearsal he came to her room to study. He loved her so passionately that, as he pleaded in Cyrano's words: "I, for, your joy would gladly lay mine down, E'en though you never were to know it." That at times I might, far off and lonely—Hear some gay echo of the I brought you? Each phase of time awakes in me a virtue—A novel, unknown virtue. Dost begin, sweet, To understand? So late, dost understand me." He felt that she must indeed understand the height and depth to which his love could go. "Dearest," he said, as he sank back exhausted upon a chair beside her, "My love for you is just the same as his great love for her. Without you there could be no happiness for me anywhere. Darling, tell me once just as you speak it in the play, "I love you only for your soul. I should love you still, Ay, if your beauty should depart." "Will you say it to me, for myself. Would you still love me, Jessie, if I were maimed, disfigured, blind?" He had knelt at her feet as he grew more fervent and had taken her hands in his. He did not perceive how he was crushing them in his eager grasp until she cried out in pain. "Harry, you hurt me! You frighten me! There is nothing horrible going to happen to you. Don't talk that way, please, it hurts me," and the tears began to fall. "Sweetheart, I never meant to hurt you. I was rough. But, Oh, my love, do you know what a great love really is? One that could stand any test? Forgive me, dear, I will try to be more calm." That night he could not sleep he was so unhappy, but the next morning when she kissed him tenderly he blamed himself for having worried. That night the opening performance of "Cyrano" was given and she told him he looked even handsomer than Christian. He wished she had not said that it brought back so clearly his memory of the previous night. The play went off successfully and he was happy once more. The next morning he came to her room to see her and unfortunately made some uncomplimentary remark about some girl whom she liked, although she did not know it. She was not feeling well and his remark annoyed her. She spoke hastily and unkindly and, even though he tried his best to soothe her, she said she did not wish to study with him, and with a heavy heart he left her. All the rest of the day he did not see her and when it came time for the play he had grown very nervous. He felt as if the shadows were gathering round him. He passed through the wings and even the applause which greeted his appearance failed to make him remember where he was. Mechanically he spoke his lines and then drawing his sword began to fight. After a few passes the gleam of light along Cyrano's sword seemed to pierce his brain and he knew no more. When he awoke he heard some one saying, "Poor fellow, he was so handsome, she could not possibly love him now." "Cyrano's" sword had gashed his face, it was a miracle he had not been killed. In agony he called her. "Jessie, Jessie, come to me. Tell me that you love me still. You know how quick I would have come you I can not hear it all alone, Jessie, Jessie." A letter came from her saying how sorry she was for him but that her mother thought that until he was better she had best not come. A week passed and yet she had not come. It was then the full meaning came to him, she did not mean to come. That night he wrote her offering to release her from her engagement. He wrote, if you still loved me you would have come to me now when my suffering is more than I can bear. I would have loved you through the worst that could have happened. Jessie, my sword is dead, and it is you, not the sword which killed it. He was not surprised when her mother wrote that it would be impossible for her daughter to marry him now however, much she might esteem him. He burned that letter together with all the letters he had ever had from Jessie. Since the night of the accident he had neither asked the doctor how badly disfigured he would be, nor had he looked in a mirror to see for himself, he was so stunned. Some weeks passed when one night the doctor grasped his hand warmly. "My dear fellow, I congratulate you. It is not half so bad as we feared. The scars will scarcely show." The next day a note came from Jessie begging his forgiveness and entreating him to believe that she still loved him. "Jessie," he wrote, "the fire of my love for you has burned out. It would be a desecration to stir its cold ashes." In a few days his substitute at the theatre was dismissed and he came again before the public. They say that Time heals all sorrows no matter how deep, and that it is Time alone that can do so.—By Dorothy King.

COLORADO.
ITS GREAT WEALTH AND RESOURCES
—THE 13th EDITORIAL CONVENTION—WHAT WE SAW AND ENJOINED.
NUMBER NINE.
Wednesday, Sept. 14. The editors started this morning from Colorado Springs bright and early, long before daylight, but as they were comfortably snoring in their little sections, it mattered not much what hour the train moved. They were to visit this day some of the most valuable and noted gold mines in the country and see scenic views unsurpassed.

They left over the Colorado Midland in two sections as it is impossible to haul long and heavy trains up a steep grade over the Rockies. The journey was to Cripple Creek, about sixty miles, on the opposite side of Pike's Peak. A portion of the way was over the renowned Ute pass, a trail used by the Ute Indians when they came down from their mountain strongholds upon the country below. We went up over solid rock and mud, rising over 200 feet to the mile. At Divide we were some 9,000 feet above the sea level, and where the waters flow on the east to the Atlantic, and on the west to the Pacific.

H. D. WEBSTER, PHOTO, CRIPPLE CREEK.

Fifteen miles from Divide the train emerges from a tunnel into the Cripple Creek district, Gillett, with its famous relation work, giving the first indications of activity in the greatest gold camp in the world. Next the rapidly growing towns of Goldfield, Independence and Altman successively come into view, but we kept on, and arrived at Cripple Creek about 9 o'clock. On stopping at the station our party was cordially received by a somewhat numerous reception committee, and to the music of a first class drum corps, composed of young men under the tuition of a veteran musician, escorted to the National Hotel, where a fine breakfast was served, after which the attractions of the place, first among which was the gold mining industry, were shown to the visitors. Before giving a detailed account of the very interesting day's experience, we will tell you something about this, perhaps the most famous gold mining camp in the world. As late as 1891 the site of the present town was a cow pasture. The ranchmen were unable to pay the interest on the mortgages, and these lands, which have proved such a source of wealth were foreclosed, and could have been bought of the unwilling owners for a song. About this time gold was struck in Poverty Gulch, and in the seven years which have followed, this city has been built and rebuilt, for it has been once wiped out by fire; and the township has now about 15,000 inhabitants. One can hardly believe the story because the stores along the main street have a substantial and permanent appearance and business is going on as if it would were it a growth of years. The Cripple Creek district has six incorporated towns, namely: Cripple Creek, Victor, Goldfield, Anaconda, Altman and Gillett. All of these towns are lighted by electricity and are also well supplied with pure mountain water. The district has a population of about 50,000. An electric car line runs from Cripple Creek to Victor, a distance of six miles, furnishing the miners cheap transportation to and from the mines. An electric power company stationed at Canon City, 25 miles away, furnishes power to the mines of the district, and it is expected will eventually supersede steam. In the Cripple Creek territory there are mines that are capitalized at over ten billions of dollars, and some idea of their productiveness may be gathered from the fact that for the past ten months of 1898, ten of these mines have produced in dividends alone $2,131,125, and $242,750 for the month of October, and this does not include many of the private mines including the famous Independence, owned by a single individual, which is considered the greatest bonanza of the district. All this is talked about in such a matter of fact way when traveling through this modern El Dorado that one loses his conception of the unit of our circulating medium, and converses as freely of thousands and millions as an ordinary occasion he does of dollars and cents. The total output since the founding of the Camp in '91 is over $36,000,000. One mine alone—the Portland—in 1897 extracted ore to the value of $1,117,642, paying a dividend of $45,000 each.

During the afternoon some of our party visited the great Independence Mine, owned by Mr. W. D. Stratton, who it is said, is realizing about $50,000 per month from his enterprise. The story of Mr. Stratton's experience is quite interesting. When the mining district was first opened he, an ordinary carpenter, working by the day, obtained a claim at a small price and after working the mine a while threw it back on Mr. Stratton's hands. Then he sold it to another company for $25,000, who worked it in about the same way and again threw it back to Stratton. At this time he had obtained sufficient means to allow him to stock the mine with ample machinery, and he has since worked it entirely alone, and is at the present time a wealthy man living in Colorado Springs. Some went to the Victor mine at the top of Bull Mountain, and they found it another of those thrilling mountain railroads, the nature which we have described before. Returning to Victor we were again entertained at the hotel. These experiences will never be forgotten. We will say right here that we found people everywhere ready to greet us, and cordiality was unbounded. Many have the idea in their minds that this section is filled with the roughs of the earth, but such is not the case. Like all other residents whom we met the miners appeared to be imbued with the true spirit of courteous hospitality, and their conversation proved them as a class to be more intelligent and better informed than the ordinary day laborer. Many of them had grown gray in the business of mining, and had dug the precious metal from the earth in many parts of the world. Their wages averaged $3 for eight hours' work, for co-operators laborers, with larger pay for foremen. The large mines are run night and day; three gangs of workmen are employed. Considering that no provisions are raised in this section, the prices of living here seemed very reasonable, leaving the industrious man a fair margin for savings, if inclined to lay by a little for a rainy day—but the trouble seems to be that as soon as a little surplus is obtained the passion to buy stock, or prospect on his own account takes possession of the miner and it is soon dissipated, unless, perchance, as is the case with perhaps one in a hundred, he "strikes it rich" and sells out to a syndicate or opens a mine on his own account. Victor has six churches, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, Episcopal and Catholic, and a flourishing Y. M. C. A., which shows that for a mining camp only four years old its religious side is not neglected. A business men's club and a woman's club also have evidence that culture as well as enterprise has a place in this modern city of the mines. About 9 P. M. our train left Victor for Leadville and Glenwood Springs. An account of these noted places we will give in our next.

Bathing Theories.
In the summer we bathe because it is a luxurious and delicate means of securing comfort. The manner, time and temperature of the winter bath is a subject upon which the opinions of the laity, if not of physicians, are varied. Many of the common theories are false. One false opinion causing much harm to those who entertain and practice it, is that the proper time for a full bath is before breakfast. This is an error fraught with danger. We know that there are persons who can take a full bath before breakfast, and a cold one at that, and yet retain their vigor through the day. These are exceptions. As for bathing children on a subject upon which the opinions of course, refers to a full bath and not to washing of the face and hands. There are two kinds of morning baths in the winter that are not only admissible but beneficial, namely, the wet and dry friction baths. The first is taken as follows: Procure some crash or any rough material, wring this out in cool water and rub the trunk and limbs quickly, but not violently. Wipe the moisture with a soft towel and repeat the rubbing with dry hands. This can all be done in two or three minutes. The result is a delightful glow and a source of stimulation and warmth. The clothing should be put on quickly, as the skin should not be allowed to lose the new warmth, otherwise it is reprehensible. This, of course, is a better protection against cold and no better defense for sensitive lungs than the regular daily bath taken as above. A little

H. D. WEBSTER, PHOTO, CRIPPLE CREEK.

The Work of an Amateur.
"Just leave the things that need washing right on your bed," the fond mother said to her son who had gone for a soldier, but not yet gone to war, and who had come home from camp on day's furlough. His mother had seen the things she referred to in his open traveling bag in his room. "I haven't anything that needs washing," says the young soldier. "Why, those things in your dress suit case," says his mother. "Why those are my clean things," says the soldier. "Who washed them?" his mother asked. "I did," says the young soldier.—New York Sun.

As Soon As.
As soon as a man who is to write an ad, or his mind of the idea that he must say something that has never been said before, he will have gained a point. As soon as he finds out that he need not be strikingly original he will find his work half done. As soon as he finds that his ideas are the main business in hand are out of place in an ad, he will cease to rack his brains for questions with unexpected answers.

A Straight Tip.
Here is a straight tip from a newspaper called brains. "There is but one right way to advertise, and that is to hammer your name, your location, your business so constantly, so persistently, so thoroughly into the people's heads, that if they walk in their sleep they will constantly turn their steps towards your store. The newspaper is your friend in spite of your criticism. It helps to build up the community that supports you. When the day comes that the newspapers are dead the people are on the edge of the grave with nobody to write their epitaph."

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Beware of cheap imitations.
Signature of J. C. Watson

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1898.

The Candidates.

A year ago Mayor Sears went before the voters without a record, in public affairs. Even his close friends regarded him as rather young to fill the executive chair of the city, with sole authority to appoint and remove officials, but the general opinion seems to be that he has made an excellent Mayor. That he has faithfully and conscientiously and honestly discharged the duties of the office, and that 1898 has been Quincy's most progressive year. The installation of the sewer system has been pushed along rapidly and satisfactorily, without labor troubles and without discommoding the people much—certainly no more than such great works necessitate. Many extensions of the water system have been made, city stables built and a notable improvement made in many streets. But the administration is receiving the greatest praise for the continuous sidewalks of a permanent nature which have been built in all wards. To the progressive and executive ability of our Mayor, it must be recognized that his socialness is a great factor in making his administration a success. To make all the advancement noticeable and at the same time reduce the tax, and the municipal debt is a great achievement.

In the nomination of Mr. Harrison A. Keith the Democrats have been before the voters their strongest man for the Mayoralty. The ex-City Clerk has been a life-long resident of Quincy, and has long been identified in city affairs. For many years he was principal of our High School and later a member of the School Committee. Under the town form of government he was for a number of years the auditor, and under the administration of Mayor Hodges was appointed city clerk a position for which he was well adapted and which he filled with marked efficiency for four years. During all the political changes of twenty-five years Mr. Keith has served as a trustee of the Thomas Crane public library, where he is also secretary. While not a public speaker there are indications that he may become proficient. His speech of acceptance is said to have been his longest address, and good sentiment were advanced. He says he accepts the office unpledged, and that he shall make no promises. This is the efficiency for a candidate, and efficiency for all positions. His desire for a campaign free from personalities, but open to a discussion of city issues.

Real Estate Transfers.

One of the most important land deals that has taken place in Ward Two, of this city was settled Tuesday afternoon at the office of W. G. A. Fater, when Frank F. Crane, real estate agent, sold to L. G. Baker, one of Boston's millionaires who is president of the Boston Fruit Co., over 135,000 feet of Back Bay land at Point Holes. The different transfers were as follows: Andrew S. Odum to D. W. Baxter 5,204 feet. Andrew S. Odum to A. W. Wood 5,000 feet. Phoebe Lowe and Mary M. Crawford to D. W. Baxter 2,700 feet. Phoebe Lowe and Mary M. Crawford to A. W. Wood 2,575 feet. A. W. Wood and D. W. Baxter to F. G. Baker, lot No. 21 and No. 22 of the Back Bay land. Mr. Baker buys with the intention of building a fine residence and transferring his summer home from Wollaston to Quincy. Mr. Baker is a noted yachtsman, and with his new Hanley yacht will make a valuable acquisition to the Quincy Yacht club. Mr. Baker sailed for Jamaica on Thursday on the steamer Dewey, which company he has just purchased. The Dewey will carry on deck a Hanley cat boat for Mr. Baker's personal use at the island. Frank F. Crane has also sold to H. H. Baxter of Orange, N. J., a lot containing about 8,000 feet to Henry G. Hunter. For Mrs. C. E. Follett, three lots containing 5,000 feet each, and one lot containing 10,474 to W. F. Steadman, an enterprising builder, who will erect some of his good style houses on the land at once. He has also sold for Henry G. Hunter a lot containing about 8,000 feet to C. C. Hatley.

Mayorality Votes.

The vote for Mayor last year does not give the Democrats much encouragement for success this year. It shows Mayor Sears to have been elected by a majority of 300 and that he carried five of the six wards. The Democrats, however, point to the vote of Mayor Adams in 1890 and think that with a popular candidate who can draw some Republican votes that it may be duplicated this year. They say it will not require over 1750 to elect their candidate this year.

The Republicans were never more confident of victory and seem to care but little who their opponent is. Whatever disaffections there may be, will be fully offset by the gain, so that they look for no decrease in the majority of last year.

The official votes of Quincy at the last two city elections were:

	1897.	1896.
Ward One,	369	297
Ward Two,	283	219
Ward Three, Prec. 1,	182	162
Ward Three, Prec. 2,	212	124
Ward Four, Prec. 1,	219	192
Ward Four, Prec. 2,	179	181
Ward Five,	276	141
Ward Six,	248	116
The City,	1,826	1,226

More Voters This Year.

There are at the City election this year 120 more voters than last year a total of 4190. The gains have been in the Republican wards. One of the precincts of Ward Four actually lost 11 while the ward itself gained but 4. The number of voters in 1897 and 1898 are given side by side by precincts below, and also the gain or loss.

	1898.	1897.	Gain.
Ward One,	377	369	8
Ward Two,	295	283	12
Ward Three, precinct one,	469	443	26
Ward Three, precinct two,	410	395	15
Ward Four, precinct one,	408	419	-11
Ward Four, precinct two,	441	428	13
Ward Five,	413	382	31
Ward Six,	424	289	135
The City,	4,196	4,076	120

CITY BRIEFS.

The Golden Rod for November is out this week.

The first 1899 calendar in Quincy is that issued by C. F. Pettengill's.

Miss Strain of Quincy is on a visit to Mrs. John F. Curran, North street, Randolph.

Cottage avenue is open for travel again for the first time for a number of weeks.

Rev. Edward Anderson of this city preached Thanksgiving morning at the First church, Braintree, at 11 o'clock.

Several from Quincy witnessed the football game at New Haven, Saturday, between Harvard and Yale.

A successful three days fair of Klippan lodge of Good Templars closed at Faxon hall on Saturday night.

Work was commenced this week laying a second track for the street railway between Saville and Adams streets.

Mr. C. C. Mueller invites his old friends to see him at the hair dressing room of Frank Randall in the Adams building.

Miss Leila C. Ordway was married at Allston Wednesday at 3 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Tisdale attended the wedding.

The public schools closed Wednesday noon for the Thanksgiving holiday, but teachers and pupils could go out of town for Thanksgiving if they wished.

Now that the sewer is being put in on Hancock street people realize how narrow the street is from Col. Packard's estate to Music hall.

Franklin Jacobs, a past grand of Mt. Wollaston lodge, a district deputy for several years, is a candidate for Grand Instructor of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Dexter Bemick and Councilman Eliza Packard were guests Monday evening of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company at the Quincy House, Boston.

The opening entertainment of the People's course will be held this week Saturday, at concert by the Harry Bower Concert company. The admission is but ten cents.

The Noble Grands and Vice Grands of the Odd Fellows lodges in this city have been invited to a meeting for instruction to be held at Old Fellows hall, Boston, at 2 P. M., Dec. 6.

A year ago Sunday the noon temperature was 28, and two years ago 32. This year it was 20. Last year on the 24th, which is Thanksgiving day this year, the noon temperature was 27.

P. G. Jacobs, P. G. Cobb, P. G. Keith, P. G. Goodridge and Noble Grand James of Mt. Wollaston lodge, I. O. O. F., attended the dedication of the new Odd Fellows hall at Cohasset, Monday evening.

The Sewer department opened another new trench this week on Hancock street, opposite to Greenleaf street and are moving north to connect with the manhole at the corner of Hancock and Allyn street.

The Episcopal society of this city has an eventful history, being the oldest of the faith in Massachusetts. Rev. Walter Russell Bred in his anniversary sermon Sunday morning sketched the history very interestingly.

No need to go west for big vegetables. Mr. Ward Hayward of Scituate, formerly of Quincy, sent Chief Packard for the Hamblers Thanksgiving dinner some large potatoes, one weighing two and three-quarters pounds.

The first edition of 1,450 copies of the Daily Ledger on Saturday was not sufficient to supply the demand and it was necessary to put the second edition to the press and print 200. The extras had the result of the Harvard Yale game.

Frank McCarth, a member of the United States marine corps, and at present attached to the gunboat Castine, is enjoying a few days' furlough at his home in this city. The Castine is now undergoing repairs at the Charleston navy yard, but will, about the middle of December, join the vessels of the South Atlantic squadron.

A load of hay was capsize on Washington street near the corner of Canal street Tuesday. The culvert over Town brook at this point is being rebuilt, but a narrow part of the road is impassable. As the load of hay was capsize at this point the street was blocked for a time.

The Herald says: A prominent debutante this year is Miss Abigail Adams, Mrs. John Quincy Adams' daughter, and a sister of Charles Adams, 2d, who has recently become engaged to Miss Lovering. Miss Adams is a very attractive girl, with a fine presence.

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

The Herald thinks that the Quincy Yacht club has done a good thing in cutting its club house from the Y. R. A. of Massachusetts. It says, "The members of the Quincy Yacht club have just moved from the Y. R. A. and are now in a new building, which is a very fine structure, and is well adapted to the needs of the club. The Y. R. A. is a very fine building, and is well adapted to the needs of the Y. R. A. The Quincy Yacht club is a very fine club, and is well adapted to the needs of the Quincy Yacht club."

Commissioner Knowlton is doing a good job in widening and rebuilding the culvert over Town brook on Washington street. The culvert was too wide to cover with stone and old railroad iron is being used. The old rails are first laid across and then a layer of cement is put on, and this is followed by more rails and cement so that when completed the covering is fully as solid as anything can be and will last for ages.

CANDIDATE KEITH WAS 59 YEARS OLD ON TUESDAY.

The mercury was below the freezing point at sunrise yesterday.

Everybody in Quincy seemed to have plenty of turkey.

The smelts have begun to run up the river again, and excellent fishing is reported.

Mr. Arthur Keith of Washington, D. C., passed Thanksgiving with his relatives.

Judge Cook was on the bench at the District court yesterday morning. Judge Humphrey being ill.

The concrete sidewalk on Granite street between the railroad bridge and Whitwell street is completed.

Most of the ministers of the city performed a marriage at the Thanksgiving season, and some of them two.

Another letter from Co. K has been received, and there will probably be two more for the Saturday eight-page Ledger.

Michael Burns, officer of the court, has removed from Washington street to North street, into the house formerly occupied by Harvey Smith.

Benjamin F. Curtis goes to Washington next Wednesday for the winter. He will visit his son who is in the navy construction department.

Built upon honor by citizens of Quincy, a model building fitted with every convenience, sun up in a few words the new city stables which are now completed and in use.

The new signs at the entrance to Quincy Music hall are beautiful and attract the attention of the passers by and show the enterprise of the owners in making Quincy Music hall still more attractive.

There was quite a crowd at the District court Wednesday to hear the Kenney-Dates libel case, but they were disappointed, the case being again postponed on account of the absence of the plaintiff's counsel.

At the organ recital at Bethany church on Monday evening next Jennie Hosking Hunt the organist will be assisted by Miss Ella M. Carke. The Hunt will play music of Mendelssohn, Rink, Wey, Salome and Rossini.

The Quincy Young Men's Christian Association is endeavoring to secure Gen. James A. Beaver, an ex-Governor of Pennsylvania, as a speaker at the Business Men's banquet on Dec. 7. Gen. Beaver is on the War Investigating Committee.

A large audience did not greet Miss Jean Howison at Colonial hall, Monday evening, which was a great pity as her lecture recital from "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush" was one of the best things ever given to the Quincy public.

The engagement is announced of Miss M. Estelle Root and John Jamieson Johnston of Hartford, Ct. Miss Root is very popular among the young society people of Quincy, and has been known in Quincy where she has been visiting recently.

E. W. H. Bass, the Overseer of the road, distributed 500 pounds of turkey among the worthy families of Quincy, the same being paid for out of the Johnson trust fund. Something like sixty families received the turkeys for Thanksgiving.

There will be a meeting of the Fragment society in the Unitarian chapel Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 20th, at 2 o'clock. The ladies who are to serve on the supper committee at the church social, Wednesday, Dec. 7th are requested to be present at this meeting.

Mr. Baker, who has just purchased the large tract of land at Point Holes, was surprised and pleased to recognize in his obliging cashier of the National Mt. Wollaston bank, Mr. Horace F. Spear, an acquaintance that he had met in the island of Jamaica where Mr. Spear was spending a vacation.

The Adams Chapter was represented at the regular Friday afternoon reception of the D. R.'s in their rooms in the Tremont building. Mrs. William Rudwick, Mrs. E. G. Pratt and Mrs. William F. Cummings serving as hosts. Mrs. Henry Sanger Snow, New York, President General and Miss Sterling also of New York, received with Miss Hunt, State Agent.

Mrs. Rhines gave her usual holiday luncheon party for the young people at Faxon hall, which was attended by 60 or more. Music was furnished by a band of young people, and the evening was very enjoyable.

A picture of "Lawson" one of Dr. W. G. Randall's valuable dogs, appeared in an illustrated article on the rise of the Boston terrier in the Sunday Herald.

Miss Annie Ago of Glover avenue has been quite ill.

Mr. Robert Scholes of Connecticut, is visiting his son Mr. W. I. Scholes of Billings street.

The Compass whist club of Atlantic had their first meeting of the season on November 16 with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wilde, Billings street. After two hours of whist the prizes were awarded to Mrs. H. W. Read and Mrs. James E. Curtis, Mr. H. W. Read and Mr. R. H. Wilde. This is one of the oldest whist clubs in Quincy and is composed of twenty members, nearly all of whom are well known to the club since its organization.

The catch basin has at last been put in on Sagamore street and the drainage is very good now.

No improvement has been made in Ward Six by the city for a long time that has given the satisfaction of the new sidewalk from the depot to Gurney's store.

Auctioneer Crane held two sales Thanksgiving morning one being the Thompson Baxter estate on Chestnut and Canal streets. Lot number one which included the house was sold to C. Theodore Harwick for $8,000; lot number two, to W. F. Steadman for $1,000; number three to Edward Clark for $1,475 and number four to George F. Spooner for $917.00. The Sarah N. Wood estate at Wollaston was sold to Mr. Hunniman of Boston for $1,650.

Wednesday Mrs. Morris of Cottage avenue had occasion to enter a small building in the rear of her home, which rested on the bank of Town brook. While in the building the bank which had become undermined gave way and the building fell over into the brook down. Mrs. Morris' cries soon brought help but it was not until night, 10:30; instead for $1,000. The house was owned by Mrs. Andrew Cockley.

There is a barbed wire fence on the wall along the Brackett estate on Hancock street that is not only a nuisance but dangerous and against the law and should be removed. Several ladies who have occasion to use the sidewalk in this vicinity complain that in walking by the fence, especially when there is a high wind, there wraps are blown against the barbed wire and torn. The fence in question was placed on the wall several years ago to keep young men from roosting there and it has served its purpose well and should now be removed before someone meets with a serious injury which would end in a suit against the city.

WOLLASTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Waterhouse of Wollaston have returned from Mr. Ketchikan, Alaska, with four handsome deer. They are on exhibition at C. H. Baker's store.

The union Thanksgiving service at Wollaston was held at the M. E. church. There was a good attendance. The sermon was preached by the Rev. J. E. Waterhouse.

The Wollaston Golf club has raised the $5,000 necessary to secure the property known as the Evans farm for its new grounds. The property is owned by John H. Pray of Boston. The price paid for it was $25,000—$2,000 cash, the balance to remain on a mortgage. There are 96 acres in this farm, which includes the beautiful hill known as Mt. Hope. The club will erect a commodious house on its new grounds.

The course of lectures at the Wollaston Unitarian church will be opened next Monday evening by Rev. Thomas Van Ness of Boston.

Dr. Charles S. Adams of Wollaston, has been suffering from a severe cold the past week.

Miss Helen Foster of Wollaston has so far recovered from her recent illness as to be able to visit friends at Abington.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Waterhouse of Wollaston have had good shooting in the Maine woods. They each shot a deer.

Mrs. Fred C. Merrill gave a subscription list at the Wollaston hotel on the evening of Nov. 16. There were 32 tables. The proceeds were given to the Women's Alliance, connected with the Wollaston Unitarian society. The first table was won by Mrs. D. K. Swartwood, and the second by Mrs. R. W. Poole. The first gentlemen's prize was won by Mr. F. Shurtleff, and the second by Mr. A. E. Linnell.

Carrie E. Roggles Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, of Wollaston, gave a cost supper at Odd Fellows hall on Monday evening at seven o'clock. The tables were crowded with members of the lodge. The supper was well served and would have suited the most fastidious epicure.

Alyceone Whist club has been recently organized at Wollaston with these officers: President, Mrs. J. C. Haskins; Vice President, W. F. Nichols; Secretary, William A. Jordan. Members: Mr. and Mrs. William A. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Read, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wilde, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Haskins and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Read.

A very pleasant reception was given to Corporal George A. Wardwell of Co. F, Fifth Massachusetts regiment, by his many friends at Odd Fellows hall, Wollaston, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Eliab Ramsell purchased this week from the heirs of John W. Shaw, the vacant lot corner of Hancock and Myrtle street, containing 9,000 square feet of land, for $10,000. The lot is now being subdivided into lots of twenty-five dollars in cash.

The funeral services of Capt. Nathan G. Glover, the son-in-law of the late Washington M. French, were held from the residence of ex-Councilman William B. Glover at Atlantic yesterday.

The funeral services of Mrs. M. E. Glover, the wife of the late Mr. M. E. Glover, were held at Music hall, Atlantic, Thanksgiving by the

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1898.

A TERRIBLE STORM.

The Most Severe of Any Known for Many Years.

The first snow storm of the season commenced last Saturday evening and proved to be the most severe and disastrous of any we can remember along our coast. The amount of property destroyed is many thousands of dollars but it is insignificant compared to the large number of lives. More lives were lost than in any battle in Cuba. Not one of over one hundred on the Steamer Portland were saved. The number already reported is over two hundred.

It is impossible to mention all who have met losses by this storm, but there are hundreds in Quincy alone. The loss by some is small, a few chimneys, or trees; by others quite heavy. We give quite an extended report on the next page.

Congress.

Congress assembled on Monday next. Most of the Senators and Representatives have already arrived in Washington. Now that the Spaniards have conceded all that our Government has asked, the only obstacle is the ratification of the treaty by the Senate.

Senator Hoar is out with the declaration that he does not believe the treaty will be agreed to, nor that it ought to be agreed to. The grounds of his protest are that in buying out Spain's sovereignty over the Philippines for $20,000,000 we have taken something from the bargain counter which was not theirs to sell, and that the American constitution never conferred the right upon anybody to make such a purchase, while none of our former purchases afford valid precedents for what has been done at Paris.

"Few people will care," says the Boston Globe, "to take Senator Hoar seriously when he brings such objections to the ratification of the treaty. We have purchased no sovereignty from Spain, nor have we attempted to purchase any. We demanded that Spain relinquish sovereignty in the Philippines, but there was no purchase money in the transaction, nor does Spain's relinquishment imply the assumption of perpetual control of the islands on our part. The treaty does not bind us to undertake the expense of controlling the islands in the future. We are not even bound to hold them permanently, but can dispose of them as we see fit. We are not, in fact, compromised to any definite policy in the Philippines, but have merely demanded that Spain take herself off the premises."

Senator Lodge is emphatically in favor of the treaty; and it will probably be ratified by the present Senate, but surely after the Senate that comes into power by March 4th next.

Route of Boynton R. R.

Now that the City Council has granted the Boynton Bicycle railroad a location there is considerable interest manifested as to where the line will pass through. Engineer Tupper, who laid out the line furnishes the following information.

Starting from the Braintree line, the route passes through land of the Adams Real Estate Trust, land of John Q. A. Field, the Baker estate, the other lot of the Adams Real Estate Trust, land of Granite Co., through the lot of B. Ferris, Nicol Granite Co., M. J. Lennon's stable, land of J. E. Perkins, J. Cole, G. Craig, F. Craig, R. Smith, Charles Wilson, George Cameron, J. Pierce, John Wilson, Charles V. Brown, a lot owned of which is not known, J. Francis, two lots owned of which not known.

Across Centre street and through rear of house of Mrs. Neasey, and R. W. Beard, between two houses of W. Conover, rear of house of James Rose, Peter Dolan, over Cary's granite works and across Copeland street.

Through land of Mrs. Eliza Donaher, D. Lacey, Michael Shea estate, J. W. Fierman, Mr. Berry, John Fallon & Sons, T. J. Lamb, W. D. Burns, Mrs. Catherine Martin, Thomas Grignon, Mrs. W. H. Ripley's orchard, W. H. Teasdale, estate of John Burke, and land of B. W. Reardon.

Through Reardon's field in front of Mrs. Malone's house, through land of H. T. Whitman, Francis C. Adams, land of H. T. Whitman and Richard Paulson, Jacob Eaton estate, Joseph W. Robertson estate, across Adams street through the corner of J. W. Brackett estate. Across Greenwood street to land of heirs of Joseph Beale.

Thence through the corner of J. M. Forbes estate to Beale street, through land of Wollaston Land Co. and through Whitney swamp and land known as Bellevue park, to the west of the Golf club house.

Across Squantum street at its junction with Highland avenue, through land of A. MacClellan and others, land of Mrs. Jane M. Pope, through Billings swamp.

Across Granite branch of the New Haven railroad, through land of H. W. Hunt, through Myrtle street, and across Walnut street. Through the stable of J. J. Kerrigan and through meadow land of the Glover heirs.

Through land of William Savage, heirs of John A. Duggan, across Newbury street, through land of F. Safford and heirs of John A. Duggan. Across River street through meadow land of Glover heirs to Hancock street to Neponset.

Stephen P. Andrews.

The funeral of Mr. Stephen P. Andrews of Quincy occurred at his home, 3 Robertson street, on Friday, Nov. 25, conducted by Rev. Edward Norton of Quincy. Burial at Gloucester, Mass.

Mr. Andrews was born at Pleasant Ridge, Maine, March 28, 1826, and was, through his mother, a direct descendant of Gov. Simon Bradstreet, the last colonial governor of Massachusetts.

At the age of 21, Mr. Andrews went to Rockport, Mass., and learned the stone cutting trade. Some years later he moved to Gloucester, where he eventually built up a large and flourishing business. After more than twenty years of business life in Gloucester, Mr. Andrews came to Quincy, early in 1881, and took charge of the quarry of the G. T. Rogers Granite Co., which position he held for a number of years.

The deceased was a man of robust constitution though of late years somewhat subject to heart trouble. Last summer while in Maine he suffered from an attack of pneumonia from which he apparently recovered. He returned home on election day in fairly good health, but became very soon violently ill from a severe attack of indigestion and heart trouble, which resulted in his death after two weeks' illness.

Mr. Andrews was an Odd Fellow, member of Ocean Lodge, Gloucester, for many years. Also a member of the Congregational church at Gloucester for more than 30 years. He was a devoted Republican and a respected citizen. He is survived by a widow, one sister and three brothers.

CITY BRIEFS.

Wintery indeed. It is called "button hole" campaign. Many a house rocked Saturday night. First sleighing of the winter Sunday.

The boys are getting out their double runners. The ministers took an involuntary holiday on Sunday.

Winter came late, but it has started in severely to make up for lost time. Most time for boat sleighs and the familiar blowing of the horn.

The two chimneys on the Universalist church were blown off in the storm.

This is one of the weeks when every voter receives something through the mail.

George H. Wilson lost the flag staff at his house on Canal street during the storm.

Dr. Ralph Fogus has been called to mourn the death of his mother this week.

Large trees on Dr. Everett's estate on Elm street were rooted up by the storm.

The Granite Clothing store reports a big demand for winter suits, flannels and mits.

Election extras will be issued by the Daily Ledger next Tuesday evening. Boys wanted.

The gate was so severe on Sunday that the tide ebbed only one-third of the way out.

Five ventured out Sunday morning to attend service at Bethany Congregational church.

George H. Phinney, manager for the Quincy Beef Co., is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

The last week in November 1898 will not soon be forgotten by the citizens along our shores.

Up to the present time this has been the quietest municipal campaign that Quincy has ever had.

Owing to the storm the Mother Goose entertainment was postponed. The date will be announced later.

The telephone boys have a large gang of men at work rebuilding the lines blown down by the storm.

Work resumed Monday in spite of the snow, on the sewer trenches on Hancock street near the High school.

One of the school teachers who spent Thanksgiving on Cape Cod has not been able to return because of the storm.

Loads of wreckage were carted from Houghs Neck Thursday and plenty of fire wood can be obtained along the shore.

Chief Packard and Superintendent of Fire Alarm Wight have succeeded in getting all of the circuits in working order again.

The old wooden snow shovel must go; a new light iron shovel with a long handle has made its appearance and is a useful article.

The beach house at Ruff's Hummock, owned by Mr. Theophilus King and others, which was totally destroyed, cost about $1,500.

The teachers and some few pupils reported at school Monday morning, but there were so few it was useless to try and keep school.

Candidate Keith's boat house on the Quincy shore was carried away by the storm and but little remains to mark the spot where it stood.

About 25,000 feet of lumber was floating around Town river Monday from Johnson's lumber yard. It was all piled up with sea weed.

Mert Alden and Mr. Dicknell of Weymouth were on Raccoon island during the storm. They say the water blew entirely across the island.

George W. Jones had a phenomenal sale in rubber boots, arctic and winter goods on Monday, and some incident on purchasing Sunday.

Hon. John Shaw and family will occupy the residence of Mr. Benjamin F. Curtis, at the corner of Washington and Elm streets, this winter.

The transom over the entrance to E. Wadsworth & Co.'s store was blown open Sunday, and the snow which entered did considerable damage.

Every man who wanted a job shoveling on Monday, had it if he had a shovel, and before night Commissioner Knowlton had on a gang of fully 400 men.

The gunning stand on the Adams beach, owned by Messrs. J. C. Morse, H. T. Whitman, C. R. Morse, R. H. Jones was entirely demolished. The guns were saved.

Mr. Frederick Allison Tupper, head master of the High school, was among the Harvard men who gave Governor-elect Roosevelt a reception Saturday evening at the Somerset club.

Corporal Harry J. Matthews of Co. K is at home on a twenty days' furlough. Harry wears a very pretty watch on his left wrist, made in the shape of a bracelet. He is looking well.

A fauce in the Y. M. C. A. rooms was left open Tuesday night, and the outfit having become stepped up, the water went down through the floor and damaged the stock of G. B. Bates on the floor below somewhat.

The indications are that Major Morrison, late of Co. K of Braintree, will become lieutenant colonel, and that Capt. Hanson and Capt. Claire will become majors. Then Lieut. Whitney may become a captain.

The barbed wire fence along the Nancy Brackett estate on Hancock street, to which attention was called last week, was removed Saturday. Commissioner Knowlton acted promptly when it was called to his attention, and the owners that it was against the law.

The funeral of Mark Swift was held Friday, Nov. 25, at 2:30 P. M., from his late residence at Germantown, and was attended by Rev. E. W. Preble of the Universalist church. Mr. Swift was in his 74th year. He had been sick about two years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fenno of Cabot street, Newtonville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Maude Upson, to Mr. William Shattuck Osborne of Weymouth.

Osborne is the son of Mr. W. W. Osborne, who recently resided on Bigelow street, Quincy.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall P. Nye of Coddington street are soon to leave Quincy and make their home in Methuen with their son. Mr. and Mrs. Nye will be missed as they have many friends here. They were active workers in the Universalist society and will be a great loss to the church.

The street railway began Tuesday to cars on all its lines except the Quincy avenue. The delay here is due to several large poles being down across the track and street. In some places where the trolley wire was down it was necessary for the railroad to put on a watchman to keep thieves from stealing the wire.

Mr. Andrews was an Odd Fellow, member of Ocean Lodge, Gloucester, for many years. Also a member of the Congregational church at Gloucester for more than 30 years. He was a devoted Republican and a respected citizen. He is survived by a widow, one sister and three brothers.

WOLLASTON.

The Wollaston W. C. T. Union will meet on Friday, Dec. 9, in the Congregational church.

The Wollaston laundry has changed management. Mr. Sampson having gone to Cambridge.

The bench main of the Brook street sewer will not extend beyond Farrington street. From that point to Highland avenue, a 12 inch pipe will be used.

Mr. George Drew of Wollaston and two of his children were at their summer cottage at Green Harbor to spend Sunday. They escaped from the house but a few moments before it was blown to pieces and engulfed by a great wave.

Fenno street, Wollaston, was blocked by the falling of two large trees.

The flag pole on the Wollaston Hotel blew over and crashed through the roof of Sam Yick's laundry. When the pole came crashing through their room their guests stood right up straight.

A letter from Bangor, Me., says F. P. Waterhouse and Adel Waterhouse of Quincy were among the recent successful hunters in Maine, getting two deer each.

The Wollaston Park club had a very successful shoot on their grounds Thanksgiving morning resulting in the following parties, obtaining their dinner from the bridge house.

There at the right time: A. L. Baker, one turkey; Mr. Cook, one turkey; C. V. Sarrett, two turkeys; C. L. Prescott, one turkey; and Mr. Nole, two turkeys. Bates, Byrne, White, Marsh, Brainard, Noyes and others were present. About 700 blue rocks were thrown.

Captain McLean of the steamer "John J. Hill," ashore at Ruff's Hummock, states that no attempt will be made to float this vessel this winter. He will strip her and use the pumps to haul her off until the high tides in the spring.

Rev. Edward Norton of the Congregational church was faithful to his duties Sunday morning. He walked to the depot for a train, but there was none and he walked to the church. Nine people assembled but no service was held.

The post office employees have had a busy time this week canceling stamps on the large amount of political literature that has been sent out.

The carriers, however, are the men who are most overworked, for it is hard work getting about in this kind of weather.

While the storms have been very disastrous they have furnished work for a large number of citizens shoveling snow, not only for the city but for the street railway, and again has the old saying proved true that it is an ill wind that does no one any good.

An examination proves that the Universalist church was more seriously damaged by the storm than at first supposed. The falling chimney tore the slate, broke the boards and the rafters underneath, and on one side necessitated quite extensive repairs.

No license rallies will be held on Sunday evening at Quincy Mass. M. E. church, Park and Downs church, Atlantic Methodist church, and in one of the Swedish churches; also in the afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

While the horse and sleigh of W. B. Barker was standing at Rogers Brothers store Thursday a snow slide from the Adams building frightened the horse and he started on the run. Officer Ferguson, who was near City Hall, stopped him before any damage was done.

The Unity Circle of King's Daughters held an attractive sale and entertainment Wednesday evening. Bethany chapel was most attractive in its decorations. Each season was represented by a fancy booth, where were furnished for sale the offerings of its month. The entertainment was of the carnival and repeated Thursday evening.

Erick Anderson, the man who was found shot in the head at Merrymont park, Tuesday afternoon, was removed to the Quincy City Hospital on Wednesday. Before he was taken there he admitted that he was despondent and determined to make way with himself. His occupation is that of a sailor, and as far as could be learned from him he has remained in no place for any great length of time.

A dispatch of Wednesday from Greenville, S. C., says Maj. Morrison, formerly of Co. K, is in command of the Fifth Massachusetts regiment at Camp Wetherill. This honor comes because of sickness which calls Gen. Lincoln home, which places Col. Whitney in charge of the brigade.

Capt. Stover commands the 1st battalion which includes Co. K of Braintree.

The store keepers along Hancock street will be more than glad when the Sewer department completes its work. As it is now, the larger part of the sidewalk is covered up with gravel and at best walking is not any too good. Then again the storekeepers, especially those who deal in Christmas goods say that unless the weather holds good the present condition of the trench and gravel will be detrimental to their trade. It is about time to stop work for the season. No new trenches should be opened.

The officers elect and appointive of Rural lodge, F. A. M., were privately installed Thursday evening at the regular communication, by Mr. W. Charles B. Lawrence, district deputy of the 24th Masonic district, and suite. As the elective officers are the same and only minor changes were made in the others:

Worshipful Master, Henry L. Kincaid.

Senior Warden, W. H. Whitney.

Junior Warden, F. W. Brett.

Treasurer, E. W. H. Bass.

Secretary, Walter E. Simmons.

Chaplain, Rev. C. F. H. Crahan.

Master, F. A. Massey.

Senior Deacon, H. F. Pierce.

Junior Deacon, Joseph P. Pout.

Senior Steward, H. W. Gore, Jr.

Junior Steward, John McKnight.

Inside Sentinel, Perley R. Glass.

Tyler, John D. Nitting.

There was an exemplification of the work, followed by refreshments. Rural lodge is in a flourishing condition.

G. A. R. Officers.

Paul Revere Post, 88, G. A. R., elected these officers at its meeting Thursday night:

Commander, William H. Warner.

S. V. Commander, John D. Williams.

J. V. Commander, Edward J. Lennon.

Surgeon, H. C. Halliwell, M. D.

Chaplain, James F. Merrill.

Quartermaster, Andrew W. Gardner.

Office of the Day, Warren Dunbar.

QUINCY POINT AND NECK.

The new house of boat builder Smith at Quincy Point was taken off the piles which supported it and carried inland. Schooner loaded with stone smashed into Quincy Point bridge. The bridge was flooded with water.

J. L. Whiton's chimney was blown down.

Ice from limbs of trees broke glass in several houses.

The stern of the yacht "Say When" was broken in.

The power house of the street railway on Wharf street was flooded.

A large tree in front of George Crane's house on Washington street was blown down, even with the ground and fell about three feet from his house.

An electric car and a plough were stalled on Washington street.

A strong wind created a great sea around Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

The tide was so high that it flooded over South street fully a foot deep, making passing impossible for two hours at the head of Bent's creek on Howard street.

At Quincy Point Sunday residents were greatly inconvenienced by the Quincy Neck, and so fierce was the storm that the houses shook and trembled all Saturday night. Fences were blown down and posts snapped off even with the ground, and limbs from trees were torn away and strewn all over the beach.

WEST QUINCY.

About 10:30 A. M. on Friday, Nov. 25, the chimney of the house of Timothy Reardon, at the corner of Bates and O'Connor avenue was discovered to be on fire. Fire 4 was notified and responded, extinguishing the fire without an alarm.

West Quincy suffered but little by the storm. There are one or two poles down and a tree or so broken off, but the streets are not badly drifted, and what little there was in West Quincy proper was quickly cleared away.

On Adams street, however, there was a tremendous bank near the corner of Common street and Commissioner Knowlton had a large gang of men at work all day Monday at this point. There were some few places in West Quincy where the snow drifted so that the business section did not suffer.

The greatest inconvenience to West Quincy people by the storm is the train service. The road bed of the New Haven road between Granite avenue and Squantum street was washed away in order to reach Boston from East Milton and West Quincy the people must go to Braintree and then down the main line. In coming from Boston it was fully as bad for passengers had to come out on the main line and then down the branch. Tuesday however the electric car service was resumed and most people came to Quincy Adams or Quincy for their train.

The first grand fair of St. Mary's parish was opened at St. Mary's hall Monday night, and although the weather was greatly against a large attendance there were many present. Numerous tables were arranged about the hall for the sale of various articles of a useful and fancy nature, each table being named for one of the West Quincy societies, such as Foresters, Fiberglass, Knights of Columbus, etc. The tables were all up stairs in the hall, the lower floor being used as a refreshment room. Owing to the electric wires being out of order, oil lamps had to be used for light which prevented the hall from looking as brilliant as usual.

Work has been generally suspended this week in the stone sheds and quarries.

The last three days of the St. Mary's church fair have been postponed until next week.

The city teams were at work at West Quincy Thursday morning, clearing the snow which they dumped in vacant fields.

Mrs. A. C. Roberts of Crescent street is assisting Postmaster Pearce at East Milton until he gets the train of the office.

The telephone and telegraph wires on Willard street suffered considerably by the two storms and a temporary cable has been put in use.

J. S. Fisher, one of the milkmen who starts from Quincy Neck, was thoughtful for the welfare of the infant daughter of Mayor Sears, and braved the storm on foot to deliver milk. He had a rough experience.

The Congregational church at Shelbourne Falls has voted to extend a call to Rev. A. A. Youtz of Middlefield.

Quincy has a bridge of light trestles for the passage of the railroad structure has been examined and found to be all right and the street cars are running over it as usual.

The Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D. D., Bishop of Massachusetts will administer the rite of Confirmation in the Mission of Our S

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Carpets and Upholstery

Our stock is by far the largest in Boston and includes many private patterns obtainable nowhere else.

Our prices are always at the bottom of the market.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
658 Washington St., Boston.
(Telephone 1011)

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

NEW QUINCY MARKET,
A. GUNSEHNER, Prop.
Telephone 312, Oxford.
Corner Albany and Kneeland Streets, close to Albany and Old Colony Depots.
Branch of Wholesale Beef House, 45 and 46 South Market St., Boston.

A WORD TO THE WISE IS PROFICIENT.
We buy from producers and sell to consumers, and you save the middleman's profit.
Look at our prices and see if you cannot save a dollar by trading with us.

NOTE THE FOLLOWING PRICES:

Fine Vermont Turkeys, 15c. per lb.
Chickens, 15 to 20c. lb.	Fowl, 10c. to 15c. lb.
Rib Roast, 6, 12 to 15c. lb.	Pork's Fresh Sausage, 10c. lb.
Ham Steak, 15c. lb.	Frankfurts, 10c. lb.
Sirloin Steak, 15c. lb.	Pigs Feet, 10c. lb.
Lamb Chops, 15c. lb.	Honeycomb Tripe, 10c. lb.
Mutton Chops, 15c. lb.	Plain Tripe, 10c. lb.
Short Legs Choice Lamb, 12 1/2 to 15c. lb.	Sugar Cured Ham, 10c. lb.
5-lb. Tub Butter, $1.00	Smoked Shoulders, 8c. lb.
Ham Steak, 3 lbs. 25c.	Free Pork, 8c. lb.
Fore Quarter Lamb, 7c. lb.	10 lb. Sweet Potatoes, 10c.
Pork Chops, 8c. lb.	Cranberries, 10c. qt.
Corned Beef, 5 to 10c. lb.	All other goods in proportion.

Quincy Amounting to $2.00 or More Delivered at Our Expense.

Holiday Announcement.
OUR LAST YEAR AT THE OLD STAND.

Our Holiday Stock of Toys, Games, Jewellery, Silverware and Xmas Novelties will be offered during the Holiday Season at Quincy Prices. February 1st we vacate our present store to remove to still more commodious quarters, the rapid increase of business in our Bicycle, Bicycle Supply and Athletic Lines making the change a necessity. Our complete stock must absolutely be closed out, consequently, prior to date of removal, and in order to insure this result we propose to effect it.

Friends and Customers some Very Tempting Bargains.

In greater part our stock is comprised of this Autumn's importations and contains many new and unique novelties not shown elsewhere. We solicit an early call before the assortment is broken and while we can give you such attention as would be impossible during the rush of Christmas week.

The attention of Church Fair Committees is called to the many desirable goods in our stock suitable for the little fairs offered at very interesting prices.

Respectfully HORACE A. PARTRIDGE CO.,
55 and 57 Hanover Street, BOSTON.

HOUGHTON & DUTTON.
The Origin 1 Department Store of New England.

Household Supplies.
Over Fifty Departments, each on a complete store in itself.

ALWAYS the lowest priced store in this part of the country.

Come in and see the New Store, now just finished. It is one of the finest in this country.

REMEMBER THAT WE ARE THE AUTHORIZED AGENTS OF

Santa Claus

and that in everything pertaining distinctly to Christmas, we are far and away the leading house of New England.

Tremont, Beacon, and Somerset Streets, and Pemberton Square, BOSTON, MASS.

Boys' Reefers.
A good warm Chinchilla Reever, deep Sailor Collar, cut Double Breasted, button to neck. Ages 3 to 8 years.

Oak Hall Clothing Co.,
95 to 105 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM CO.,
150 Tremont St., BOSTON.

ICE CREAMS and SHERBETS. Families, Fairs and Parties Supplied.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO CHURCHES AND FAIRS.

E. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582.

THE PLACE TO BUY... ARTISTIC

WE LIGHT

McKENNEY & WATERBURY, 181 FRANKLIN ST., BOSTON.

Clocks.

In our weekly goods we tell you many things about this delightful Quincy store, but by no means all, for hints only are possible.

Our Clock Department. Nothing so essential in a well equipped home as a reliable clock.

Here we have hundreds to choose from, in the very newest, most delightful and attractive cases, that are both ornamental and serviceable. Genuine French Clocks, Kitchen Clocks, Mantel Clocks, Clocks, Alarm Clocks, Kitchen Clocks, Alarm Clocks. If you want genuine downright clock comfort, without the usual guessing, try one of our clocks. Not at regular clock store prices, though, wonderfully low prices even though the clock department. Clocks from 75 cents to $10.00.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
RELIABLE, LOW PRICED HOME FURNISHERS.
Hancock Street, - - Quincy.

McGREGOR BLOCK,
ALLEYNE TERRACE.

TO LET to first-class parties only, as private residences, the new houses Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 McGregor Block, Alleyne Terrace; locations and conditions A No. 1; bright, sunny exposures; moderate rents to right parties. Also house No. 4.

Apply to A. C. KEITH on the premises, or to E. STODDARD, 28 Bromfield street, Boston, from 1 to 2 P. M.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1898.

WEEKLY
MASSAC.	Rate 50c. per copy.
Monday, Dec. 3	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Tuesday, Dec. 4	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Wednesday, Dec. 5	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Thursday, Dec. 6	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Friday, Dec. 7	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Saturday, Dec. 8	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Sunday, Dec. 9	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Monday, Dec. 10	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Tuesday, Dec. 11	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Wednesday, Dec. 12	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Thursday, Dec. 13	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Friday, Dec. 14	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Saturday, Dec. 15	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Sunday, Dec. 16	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Monday, Dec. 17	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Tuesday, Dec. 18	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Wednesday, Dec. 19	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Thursday, Dec. 20	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Friday, Dec. 21	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Saturday, Dec. 22	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Sunday, Dec. 23	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Monday, Dec. 24	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Tuesday, Dec. 25	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Wednesday, Dec. 26	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Thursday, Dec. 27	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Friday, Dec. 28	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Saturday, Dec. 29	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Sunday, Dec. 30	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.
Monday, Dec. 31	5.56 4.12 3.15 2.30 1.95 P.M.

Two Weeks' Temperature.

The temperature of the week, taken at Pettengill's jewelry store, is compared below with that of last week and a year ago:
Week.	Last In.
Monday	33 41 32 70
Tuesday	33 45 43 46
Wednesday	34 44 37 38
Thursday	43 42 35 31
Friday	39 43 35 26
Saturday	35 35 23

Notes and Comments.

Mayor Sears, the Street department and the Police department were all alert during the storm to meet all requirements. Commissioner Knowlton was not able to do much with the snow ploughs, but he had many shovellers at work, and cleared several sidewalks. Chief Litchfield and his men looked after dangerous poles and wires, while Chief Packard had out a fire patrol a made preparations to cope with any fire that might be discovered.

As yet we hear no words of criticism against the administration of Mayor Sears. Until that time there is no valid reason why Republicans and Independents should withhold their support. He is better qualified than a year ago to be the executive of our city, and he has been very near being a model executive. Not only has he administered the affairs of the city successfully, but he has been fortunate in the selection of department officers; again on several public occasions he has red clothed credit by his speeches, and he has added dignity to many social gatherings where his presence is always desired. All this with the marked progress of the city the past year, shows that Quincy might make a mistake if it made a change.

Geeson-Walker.

Mr. John H. Geeson, the proprietor of the Public Market, and Miss Florence E. Walker, only daughter of S. Walker, proprietor of the New Baguette, Quincy, were united in marriage, Thanksgiving eve. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. N. Hardy of this city and was with a ring. Miss Mary Geeson of Lowell and Miss Mabel Geeson of Royalton, Vt., served as bridesmaids. Louise Carpenter was flower girl. After congratulations a wedding dinner was served. Orchestral music furnished the wedding march and entertainment at the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Geeson after a wedding trip to New York and Washington will reside at 75 Whitwell street.

Sutherland-McPherson.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wedderburn, 16 Jackson street, Quincy, when Mr. John Sutherland and Miss Edie McPherson of Quincy were united in marriage by the Rev. William Watt Dornan, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church.

Shortly after seven o'clock the friends of the bride and groom, who were received by Mr. and Mrs. Wedderburn, began to gather, until about 60 people had assembled to witness the marriage which took place at eight o'clock. Miss Mary McPherson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mr. John U. Milford, N. H., was groomsmen. The bride was handsomely gowned in white silk with lace and ribbon veil was fastened with white flowers. The bridesmaid was neatly gowned in Swiss muslin with lace and ribbon. A reception followed. Music and songs were enjoyed and a pleasant evening was spent.

The presents were many and costly. The young couple went to their new home at 16 Payne street, with the best wishes of their many friends.

School Committee.

The regular monthly meeting of the School Committee was held Tuesday night, Messrs. Porter, Field, Halliwell, Ash and Miss Adams present.

Miss Adams reported the resignation of Miss Parker of the Adams school.

Dr. Ash reported that some minor repairs to the Adams school, etc., were needed at the Willard school. The Finance Committee were authorized to make any necessary transfers.

It was voted that the room in Music hall building, Atlantic, be rented for another year at the rate of $150.

After some little discussion the Committee voted to recommend to the Committee on Supplies, with the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works, make a test relative to the economy of hard and soft coal at the Quincy school.

The Financial Statement from January 1 to Nov. 28, inclusive, was as follows:

Appropriations.	Expended.	Balance.
Salaries, $73,400	$66,019.95	$7,380.05
Fuel, 5,000	5,400.00	400.00
Janitors, 6,134	5,655.69	478.31
Transportation, 1,000	790.50	209.50
Books, Supplies, 7,500	7,696.00	196.00
Evening School, 1,200	989.21	210.79
Total	$85,000.28	$8,097.77

Meeting of Archdeaconry.

Christ church of this city will next week entertain the Archdeaconry of New Bedford. At a service on Tuesday at 11 A. M. Rev. Percy Brown of Roxbury will give an address. At noon a luncheon will be served in the rectory, to be followed at 1.30 P. M. with a business meeting.

The Nor'easter.

The severest snow storm which has visited this coast for generations raged Saturday night and all day Sunday with undiminished force. The damage which this storm caused will probably exceed that of the famous storm of Feb. 1 of last winter, which in point of severity has been seldom equaled.

There were two storm centers, one striking in the Great Lakes and working directly eastward down the St. Lawrence valley. The other came up the coast via Cape Hatteras. Both storms reached us at a day apart. One storm commenced on Saturday evening at about 7.30 o'clock. The wind was high and the snow light and drift. By midnight the storm had increased to a hurricane and the wind blew at the rate of 60 miles an hour. The barometer dropped over half an inch. The wind was dead east. The snow began to grow and drift clinging to the poles, wires and trees and packed down solid. This made trouble.

Shortly after eleven o'clock the train service on the New Haven road came to a stand still caused principally by poles falling across the tracks. The 10.30 P. M. train from Boston was hung up Atlantic by falling poles which blocked the track for an indefinite distance. The passengers were compelled to remain aboard all night, making themselves as comfortable as could be expected under the circumstances. The train was not moved until 9.30 Sunday forenoon.

The 11.30 P. M. outward train made a similar fate being hung up at Pope's Hill and was not able to get away until the middle of Sunday forenoon.

The 11.12 P. M. train from Quincy was stalled opposite the Tubular River & Stud Co.'s works, Wollaston. Passengers on this train had a miraculous escape from serious injury. The train was brought to a standstill by a pole which had been blown down and completely demolishing the stack and head light. Another pole toppled over, landing between two of the passenger cars, giving the occupants a scare. Two of the passengers, Brockton men, left the train and put up at the Wollaston hotel. In the morning the 1.00 P. M. train took them over to Field's corner. By ten o'clock Sunday morning the train crew cut the train clear.

Several freight trains were also stalled between Wollaston and Quincy. The Wollaston freight got held up just south of the Wollaston station. At about day morning by a score of poles dropping on to the tops of the cars. This made a bad mess and necessitated hard work before the train was cleared, which was about noon.

Another water front was the severest ever known. The Steamship John J. Hill of Marine City, Michigan, came ashore at Rafe's Hammock near Merrymount park early in the morning. A large three masted schooner went ashore on the outer end of Nut Island. The schooner was blown overboard. Books, a dangerous position. Her mainmast was gone.

Another two masted schooner was beached on Moon Island. At four o'clock Sunday afternoon the second storm set in. The wind did not blow so heavy as during the night. The snow was much heavier and accumulated faster.

A large number of Quincy people were in Boston Saturday evening several at the Symphony concert, others at the theatre, when Mr. John Sutherland and Miss Edie McPherson of Quincy were united in marriage by the Rev. William Watt Dornan, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church.

Most of the Quincy people were on the 10.30 train which left Boston on time, and met with no difficulty until they reached the Atlantic side. The train stalled at Atlantic all night. The stalled cars upon the outward train were all comfortably warm, being heated from the engine. The passengers were all comfortable and many of them were sleeping. The train was not moved until 9.30 Sunday forenoon.

At the Fenmore the waves burst on the dam. This of course allowed an immense amount of wreckage to come in many places. The water was high and the tide was so high that it arose three feet in the lower story of the hotel and other buildings, causing considerable damage.

Arthur B. Dunham, the genial postmaster, has been in the basement of his stable. When the dam gave way he had hard work to save them, the water rose so fast. As it was the last 26 hours out of a flock of 40.

At Nut Island lights are along side of the three masted schooner, which was stranded on Sunday morning, discharging her cargo. She will probably be floated without difficulty.

Capt. Peterson, the lobster man on Nut Island, was quite a sufferer. He lost a large lobster, his grapple pots, his boiling house, including the boiler and his boat.

Perkins & White have four of their heavy pumps piled up on various parts of the beach.

The old willow tree, which for so many years has been a landmark at Mead's was blown over. The old house does not look natural with this tree lying on the ground.

People who live at Germantown report that they experienced a rough time Saturday night. The wind blew so hard that the trees were blown over and the houses shook and rattled, and at times during the night it seemed as though they were being blown away.

The wind blowing through Quincy walled trees, which broke off like pipe stems. Sunday morning the tide rushed across the gut leaving Germantown in a sea.

TO BE A GOLD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Remedy Quincy Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. per bottle. J. B. & Co. on each table.

BIRDS

For Christmas Gifts will be perfectly satisfactory if bought at

To the Citizens of Quincy.

The political committees representing Quincy will be many of his friends. Individually, they have been responsible, through the medium of newspaper articles and circulars, for certain statements wherein the claim credit for Mayor Sears which does not rightfully belong to him, and have represented the condition of affairs in this city to be most misleading to the citizens who are not conversant with public affairs in our city.

In the first place the claim is made that to him is due the credit for the construction of permanent sidewalks, each ward of the city. The facts are that after an agitation of this question for years the city last year formally adopted the policy of having permanent sidewalks by the City Council passing an order, introduced by Mr. Nickerson, of Wollaston, appropriating $7,000 for the construction of permanent sidewalks in all the wards of the city, which order received the approval of Hon. Charles F. Adams, 2d, December 31st, last, to take effect on January 1st, 1898.

It is needless to say that Mayor Sears had nothing to do with this and could not have prevented it if he wanted to do so. Mr. Jameson of Ward Five, the successor of Mr. Nickerson, in his capacity as Mayor, was the one who introduced the order which was subsequently passed by the City Council.

It is also true that Mayor Sears passed an order this year's Council for $25,000 for the building of permanent sidewalks, which order (paid out) to $10,000 the abutters to pay one-half the cost of the sidewalks.

It is also true that Mayor Sears was the one who introduced the order which was subsequently passed by the City Council for the building of permanent sidewalks in Quincy. These facts are a matter of record at the City Hall.

The most extraordinary claim, however, is that to Mayor Sears is due the credit of constructing the sewers within the City of Quincy, that he has effectively prevented the installation of the sewer system, and that he has employed only citizens of Quincy to do this work. The facts concerning this are that the Legislature passed an act, in 1897, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1898, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1899, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1900, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1901, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1902, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1903, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1904, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1905, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1906, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1907, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1908, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1909, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

The Legislature has also passed an act, in 1910, for the construction of sewers in Quincy, which was subsequently accepted by the citizens of Quincy and adopted by the City Council, when Mr. Hodges was Mayor, giving the exclusive authority to construct and maintain an effective system of sewers.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

21 SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

Church services are inserted in this paper without charge, but none will be accepted to run until further notice. A notice should be sent each week even if there is but a renewal. Give subject and special services when possible. Let all churches be represented. Editors.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

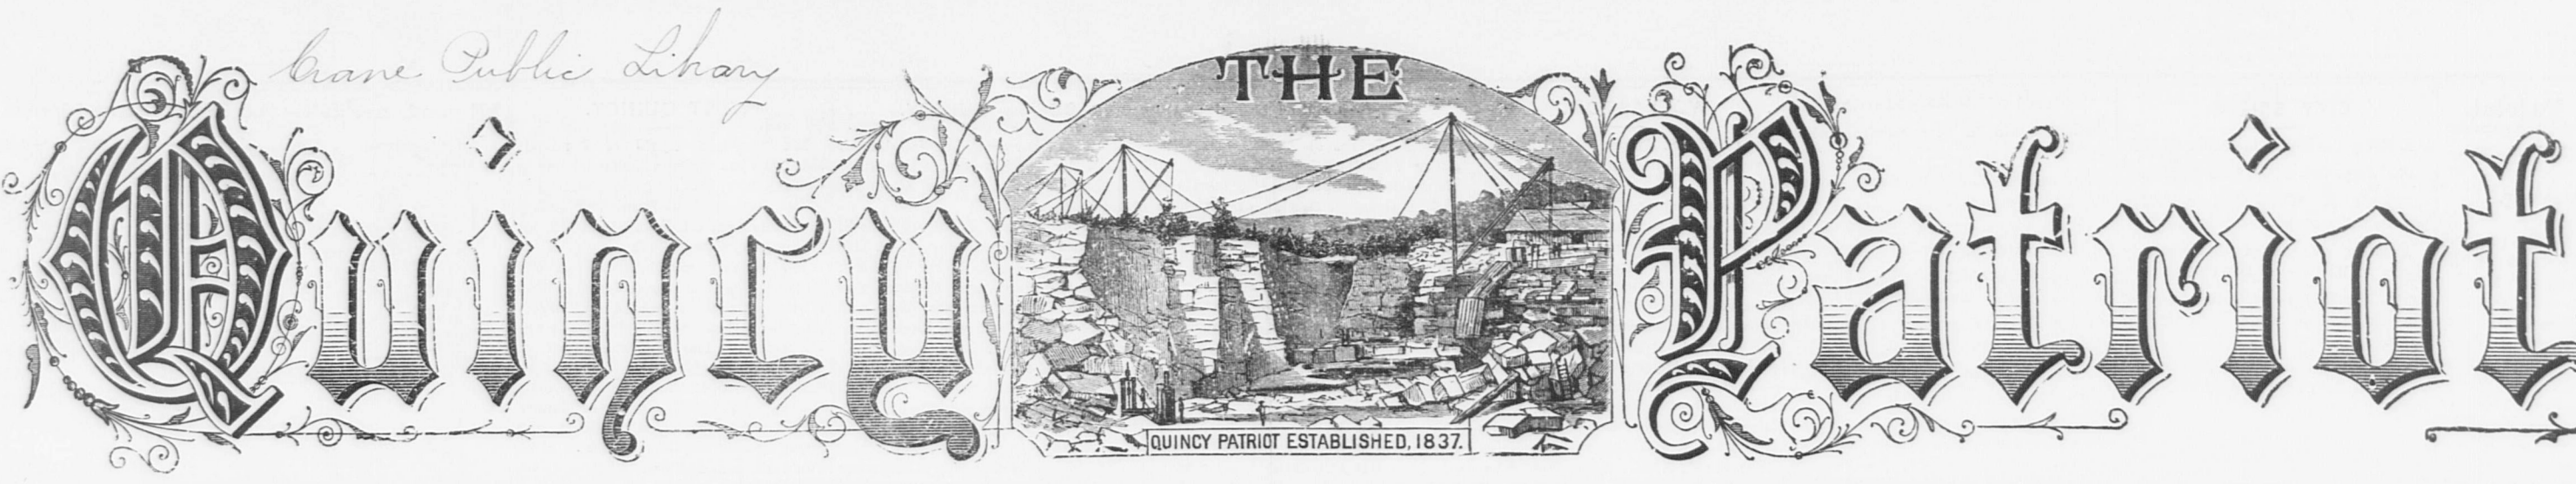

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.—Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12. M. Vesper at 4. Teachers' meeting in chapel Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITARIAN CHURCH, Quincy.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1898.

VOL. 62. NO. 50.

FIVE CENTS PER COPY; $2.50 PER YEAR.

The Quincy Patriot,
Established in 1837.
PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,
(FORMERLY GREEN & PRESCOTT)
Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.
A reduction of fifty cents will be made
when paid one year in advance.
Quincy Daily Ledger,
The Only Daily in the Only City in Norfolk
County. Established in 1889.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.
A reduction of $1 will be made when paid
one year in advance.
ALSO PUBLISHERS OF THE
Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
OFFICE, No. 115 HANCOCK STREET.

W. W. JENNESS
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW.
87 Milk St., Boston, Mass.
Office Hours, 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. Room 2.
Quincy Office, Adams Bldg.
8 to 10 A.M.; 5 to 9 P.M.
Quincy, May 26.

JOHN W. MCANARNEY,
COUNSELLOR AT LAW.
ROOM 1, DORCH & MERRILL BLOCK.
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Saturdays, at the office of CUTLER &
JENNET, 299 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11.

DR. C. T. SHERMAN
DENTIST.
Rooms 5 and 6—Dunbar & Merrill Block.
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours, 8 to 12, 1 to 5.
Residence, Greenleaf street.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
SPECIALIST, ORTHODONTIA.
REMOVED TO
No. 7 Temple Place,
New Bedford Building, Boston.
Office Hours—9 A.M. to 4 P.M.
RESIDENCE, LINDEN PLACE, QUINCY.

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 30 CHESTNUT STREET,
Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL PELHAM—Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain, with the "BEST VIBRATOR VAPOR." DEBILIM. QUINCY. NEWBORN.
At Quincy office, French's Building,
WEDNESDAYS.
At Dedham Mondays and Tuesdays.
At Norwood Fridays and Saturdays.
July 28.

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST.
Corner Newport and Grand View Avenues,
Wollaston.
Office hours—8 until 12 A.M., 1 until 5 P.M.
May 29.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D., Practitioner Limited to the Eye and Ear.
433 Boylston Street, Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 190 Hancock Street.
May 21.

J. J. KENILEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.
No. 9 Temple Street, QUINCY.
In office formerly occupied by the Citizen's Gas Light Company.
Jan. 6.

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER and BUILDER,
PEARL STREET,
SOUTH QUINCY.

WILLIAM PARKER & SON,
Carpenters and Builders.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
JOBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
HANCOCK COURT, QUINCY, MASS.

JULIUS JOHNSON,
Carpenter, & Contractor
BUILDER.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
No. 64 CENTRE ST., QUINCY, MASS.
June 19.

D. C. NELSON,
House, Sign and Carriage
PAINTING.
Estimates Furnished.
32 Atlantic Street, Atlantic.
June 12.

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting and
all branches will receive prompt attention.
RESIDENCE, QUINCY AVENUE.
All work executed in a workmanlike
manner.
March 12.

JOHN F. KEMP,
MACHINIST.
82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.
April 9.

Lehigh Coal.

When we sell you Lehigh, we deliver what we sell.

C. PATCH & SON.

H. T. WHITMAN,
Civil Engineer
AND
SURVEYOR.
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.
Boston Office, 85 Devonshire Street.
Hours, 12 to 2 P.M.
N. B. Plans of nearly all the Real Estate
in the City of Quincy can be found at my office.
May 28.

PERRY LAWTON,
CIVIL ENGINEER
AND
SURVEYOR.
Savings Bank Building, Quincy.
May 7.

JENNIE HOCKING HUNT,
TEACHER OF
Organ, Piano and Harmony,
13 Bigelow Street, Quincy.
Organist and Chorist Bethany Church,
Quincy, Sept. 21.

MISS MARTHA J. BROOKS,
Pupil of Mrs. May.
Manicure, Chiropractic, Hair Dressing
AND
FACE TREATMENTS.
Hours—8 A.M. to 6 P.M., at Room 5, Savings Bank Building.
Oct. 29.

L. W. NASH,
WOLLASTON.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Office in New Shoe Store under Wollaston Hotel.
Newport Avenue.
LEON E. NASH, Agent.

BOOTS AND SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
Nathaniel Nightingale,
GRANITE STREET, QUINCY.

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER.
Office and residence, corner of Canal and Mechanic streets,
Quincy, Feb. 6.

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 Hancock Street.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
ROBES AND HABITS.
Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes by strict attention to the wants of all callers to merit a share of patronage.

JOHN HALL,
Quincy, March 10.

DAVID BROWN,
HORSE SHOEING,
Carriage Work and General Jobbing.
Arlington Street, Wollaston.
Nov. 9.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S HUGHES NECK,
QUINCY AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

Boston Office—139 Kingston street, 96 Arch
street. Order Box 10 Faneuil Hall square.
Quincy Office—4 Chestnut street. Order
Boxes, Quincy depot, Q. & B. St. R. R. building.
C. B. Tilton, Pastor's Drug Store.
South Quincy—Quincy Adams depot, 66
Quincy street, and Barns' store.
West Quincy—Kimball's store and depot.
Leave Quincy 9 and 10 A.M. Leave Boston
1, 3 and 4 P.M.
G. M. MILLER, General Manager.
Furniture and Piano moved and stored.
Light and heavy teaming.
P. O. address, Lock Box 3, Quincy. Telephone, 298-4, Quincy.

1898.
BRADLEY'S
Unexcelled Fertilizer
For Lawn and Garden.
A. J. Richards & Son,
QUINCY GRAIN STORE.

S. SCAMMELL,
WHEELWRIGHT,
Carriage Builder
AND PAINTER.
ALSO HORSE SHOEING AND JOBING
BY FIRST-CLASS WORKMEN.
All orders promptly attended to and faithfully
executed.
Thankful for past favors, a liberal share of
patronage is solicited.

Shop Quincy Ave.

In this Building is manufactured as high a grade of Men's and Boys' Clothing
as it is possible to put together.
In quality of materials, in style, and in excellence of fit
and finish our clothing certainly is not surpassed anywhere.
Our workmen are absolutely clean and are abundantly lighted. Danger of disease is thus entirely eliminated. We invite inspection, especially by women.

MACALLAN PARKER COMPANY,
400 Washington St.—BOSTON. 400 Washington St.

Have You Tried Our Superb
Mocha and Java Coffee?
Ground While You Wait.
PASTEURIZED CREAM.
Richer and better in every way than any other Cream we have been able to obtain, and at the same price. The same as to our Private Coffee. February 1st we vacate our present store to remove to still more commodious quarters, the rapid increase of business in our Bicycle, Bicycle Supply and Athletic Lines making the change a necessity. Our complete stock will be absolutely closed out, consequently, prior to the move, and in order to insure this result
we propose to afford our
Our Entire Stock of Toys, Fancy Goods, Jewellery, Silverware and Xmas Novelties will be offered during the Holiday Season at Closing Prices. February 1st we vacate our present store to remove to still more commodious quarters, the rapid increase of business in our Bicycle, Bicycle Supply and Athletic Lines making the change a necessity. Our complete stock will be absolutely closed out, consequently, prior to the move, and in order to insure this result
we propose to afford our
Our Entire Stock of Toys, Fancy Goods, Jewellery, Silverware and Xmas Novelties will be offered during the Holiday Season at Closing Prices. February 1st we vacate our present store to remove to still more commodious quarters, the rapid increase of business in our Bicycle, Bicycle Supply and Athletic Lines making the change a necessity. Our complete stock will be absolutely closed out, consequently, prior to the move, and in order to insure this result
we propose to afford our

STAR TEA AND COFFEE STORE, Opposite the Fountain, Quincy.

Holiday Announcement.
OUR LAST YEAR AT THE OLD STAND.
Our Entire Stock of Toys, Fancy Goods, Jewellery, Silverware and Xmas Novelties will be offered during the Holiday Season at Closing Prices. February 1st we vacate our present store to remove to still more commodious quarters, the rapid increase of business in our Bicycle, Bicycle Supply and Athletic Lines making the change a necessity. Our complete stock will be absolutely closed out, consequently, prior to the move, and in order to insure this result
we propose to afford our

Friends and Customers some Very Tempting Bargains.
In greater part our stock is comprised of this Autumn's importations and contains many new and unique novelties not shown elsewhere. We solicit an early call before the assortment is broken and while we can give you such attention as would be impossible during the rush of Christmas week.

JOHN HALL,
Quincy, March 10.

DAVID BROWN,
HORSE SHOEING,
Carriage Work and General Jobbing.
Arlington Street, Wollaston.
Nov. 9.

ABBOTT & MILLER'S HUGHES NECK,
QUINCY AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

Boston Office—139 Kingston street, 96 Arch
street. Order Box 10 Faneuil Hall square.
Quincy Office—4 Chestnut street. Order
Boxes, Quincy depot, Q. & B. St. R. R. building.
C. B. Tilton, Pastor's Drug Store.
South Quincy—Quincy Adams depot, 66
Quincy street, and Barns' store.
West Quincy—Kimball's store and depot.
Leave Quincy 9 and 10 A.M. Leave Boston
1, 3 and 4 P.M.
G. M. MILLER, General Manager.
Furniture and Piano moved and stored.
Light and heavy teaming.
P. O. address, Lock Box 3, Quincy. Telephone, 298-4, Quincy.

1898.
BRADLEY'S
Unexcelled Fertilizer
For Lawn and Garden.
A. J. Richards & Son,
QUINCY GRAIN STORE.

S. SCAMMELL,
WHEELWRIGHT,
Carriage Builder
AND PAINTER.
ALSO HORSE SHOEING AND JOBING
BY FIRST-CLASS WORKMEN.
All orders promptly attended to and faithfully
executed.
Thankful for past favors, a liberal share of
patronage is solicited.

Shop Quincy Ave.

BARAINS IN ALL
Boots, Shoes and Rubbers
To Be Found at 54 Washington Street.

ELLA L. STETSON,
54 Washington Street, Quincy

Poetry.

The Game of Hearts.

PUTH BASSETT.
They played a game one evening
By the firelight's dying glow,
They laughed at the turn of fortune,
As the way luck seemed to go;
They laughed! 'Twas an idle pastime,
All free from those cutting darts
That make life seem unweary—
"Twas a simple game of Hearts."
The world is a game always playing;
All night and all day the day;
The fortune is fickle and fleeting—
The afterward endless and gray.
The practiced ones often get bored,
We all get a share of its darts.
Yet the world goes on laughing and playing
In this merciless pastime of Hearts.
Quincy, Mass.

Miscellaneous.

A MOTHER OF MAYFAIR.

Arthur Stanford was not happy. Yet he was accounted a fortunate young man as young men go: an American of good family, and with a large fortune, he had attained a position in the social world of London which not a few might envy. His rooms faced the park, he belonged to the swell set and most inane club in town, had been presented, and knew at least two dozen, not perhaps intimately, but well enough to speak to at a crush.
And yet he was not happy; in fact, he was very much put out. Up to this afternoon his existence had been fairly untroubled; nothing had occurred to mar his happiness, and he was the possessor of his money without any of the annoyances of being uncaringly hoarded. He was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at Ascot, where they had killed time in the Royal Enclosure, and had done a little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of considerable social importance who seemed
to regard his presence as in every way
necessary, and that was the Dowager
Countess of Chilton. Lady Winifred
first met her, and to her good evening.
He had met Lady Winifred first at
Ascot, where they had killed time in
the Royal Enclosure, and had done a
little betting, or rather she had bet and
he had. But there, the use
of being uncaringly hoarded. He
was in the middle and at times a dis-
quieting suspicion forced itself upon
him that London society had managed
to exist before his arrival in its midst
and might manage to struggle on without him. He was not, however, a little
view had not been completely reversed.
There was at least one person of con

A MERRY CHRISTMAS!

To all who favor us with an inspection of our offerings, we will endeavor to make it a Merry Christmas, both to the giver and receiver of Holiday Gifts.

HANDKERCHIEFS.

Plain Hemstitch, 10c., 3 for 25c.
Plain Hemstitch, 15c., 2 for 25c.
Plain Hemstitch, 20c., 3 for 50c.
Plain Hemstitch, extra fine, 25c. each.
Initial, Linen or Silk, from 15c. to $1.

NECKWEAR.

We have the latest novelties in Silks and Satins, made especially for us in all the latest shapes.
50 dozen to select from.

UMBRELLAS.

FOR THE SCHOOL GIRL, 50c. to $1.25
FOR THE LADIES, 75c. to 4.00
FOR THE GENTLEMEN, 75c. to 4.00

FANCY ARMLET.

25c., 50c., 75c.

NIGHT SHIRTS.

50c., 75c., $1.00.

Fancy Suspenders.

25c., 50c., 75c.

SLIPPERS.

For everybody, all kinds, fancy and plain—

MUFFLERS.

CASHMERE, 25c. 50c.
SILK and SATIN, 50c. to $1.50.

GLOVES.

DRESS GLOVES, $1.00 to $2.00
ANGORA GLOVES, 25c. to 50c.
WORKING GLOVES, 25c. to 1.00

SLIPPERS.

25c. to $2.00.

BLACK CASHMERE.

50c.

Don't forget we have the largest stock of all kinds and styles of Boston Rubber Shoe Co.'s first quality Rubbers in the City.

GEO. W. JONES, ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.

FACTS FOR THE PUBLIC

It is a Fact that when you buy Watches, Jewelry, and Silverware, you want something you can depend on. Why Buy Second Best, when the Very Best Costs you no more?

It is a Fact that the approach of Christmas suggests a duty and beautiful things for presents. We have many of the treasures in Gold and Silver. Come in and look them over.

It is a Fact that experienced workmen are employed in our repair department, and our reputation of doing ONLY good work has earned for us a very large patronage.

Buy a C. F. PETTINGILL'S, 126 Hancock Street, Where the Best Articles Cost You no More.

NEW QUINCY MARKET.

Corner Albany and Knollwood Streets, close to Albany and Old Colony Depots. Branch of Wholesale Fruit House, 15 and 16 South Market St., Boston.

A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT. We buy from producer and sell to consumer, and you save the middleman's profit. Look at our prices and see if you cannot save a dollar by trading with us.

NOTE THE FOLLOWING PRICES:

Fine Vermont Turkeys, 15c. per lb.
Chickens, 15 to 20c. lb.
Rib Roast, 12 1/2 to 15c. lb.
Rump Steak, 10c. lb.
Sirloin Steak, 15c. lb.
Lamb Chops, 15c. lb.
Short Legs Choice Lamb, 12 1/2 to 15c. lb.
5-lb. Tub Butter, $1.00
Hamburger Steak, 3 lbs. 25c.
Fore Quarter Lamb, 7c. lb.
Pork Chops, 5 to 10c. lb.
Corned Beef, 5 to 10c. lb.

Others Announcing to $2.00 or More Delivered at Our Expense.

Philadelphia Ice Cream Co., 150 Tremont St., Boston.

ICE CREAMS and SHERBETS. Families, Fairs and Parties Supplied. Orders Received by Mail and Express. SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO CHURCHES AND FAIRS.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

Telephone: Oxford 582. J. C. M. LAWS, Proprietor.

"Think It Over."

The place to buy HOLIDAY GOODS is at the store which has—

The Best Assortment, The Highest Quality, The Lowest Prices.

"THINK IT OVER."

Men's

Three Buckle

BEACON GAITERS.

QUINCY'S CITY ELECTION.

Vote for Mayor.

Wards	1	2	3	4	5	6	Total
Harrison A. Keith, D.,	288	214	212	208	213	214	1439
Blanks,	8	3	10	7	3	10	50

Councilmen-at-large.

William E. Badger, R.,	436	365	307	233	161	222	362	217	2106
John W. Boardman, R.,	314	233	162	204	63	166	340	221	1796
Rupert F. Claffin, D.,	374	299	217	137	212	198	121	132	1914
Alexander Clark, R.,	341	232	197	202	207	207	207	207	1753
Henry G. Fay, D.,	177	222	131	91	217	167	180	122	1339
Richard R. Freeman, R.,	363	232	150	200	57	157	353	218	1732
William W. James, D.,	213	207	176	108	200	172	82	117	1272
James E. McDonald, D.,	153	184	104	83	217	176	59	117	1178
Henry McGrath, D.,	363	229	232	133	240	182	70	110	1452
George A. Sidelinger, R.,	380	250	170	206	61	155	313	211	1738
Blanks,	327	210	219	148	249	153	338	310	1934

School Committee-at-large.

Nathaniel S. Harding, D.,	379	303	207	183	276	241	149	138	1938
John L. Miller, R.,	242	162	169	136	48	123	314	216	1530
Blanks,	44	32	35	35	36	21	50	45	298

Ward One.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

Ward Two.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

Ward Three.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

Ward Four.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

Ward Five.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

Ward Six.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

School Committee.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

Ward Three.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

Ward Four.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

Ward Five.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

Ward Six.

Yes,	205	170	149	123	162	142	78	150	1101
No,	142	127	212	208	208	213	263	201	2114
Blanks,	48	32	30	23	34	28	31	35	381

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Church services are inserted in this paper with the understanding that they are for the convenience of the public and not for the purpose of advertising. Let all churches be represented—let all be heard.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Rev. E. C. Butler, Pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Conducted by the pastor.

UNITED METHOD

A MERRY CHRISTMAS!

To all who favor us with an inspection of our offerings, we will endeavor to make it a Merry Christmas, both to the giver and receiver of Holiday Gifts.

HANDKERCHIEFS.	NECKWEAR.	UMBRELLAS.
Plain Hemstitch, 10c, 3 for 25c. Plain Hemstitch, 15c, 2 for 35c. Plain Hemstitch, 20c, 3 for 55c. Plain Hemstitch, extra fine, 25c. each. Initial, Linen or Silk, 15c. to $1.	We have the latest novelties in Silks and Satins, made especially for us in all the latest shapes. 50 dozen to select from. At 25c. and 50c.	FOR THE SCHOOL GIRL, 50c. to $1.25 FOR THE LADIES, 75c. to 4.00 FOR THE GENTLEMEN, 75c. to 4.00
FANCY ARMLETS.	NIGHT SHIRTS.	Fancy Suspenders.
25c., 50c., 75c.	50c., 75c., $1.00.	25c., 50c., 75c.
SLIPPERS	MUFFLERS.	GLOVES.
For everybody, all kinds, fancy and plain—	CASHMERE, 25c., 50c. SILK AND SATIN, 50c. to $1.50 BLACK CASHMERE, 50c.	DRESS GLOVES, $1.00 to $2.00 ANGORA GLOVES, 25 to 50 WORKING GLOVES, 25 to 1.00
LADIES' ANGORA GAITERS.	Don't forget we have the largest stock of all kinds and styles of Boston Rubber Shoe Co.'s first quality Rubbers in the City.

GEO. W. JONES, OPEN EVERY EVENING UNTIL CHRISTMAS.

"Think It Over."

The place to buy HOLIDAY GOODS is at the store which has—

The Best Assortment, The Highest Quality, The Lowest Prices.

"THINK IT OVER."

Men's Three Buckle

BEACON GAITERS.

City Square, Quincy.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL.
NEW QUINCY MARKET,
A. GUNSENBACH, Prop.
Telephone 312, 312D.
Corner Albany and Kneeland Streets, close to Albany and Old Colony Depots.
Branch of Wholesale Retail Store, 45 and 46 South Market St., Boston.
BUY DIRECT FROM RECEIVER AND SAVE MIDDLEMEN'S PROFIT.
NOTE THE FOLLOWING PRICES:
Fine Rhode Island and Vermont Turkeys, 15c lb.
Geese, Ducks, Chickens and Fowl at lowest market prices.
6, 12-2c lb. Pork's Fresh Sausage, 10c lb.
15, 20c lb. Frankfurters, 10c lb.
15, 20c lb. Pigs Feet, 10c lb. 3 lbs. 25c
15, 20c lb. Honeycomb Tripe, 10c lb. 3 lbs. 25c Mutton Chops, 15c lb. 2 lbs. 25c Plain Tripe, 5c lb.
Short Legs Choice Lamb, 12-2c lb. Sugar Cured Hams, 10c lb.
Hamburg Steak, 3 lbs. 25c Sugar Shoulder, 10c lb.
Fore Quarter Lamb, 10c lb. Smoked Shoulders, 8c lb.
Pork Chops, 7c lb. Fresh Pork, 8c lb.
Corned Beef, 5 to 10c lb. Cape Caviar, 10c qt. 3 qts. 25c
ALL OTHER GOODS AT FAVORABLE PRICES.
Orders amounting to $2.00 or more delivered at our expense.
Boston, Nov. 19, 1918.

Watches, $2.50 and Upward.
SOLID GOLD RINGS, $1 AND UP.
Shirt Waist Sets, Jeweled Belts, Pins, Chains, Charms, Pocket Books, etc.
Special Attention Paid to Repairing.

A. A. LINSKOTT, - JEWELER,
154 Hancock St., opp. Postoffice, Quincy.
Spectacles and Eye Glasses.

Best of All For Christmas
Christmas wouldn't mean anything to over half the world if this delightful custom of surprising your friends with gifts and tokens of friendship were not in existence. It is always a source of anxiety to many, to know just what to give their friends, but most thoughtful givers consider first what will add most to happiness, and give most enjoyment and comfort to those they wish to favor.

Here's a List of Suggestions.
First of all, they'll brand you a generous giver. Second of all, they're attractive, sensible and always acceptable. Third of all, they are ideal Christmas Presents, wonderfully low in price when you buy them here.

FOR THE YOUNGSTERS.
Boys' and Girls' Suits, 42c. to $1.00.
Dresses, Goggles, Hosiery, 80c. to $1.50.
Express Wagons, 80c. to $1.50.
Doll Carriages and Go Carts, 50c. to $1.00.
Rattos, 20c. to $1.00.
Bread and Milk Sets, 25c. to $1.00.
High Chairs, 50c. to $1.50.
Rocking Chairs, 50c. to $1.50.
White Iron Crib, 5.00 to 7.50.
FOR THE OLDER FOLKS.
Beautiful old pieces of New French and English China in Salad Dishes, Ice Cream Sets, Cakes Plates, Cheese Dishes, Pin Trays, Cans and Brush Trays, Spoon Trays, Chocolate Pots, Bon Bon Dishes, Cup and Saucers, Picture Frames, After Dinner Cups and Saucers, Cream Pitchers, Candelabras, Jars, Vases, etc., etc. Hundreds of old and dainty pieces, ranging in price from 10c. to $1.50.
Fancy China and Mattie Clocks, $1.00 to $10.00.
Beautiful Pictures, 75c. to $5.00.
Surprise your wife, family or friends with some addition to their home. Nothing you can give will please them so much.
Goods delivered just where you want them and where you want them.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced Furniture Furnishers.
HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

McGREGOR BLOCK,
ALLEYNE TERRACE.

TO LET to first-class parties only, as private residences, the new houses Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 McGregor Block, Alleyne Terrace; locations and conditions A No. 1; bright, sunny exposures; moderate rents to right parties. Also house No. 4.

Apply to A. C. KETTY on the premises, or to E. STODDARD, 26 Bromfield street, Boston, from 1 to 2 P. M.

PENNYROYAL PILLS
Chickens, Fathead, Blood Root, etc.
NATIONAL MOUNT WOLLASTON BANK.
THE Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the National Mount Wollaston Bank of Quincy, will be held at their Banking Rooms on TUESDAY, January 3, 1919, at 3:30 o'clock P. M., for the election of Directors and the transaction of any other business that may legally come before them.
HORACE F. SPEAR, Cashier.
Quincy, Dec. 3.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1918.

WEEKLY	REVENUE	EXPENSES	PROFIT
Monday	18, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Tuesday	19, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Wednesday	20, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Thursday	21, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Friday	22, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Saturday	23, 749.44	245.30	10.44
First Quarter	126, 749.44	1,227.90	11.44

Two Weeks' Temperature.

Day	Temp.	Day	Temp.
Sunday	31	Monday	32
Monday	32	Tuesday	31
Tuesday	31	Wednesday	31
Wednesday	31	Thursday	30
Thursday	30	Friday	28
Friday	28	Saturday	33

Notes and Comments.

This is an old fashioned winter. Tuesday night the thermometer registered 10 below zero. Even the "coldest" inhabitants have to take a back seat on this winter's record, which is still young.

City Auditor Hall and City Treasurer Gray made their Dec. 1 statements to the City Council Monday. The receipts of the eleven months, including $85,027.86 cash on hand, and $406,702.25 in notes payable, have been $926,437.06. The cash on hand Dec. 1 was $175,181.07. The receipts for November were $195,524.16, and the disbursements $111,708.20. There is still a balance of $125,000.00 in the City Treasury. The finances seem to be in good shape.

No license gained one city in the elections of Tuesday, viz: Lowell. It increased the No majority in Beverly, Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Melrose and Newton, suffering a reduction in Salem from 827 to 640. The Yes majority in all the six license cities outside of Boston were also reduced, so that they were less than 100 in Woburn, Newburyport and Holyoke. The total net gain for No-License in all the Massachusetts cities except Boston and North Adams was 5,927 this year.

The majority against license in Boston was reduced nearly one half from 17,542 to 9,570 but it would have been more striking if the No vote had not increased. The gain was made through a large decrease of the Yes vote, while the No vote fell off nearly two thousand. The No vote of 1896 was 20,861; in 1907 it was 26,177; and this year 21,225. Boston continues to be the stronghold of a No-License belt—Quincy, Milton, Hyde Park, Dedham, Brookline, Newton, Watertown, Cambridge, Somerville, Everett, Chelsea and Winthrop.

Some were surprised that there should be any contest for the presidency of the next City Council, but the opposition to the president who seeks reelection is seldom successful. Doubtless this year there are many Republicans who would like to down any Wollaston man, but President Pinkham was not an anti-Sears man. Some are inquiring if the defeat of Mr. Pinkham would not be another victory for Mr. Bryant? Councilman Pinkham has very ably discharged the duties of the office and seems entitled to a reelection.

While it may be a good political move on the part of the present city government to place the firemen of the city under the civil service, we cannot help believing that better service can be secured by the Chief Engineer if the members of the department are friendly and willing, rather than political enemies. We all know that a driver is often seriously handicapped by a balky horse, but a fire department cannot afford to have dissensions. If a Chief Engineer is to be held responsible, he should be surrounded by his friends, and it should be easy for him to drop a man who is not loyal to the department and the city. Civil service, at best, is more or less of a farce, and the party which made a campaign issue on it, when their rivals were in power, would be sure to be snowed under.

Oh, no, the majority given Mayor-elect Keith was not the smallest given any Mayor in Quincy. In 1892 Mr. Fairbanks was elected by majority of only 24 over Mr. Hodges, and again in 1894 Mr. Hodges was elected by majority of 61 votes, and in 1898 when Mr. Fairbanks defeated Mr. Witham by 65 votes. Other majorities have been, 188 for Mr. Porter over Mr. Witham in 1880, and 170 for Mr. Adams over Mr. Witham in 1882; 245 for Mr. Adams over Mr. Witham in 1884; 275 for Mr. Porter over Mr. Hodges in 1888; 391 for Mr. Hodges over Mr. Thompson in 1893, and 300 for Mr. Sears over Mr. Hodges in 1897. This also shows that Mr. Hodges received not only the

the Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1918.

WEEKLY	REVENUE	EXPENSES	PROFIT
Monday	18, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Tuesday	19, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Wednesday	20, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Thursday	21, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Friday	22, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Saturday	23, 749.44	245.30	10.44
First Quarter	126, 749.44	1,227.90	11.44

Two Weeks' Temperature.

Day	Temp.	Day	Temp.
Sunday	31	Monday	32
Monday	32	Tuesday	31
Tuesday	31	Wednesday	31
Wednesday	31	Thursday	30
Thursday	30	Friday	28
Friday	28	Saturday	33

Notes and Comments.

This is an old fashioned winter. Tuesday night the thermometer registered 10 below zero. Even the "coldest" inhabitants have to take a back seat on this winter's record, which is still young.

City Auditor Hall and City Treasurer Gray made their Dec. 1 statements to the City Council Monday. The receipts of the eleven months, including $85,027.86 cash on hand, and $406,702.25 in notes payable, have been $926,437.06. The cash on hand Dec. 1 was $175,181.07. The receipts for November were $195,524.16, and the disbursements $111,708.20. There is still a balance of $125,000.00 in the City Treasury. The finances seem to be in good shape.

No license gained one city in the elections of Tuesday, viz: Lowell. It increased the No majority in Beverly, Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Melrose and Newton, suffering a reduction in Salem from 827 to 640. The Yes majority in all the six license cities outside of Boston were also reduced, so that they were less than 100 in Woburn, Newburyport and Holyoke. The total net gain for No-License in all the Massachusetts cities except Boston and North Adams was 5,927 this year.

The majority against license in Boston was reduced nearly one half from 17,542 to 9,570 but it would have been more striking if the No vote had not increased. The gain was made through a large decrease of the Yes vote, while the No vote fell off nearly two thousand. The No vote of 1896 was 20,861; in 1907 it was 26,177; and this year 21,225. Boston continues to be the stronghold of a No-License belt—Quincy, Milton, Hyde Park, Dedham, Brookline, Newton, Watertown, Cambridge, Somerville, Everett, Chelsea and Winthrop.

Some were surprised that there should be any contest for the presidency of the next City Council, but the opposition to the president who seeks reelection is seldom successful. Doubtless this year there are many Republicans who would like to down any Wollaston man, but President Pinkham was not an anti-Sears man. Some are inquiring if the defeat of Mr. Pinkham would not be another victory for Mr. Bryant? Councilman Pinkham has very ably discharged the duties of the office and seems entitled to a reelection.

While it may be a good political move on the part of the present city government to place the firemen of the city under the civil service, we cannot help believing that better service can be secured by the Chief Engineer if the members of the department are friendly and willing, rather than political enemies. We all know that a driver is often seriously handicapped by a balky horse, but a fire department cannot afford to have dissensions. If a Chief Engineer is to be held responsible, he should be surrounded by his friends, and it should be easy for him to drop a man who is not loyal to the department and the city. Civil service, at best, is more or less of a farce, and the party which made a campaign issue on it, when their rivals were in power, would be sure to be snowed under.

Oh, no, the majority given Mayor-elect Keith was not the smallest given any Mayor in Quincy. In 1892 Mr. Fairbanks was elected by majority of only 24 over Mr. Hodges, and again in 1894 Mr. Hodges was elected by majority of 61 votes, and in 1898 when Mr. Fairbanks defeated Mr. Witham by 65 votes. Other majorities have been, 188 for Mr. Porter over Mr. Witham in 1880, and 170 for Mr. Adams over Mr. Witham in 1882; 245 for Mr. Adams over Mr. Witham in 1884; 275 for Mr. Porter over Mr. Hodges in 1888; 391 for Mr. Hodges over Mr. Thompson in 1893, and 300 for Mr. Sears over Mr. Hodges in 1897. This also shows that Mr. Hodges received not only the

the Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1918.

WEEKLY	REVENUE	EXPENSES	PROFIT
Monday	18, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Tuesday	19, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Wednesday	20, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Thursday	21, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Friday	22, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Saturday	23, 749.44	245.30	10.44
First Quarter	126, 749.44	1,227.90	11.44

Two Weeks' Temperature.

Day	Temp.	Day	Temp.
Sunday	31	Monday	32
Monday	32	Tuesday	31
Tuesday	31	Wednesday	31
Wednesday	31	Thursday	30
Thursday	30	Friday	28
Friday	28	Saturday	33

Notes and Comments.

This is an old fashioned winter. Tuesday night the thermometer registered 10 below zero. Even the "coldest" inhabitants have to take a back seat on this winter's record, which is still young.

City Auditor Hall and City Treasurer Gray made their Dec. 1 statements to the City Council Monday. The receipts of the eleven months, including $85,027.86 cash on hand, and $406,702.25 in notes payable, have been $926,437.06. The cash on hand Dec. 1 was $175,181.07. The receipts for November were $195,524.16, and the disbursements $111,708.20. There is still a balance of $125,000.00 in the City Treasury. The finances seem to be in good shape.

No license gained one city in the elections of Tuesday, viz: Lowell. It increased the No majority in Beverly, Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Melrose and Newton, suffering a reduction in Salem from 827 to 640. The Yes majority in all the six license cities outside of Boston were also reduced, so that they were less than 100 in Woburn, Newburyport and Holyoke. The total net gain for No-License in all the Massachusetts cities except Boston and North Adams was 5,927 this year.

The majority against license in Boston was reduced nearly one half from 17,542 to 9,570 but it would have been more striking if the No vote had not increased. The gain was made through a large decrease of the Yes vote, while the No vote fell off nearly two thousand. The No vote of 1896 was 20,861; in 1907 it was 26,177; and this year 21,225. Boston continues to be the stronghold of a No-License belt—Quincy, Milton, Hyde Park, Dedham, Brookline, Newton, Watertown, Cambridge, Somerville, Everett, Chelsea and Winthrop.

Some were surprised that there should be any contest for the presidency of the next City Council, but the opposition to the president who seeks reelection is seldom successful. Doubtless this year there are many Republicans who would like to down any Wollaston man, but President Pinkham was not an anti-Sears man. Some are inquiring if the defeat of Mr. Pinkham would not be another victory for Mr. Bryant? Councilman Pinkham has very ably discharged the duties of the office and seems entitled to a reelection.

While it may be a good political move on the part of the present city government to place the firemen of the city under the civil service, we cannot help believing that better service can be secured by the Chief Engineer if the members of the department are friendly and willing, rather than political enemies. We all know that a driver is often seriously handicapped by a balky horse, but a fire department cannot afford to have dissensions. If a Chief Engineer is to be held responsible, he should be surrounded by his friends, and it should be easy for him to drop a man who is not loyal to the department and the city. Civil service, at best, is more or less of a farce, and the party which made a campaign issue on it, when their rivals were in power, would be sure to be snowed under.

Oh, no, the majority given Mayor-elect Keith was not the smallest given any Mayor in Quincy. In 1892 Mr. Fairbanks was elected by majority of only 24 over Mr. Hodges, and again in 1894 Mr. Hodges was elected by majority of 61 votes, and in 1898 when Mr. Fairbanks defeated Mr. Witham by 65 votes. Other majorities have been, 188 for Mr. Porter over Mr. Witham in 1880, and 170 for Mr. Adams over Mr. Witham in 1882; 245 for Mr. Adams over Mr. Witham in 1884; 275 for Mr. Porter over Mr. Hodges in 1888; 391 for Mr. Hodges over Mr. Thompson in 1893, and 300 for Mr. Sears over Mr. Hodges in 1897. This also shows that Mr. Hodges received not only the

the Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1918.

WEEKLY	REVENUE	EXPENSES	PROFIT
Monday	18, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Tuesday	19, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Wednesday	20, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Thursday	21, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Friday	22, 749.44	245.30	10.44
Saturday	23, 749.44	245.30	10.44
First Quarter	126, 749.44	1,227.90	11.44

Two Weeks' Temperature.

Day	Temp.	Day	Temp.
Sunday	31	Monday	32
Monday	32	Tuesday	31
Tuesday	31	Wednesday	31
Wednesday	31	Thursday	30
Thursday	30	Friday	28
Friday	28	Saturday	33

Notes and Comments.

This is an old fashioned winter. Tuesday night the thermometer registered 10 below zero. Even the "coldest" inhabitants have to take a back seat on this winter's record, which is still young.

City Auditor Hall and City Treasurer Gray made their Dec. 1 statements to the City Council Monday. The receipts of the eleven months, including $85,027.86 cash on hand, and $406,702.25 in notes payable, have been $926,437.06. The cash on hand Dec. 1 was $175,181.07. The receipts for November were $195,524.16, and the disbursements $111,708.20. There is still a balance of $125,000.00 in the City Treasury. The finances seem to be in good shape.

No license gained one city in the elections of Tuesday, viz: Lowell. It increased the No majority in Beverly, Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Melrose and Newton, suffering a reduction in Salem from 827 to 640. The Yes majority in all the six license cities outside of Boston were also reduced, so that they were less than 100 in Woburn, Newburyport and Holyoke. The total net gain for No-License in all the Massachusetts cities except Boston and North Adams was 5,927 this year.

The majority against license in Boston was reduced nearly one half from 17,542 to 9,570 but it would have been more striking if the No vote had not increased. The gain was made through a large decrease of the Yes vote, while the No vote fell off nearly two thousand. The No vote of 1896 was 20,861; in 1907 it was 26,177; and this year 21,225. Boston continues to be the stronghold of a No-License belt—Quincy, Milton, Hyde Park, Dedham, Brookline, Newton, Watertown, Cambridge, Somerville, Everett, Chelsea and Winthrop.

Some were surprised that there should be any contest for the presidency of the next City Council, but the opposition to the president who seeks reelection is seldom successful. Doubtless this year there are many Republicans who would like to down any Wollaston man, but President Pinkham was not an anti-Sears man. Some are inquiring if the defeat of Mr. Pinkham would not be another victory for Mr. Bryant? Councilman Pinkham has very ably discharged the duties of the office and seems entitled to a reelection.

While it may be a good political move on the part of the present city government to place the firemen of the city under the civil service, we cannot help believing that better service can be secured by the Chief Engineer if the members of the department are friendly and willing, rather than political enemies. We all know that a driver is often seriously handicapped by a balky horse, but a fire department cannot afford to have dissensions. If a Chief Engineer is to be held responsible, he should be surrounded by his friends, and it should be easy for him to drop a man who is not loyal to the department and the city. Civil service, at best, is more or less of a farce, and the party which made a campaign issue on it, when their rivals were in power, would be sure to be snowed under.

Oh, no, the majority given Mayor-elect Keith was not the smallest given any Mayor in Quincy. In 1892 Mr. Fairbanks was elected by majority of only 24 over Mr. Hodges, and again in 1894 Mr. Hodges was elected by majority of 61 votes, and in 1898 when Mr. Fairbanks defeated Mr. Witham by 65 votes. Other majorities have been, 188 for Mr. Porter over Mr. Witham in 1880, and 170 for Mr. Adams over Mr. Witham in 1882; 245 for Mr. Adams over Mr. Witham in 1884; 275 for Mr. Porter over Mr. Hodges in 1888; 391 for Mr. Hodges over Mr. Thompson in 1893, and 300 for Mr. Sears over Mr. Hodges in 1897. This also shows that Mr. Hodges received not only the Probate Court.

Judge White held Probate court for Norfolk County at Quincy on Wednesday and transacted the following business:

WILLS ALLOWED.

Of William H. Ewright, late of Weymouth; John A. Raymond, executor; bond $60,000.

Of Ibrahim Morrison, late of Braintree; Mary L. Morrison executrix; bond $100,000.

Of Henry Lee, late of Brookline; William Minot and Schuyler S. Bartlett, executors; bond $1,000,000 each.

ADMINISTRATIONS GRANTED.

Cora I. Young on the estate of Mary A. Young, late of Quincy; bond $500.

Fred M. French, de bonis non, on the estate of Abby M. Root, late of Randolph; bond $15,000.

John F. Welch of Quincy on the estate of Francis Ambler, late of Weymouth; bond $40,000.

Annie E. Larkin, on estate of Richard J. Larkin, late of Quincy; bond $10,000.

ACCOUNTS ALLOWED.

First and final of John Crane, trustee of Quincy, for $10,108.31.

First and final of Ansel O. Clark, administrator of estate of James W. Thayer, late of Braintree, for $1,747.98.

First and final of Ansel O. Clark, administrator of estate of Josephine Thayer, late of Braintree, for $285.00.

First and final of Willard W. Turner and Kate B. French, executors of will of Willard P. Turner, late of Foxborough, for $27,746.02.

Second of Charles W. Gannon and Edmund H. Talbot, administrators of estate of Edward E. Tower, late of Cohasset, for $205.

GUARDIANSHIP APPOINTED.

Annie E. Larkin was appointed guardian of Edward D., Catherine L., Joseph M., Gertrude, Annie D., Richard J. and Paul Larkin, minor children of Richard J. Larkin; bond $5,700.

Thomas McDermott was appointed guardian of Timothy McDermott, a minor of Quincy; bond $2,000.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A distribution of the estate of Elbridge Lovell, late of Weymouth, was ordered for the benefit of the heirs.

INVENTORIES FILED.

On estate of Susan C. Chesley late of Quincy; personal estate, $19,967.21; real estate, $5,000.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Selma H. Bailey, administratrix of estate of Sally H. Tirrell, late of Weymouth, was granted

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1938.

Christmas in the Churches.

Elaborate Christmas programmes have been prepared by the churches and Sunday Schools of Quincy, and the Patriot gives the special music, pastors' themes, and order of services generally:

CHRIST CHURCH.

Christ church has always paid great attention to the observance of Christmas, and this year will be no exception to the rule. The church will be tastefully trimmed with green. The celebration of the festival will begin Saturday, Christmas eve, at 6 o'clock in the parish house. Gifts and candy will be given to every member of the Sunday School and the choir. Every member of the school is asked to bring some article of food to be distributed among the poor.

The Sunday services will be at 10:30 A. M., and 7 P. M. The pastor will preach at the address at each service. A most attractive musical programme has been arranged and carefully prepared by the choir master, and the choir of thirty men and boys. The detail of the music has already been printed. It will be repeated the Sunday following Christmas.

The Christmas programme for the morning services, Precongregational hymn—"Adeste Fideles," Venite—Anglican Chant—Ely, Te Deum—C. Villiers Stanford in B flat. Quartet—Masters Davey and Malcolm, Messrs. Made and Henry.

Benediction—Anglican Chant, Ouseley. Interim hymn—"Hark the Herald Angels Sing." C. Wesley.

Holy Communion in E flat, W. A. C. Crickshank. Soprano Soloist—Master George Davey. Quartet—Masters Davey and Malcolm, Messrs. Made and Henry. Sermon hymn—"Angels from the Realms of Glory," J. Montgomery. Offertory—"The Hallowed Day Hath Shined Upon Us," Sir John Stainer.

Soloist—Mr. C. C. Bradford. Presentation—"Praise God," Nune Dinitia—Anglican Chant. Reversal hymn—"O Little Town of Bethlehem," P. Brooks.

At the even song service: Tallis Choral Evening Prayer. Psalm 139—Anglican Chant, E. J. Hopkins. Magnificat and Music Dimitis in G, W. J. Gilbert.

The theme is called The Eve of Christmas from an old musical manuscript dated 1565 found in the British Museum. Hymn—"Once in Royal David's City," C. F. Alexander. Offertory—"The Hallowed Day," Stainer. Presentation—"Te Deum in B flat," Stanford.

During the choir service before both morning and evening prayer, Franz Gruber's "Christmas Carol Silent Night," will be sung by the choir.

E. Landis Snyder, organist and choir-master.

BETHANY CHURCH.

The observance of Christmas at Bethany church will take place today. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the kindergarten and primary departments will hold a festival. There will be a tree and exercises that will appeal to the young people. In the evening at 7:30 the exercises for the Bible school, church and congregation will be held, and will take the form of an old fashioned Christmas festival with a Santa Claus and tree and brief exercises appropriate to the season.

Mrs. Jennie Hooking Hunt, the organist, and chorister of Bethany church, has secured the following artists, for the Christmas services of Sunday, and a rich musical programme of vocal and instrumental music is promised: Miss Gertrude Graham, soprano; Miss Louise Holbrook, contralto; Mr. Stanwood Field, tenor; Mr. Allyn Hadden, bass; Miss Emily Striefford, violinist; and Mr. Charles Elmer Hollis, cornetist.

At the 10:30 A. M. service: Organ Voluntary, "Grand Offertory of St. Cecilia," Bist. Duet, "As with Gladness Men of Old," Schnecker.

"Misses Graham and Holbrook." Solo, "Gloria to Heaven's Eternal King," Meyer-Helland.

Quartette, "The Chimes of Christmas Morn'g," (With violin obligato) Dresdie. Solo, "Wake and Sing Good Christmas," Miss Holbrook.

Violin Solo, "Aria," Bach.

"Christmas Song" (with cornet obligato), Dow. Organ Postlude, "Allegro Marching Music," Mendelssohn.

Subject of Sermon, "Good News."

At 7:30 P. M., Children's Christmas festival with numbers by artists of the morning.

UNITARIAN CHURCH.

The Christmas festival at the First church will be held this afternoon and evening. The young people will gather in the afternoon for a good time and at 6 o'clock a Christmas supper will be served. At 7 o'clock there will be a brief entertainment and the distribution of gifts to the children.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN.

The Christmas theme of Rev. W. W. Dorman of the First United Presbyterian church Sunday morning will be, "Immanuel, or God with Us," and in the evening "The Incarnation, or God in Human Life."

The Christmas festival of the Sunday School will be held on Monday evening, Dec. 26, at 7 o'clock in the hall. The features of the evening will be Christmas tree, a literary and musical entertainment and a bounteous repast of the good things of life for the physical man.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH.

The order of the Sunday morning service at the Universalist church will be:

Organ voluntary, "Lift up your heads," Fillmore. Gloria Patria. Scripture reading, Anthem, "Praise Be to God," Rinks. Prayer, Solo, "Jerusalem," Christmas sermon by pastor, Hymn.

The Universalist Sunday School will hold its Christmas festival this evening, at 7:30 a supper will be served to the members of the school. This will be followed by a tree and distribution of presents. In the evening at 7:30 there will be a Christmas concert by the Sunday School.

AT QUINCY POINT.

The service on Sunday morning (Christmas day) at 10:45 will include Christmas music and a Christmas sermon as will be seen by the order of service:

Organ prelude. Opening hymn. Opening sentences. Responsive reading, Anthem—"We Sing Hosannas," A. G. Singer. Scripture Lesson. Prayer. Response. Anthem—"Hark Those Holy Vozes," M. C. Williams. Notices. Offertory. Hymn.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1938.

Christmas in the Churches.

Elaborate Christmas programmes have been prepared by the churches and Sunday Schools of Quincy, and the Patriot gives the special music, pastors' themes, and order of services generally:

CHRIST CHURCH.

Christ church has always paid great attention to the observance of Christmas, and this year will be no exception to the rule. The church will be tastefully trimmed with green. The celebration of the festival will begin Saturday, Christmas eve, at 6 o'clock in the parish house. Gifts and candy will be given to every member of the Sunday School and the choir. Every member of the school is asked to bring some article of food to be distributed among the poor.

The Sunday services will be at 10:30 A. M., and 7 P. M. The pastor will preach at the address at each service. A most attractive musical programme has been arranged and carefully prepared by the choir master, and the choir of thirty men and boys. The detail of the music has already been printed. It will be repeated the Sunday following Christmas.

The Christmas programme for the morning services, Precongregational hymn—"Adeste Fideles," Venite—Anglican Chant—Ely, Te Deum—C. Villiers Stanford in B flat. Quartet—Masters Davey and Malcolm, Messrs. Made and Henry.

Benediction—Anglican Chant, Ouseley. Interim hymn—"Hark the Herald Angels Sing." C. Wesley.

Holy Communion in E flat, W. A. C. Crickshank. Soprano Soloist—Master George Davey. Quartet—Masters Davey and Malcolm, Messrs. Made and Henry. Sermon hymn—"Angels from the Realms of Glory," J. Montgomery. Offertory—"The Hallowed Day Hath Shined Upon Us," Sir John Stainer.

Soloist—Mr. C. C. Bradford. Presentation—"Praise God," Nune Dinitia—Anglican Chant. Reversal hymn—"O Little Town of Bethlehem," P. Brooks.

At the even song service: Tallis Choral Evening Prayer. Psalm 139—Anglican Chant, E. J. Hopkins. Magnificat and Music Dimitis in G, W. J. Gilbert.

The theme is called The Eve of Christmas from an old musical manuscript dated 1565 found in the British Museum. Hymn—"Once in Royal David's City," C. F. Alexander. Offertory—"The Hallowed Day," Stainer. Presentation—"Te Deum in B flat," Stanford.

During the choir service before both morning and evening prayer, Franz Gruber's "Christmas Carol Silent Night," will be sung by the choir.

E. Landis Snyder, organist and choir-master.

BETHANY CHURCH.

The observance of Christmas at Bethany church will take place today. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the kindergarten and primary departments will hold a festival. There will be a tree and exercises that will appeal to the young people. In the evening at 7:30 the exercises for the Bible school, church and congregation will be held, and will take the form of an old fashioned Christmas festival with a Santa Claus and tree and brief exercises appropriate to the season.

Mrs. Jennie Hooking Hunt, the organist, and chorister of Bethany church, has secured the following artists, for the Christmas services of Sunday, and a rich musical programme of vocal and instrumental music is promised: Miss Gertrude Graham, soprano; Miss Louise Holbrook, contralto; Mr. Stanwood Field, tenor; Mr. Allyn Hadden, bass; Miss Emily Striefford, violinist; and Mr. Charles Elmer Hollis, cornetist.

At the 10:30 A. M. service: Organ Voluntary, "Grand Offertory of St. Cecilia," Bist. Duet, "As with Gladness Men of Old," Schnecker.

"Misses Graham and Holbrook." Solo, "Gloria to Heaven's Eternal King," Meyer-Helland.

Quartette, "The Chimes of Christmas Morn'g," (With violin obligato) Dresdie. Solo, "Wake and Sing Good Christmas," Miss Holbrook.

Violin Solo, "Aria," Bach.

"Christmas Song" (with cornet obligato), Dow. Organ Postlude, "Allegro Marching Music," Mendelssohn.

Subject of Sermon, "Good News."

At 7:30 P. M., Children's Christmas festival with numbers by artists of the morning.

UNITARIAN CHURCH.

The Christmas festival at the First church will be held this afternoon and evening. The young people will gather in the afternoon for a good time and at 6 o'clock a Christmas supper will be served. At 7 o'clock there will be a brief entertainment and the distribution of gifts to the children.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN.

The Christmas theme of Rev. W. W. Dorman of the First United Presbyterian church Sunday morning will be, "Immanuel, or God with Us," and in the evening "The Incarnation, or God in Human Life."

The Christmas festival of the Sunday School will be held on Monday evening, Dec. 26, at 7 o'clock in the hall. The features of the evening will be Christmas tree, a literary and musical entertainment and a bounteous repast of the good things of life for the physical man.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH.

The order of the Sunday morning service at the Universalist church will be:

Organ voluntary, "Lift up your heads," Fillmore. Gloria Patria. Scripture reading, Anthem, "Praise Be to God," Rinks. Prayer, Solo, "Jerusalem," Christmas sermon by pastor, Hymn.

The Universalist Sunday School will hold its Christmas festival this evening, at 7:30 a supper will be served to the members of the school. This will be followed by a tree and distribution of presents. In the evening at 7:30 there will be a Christmas concert by the Sunday School.

AT QUINCY POINT.

The service on Sunday morning (Christmas day) at 10:45 will include Christmas music and a Christmas sermon as will be seen by the order of service:

Organ prelude. Opening hymn. Opening sentences. Responsive reading, Anthem—"We Sing Hosannas," A. G. Singer. Scripture Lesson. Prayer. Response. Anthem—"Hark Those Holy Vozes," M. C. Williams. Notices. Offertory. Hymn.

CITY BRIEFS.

No Ledger on Monday next.

Next Monday will be observed as a holiday.

The public library has closed for the holidays. The public library will be closed on Christmas eve and also Monday.

Miss Ethel Craig is home from Tilton seminary for the holidays.

Private T. F. Martell of Co. K arrived home Tuesday on a short furlough.

Rev. George H. Hosmer of Neponset occupied the pulpit of the First parish on Sunday.

The Granite Clothing store is in Christmas costume, and wishes you a Merry Christmas.

T. L. Williams, the jeweler, has moved his family from Hancock street to Foster street.

There are many who would appreciate a ton of Sheppard's wool in their Christmas stockings.

The old reliable firm of G. F. Wilson & Co. have all the "fixin's" for the Christmas dinner.

City Clerk Cleaves reports that the receipts from the dog tax this year to date amounted to $1,900.

Christmas is usually a very cold day. Last year at noon the temperature was 21, and the year before 17.

Michael J. Burns, court officer at the District court, at home sick, threatened with pneumonia.

They say the red ash shomokin coal just received by C. Patch & Son is the best range coal in the market.

Some who have visited Miss C. S. Hubbard looking for Christmas goods say they can do better than in Boston.

C. F. Pettengill, jeweler, has some rare bargains in ladies' gold watches, silverware and Quincy souvenir china.

The New Haven railroad will change their semaphore lamps so that green will be the color to denote "all clear."

G. Frank Ryer, the tailor in L. Warshaw, has moved his family to Quincy, and resides at 75 Washington street.

Sergt. J. F. Mohan, Corp. A. McIntosh and Private D. Doran of Co. K have been granted furloughs for the holidays.

W. G. A. Patter of this city attended the dinner of the Young Men's Democratic club at the Quincy house, Boston, Monday night.

H. W. Lull, superintendent of schools, was one of the speakers at the Christmas party, given by the Quincy Y. M. C. A., Saturday at a teachers' institute.

According to the new state, James F. Harlow will be the next City Clerk and Hon. William A. Hodges the next principal assessor.

A rumor from a reliable source says that a syndicate has obtained an option upon a valuable piece of realty in the center of the city.

Miss Lillian Taylor, clerk in the Tax collector's office, and Miss Belle Smith, clerk in the City Treasurer's office, at City Hall, are at home sick.

Frederic Allison Tupper and Edward Southworth attended the meeting of the Massachusetts School masters' club at Hotel Brunswick on Saturday evening.

Some of the musical young men of Quincy are getting together good talent to take part in a first-class minstrel show to be given in Music hall in the near future.

Dr. Mansfield found the reports of pastor, superintendent and stewards of St. Paul's church to be satisfactory at the third quarterly conference on Saturday evening.

The boys of today are a good deal better off than the boys used to be a generation ago. Nobody thought of flooding the public parks to make skating places for them then.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Davis of Bangor, Maine, and their three charming children arrived in town last night to spend Christmas with Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. Davis' mother.

A. A. J. Preston of Wollaston has written an interesting story entitled "Five hours with a Wollaston baby." It will appear in next week's Patriot and every one will want to secure a copy.

One of the greatest shots at games which has been made in these waters for a long time, is the score of 25 eggs at one shot at Edwin Clark's stand at State island, a few days ago. Five guns were fired at once.

Herbert T. Drake has returned from his trip to New York as a guest of the Hon. W. L. Douglas. He visited at the home of Mr. Drake 60 retail stores. He claims that the large plant in Brookline turns out more fine shoes than any factory in the country. Mr. Drake is one of the superintendents.

Three masted schooner Joel F. Sheppard of East Braintree, more than a month out on a voyage from Braintree, Ga. to New York, is reported by the French steamer Burgundia, at New York from Mediterranean ports, and was supplied with sufficient provisions to enable her to reach port.

Dr. C. M. Martin, for several years a beloved citizen of Quincy, but more recently of Rutland, Vermont, has moved to Braintree and opened an office at the residence of Rutland, he was elected President of the Vermont Homoeopathic Medical Society, which he filled with honor. He is a good old fellow and will find himself surrounded with worthy brothers in Braintree.

English men all were they who gathered at Hancock hall, Tuesday evening, to help English Ivy lodge, No. 116, Order Daughters of St. George, celebrate the first anniversary of its institution. The weather was disagreeable and the walking something terrible, yet a goodly number braved the elements and the pleasure they had at arriving at the hall more than compensated for the difficulty of getting there.

Mr. Herbert W. Spear of this city, who went to Fort Harrow on the revenue cutter Bear to the relief of the ice bound whalers, in November, 1897, returned to Seattle last month and found awaiting him there a document which promoted him to Chief Engineer. Mr. Spear left the Bear at Seattle and went to San Francisco where he now is taking the examination for his new office.

The Skatlon colored jubilee singers more than met the expectations in the People's Course on Saturday evening. There was a full house and liberal applause at the start enthused the artists, so that they gave a lively and entertaining programme. There were no waits at all, except between part one and part two, and that was brief, so that there was two hours of continuous pleasure. The singers included a male quartette and a female quartette, and they sang all the latest songs as well as a few of the old darkey melodies.

The Lafayette club held a dance at St. Mary's hall next week.

The Temperance society held a Christmas party at St. Mary's hall, Monday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock.

William Lawry, while chopping wood at home on Wednesday afternoon, had the misfortune to severely cut his left hand with the axe.

The sewing society of the Swedish Baptist church held an auction Saturday evening at the church, and realized quite a sum of money.

The American Telegraph Co. are putting in a line of new poles off Willard street.

The frame work for the new house of George Elcock on Copeland street, was raised this week.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Deaf of Braintree have been seriously ill with diphtheria, have fully recovered. Mr. Dexter formerly resided at West Quincy.

Frank A. Locke, piano tuner, ad. on page 4.

WOLLASTON.

The weather prevented a large attendance at the second night of the Christmas sale of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church, Wednesday evening, yet there was quite a good number present. The sale was held in the vestry of the church, which has recently been adorned with a number of Scripture mottoes, and banners upon which are the Lord's prayer, Beatitudes, Commandments and the 23rd Psalm, making it quite attractive. A goodly number of articles were displayed upon the tables and many met with a ready sale.

These tables were in charge of the members of the Ladies' Aid society of which Mrs. George Bowman is president. Mrs. George O. Shirley secretary; and Mrs. Robert Phillips treasurer. The ladies in charge of the several tables were as follows:

Apron, Mrs. R. C. Allen. Skirt, Mrs. George Bowman and Mrs. Nell McEwen. Bakers, Mrs. Robert Phillips and Mrs. Robert Stewart. Ice cream, Mrs. James Milne and Robert C. Allen.

Candy, cake, books, etc., Miss Mary Milne, Mrs. Edna Howie, Miss Jennie McDonald, Miss Jessie McMillan and Miss Annie Shirley.

Miss Lucy Mitchell, who teaches in Gratton, is home for the holidays.

Rev. Robert Westly preached his Christmas sermon Wednesday, a little daughter.

L. M. Pratt & Co. have been thoughtful to secure the best for your Christmas dinner.

A wedding which interested many of our Swedish citizens took place Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gustaf Lundberg, at No. 35 Albertina street, when Mr. Axel Anderson and Miss Anna Anderson were united in marriage by Rev. H. Larson of the Swedish M. E. church. Mr. Charles Carlson acted as best man and Miss Hilda Anderson maid of honor. The couple received several presents.

The estate of Alvin Rogers, situated on the corner of Pleasant and Quincy street, South Quincy, consisting of a 16-foot lot and a 40-foot square lot of land, was sold at public auction by Auctioneer Johnson last Saturday. The bidding was lively and the purchaser was Mr. Charles H. Grindell of this city; price $3,100.

A parking party was held in Poland's hall, Norfolk Downs, Friday evening.

Last Sunday evening Mr. H. B. Bailey of Wollaston addressed the congregation at the Park and Downs Congregational church, on the subject of his foreign travels. Miss Feather and Mr. Hitchcock both of Boston rendered solos in a very acceptable manner.

The Norfolk Downs depot is being brightened by the painters brush.

One of our local citizens will impersonate Santa Claus at the Park and Downs Congregational church on Saturday evening and a good time is promised for the children.

The steamer "John J. Hill" was hauled off of Wollaston beach by Boston Tow Boat Co.'s tugs on Thursday morning. Another haul will have her in deep water. She was moved about 500 feet. The tug, West, William Sprague and Curlew did the work.

Mr. Dorey, junior at the Massachusetts Fields school, impersonated "Jack the steely climber," Thursday afternoon. The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

SOUTH QUINCY.

The weather prevented a large attendance at the second night of the Christmas sale of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church, Wednesday evening, yet there was quite a good number present. The sale was held in the vestry of the church, which has recently been adorned with a number of Scripture mottoes, and banners upon which are the Lord's prayer, Beatitudes, Commandments and the 23rd Psalm, making it quite attractive. A goodly number of articles were displayed upon the tables and many met with a ready sale.

These tables were in charge of the members of the Ladies' Aid society of which Mrs. George Bowman is president. Mrs. George O. Shirley secretary; and Mrs. Robert Phillips treasurer. The ladies in charge of the several tables were as follows:

Apron, Mrs. R. C. Allen. Skirt, Mrs. George Bowman and Mrs. Nell McEwen. Bakers, Mrs. Robert Phillips and Mrs. Robert Stewart. Ice cream, Mrs. James Milne and Robert C. Allen.

Candy, cake, books, etc., Miss Mary Milne, Mrs. Edna Howie, Miss Jennie McDonald, Miss Jessie McMillan and Miss Annie Shirley.

Miss Lucy Mitchell, who teaches in Gratton, is home for the holidays.

Rev. Robert Westly preached his Christmas sermon Wednesday, a little daughter.

L. M. Pratt & Co. have been thoughtful to secure the best for your Christmas dinner.

A wedding which interested many of our Swedish citizens took place Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gustaf Lundberg, at No. 35 Albertina street, when Mr. Axel Anderson and Miss Anna Anderson were united in marriage by Rev. H. Larson of the Swedish M. E. church. Mr. Charles Carlson acted as best man and Miss Hilda Anderson maid of honor. The couple received several presents.

The estate of Alvin Rogers, situated on the corner of Pleasant and Quincy street, South Quincy, consisting of a 16-foot lot and a 40-foot square lot of land, was sold at public auction by Auctioneer Johnson last Saturday. The bidding was lively and the purchaser was Mr. Charles H. Grindell of this city; price $3,100.

A parking party was held in Poland's hall, Norfolk Downs, Friday evening.

Last Sunday evening Mr. H. B. Bailey of Wollaston addressed the congregation at the Park and Downs Congregational church, on the subject of his foreign travels. Miss Feather and Mr. Hitchcock both of Boston rendered solos in a very acceptable manner.

The Norfolk Downs depot is being brightened by the painters brush.

One of our local citizens will impersonate Santa Claus at the Park and Downs Congregational church on Saturday evening and a good time is promised for the children.

The steamer "John J. Hill" was hauled off of Wollaston beach by Boston Tow Boat Co.'s tugs on Thursday morning. Another haul will have her in deep water. She was moved about 500 feet. The tug, West, William Sprague and Curlew did the work.

Mr. Dorey, junior at the Massachusetts Fields school, impersonated "Jack the steely climber," Thursday afternoon. The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen in its lofty position again with its wings proudly spread and looking down upon the people.

The flag laylards on the 52-foot mast in the school yard were broken during the late storm, and it was necessary to run another through the block at the top, before Old Glory could be seen in its accustomed place.

Some time ago also, the brass eagle which perched so prettily upon the top of the staff was blown down and since then it has been stored away, but today it can be seen

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL.

NEW QUINCY MARKET, A. GUNSHUISER, Prop.
Telephone 312, Oxford.
Branch of Wholesale Beef House, 45 and 46 South Market St., Boston.

BUY DIRECT FROM RECEIVER AND SAVE MIDDLEMAN'S PROFIT.

NOTE THE FOLLOWING PRICES:

Fine Rhode Island and Vermont Turkeys, 15c lb.
Geese, Ducks, Chickens and Fowl at lowest market prices.

Rib Roast, 6, 12, 15c lb.
Rump Steak, 15, 20c lb.
Sirloin Steak, 15, 20c lb.
Lamb Chops, 15c lb.
Mutton Chops, 15c lb.
Short Legs Choice Lamb, 12 1/2c lb.
Hamburg Steak, 3 lbs. 25c
Fore Quarter Lamb, 7 to 8c lb.
Pork Chops, 10c lb.
Corned Beef, 5 to 10c lb.

Park's Fresh Sausage, 10c lb.
Frankfurters, 10c lb.
Pigs' Feet, 10c lb.
Honeycomb Tripe, 10c lb.
Sugar Cured Ham, 10c lb.
Fresh Shoulder, 7c lb.
Smoked Shoulders, 8c lb.
Fresh Pork, 7c lb.
Cape Caviar, 10c qt. 3 qts. 25c

ALL OTHERS GOING IN PROPORTION.

Orders Amounting to $2.00 or More Delivered at Our Expense.

Boston, Nov. 19.

E. M. FREEMAN
Opens Today
As Fine a Line of HANDKERCHIEFS

As can be seen in Boston,
5c, 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c, and 25c.

Ladies' Jersey Underwear,
GOOD VALUE.
Fine Ribbed Vests and Pants, - 25c each.
Extra Quality, - - - - 30c each.
To Examine is to Buy.

Men's Heavy Fleece Lined Underwear
At 50c per Garment.
Has solid reputation for advertising.

TO LET.
Boston 60 Park St., N. E. & N. W. R. R.
12c per Ticket Cash.

Book to be read and returned same day.
Persons desiring to rent the book by the week, may do so at 11c per ticket, payable in advance.
Nov. 20.

ASK YOUR HORSESHOE FOR THE NEVERSLIP
THE ONLY SHOE FOR WINTER USE.

It absolutely prevents slipping, and keeps perfect safety and comfort to horses and drivers.
Shod with the "Never Slip" your horse's feet are always in good condition—keep so not having to constantly renew the shoes for shoeing.

THE CALKS ARE REMOVABLE.
Steel-Centered and SELF-SHARPENING

And Round or Square Base,
AS PREFERRED.
Cata-logue on Application.
AGENTS WANTED.

PEPPER F. TAGUE,
51 Oliver St., Boston.
Nov. 26.

HOLIDAY BARGAINS
— IS —
Ladies' Watches.

Stylish Watches of all grades, solid 14c, gold-filled, sterling silver and enamel at prices from $4 to $50. Each watch guaranteed. What more suitable gift than a handsome, reliable watch. The E. B. HORN CO., 429 Washington St., Boston. Open evenings, 6:30-9:00 p.m.

Sawed and Split Wood.

WE would respectfully inform the people of Quincy that we are better prepared than ever to supply them with all kinds of Wood, sawed or split, at short notice. Also Sand, Lumber, Gravel and Paving.

THOMAS O'BRIEN & SONS,
West St., West Quincy.

Quincy Savings Bank,
New Savings Bank Building.
President, RUPERT F. CLAPIN.
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH.
Treasurer and CLARENCE BURGIN.
Board of Investment—RUPERT F. CLAPIN, EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD, ALMA A. FERRIS.

BANK BOOKS—From $3.00 to $12.00 a volume. During the month of June, July, August and September the Bank will close on Saturdays at 12 M.
Deposits placed on interest on the first Tuesday of January, April, July and October.

CONNECTED BY TELEPHONE. 14
Oct. 19, Jan. 11, 1896.

Are You Going To California?

The California Hotel, Santa Fe Route, gives the best and speediest service. Through dining car, and observation car, with special service, especially for use of ladies and children. 2-4 days Chicago to Los Angeles.

S. W. MANING, N. E. Agent,
332 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Good Paper, 5c. A ROLL.

F. T. APPLETON,
5 Faxon's Block, Quincy, Mass.
Connected by Telephone.

For everybody, all kinds, fancy and plain—25c to $2.00.

LADIES' Misses' and Children's ANGORA GAITERS.

Adams Building.

We Wish You All a Merry Christmas.

Customers, and never before have we had so many Goods and Prices.

UMBRELLAS and MACKINTOSHES
For Men, Women and Children.
A Special in Misses Mackintosh, all sizes.

$3.00.
We shall try to serve you all promptly tomorrow and trust that you will appreciate our efforts.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.
HANGOOK STREET, QUINCY.

Hyacinths in Pots and Pans, Tulips in Pans, Narcissus in Pots.

Sword Ferns, Rubber Plants and PALMS.

EVERYBODY CORDIALLY INVITED
To Visit Greenhouses.

A. M. BUGBEE, FLORIST,
441 Hancock St., Norfolk Downs.

EUICALINE.
It is recommended to PHYSICIANS as a CHEAP and RELIABLE ANTISEPTIC to replace CARBOLIC ACID in the treatment of PARANASAL, EUSTACHIAN, EPISTAXIS, ETC.

SCARLET FEVER, DIPHTHERIA, TYPHOID FEVER, MEASLES, ERYTHRA, SMALL-POX and CHOLERA, SORES, CLEANSER, etc.

WORMS, GRUBS, CATERPILLARS, BEETLES, INSECTS, BEETLES, MOTHS, APHIDES on rose bushes, etc., really destroyed by spraying with the solution. ONE PART TO FIVE HUNDRED.

THE TREATY.
The text of the treaty negotiated at Paris, as cabled from Madrid, is generally accepted as a substantially correct version of the instrument.

Under the terms Spain renounces all right of sovereignty over Cuba, and she cedes to the United States the island of Porto Rico and other West Indian islands, the island of Guam in the Ladrones group, and the entire Philippine archipelago. It is stipulated that the United States shall pay to Spain twenty million dollars within three months after the ratification of the treaty, but the consideration of which this payment is to be made is not defined.

THE TREATY.
The text of the treaty negotiated at Paris, as cabled from Madrid, is generally accepted as a substantially correct version of the instrument.

Under the terms Spain renounces all right of sovereignty over Cuba, and she cedes to the United States the island of Porto Rico and other West Indian islands, the island of Guam in the Ladrones group, and the entire Philippine archipelago. It is stipulated that the United States shall pay to Spain twenty million dollars within three months after the ratification of the treaty, but the consideration of which this payment is to be made is not defined.

THE TREATY.
The text of the treaty negotiated at Paris, as cabled from Madrid, is generally accepted as a substantially correct version of the instrument.

Under the terms Spain renounces all right of sovereignty over Cuba, and she cedes to the United States the island of Porto Rico and other West Indian islands, the island of Guam in the Ladrones group, and the entire Philippine archipelago. It is stipulated that the United States shall pay to Spain twenty million dollars within three months after the ratification of the treaty, but the consideration of which this payment is to be made is not defined.

THE TREATY.
The text of the treaty negotiated at Paris, as cabled from Madrid, is generally accepted as a substantially correct version of the instrument.

Under the terms Spain renounces all right of sovereignty over Cuba, and she cedes to the United States the island of Porto Rico and other West Indian islands, the island of Guam in the Ladrones group, and the entire Philippine archipelago. It is stipulated that the United States shall pay to Spain twenty million dollars within three months after the ratification of the treaty, but the consideration of which this payment is to be made is not defined.

THE TREATY.
The text of the treaty negotiated at Paris, as cabled from Madrid, is generally accepted as a substantially correct version of the instrument.

Under the terms Spain renounces all right of sovereignty over Cuba, and she cedes to the United States the island of Porto Rico and other West Indian islands, the island of Guam in the Ladrones group, and the entire Philippine archipelago. It is stipulated that the United States shall pay to Spain twenty million dollars within three months after the ratification of the treaty, but the consideration of which this payment is to be made is not defined.

THE TREATY.
The text of the treaty negotiated at Paris, as cabled from Madrid, is generally accepted as a substantially correct version of the instrument.

Under the terms Spain renounces all right of sovereignty over Cuba, and she cedes to the United States the island of Porto Rico and other West Indian islands, the island of Guam in the Ladrones group, and the entire Philippine archipelago. It is stipulated that the United States shall pay to Spain twenty million dollars within three months after the ratification of the treaty, but the consideration of which this payment is to be made is not defined.

THE TREATY.
The text of the treaty negotiated at Paris, as cabled from Madrid, is generally accepted as a substantially correct version of the instrument.

The Quincy Patriot.
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1895.

Two Weeks' Temperature.
The noon temperature of the week taken at Pettengill's jewelry store, is compared below with that of last week and a year ago:

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Surprise Party.
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th, about 7 o'clock a party was seen to gather at the Quincy Adams depot. It was rather a large proportion and at first it was feared that dangerous motives prompted the meeting but the minds of the citizens in that vicinity were set at rest when they formed into a line and marched in an orderly manner to the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 62 Quincy street. The object of their search was found sitting by the stove in the person of Mr. Joseph B. Smith, and to say the least he was taken completely by surprise.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made by a bullet from which revolver, but who fired the fatal shot is a mystery that is puzzling the police and others.

Mysterious Death of Burglar.
At the undertaking rooms of John Hall is the dead body of an unknown burglar, who met his death from a wound in the right breast made

The Quincy Patriot,
Established in 1817.
PUBLISHED SATURDAY MORNING BY
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON,
[FORMERLY GREEN & PRESCOTT.]
Subscription Price, $2.50 per Year.
[A reduction of fifty cents will be made when paid one year in advance.]
Quincy Daily Ledger,
The Only Daily in the Only City in Norfolk County. Established in 1889.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per Year.
[A reduction of $1 will be made when paid one year in advance.]
ALSO PUBLISHED BY THE
Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1875.
OFFICE, No. 115 HANCOCK STREET.

JOHN W. McANARNEY,
COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW,
ROOM 1, DUREN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Saturdays, at the office of COTTER & LEXNEY, 200 Washington Street, Boston.
August 11. tf

W. W. JENNNESS
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
87 Milk St., Boston, Mass.
Quincy Office, Adams Bldg.,
Quincy, Mass., Room 2.
Office Hours: 10 A. M. to 5 P. M.; 9 to 10 A. M.; 5 to 6 P. M.
Quincy, May 26. tf

DR. EDWIN E. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
At Quincy—No. 20 CHESTNUT STREET,
Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
At Boston—HOTEL PELHAM—Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain with the
"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."
DEBHAM, QUINCY, NORWOOD.
At Quincy office, French's Building,
WEDNESDAYS.
At Dedham Woods and Tuesdays.
At Norwood Fridays and Saturdays.
July 28. tf

DR. CHAS. E. MONROE,
DENTIST.
Corner Newport and Grand View Avenues,
Wollaston.
Office Hours: 8 until 12 A. M., 1 until 5 P. M.
May 29. tf

DR. C. T. SHERMAN
DENTIST.
Rooms 5 and 6—Duren & Merrill's Block,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Office Hours: 8 to 12, 1 to 5.
Residence, Greenleaf street.

A. H. GILSON, D. D. S.,
SPECIALIST, ORTHODONTIA,
REMOVED TO
No. 7 Temple Place,
New Braintree Building, Boston.
Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.
RESIDENCE, LINDEN PLACE, QUINCY.

Teeth, $10.00 per Set.
Gold Filling, $1.50 to $2.00. Silver Filling,
$1.00. Cement Filling, 50 and 75 cts. Gold Crowns, $2.00. Cleanings, $1.00.
Money paid for extraction deducted from price of teeth to be made.
All work and materials the best.
C. B. UNDERWOOD, Dentist,
9 Spear St., Rear of Public Library,
Quincy, Nov. 1. tf

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.,
Practice Limited to the EYE and EAR.
633 Boylston Street, Boston.
Quincy—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 135 Hancock Street,
May 21. tf

IRA LITCHFIELD,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
PEARL STREET,
SOUTH QUINCY.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates given.
WORKING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
HANCOCK COURT, QUINCY, MASS.

JULIUS JOHNSON,
Carpenter, & Contractor
—AND—
BUILDER.
Plans and Specifications furnished and estimates
given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
NO. 64 CENTRE ST., QUINCY, MASS.
June 19. 1y

D. C. NELSON,
House, Sign and Carriage
PAINTING.
Estimates Furnished.
32 Atlantic Street, Atlantic.
June 12. tf

Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
No. 51 Hancock Street.
Constantly on hand a full assortment of
CASKETS, COFFINS,
ROBES AND HABITS.
Having had several years' experience in the Undertaking business, the subscriber hopes by strict attention to the wants of all callers to merit a share of patronage.

JOHN HALL,
Quincy, March 10. tf

W. E. BROWN,
UNDERTAKER,
Office and residence, corner of Canal and Mechanic streets.
Quincy, Feb. 6. tf

Lehigh Coal.

When we sell you Lehigh, we deliver what we sell.

C. PATCH & SON.

H. T. WHITMAN,
Civil Engineer
—AND—
SURVEYOR,
ADAMS BUILDING, QUINCY.
Boston Office, 12 to 2 P. M.
85 Devonshire Street.
Hours, 12 to 2 P. M. at the Real Estate in the City of Quincy can be found at my office, May 28. tf

PERRY LAWTON,
CIVIL ENGINEER
—AND—
SURVEYOR.
Savings Bank Building, Quincy.
May 7. tf

L. W. NASH,
WOLLASTON.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Office in New Shore Street under Newport Avenue.
LEON E. NASH, Agent.

MISS MARTHA J. BROOKS,
Pupil of Mrs. May,
Manicure, Chiropody, Hair Dressing
—AND—
FACE TREATMENTS.
Hours: 8 A. M. to 6 P. M., at Room 5, Savings Bank Building.
Oct. 29. tf

JENNIE HOCKING HUNT,
TEACHER OF
Organ, Piano and Harmony,
13 Bigelow Street, Quincy.
Organist and Chorister Bethany Church.
Quincy, Sept. 24. 3m

ROOTS AND SHOES
MADE AND REPAIRED.
Nathaniel Nightingale,
GRANITE STREET, QUINCY.

JOHN P. KEMP,
MACHINIST.
82 WATER STREET, SOUTH QUINCY.
Sept. 9. tf

DAVID BROWN,
HORSE SHOEING,
Carriage Work and General Jobbing.
ARLINGTON STREET, WOLLASTON.
Nov. 8. tf

J. J. KENILEY,
PLUMBER.
All orders promptly attended to at reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed.
NO. 9 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.
In office formerly occupied by the Citizen's
Gas Light Company.
P. O. Box 808. tf

E. M. LITCHFIELD,
HOUSE AND SIGN
PAINTING.
All orders in House and Sign Painting and all its branches will receive prompt attention.
RESIDENCE, QUINCY AVENUE.
All work executed in a workmanlike
manner.
March 12. tf

E. MENHINICK, CONTRACTOR.
HAYING, BURNING, BRANCHING, CUTTING, etc.
I respectfully solicit the patronage of the citizens, pledging myself to give prompt and thorough service to all who call on me, and to do all by the Oldest Excavating System. Orders may be sent to my residence, No. 10 South Walnut street.

S. SCAMMELL,
WHEELWRIGHT,
Carriage Builder
AND PAINTER.
ALSO HORSE SHOEING AND JOBBING
BY FIRST-CLASS WORKMEN.
All orders promptly attended to and faithfully
executed.
Thankful for past favors, a liberal share of
patronage is solicited.

Quincy Savings Bank,
New Savings Bank Building.
President, RUFERT F. CLAFIN.
Vice-President, EDWIN W. MARSH.
Treasurer and Secretary, CLARENCE BURGIN.
Board of Investment—RUFERT F. CLAFIN,
EDWIN W. MARSH, JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
ELIAS A. PERKINS.
BANK HOURS—From 9.30 to 12 A. M.,
except on Saturdays, when from 10 to 12 A. M.
Deposits placed on interest on the first Tuesday of January, April, July and October.
CONNECTED BY TELEPHONE.
Quincy, Jan. 11, 1896. tf

In this Building
is manufactured as high a grade of
Men's and Boys' Clothing
as it is possible to put together.
In quality of materials, in
"style," and in excellence of fit
and finish our clothing certainly is not surpassed anywhere.
Our workrooms are absolutely clean and are abundantly lighted. Danger of disease is thus entirely eliminated. We invite inspection, especially by women.
MACULLAR PARKER COMPANY,
400 Washington St.—BOSTON.—400 Washington St.

Watches,
$2.50 and Upward.
SOLID GOLD RINGS, $1 AND UP.
Shirt Waist Sets, Jeweled Buckles, Belts,
Pins, Chains, Charms, Pocket Books, etc.
Special Attention Paid to Repairing.

A. A. LINSOTT, JEWELER,
154 Hancock St., opp. Postoffice, Quincy.
Spectacles and Eye Glasses.

Shawmut Spring Water
IS THE WATER OF LIFE.
SOFT, PURE, SPARKLING, HEALTHFUL AND INVIGORATING.
Highly recommended by the Medical Profession for Medicinal and Drinking Purposes.
TRADE MARK.

Thousands of people testify to the purity and curative properties of this water.
It is clear, sparkling,
and of uniform temperature at all seasons of the year.
It is the safest and
best source of supply for
all domestic and drinking purposes.

Hundreds of an edited testimonials are evidence of its medicinal value and agreeable drinking qualities.
Delivered in any quantity, either in 5 gallon carboys at 5 cents per gallon, or closed cases containing 12 two-quart bottles at 60 cents per case.
Correspondence solicited. Address orders and correspondence to
F. J. FULLER, WEST QUINCY, MASS.

Incorporated 1825.
Norfolk Mutual Fire Ins. Co.,
DEDHAM, MASS.
STATEMENT, JANUARY 1, 1898.
Amount at Risk, $22,363,170.38
Cash Assets, 542,213.42
Total Liabilities, including re-insurance, 17,248.28
Amount of Cash Surplus, $69,730.58
Contingent Assets, 32,698.24
Total Available Assets, $102,428.82
This Company insures Buildings and Household Furniture only strictly on the mutual plan, and has never paid less than 50 per cent. dividend on every five-year policy that has expired
since its incorporation.
It is now paying dividends on one and two cent
policies, 50 per cent. on three-year policies, 50 per cent. on five-year policies, 75 per cent.
on ten-year policies.
ELIJAH BOWE, JR., Sec. and Treas.
HORACE B. SPEAR, Agent for Quincy.

ETNA INSURANCE CO.,
BARTFORD, CONN. Charter Perpetual.
Incorporated 1819.
Losses Paid in 79 Years, $1,125,621.50
JANUARY 1, 1898.
Cash Capital, $4,000,000.00
Reserve for Re-insurance (Fire), $1,177,107.24
Reserve for Liquidation (Fire), 202,500.17
Reserve for Other Claims, 188,013.11
Total Assets, 5,367,609.52
Total Liabilities, 4,457,729.56
Net Surplus, $909,880.98
John Hardwick & Co.,
45 Granite Street,
Agents for Quincy.

DORCHESTER
Mutual Fire Insurance Co.
Boston, Mass.
STANDING JANUARY 1, 1897.
Assets (Bonds, Stocks and Mortgage), $1,284,278.78
Premiums to date, 513,021.65
Amount available to pay losses, $875,257.13
Reinsurance, $200,000.00
Losses, 1,500.00
The Company has paid for losses to date, $1,779,188.57
Dividends returned to policy-holders, 69,837.13
This Company now pays the following Dividends:
On five-year Policies - 60 per cent.
On ten-year Policies - 75 per cent.
On all losses promptly adjusted and paid.
THOS. F. TEMPLE,
President and Treasurer.
W. D. C. CURTIS, Secretary.
Home Office, Neponset, Boston, Mass.

INCORPORATED 1825.
QUINCY
Mutual Fire Insurance Co.
INCORPORATED IN 1851.
COMMENCED BUSINESS IN 1851.
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, President.
WILLIAM H. FAY, Secretary.
CASH FUND JAN. 1, 1898, $613,375.72
SUPPLIES FOR RE-INSURANCE, $361,439.36
LOSSES PAID the past year, $43,125.40
DIVIDENDS PAID the past year, $70,897.29
GAIN IN SURPLUS the past year, $24,268.54
AND EVERY LOSS PAID IN FULL.
Amount at Risk, $34,070,566.00
TOTAL LIABILITIES, $251,936.36
Dividends Paid on Every Expiring Policy: 60 per cent. on 5 years, 40 per cent. on 3 years, and 20 per cent. on all others.
Quincy, Mass., 1898.

FREE
Every owner of glasses, or everybody who has trouble with their eyes, should read that we have a 2 to 3 of the best opticians in Boston, who are on duty at our establishment from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M. They will examine your eyes, and if by artificial light we charge you nothing for this, whether you buy glasses or not; should you require glasses we can furnish a very fine pair of gold, silver or steel-rimmed glasses, and they will be a fine relief to your eyes. If you are not satisfied, we will refund the money. This offer is for a limited season, call at once. 125 N. W.
HITCHCOCK, CO. 125 Washington St., Boston.

Rats Cleared
From Hotels, Dwellings, Stores, etc.
By the use of Trained Ferrets.
Place Examined free. Satisfaction guaranteed.
JOSEPH A. JONES & CO.,
Lynnwood Place, SOMERVILLE, MASS.
All orders will receive prompt attention.
April 30. tf

Poetry.

The Dressed Turkey.

One of the parish sent one morn—
A farmer kind and able—
A nice, fat turkey, raised on corn,
To grace the pastor's table.

The farmer's lad, yoked with the fowl,
And thus addressed the pastor:
"Dear me, if I ain't tired! Here is A gobble from my master."

The pastor said: "Thou shouldst not thus Present the flock to me;
Come, take my chair for me and act,
And I will act for thee."

The preacher's chair received the boy,
The fowl the pastor took—Went out with it and then came in
With plumes, and tale and look.

To his young pro tem, he said:
"Dear sir, my honored master
Presents this turkey, and his best Respects to you, his pastor."

"Good!" said the boy: "your master is
A gentleman of no mean sort,
My thanks to him, and for yourself
Here is a half a dollar!"

The pastor felt around his mouth
A most peculiar twitching
And to the gobble holding fast,
He "balled" for the kitchen.

He gave the turkey to the cook,
And came back in a minute.
Then took the youngsters hand and left
A half a dollar in it.

Miscellaneous.

For the Patriot.

Five Hours With a Wollaston Baby.

BY A. J. PRESTON.

It was one of those unseasonably warm days in October, the hands of our clock indicated six minutes past nine, I was seated at my desk at work on a "Prize story." A western magazine had offered a prize of one thousand dollars, for the best, and five hundred dollars for the second best story of not less than fifteen thousand words. I had decided today, as I was left alone in the house with only the baby, I would finish it while he had his forenoon nap; the plot was already worked out in my mind, and only the mechanical part, putting it on paper, remained to be done. Of course I expected to win the first prize, in fact, the "Princess" and I, have already planned many lovely and artistic improvements in our chateau, when the prize check, comes to hand.

"Princess" is my wife, being a King's daughter, the title is of course legiti-mate.

One improvement which I hope to accomplish, is an automatic "Catalpa" attached to the rear corner of the main house, this, I propose to have electrically connected with my sleeping room, so that in the "silent midnight watches," when the cats in the back yard, start up one of "Martin Luther's" chorals,
I can reach out on bed, press a button,
and, lo! the Catalpa will fire itself off, discharging sixteen stones the size of a man's fist, into the back yard, and fourteen, on the north side of the house.
I expect to defray the expense, by selling the patent to those, who go in for modern improvements.

The Princess finished fastening her gloves, and instead of a good-bye kiss, caressingly tapped the bald spot on my cranium, and said, "The baby will sleep until nearly twelve o'clock, and if he should wake, but he won't, you can warm some milk and give him, and mind he does not pick anything from the floor and choke himself.

The door gently closed, and I was alone. I turned to my writing with a sigh of satisfaction in the thought, that I had two and a half hours for solid quiet work.

I had been writing about fifteen minutes and was absorbed in my work, when suddenly and with no obvious cause, my inkstand quivered; I could not understand it, I squared myself, and as I was looking at the inkstand,
I stooped over and peered into the pigeon hole behind it, to see if a mouse had caused the mischief. As I did so, I received a sharp tap, behind my right ear. I turned, and beheld, the mystery was solved, for there stood Felix, the baby, only twenty-three months over from the "Happy land of Canaan."

In one hand he held a yard stick, the end of it was moist with ink, and I could feel a dab of ink behind my ear.
The other hand he held a bouquet of lilies; it was the primitive garment of the human race, before the process of evolution had culminated in "Plymouth Rock Pants." Not being familiar with the technique of primitive garments, I lay them in the waste basket.

A sudden fear seized me; he was chewing something, and I remembered his mother's warning about choking himself. I lifted him up on my lap and tried to ascertain what he was eating, but found my finger was too large, and his mouth too small to make connections. I took him under my arm and hunted up a button hook, and with it fished out a brass safety pin, and my costly Rhinestone diamond collar button, that had rolled under the bed last night.

Meanwhile Felix had sized up the situation, and knew as well as I did, that mother was gone, and he was left in charge of a novice. He sprang up in my lap, put his little fat arms about my neck and shouted "Yide! Yide! Ho-osee!" by which I knew he wanted me to perform a metempsychosis, transform myself into a horse, and crawl about the room on my hands and knees, with him on my back, whang-ing me over the head with a brush broom, as he was sometimes allowed to do on special occasions.

But I determined, in the words of a lovely country ballad, "It was not so to be." My impression is, that in some previous incarnation, perhaps ages ago, this little immortal soul, was either a horse jockey, or a hen; he is so fond of riding, and picking things from the floor and trying to eat them.

It has long been my theory, that mothers confuse themselves, two or three times a week, with the care and nurture and amusement of young children, and thus fail to teach them to rely upon their own resources, so I decided to let baby amuse himself for a couple of hours, while I finished my writing.

I took him to the kitchen, sat him down at the corner, and built a sort of "stump fence" around him, with chairs, clothes-horse, ironing board, etc., and filled in the chinks with hassocks, boxes, and other small furniture. Then I put into the "corral," some of my lap, ran and gave him
"Mother Hubbard," Captain Kidd, also a lion, an elephant, a stuffed cat, an India rubber frog, with this variety to select from, I was sure he would be quite entertained for at least two hours.

I went into the next room, and for space of an hour was not disturbed in my writing, and was much pleased at the success of my plan. I was debating in my mind which was best to give the hero of my story, early hair or a "pompadour cut," when a little shout from the baby interrupted me.
It flashed into my mind, "perhaps he had made a 'touch-down,' and was about the blasphemous end of a carpet tack, and possibly punctured a tire.
I hurried to investigate and found he had pulled a hassock from his barricade, and standing on it had managed to turn the knob, and open the closet door, and had entered therein.

He was standing on the hassock in his sparkling eyes, and was just about to drink the contents of a bottle of perfume which he had already taken nearly half a bottle of "Scott's Emulsion" not all internally however, as there was about three fluid ounces percolating down the front of his night dress.

His stockings were off, and one of his feet seemed not to be empty. I took soundings with my pen handle, and found nearly four inches of "Chili sauce" in the foot of it. The other was not to be found, but a month later, on Thanksgiving morning as the Princess was dishing some preserved ginger from one of those old fashioned Chinese jars, the missing stocking came to light. "Admiral Dewey" was sitting in a plate of sausage fat.

Captain Kidd, was plunged head first into a jar of pickles, and my patience was nearly exhausted when I found ginger from one of those old fashioned Chinese jars, the missing stocking
came to light. "Admiral Dewey" was sitting in a plate of sausage fat.

By the time I had things put to rights, it was train time but the Princess did not appear, and I concluded it would be useless to attempt to do anything but attend to the wants of the irrepressible infant. I had read somewhere that children develop a poetic impulse at a very early age, and thought I would try and cultivate the gift in Felix.

NEW SOUTH UNION STATION.

Boston now has one of the most magnificent depots in the United States, or anywhere in the world. It is nearly or quite completed and will be opened the coming week. For the above beautiful engraving we are indebted to the Boston Journal.

The bill that authorized the erection of the new terminal station passed the Massachusetts legislature early in 1894, and the labor of preparing the plans was immediately begun. These were approved by the mayor of the city, and by the railroad commissioners in December, and the work on the building and yards was at once commenced.

The station fronts on Summer and Cove streets, and is a corner overlooking Federal street at the intersection of the three thoroughfares. It is here the principal entrance. There is a frontage of 228 feet on the corner which describes the arc of a circle, and of this 92 feet are devoted to the entrance proper. On Cove street the building has a front of 320 feet and extends along Summer street for an equal distance. In addition to the main building there is on the Cove street side the baggage-room, which continues on to the train-house—350 feet—while on Summer street a similar two-story structure extends beyond the main building to Dorchester avenue. The train shed, with its tracks and platforms, lies between the two wings.

The main body of the building is five stories high, and the office room afforded will be in excess of what is at present required.

The general waiting-room is located in the central portion of the building at the head of the tracks, and looks out upon Summer street. It is 55 feet in width and has a length of 235 feet.
The lower end of the building is three stories high, and its ample window space is one of its most admirable features. At one side of the waiting room is the ticket office; the space it will occupy is 12 by 90 feet; it will have 24 windows. There will be a bureau of information, telephone and telegraph offices, and stairways leading down to the suburban train level, 17 feet below.

Beyond the waiting-room and about midway between the main entrance and Dorchester avenue is a wide passage, which leads directly from the street into the train shed. Beyond this again is the restaurant—this is 68 feet by 73 feet. There is another restaurant on the floor above for the use of employees exclusively. The kitchens, etc., are also in the second story.

In the way of conveniences for the handling of baggage and express matter, the new station is wonderfully well equipped. In the baggage rooms—there are two on the Cove street side and the other on Dorchester avenue—are the lifts to the suburban level and to the baggage and storage rooms.

On Cove street is the office entrance;
here are three elevators and a stairway which gives access to the second level of the office entrance and occupying a space 64 feet long and 42 feet wide, between it and the main passenger entrance—is the parcel room.

The train shed accommodates 28 tracks; they are surrounded on three sides by a broad platform. It is estimated that these 28 tracks will hold at least 250 coaches.

There are seven platforms the full length of the train house that will be used for the tracking of express matter and baggage. At the ends of platforms are elevators that connect with the passage leading under the tracks to the baggage-room. By this arrangement the tracks are kept out of the way of the passengers.

Suburban traffic will be handled quite independently of through traffic. This will be rendered possible by the use of the two train levels already alluded to.
All through trains will come in and depart from the train shed on tracks slightly raised above the level of the first floor, while the suburban trains will enter and leave in a grade 17 feet lower in other words, the suburban trains will use the basement, where the tracks form a loop.

Just what the capacity of the suburban service will be can be judged when it is said that the arrangement of tracks will make it possible to care for 2,000 trains in the course of a day of 10 hours, and to do this only two tracks would be required.

The tracks are divided into two groups at the Summer street end of the basement; they are separated by a wide passage, which leads directly from the street into the train shed. Beyond

I took down from the bookcase copy of "Xenophon's Anabasis," and read to him in the original Greek the following exquisite little poem.

"There was a young person in Chealse,
Who, in church time, sat down on a needle,
And having a thread attached to his head,
It was promptly pulled out by the needle."

"There was a young lady of Venice,
Used hand-balled eggs to play tennis,
When she died 'This is wrong,'
She replied, 'Go along!'"

The baby did not seem to appreciate the "classics" but interrupted me to ask for milk, and when I offered him some, he looked at me with indignant flashing eyes, and repudiated it with contumacious scorn, then slipped down from my lap, ran and gave his mother and put it on the stove; I had forgotten to warm the milk.

After he had been satisfied with a copious drink, I resolved to be firm with him, and said "Now, young man, you are going right to bed and have a good long nap, as he did not object,
I tucked him up snug in his crib, sat down in a rocking chair and gently crooned over, all the lullaby songs I had ever known; finally I fell into a doze myself, and was lost about half an hour.

When I awoke, all was still, and I crept softly up to the crib and listened to hear if he was breathing regularly.
I could hear no sound. I drew the cotton gently down from his head, and his head was not there, the crib was empty, evidently he had slipped down the back side and died.

To say that I was provoked, is a very mild statement, I was getting tired and nervous, and here was a fresh worry.
I searched through all the rooms, in the closets, under the tables, beds, and so forth, but no trace of him could I find.
I was just starting to go down cellar, when I heard a voice, way up in the air, shouting "Get out iv thet, ye young spalpane!" "Home wid ye, Bome wid ye!"

I glanced out of the front room window, a fat the top of a long ladder was a man with a hod of mortar on his shoulder. At the bottom was, Baby Felix. They are building a new house opposite us, a pen of mortar was mixed on the sidewalk, and in it with his night dress pulled up under his arms, baby was wading around aged ladies, presiding and puffing, striving pathetically to look serene and comfortable, as they windmill along to the station.

In conclusion, permit me to say to my masculine readers, if you wish to refine and purify your soul by the salutary discipline of patience; if you wish your spirit to soar up to those high plains of aesthetic spirituality where the sorid cares of earth shall fade from your consciousness like the vision of a dream; if you wish to stand with the triumphant feet on the mountain top of glorious achievement and have your soul in the radiant effluence of heroic self-denial, you can obtain all this experience by taking charge of an infant a few hours while the mother goes shopping, and so shall you qualify yourself to enter that blessed kingdom where "The Lion and the Lamb shall lay down together and a little child shall lead them."

A Christmas Legend.

Back in the middle centuries, so the story runs, there was a German bell-founder whose work was the wonder of Europe, so sweet was the tones of the bells he produced. But he himself was not satisfied with his work, and he resolved that he would produce one perfect pair of bells and then practice his art no more. For years he labored, casting, testing and recasting, until at last he had a chime whose

